The Plattsmouth Journal.

VOLUME XXIV.

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1904.

NUMBER 37

TART CURB-STONE JOSHINGS

Culled, Clipped, Penciled and Prepared for the Readers of the Journal.

"I think of years that forever have fled, Of follies, by others forgot: Of joys that have vanished and hopes dead. And of friendships that were and are not."

in about even this fall.

serious damage resulted. The season when the card clubs shuffle about is close at hand. The quickest way to enumerate your friends is to count your dollars. The bakers were almost as quick to catch on as the butchers were.

Haste is said to make waste, yet there are few hustlers in almshouses.

The hay fever victims will have to If you are a knocker by nature be charitable enough to pad your hammer.

tains. Hell is paved with good intentionscoonskin salary.

on the gridiron.

Money would be no object in this world if a man could get credit for his good intentions.

Don't expect to meet with success; you must get a hustle on yourself and south of the city, containing twentytry to overtake it.

wing of the chicken.

she doesn't need it.

The corn yield is not going to be powerful, but the quality promises to be better than last year.

Farmer Goodsill's getting deaf, And when he hears you say: "How is your sneezing getting, Ben?" Ben always answers: "Hay?"

You needn't expect the world to give years. you much of a show unless you are prepared to pay the price of admission.

The Lincoln preacher who threatens to strike unless his salary is reduced, evidently does not belong to the union.

painters' union.

is said to have a bright future before prove only temporary. him-just as if he could possibly have it anywhere else.

of a two-poundgirl. That is not much been for years, and as long as they to rejoice over, but then some towns "pull together" we may look for are easily made happy.

Whichever of two suitors a girl may chooses, when she has chosen, both thereafter seem to be doing all they can to make her regret her choice. In St. Louis they charge fourteen dollars for a hair cut, a shave and a shampoo. In Omaha you can get your entire appendix removed for that sum.

and geese, and the amateur sportsmen away, throwing her to the ground, in this vicinity are beginning to look where she lay unable to get up for county is so rich that some of the if she was injured or killed. The young ladies refuse to walk over fresh horse went home with the buggy and town at once. Auburn Herald. plowed ground for fear it will make Mr. Hartsook went in search of his their feet grow. .

something like this: "Then plow deep shot is the proper medicine for such conveying Mrs. Elsie Scott from Linwhile sluggards sleep and you will have unprincipled fellows as the one who coin to Pacific Junction to catch a corn to sell and keep." That saying is caused this accident.—Greenwood En- south bound K. C. train, was stopped exemplified to a considerable extent terprise. this year in a majority of the cornfields of Cass county.

Two young ladies in this town set out to win the same man and each entered the game upon a different plan. One put on fine garments to dazzle the eye, and the other for him baked an old-fashioned peach pie. The swell regular pasture, but grazes promiscu- he was remanded back to jail. ously on weeds and thistle. No matter what other papers he may read, the straight forward citizen always insists in having his home paper.

Quite a number of Plattsmouth peohome singing:

I've been to see the elephants,

The monkeys and giraffes.
I've been to see the durned old clowns.
An' had a hearty laugh:
I took the whole blamed outfit in.
From big show clean on down.
I will admit I'm reckless when
A great big show come aroun'.

How Do You Like It?

The total valuation of all Cass county property last year was $4,903,322 36. and the levy for state and county purposes was $2.45 on each $100.00 valuation, which produced a tax of $120,-131.38. The valuation of the same property for this year (1904) is $7,453,-The oyster and the school boy started | 437.86, and the levy for state and county taxes is $1.801, which will produce a A slight frost Tuesday night, but no tax of $134,236.40, or $14,105.02 in excess of last year on state and county alone, which does not include school tax, bond tax or special taxes.

BRIGHTER DAYS ARE AHEAD

Every Indication Points in that Much Desired Direction.

