Alvo
Special Correspondence.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Vincent returned Monday from a two weeks visit at the world's fair at St. Louis. During the storm last Friday night lightning struck the residence of E. Casey. Aside from knocking off some plastering and breaking a large mirror the damage was light. Fortunately no one was hurt. E. M. Stone attended the democratic convention at Plattsmouth Monday. While returning home from town last Friday, L. B. Appelman had his leg broken by his horse falling on him. He was about one-half mile from home. He managed some way to get on his horse again and ride home. Dr. Buchanan of Elmwood set the limb. E. D. Friend, while loading rock Monday, had one of his fingers badly mashed by a rock falling on it. Our meat market has changed hands again. This time W. E. Newkirk is proprietor. Will is a hustler, and we wish him success in his new enterprise. G. W. Curyea returned home Friday from the west. Dr. Muir and wife returned Wednesday from the world's fair. They will occupy Samuel Casner's house in the north part of town. Clyde Bayles is visiting at Lexington, Neb., this week. Mrs. Frank Walker of Lincoln is visiting friends in and about Alvo this week.

Murray
Special Correspondence.

Homer Miller, of Plattsmouth, spent Sunday with his best girl here. G. H. Manners spent Sunday afternoon in Union. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have returned from their trip to St. Louis. Misses Della and Jessie Neuman and Mae Fulton spent Sunday with the Vallerys, west of town. Mr. Ernest Carol and Miss Nellie Creamer spent Sunday at the home of Lincoln Creamer near Cedar Creek. Sam Pitman left for St. Louis on Tuesday morning. Ray Frans and Miss Cleo Applegate made a pleasant little call here Saturday evening. Mrs. V. A. Kennedy is on the sick list this week. Roy Young, of Lincoln, spent Sunday with his parents, F. M. Young Sr. and family. Miss Nellie Keenan, who has been spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. James Holmes, left for Omaha Tuesday night. The social given by the Presbyterian church Saturday evening was attended by a large crowd. The proceeds are to go to repair the church. Mr. Shultz of Plattsmouth began Monday morning to paint the church, and the new windows are expected to be here in a few days. Miss Myrtle Thacker is spending the week with Mrs. Nick Klarens. Mrs. Mary Young is enjoying a visit from her sister, of Pender, Neb. Quite a large number of Plattsmouth young folks attended the dance here Saturday night. Mr. Campbell, who was so seriously hurt in a runaway, was able to be taken home Wednesday of last week and is getting along nicely. Miss May Kinsmann of Plattsmouth spent Sunday here, the guest of the Burtons. Mrs. James Walker and daughter, Mrs. Gilmore, drove over to Plattsmouth one afternoon last week. The republican primary was a dumb founder at Murray. Shall the wrong doers be brought to bay by the people or must justice wait upon political trickery. Shall our primaries stand for equal opportunities, or for special privileges. Shall we cling to the rule of the people, or shall we embrace beneficent despotism. With calmness and confidence we await what the people's verdict will be.

Eagle

Charles Spahnle is building an addition to his house. Roy Ostran and wife left Wednesday morning for Kansas City. John Frohlich was unfortunate enough to lose a fine spring colt a few days ago. C. C. Becknell, a former resident of Alvo, has purchased a store near Spokane, Wash. Rudolph Umland is hauling material this week for an addition to his residence. A. L. McDonald had the front of his store painted, which improves the appearance considerably. Peter Opp and little daughter of Nehawka spent Sunday here with his son-in-law, R. Kettlehut and family. At the home of the groom's parents, in Eagle, on Wednesday evening, September 21, 1904, a quiet but impressive ceremony was performed uniting Mr. R. C. Wenzel and Miss Minnie Boehr in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. Haak of Bennet officiating. Only a few relatives and close friends were present. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding supper was served. These young people have resided in Eagle a number of years and are loved and respected by all. The groom is engaged in the grain and coal business. The bride is a modest and gentle young lady and loved by all her acquaintances. They have gone to housekeeping in the Heebner house in the north part of town, which Mr. Wenzel had all furnished for the reception of his bride.

Elmwood
From the Leader-Echo.

Roy Kirkpatrick of Nehawka relieved Station Agent Whitlow on Wednesday. Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. Ora Rush, Monday, September 19, 1904, a ten pound boy. Ollie Ward has rented the Ray Davis farm southeast of town for next year. Mr. Davis will move onto his father's place near Murray. Mrs. Brant has sold her residence property here to Henry Dimmitt, and with her son and daughter will move to Oklahoma this week. W. A. Swearingin and family were guests at the S. E. Greenslade home Wednesday evening. It will be good news to Mr. Swearingin's many friends here to learn that he has been transferred from Union to Plattsmouth, taking charge of his new office and moving to Plattsmouth this week. On Wednesday of last week, during the absence of his mother from the room, the baby girl of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Meachen overturned a glass of boiling jelly, the contents being spilled over the lower parts of its face and neck, burning it in a frightful manner. Dr. Bohannon was called and dressed the wound, and the little one is doing nicely at present. On last Monday evening at the home of Mr. Detman occurred what might have been a serious accident. Miss Lana Detman started the gasoline stove about supper time, and accidentally left the stopcock open. Before the generator became heated the gasoline ran out over the floor and caught fire, and when Miss Detman returned to the room it was to find everything about the stove in flames. She got a cloth and attempted to extinguish the flames, but was not able to do so, and was quite badly burned about one arm. Running outside she called to Mr. Comer, who was at work on the pump there. As usual Chief Comer was equal to the occasion and succeeded in carrying out the stove and extinguishing the flames, which no doubt saved the house and contents from being burned. Mr. Comer seems always to be where he is needed, and we are lucky to have a man that is equal to such emergencies at the head of our fire department. Crushed fruit of all kinds with ice cream soda, only 5c at Gering & Co.'s.
