Fifteenth Birthday.

On last Saturday evening, April 15, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Seybolt, living two miles northwest of town, gave a party in honor of their son Will's fifteenth birthday. Quite a number of the lad's young friends were invited, most all of whom were in attendance. The evening was spent in playing numerous parlor games, and at the usual hour, Mrs. Seybolt served a daintily prepared luncheon. At the proper hour all departed for home wishing Will many more such happy occasions. Following were those present: Lela Valley, Dula Valley, Nora Henton, Maggie Bengen, Martha Bengen, Bessie Brendel, Ella Thomason, Ruth Thomason, Lizzie Wheeler, Rena Gregory, Nellie Creamer, Gertrude Jenkins, Lucille Rice, Minnie Herren, Bertha Seybolt, Glenn Valley, Fred Beverage, Mr. Long, Sterling Emens, Earle Jenkins, Ernest Carroll, Wade Porter, Kell Rhoden, Jeff Brendel, Bennie Land, George Rhoden, Guile Rhoden, Louie Rice, Gold Rice, Ernest Thomason, John Durnoll, Glenn Wiles, Elbert Wiles, Glenn Rhoden, John Stone, Harry Massie, Omer Schlichtemier and Willie Seybolt.

Prof. Fowler finishes his school work in Murray this week, his department being closed Friday evening. The primary department, taught by Miss Carrie Allison, will be carried on for two months longer, the board thinking that the primary children have the opportunity of attending school two months longer than the older pupils. Mr. Fowler will return to his old home in Pacific Junction for a short visit, after which he will make more definite arrangements as to the future.

Miss Nettie Mast came near meeting with a very serious accident last Saturday evening. The young lady came to Murray, accompanied by her brother to attend the teachers' meeting. Her team was tied near the Jenkins store, and in starting for home they became frightened and were unmanageable by the young lady, suddenly turning the corner Miss Mast was thrown to the ground, striking her head and shoulders, and at first thought seriously injured, but no bones were broken, and other than a few bruises no injuries were received. The team was soon captured and simply a singletree broken.

The annual teachers' meeting for Section No. 9, was held in Murray last Saturday. The meeting was a very successful one, several very interesting papers being read. Those present from this section were the Misses Rusterholtz, Allison, Mast, Kennedy, and Mr. Fowler, all of whom had papers on the subject assigned. Miss Haines and Miss Turner were unable to be present but sent in their papers that were read at the meeting. Miss Anna Davis of Section No. 8, was the only visiting teacher. The teachers are taking considerable interest in these meetings and they are proving a great help to those who take such interest.