Plattsmouth, the Journal has never stand, was only partially insured. put in full time from now until frost. lost faith. During the past spring and The elevator was being cleaned out A DutyEvery Parent Owes to His Boys summer, many substantial improve- preparatory to having some repairs ments have been made in the city, made, and the general supposition is Some real estate men make a special- such as new residences put up, others that the building caught from sparks ty of transforming molehills into moun- repaired, business blocks renovated from a passing engine. ments thereabouts. Residence pro- damages. This month will about end the base perty is changing hands almost daily ball season. Then for glory and gore at good round figures that will come C. Bengen, who sold it about one year up with prices for such property in ago to the Jones Grana company, of other cities of similar size in the state Nebraska City, for $6,000. of Nebraska. Farm lands in close proximity to the city sold at all the way that the company contemplate refrom $85,00 to $100.00 per acre. Last building right away. week the old fair grounds property, five acres, was sold to George Brink-

The business men are more in har- perity through life. mony with each other in acting for Hastings is rejoicing over the arrival | the welfare of the city than they have Plattsmouth to go right onward and upward in the good work. Keep your with the thrifty of the thriftiest.

Too Careless.

Wednesday, some fellow in an automobile, going toward Lincoln, rode up behind Mrs. Ed Hartsook's buggy and The season is now open for ducks her horse became frightened and ran wife, whom he found lying beside the One of "Poor Richard's" sayings is road. A shot gun loaded with buck-

Welsh Bound Over.

Ak-Sar-Ben Carnival, Omaha.

Ten big days' merry-making. Opens September 28 and keeps it up until October 8. The Knights of Ak-Sarincluding Looping the Gap.

MYNARD ELEVATOR BURNED

Elevator at Mynard.

Between one and two o'clock last its contents.

The contents consisted of 1,400 bushels of wheat. There was a car of wheat at the chute where it had been loaded but not billed out. This car and contents were also burned. The company have full insurance on the That there is yet a bright future for grain, while the elevator, we under-and re-arranged generally, property A lot of lumber on a car near the cellent attendance. The first week is changed hands, and a general wide- elevator, intended for repairs on the mostly taken up in arranging and reand there is a grade crossing at every awake move on everybody. The Wat-building, was destroyed, and W. C. arranging for the comfort of both erman block recently sold for $12,000 Gillespie's grain office came very near teacher and scholar, and now that Marriage is certainly a failure when to a gentleman who has the will and following the elevator, but by hard this has all been accomplished the a man marries a sealskin woman on a the means to make many improve- work it was saved with some little work proper set in last Monday in

The elevator was formerly owned by

The Journal is reliably informed

Loses Another Daughter. season. The railroad shops are em- excellent young lady, who will prove a there is little room for the growth of ploying new men daily, and we are in- most worthy companion of the groom, idleness and vice. formed that one department could who also bears the reputation of a most | Let the parents work in hearty acfind employment for nearly one hun- excellent young man. The happy cord with the school board and teach-Of course it was some vinegar-visaged dred men. We never saw a railroad couple, after a short wedding trip, ers and our school, already one of the old bachelor who said that all women town but what had its ups and downs went to Omaha, where they will make best, will become a greater power for were eligible for membership in the to a certain extent-men turned off their future home, where the groom good in our community. for a few months-but as long as the has secured a very lucrative position. We often hear of a young man who shops remain in the town this will The Journal joins their many friends in wishing them happiness and pros-

Arrested and Discharged.

Sheriff Lawrence last Friday eve- river. It is the only river in the world

Continued Her Journey. Last Friday evening a special train here, the lady becoming, as she thought, too ill to travel farther. She stepped from the car and asked for a physician. John E. Welsh, the young fellow who and Dr. Livingston was summoned as was arrested on account of picking the quickly as possible. Mrs. Scott is pocket of William Leffer of Elmwood, afflicted with heart trouble, and on while on a traingoing to the state fair, the night previous she had by mistake a full account of which appeared in the taken an overdose of morphine. A liminary hearing last Tuesday before removing the drug from her stomach, did nothing but giggle and talk, the Judge Archer, and while the evidence and pronounced her well enough to against the prisoner seemed of a cir- make the journey. Soon after depart-We feel sorry for the man who does cumstantial nature, the Judge thought ing from the capital city she was taken not read his home paper. He is no they were sufficient to bind Welsh over very ill, and fearing the worst sought ing in this city over night continued bonnets to match. her trip Saturday morning. Mrs. Scott was accompanied by her daughter.

