Farm House Burned.

Last Friday morning the farm house on the Klepser place, now owned by Tom Wiles, burned. It is located three miles west of town and was occupied by Chas. Pittman. It caught fire, we learn, from some clothes near the pipe upstairs, and but few of the household goods were saved. Mrs. Pittman was the only one home at the time, but some corn shellers nearby hurried over and assisted as much as possible. The house contained about seven rooms, and was an old landmark.—Weeping Water Herald.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. ### A Surprise Party.

A joyous party of young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Poissal on Saturday night last to assist in a surprise party given in honor of their daughter, Miss Myrtle. Games were indulged in until a late hour, then, after refreshments, all departed for their homes feeling that it was good to be one of the chosen guests.

Those who were present to take part in the enjoyable event were: Byron Gordon, Earl Weldy, Johnnie Hall, Jesse Godwin, Earl Barclay, Milford Bates, Misses Birdie Gordon, Ethel Saffer, Mollie Godwin, Myrtle Hall, Laura Sachor, Edna Saffer and Opal Chandler of Havelock.

Young Wolves Captured.

While out hunting a few days since in the timber southeast of Union, G. G. Brinton and B. B. Everett came upon a den containing a litter of nine young wolves. After the capture of the little ones the boys waited patiently for some time for the return of the mother, but she evidently smelled a good-sized mouse and didn't return. The young ones were brought to the court house alive, which were viewed with considerable curiosity by many. Wolves in that vicinity have given the farmers considerable trouble by carrying off chickens. They are of the regular timber wolf species.

often ends in a sad accident. To heal accidental injuries, use Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "A deep wound in my foot, from an accident," writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. ### A Free Woman.

We learn from the Glenwood papers that Mrs. Linnie Roach, who was arrested some weeks ago on the charge of having caused the death of her child by poisoning, has been released from custody by the grand jury. The state chemist, who reported at the preliminary examination that he found strychnine in the pie the child had eaten, was before the grand jury and testified that such was not the case, and that he found no poison in the stomach of the child. Mrs. Roach is a former resident of Plattsmouth.

THE "GET RICH QUICK" SCHEME THAT FAILS.

The Supreme Court Says Mr. Polk Cannot Have Even an Attorney's Fee.

THE KUPKA HEIRS AT LAST GET JUSTICE.

The supreme court has affirmed the decision of the lower court in the matter of the Kupka heirs against C. S. Polk, but refused to allow the attorney fee in the sum of $2,500 which the lower court gave to Polk. Consequently the property taken from the Kupka heirs filched from them by a "Get Rich Quick" scheme is restored to them and Mr. Polk is out of pocket several thousand dollars and lots of "hot work" in scheming.

This decision will meet with the approval of every honest man in Cass County who is versant with the particulars surrounding the case. The Journal will have more regarding the matter next week. Decision rendered came under observation just as we go to press.

Orange Blossoms.

Dr. J. F. Paddelford and Miss Sampson were married at Bluffs, Iowa, on Friday, April 7. Dr. Paddelford is well known in county, having at one time taught school at College Hill, where he was his home with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Schlatter for two years. He is practicing his profession at Decatur, Neb., where he and his bride will at home to their friends after May 1. Dr. Paddelford's mother, we understand, still resides at Elmwood, where he was principally reared to manhood. The Journal joins the many friends of the doctor in wishing him and his wife happiness and prosperity.

After a short visit with friends, the Misses Doris and Jeanette Nelson returned again to their work in Miss Goehry's milliner establishment in Weeping Water.

At the meeting of the Cass County Medical association in Weeping Water, on Wednesday of last week, Dr. E. W. Cook of this city, was chosen president for the ensuing year. An honor worthily bestowed.
