A. L. Baker has decided to use brick in the erection of his new store room, instead of building a frame structure as was first planned on. When completed Mr. Baker will have one of the finest store rooms in our little town of which all may well feel proud.

Crede Harris, our assessor, is again making his annual rounds, looking after the people, endeavoring as near as possible to find out just how rich each and every one are. Mr. Harris has no favorites, all are treated alike. All he wants is simply a correct list, nothing more.

Harve Manners, our rustling telephone manager, has been in Union this week looking after the interests of the company in that locality. The recent fire in that village turned the exchange office, and Mr. Manners lost no time in getting on the ground to place things in order. In fact he was there before the fire had ceased burning.

While in conversation with one of our friends Tuesday afternoon we made inquiry about our good friend, J. T. Porter, thinking that he would be in town that day, when we were apprised of the fact that he was the father of fine twin babies—a boy and a girl, arriving at their home that morning. Mrs. Porter and the two little ones are doing nicely, and John is the happiest man in the precinct.

A school entertainment and ice cream supper was held at the church in Rock Bluffs Saturday night. A large crowd was in attendance, quite a number going over from this vicinity. All report a very pleasant evening. Those who attended from Murray were James Manners and Miss Marie Berger, Ernest Carroll and Miss Nellie Creamer, Howard Graves and Miss Eva Burton, Cecil Murphy and Miss Standish and Roy Chrisweisser.

Election of Officers.

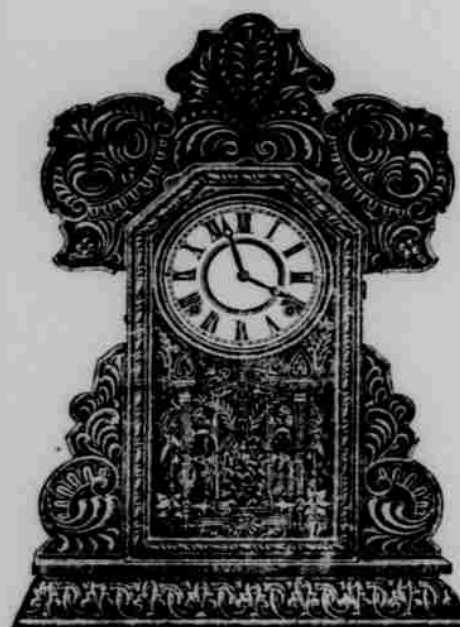

The stockholders of the Murray State bank held their annual election of officers on Tuesday last, which resulted in the election of the old officials, as follows: J. M. Stone, president; C. C. Parmele, vice-president and Chas. S. Stone, cashier. The directory remains the same also. Among the stock holders present were Mrs. Lucy L. Nutzman, D. C. West, J. M. Stone and Dr. J. A. Pollard, of Nehawka.

The Murray State bank is in a flourishing condition, and is recognized as one of the most reliable banking institutions in Cass county. Its affairs have been ably managed, and its steady growth and advancement in the financial world reflects great credit upon the efficient and genial cashier, Charles S. Stone. Long live the Murray State bank.

Miller—Edmunds.

On last Thursday afternoon at two o'clock occurred the wedding of Miss Lizzie Edmunds and Homer E. Miller, at the home of the bride's parents in Murray, Rev. Smith officiating. Miss Edmunds is a daughter of J. W. Edmunds, born and raised in Murray, where she has hosts of friends who have nothing but the best wishes for her future happiness. Mr. Miller has also been a resident of this community for years; his parents formerly lived here before going to Plainview, where they reside now. Homer is well liked by all who know him and all are unanimous in wishing him future happiness and success. The happy couple departed the following day for Plainview, Nebraska, where they will make their home, the groom engaging in the barber business.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