A Good Decision.

surance field.

Corn Crop and the Printer.

This is about the season of the year | The last issue of the Ashland Ga-The Jones Grain Company Lose Their astic individual will select the tallest tempting suicide by leaping into Salt in delegate convention at the court stalk of corn from his field, with three Creek. While walking along the house in Platismouth, on ears attached to it and then hie him- creek bank with his hand over his eyes self away to some printing office and in a dazed sort of way, he tumbled at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of Saturday morning the elevator at My- relate how he has 120 acres of just down the bank into the water. The nominating candidates for the follownard, the first station south of this such corn, that will "average three or steel gang of the B. & M. construction ing positions: four stocks to the hill." This is won-department was near by and Tom ered to be on fire, but at the time of derful, and the average farmer knows Donahue went to the man's rescue the discovery the fire had gained such how trutnful this statement is and and succeeded in pulling him out of headway that it was an utter impossi- how much of it to believe, but crop the water. The man was for a few reporters do not and the whole is her- moments a raving maniac, and fought | District.) alded to the markets to bear on the with the desperation of a tiger. It prices. Corn and other possessions took four men to overpower and hand-resentative convention, and to transact often look larger and greater in their cuff him. Officers Biggerstaff and such other business as may come before owner's eyes than they do in the eyes Parks and Amos Bricker and others the convention. The several precincts of others.

THE CITY PUBLIC SCHOOLS and Girls.

The fall term of school began one week ago last Tuesday with a most exproper style. It is always best to start the boy or girl promptly, but if it is lum. impossible to start them the first week or first month start them the second, but by all means when they do begin have them attend regularly. In many instances an education is all that parents can hope to leave their children and they should see that no opportunity is lost that this education may Our old German friend, J. H. Tams, be the best possible. It is a sad com-Some men's idea of a dutiful wife is low for $2,500. Several costly residences living two miles south of the city has maintary on our school system that of one that is satisfied with the gizzard or are now under contract, and will per- had another daughter captured in the the hundreds that are in the primary haps be ready for occupancy before matrimonial noise and carried away classes only a few graduate, and these After a woman has managed to se- real cold weather is upon us. Take it from his home. On Wednesday, Sep- are nearly alli girls. For this the parcure a position in society she imagines all in all, when you come to traverse tember 7th, 1904, Miss Mary Tams and ents are nearly entirely responsible. over Plattsmouth you will find the old Mr. Fred Rezner were united in mar- In some instances the boy has to quit town is holding its own amazingly riage at the home of the bride's par- before he finishes the course in order well. In fact the Journal believes ents, Rev. Barkman of this city officiat- to support the family, but all during that double the amount of money has ing. Quite a number of relatives and the school term boys are sitting on been expended in the way of building friends witnessed the ceremony, the streets in idleness who should be and other improvements that has been Among those in attendance from a disinvested in any season for several tance were Miss Sina Rezner, a sister to the jail and the police court is the in the plaintiff seeks to recover dam. He appeared in the title role of this of the groom, of Kirksville, Illinois, public school school, and while ideas Evidently Plattsmouth has been no and Misses Mary and Emma Grapen- and sentiments of sobriety, honesty place for the "sluggard sleep" the past geiser, of Omaha. The bride is a most and industry are being inculcated

The Raging Missouri.

Bob Burdette once gave his views of the Missouri river in the following manner:

