Nothing that will satisfy them but another trip and a longer stay.

How He Came to "Set 'Em Up.

Lee Mayfield of the Louisville Courier is always a clever fellow no matter where you find him. We made mention last week of his being in town and of his visit to the Journal office and setting up the cigars to boys in the office. He said they were democratic cigars, but did not tell why so. But we have found out. Some time previous to the St. Louis convention, in conversing with Judge Travis regarding the probable nominee, Lee wagered a box of cigars with the Judge that Cleveland would be nominated and of course the Judge "called him." The Judge thought nothing more of the matter until the other day when Lee entered the County Judge's office with a box of cigars under his arm and paid the wager. Judge Travis did not feel disposed to accept the entire box so he divided the "winnings" with Lee. So considering them democratic cigars because they were won by a democrat, must have been Lee's reason for calling them such. Any way Lee has paid his bet and Judge Travis has enjoyed a number of good smokes at his expense.

Nicely Entertained.

The Platts-mouth Quartette spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Ex-Mayor Frank J. Morgan last evening. Mr. Morgan enjoyed their singing very much and the ladies and gentlemen composing the organization were elegantly entertained. We are informed that after this entertainment the Platts-mouth Quartette will be no more. One of the male members has been caught in the matrimonial noose and will soon make his home in Chicago. We are informed that some time this month one of the female members will be joined in wedlock with one of Platts-mouth's young gentlemen. And Miss Edna Marshall will go to Chicago for musical instruction. This organization has been the pride of Platts-mouth, and every man, woman and child will regret that they will perhaps never again hear this most excellent musical organization as a quartette.

Farewell Reception.

The G. A. R. post and Woman's Relief Corps tendered Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Todd a farewell reception at the post headquarters Tuesday evening. The evening was most enjoyably spent in social conversation and various other ways. Refreshments were served, which consisted of ice cream and cake. Mr. and Mrs. Todd have resided in this city for many years, and while their many friends regret their removal from Platts-mouth, they all wish them Godspeed in their new home. They departed yesterday for Denver, where they have purchased a residence at No. 637 Washington street. Aml was here with the pioneers, and he had become such a landmark that his friends were loth to give him up.

Wedded Bliss.

On Wednesday, August 24, Mr. Philip H. Tritsch and Miss Anna Myrtle Massie were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, in Omaha. The bride is a daughter of F. M. Massie of Mt. Pleasant precinct, and has been one of Cass county's most successful school teachers. The groom is one of our most industrious young farmers, and a son of Jacob Tritsch. Mr. Tritsch owns a fine farm east of Louisville where they will make their future home. While the wedding may have been a surprise to many of the friends, they will all join in with the Journal in wishing them long life attended by all the happiness imaginable.

Nellie Fuller, Denver.—"My face was full of pimples and blackheads. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea has driven them away. People hardly know me. I'm looking fine." 35 cents. Tea or tablets. Gering & Co.

The fact that the elevator and grain trust has already placed eighteen of their own number upon the legislative ticket, in the hope of carrying them through upon the popularity of Roosevelt and the further fact that Rufe Schneider, the "Mark Hanna of Nebraska," is making an effort to interest the national committee in the work of "redeeming Nebraska" some more, does not appear to be relished by the farmers who have been robbed by the elevator combine.

A report comes from Centerville, Iowa, that nearly all the Burlington shop employes at that place will be removed to Burlington and other points where the system has larger shops, that nothing will remain there but division headquarters, round house and small repair works. The order of removal takes effect after this week, and who can tell—maybe part of this force will come to Platts-mouth, as the shops here are the second largest on the system.

Westward the orb of glory takes its way, Wisconsin is the state, you hear everybody say, It's made itself famous by one great stride: Rocky Mountain Tea has made its name world wide.—Gering & Co.

Dr. Elster, Dentist, Waterman Block.

The New Revenue Law.

The farmers know that the revenue law was a railroad measure, passed by a railroad legislature, for the purpose of permitting corporations to escape paying their just proportion of taxes, while the poor devil makes up the deficit. They also know that it was the reckless extravagance of the republicans that called for the passage of such a bill. And when any man has the audacity to tell you that under this law your taxes are not raised, just tell them you prefer to wait until you see your next tax receipt to learn more about this matter. But the Journal's opinion is that every farmer in Cass county will find his taxes greatly increased when he pays them next time.

What's in a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for piles. For blind, bleeding, itching or protruding piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases, DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Very Busy.

A person visiting the county treasurer's office yesterday afternoon would have thought Billy and his efficient clerical force had their hands full. The office was crowded with people awaiting for a chance to pay taxes, and many could not remain to be waited upon. It is this way almost every day, and the boys have to hump themselves from the time they open until the closing hour.

Case Dismissed.

The defendant agreed to go back to his wife and child and pay the costs already accrued in this action, and County Attorney Root caused the action to be dismissed.

WENDEL HEIL.

A Power For Good.

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.