"The dust blows out of the Missouri ning arrested a man on the street on where the dust blows in great columns suspicion of being implicated in the out of the river bed. The catfish come stealing of a team of horses in Cass up to the surface and sneeze. The county. The man gave the name of Missouri is composed of six parts sand anxious for him to run for county shoulder to the wheel of progress and Harry Thomson and said he was from and mud and four parts water. When Fremont. Sheriff Lawrence placed the wind blows it dries up the surface the fellow in jail and notified the sher- of the river and blows it away in clouds iff of Cass county. Sheriff McBride of of dust. It is just dreadful. The nat- nated and elected. There is no doubt Cass county came here Saturday after- ural color of the water is seal brown, noon to look at the suspected man. A but when it rains for two or three days official. brother-in-law of the man whose team and the river gets pretty wet, it was stolen was also here and looked at changes to a dark iron gray. A long him. He said that Thompson was not rain will make the river so thin that the man who is suspected of stealing it can easily be poured from one vessel the team, and the sheriff did not take to another, like a cocktail. When it tistics that 95 per cent of all such enafter the condition of their fire-arms. nearly an hour. The chaffeur passed him back to Cass county. Sheriff is ordinarily dry, however it has to be terprises are failures. Besides this It is claimed that the soil in Cass on without so much as stopping to see Lawrence discharged the fellow from stirred with a stick before you can many of them are not based on honesty custody Monday morning, and he left pour it out of anything. It has a cur- which is necessary for every business. largest acreage of sandbars to the business is Triner's American Elixir square inch that ever was planted. of Bitter Wine. Its base is honest, Steamboats run on the Missouri river. So do newspaper correspondents. But if the river is not fair to look upon, it | lected herbs, the best money can buy. has some of the grandest country on Its enormous sales are due to the mareither side of it that the sun ever velous cures effected by it in disease of shone on. How such a river ever came the stomach and intestines. It conto run through such a paradise is more than I can understand."

Mrs. J. Benson 212 South 16th, Omaha, Neb. Fall Journal of last week, was given his pre- physician of Lincoln had succeeded in coats for children, handsomest we've 6 months to 8 years; colors, brown, navy blue, tan, white, etc; fabrics, better than a man without a country. to the district court, which he did in medical aid here. Her condition was crushed velvet, etc. Step in and see cago, Ill. He is like a homeless cow that has no in the sum of $500. In default of which not found so serious, and after remain-

Do Not Be Imposed Upon.

persons. F. G. Fricke & Co.

Tried to Drown Himself.

siderable difficulty landed bim in the lows, to wit:

city jail. At first he was entirely mate and would only answer questions with in- | south Rend articulate sounds, but in the course of | Center a few minutes he gave his name as Avoca Beachly Burthouser, and said that he light Mile Grove had been working for August Thimgan, near South Bend- He was provided with dry clothing and finally ate some dinner. The county sheriff Third was called by telephone and took the man to Wahoo where he was examined by the insanity board, adjudged Third insane and taken by the sheriff to Lin- Fourth coln Saturday and placed in the asy-

The man was a German and said that he had been in this country only about a year. He could talk but very little English. He claimed be bad a brother, a farmer, living near Omaha. At Wahoo he gave his name as August Beachly. He was dark complexioned, full faced and of rather compact build. He had a moustache and wore a dirty suit consisting of blouse and overalls, and was about five feet tall.

Petition for Removal of Case.

A Rock-Ribbed Democrat.

Our good democratic friend, W. M. visitor Saturday, and, as is his custom and 25 cents. 'showed up" at the Journal office for a few moments-long enough to make the edito better off by several dollars. Mr. Moore is one of those dyed-in-thewool democrats whom it is always a pleasure to meet. His friends are commissioner, but Milt says he can't commissioner's office even if nomibut that he would make an excellent in gold mines, it being proven by sta- & Co. rent of twenty miles an hour, and the An example of a wonderful success in pure grape-wine, the best California produces, and its ingredients are setains no chemicals, no poisons. It strengthens, tones and rejuvinates the corduroy, zibeline, velvet, bear skin, Jos. Triner, 600 So. Ashland Ave, Chi-

Gold Mines.

To Our Democratic Friends.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated delegates to the county convention will was entirely cured by the use of One Honey and Tar as a throat and lung be held next Monday evening. It is Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The A new point of law has just been remedy, and on account of the great very essential that every democrat coughing and straining so weakened ple went to Omaha Monday to see the Ben never do things by halves. This raised by a decision rendered at Guth- merit and popularity of Foley's Honey who can possibly attend these primar- me that I ran down in weight from 148 Barnum & Bailey show, and so well year will be one continual surprise. rie Centre, Iowa, by Judge Gamble, to and Tar many imitations are offered les to do so. After you have selected to 92 pounds. I tried a number of rempleased were they that they returned The street parade has never been the effect that in case of loss by fire, for the genuine. Ask for Foley's your delegates will you be so kind as edies to no avail until I used One Minequalled. The carnival is only second the agent who wrote the policy is re- Honey and Tar and refuse any substi- to instruct your secretary to send the ute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this to St. Louis. Twenty splendid shows sponsible if the company fails to pay tute offered, as no other preparation names in to the Journal, that they wonderful remedy cured me entirely of on the Pike direct from St. Louis the loss. Agents will hereafter be a will give the same satisfaction. It is may appear in our issue of next Thurs- the cough, strengthened my lungs and Fair. A free show every 30 minutes little more careful about what com- mildly laxative. It contains no opiates day. If some kind friend will see that restored me to my normal weight, Low pany they hire to for service in the in- and is safest for children and delicate this is done they will confer a great health and strength." Sold by F. G. favor upon us.

Democratic County Convention.

The democratic electors of Cass counwhen the pompous and over enthusi- zette gives an account of a stranger at- ty, Nebraska, are hereby called to meet

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1904,

One State Senator.

Two Representatives.

One County Attorney.

One County Commissioner (Third

To select delegates to the Float Reptook the man in charge, and with con- are entitled to representation as fol-

Elght Mr. Attuenwood b. Nait Crept 6 Elmwood A Wesping Water Pro 3 Liberty. First Ward.

First Ward Plattsmouth City,

Total number of delegates: 130

It is requested that primaries be held at the usual voting places in the various precincts on Monday, September 19, 1904, at 7:30 p. m.

HENRY R. GERING, Chairman County Committee. M. A. BATES, Secretary.

"The Last Rose of Summer"

Parmele Theater, Monday, Sept. 19th. W. B. Patton, the peculiar commedian who has been so popular with our local theater-goers since his first A petition has been filed in the dis- appearance here in "The Minister's trict court, asking the removal of the Son" will be seen this season in his case wherein Edward Brantner is newest comedy. "The Last Rose of plaintiff and the C. B. & Q. R. R. is des Summer." Mr. Patton is one of the fendant, from the district court of few high-class comedians capable of Cass county to the U. S. district court writing his own plays. His first real ages to the amount of $35,000 for in- play over one thousand times from juries received in an accident at Paci- coast to coast, and has since written fie Junction several months since, "The Little Homestead", "A Sly Old while in the performance of his duty Fox", "Royal Rags", and his latest as switchman for said company. The effort is "The Last Rose of Summer" particulars of which are still fresh in which is pronounced by critics to be the minds of the readers of the Jour- the newest, brightest and best comedy seen in years. Nothing has been spared to make this a little better than the best, and local theater-goers will look forward to this as one of the real Moore, of Murdock, was a county seat treats of the season. Prices 75, 50, 35

The Stomach is the Man.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the spare the time to monkey with the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissues and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and We several times had occasion to cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all warn our readers from buying shares stomach troubles. Sold by F. F. Fricke

A New Elevator.

A special from Nebraska City under date of September 11th, says: "A. B. Wilson of the Jones Grain company last evening let the contract for the erection of a new $5,000 elevator at Mynard to take the place of the one belonging to the firm that burned Saturday morning. The contract calls for the completion of the elevator in thirty days."

A Cold Settled in His Kidneys.

A. J. Jennesse, 9201 Butler St., Chistomach, which then accepts all food cago, writes: "I am a switchman and readily. The nourishing part of the am out in all kinds of weather. I took food will be transformed into healthy, a cold which settled in my kidneys and rich blood and distributed throughout I was in bad shape. I tried several ever shown. They come in Russian the body. Whenever you need strength advertised remedies with no benefit, blouse and other pretty styles. Sizes, or appetite, Triner's American Elixir until I was recommended to try Foof Bitter Wine is indicated as the only ley's Kidney Cure. Two-thirds of a reliable medicine. At drugstores, bottle cured me." F. G. Fricke & Co.

From 148 to 92 Pounds.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, caus-Bear in mind that the democratic ing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gerprimaries for the purpose of selecting trude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who Fricke & Co.