

DR. PRICE'S CREAM
BAKING POWDER
makes home baking easy. Nothing can be substituted for it in making, quickly and perfectly, delicate hot biscuit, hot-breads, muffins, cake and pastry.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO., CHICAGO.

Elmwood

From the Leader-Echo.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Stubbendeck, Saturday, April 22.

J. A. Wright's little child was quite sick Tuesday evening, being threatened with pneumonia.

Louisa Sargent was granted a divorce from John Sargent at Lincoln Tuesday, upon the grounds of non-support.

L. R. Vakiner went to Snyder, Neb., Tuesday to attend the marriage of his sister, Minnie, to Mr. Alex Meyer, which occurred Wednesday.

James Durbin has received the contract for building a fine farm residence for Henry Stander, near South Bend. The house will be 16x36x16x42, two stories high, and work is to be commenced at once.

P. M. Trapp has purchased from Charles Ferguson the three lots lying just north of A. M. Ferguson's residence, consideration $400. We understand that Mr. Trapp will build a nice residence thereon this fall.

S. S. Johnson has let the contract for the erection of a fine residence on his property, just north of Mr. Feschenbeck's residence. The cottage will be 28x30x16x18, and is to be completed by the first of August.

F. G. Richardson and son, Berne, came down from Fremont Saturday evening with the remains of a little daughter that was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, but which lived but a short time, and was interred in the Elmwood cemetery Sunday morning.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the hearts, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores; 25c at F. G. Fricke & Co.'s drug store.

Weeping Water

From the Herald.

Rickard informs us that Arbor was celebrated last Saturday by Mrs. Ed Cole. They have a new boy to cultivate.

Mrs. Russell's condition has not changed materially the past few days but a gradual weakness seems to be taking place. She has shown great vitality.

J. J. Boom writes from Wellington, Colo., that he is very much alive, and the report that he was killed, which was published in the Louisville Courier, he wants corrected.

Mrs. Patterson and children from Iowa, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Welliver, here recently while her husband was getting things in shape in Ogden, N. D., left for their home Tuesday.

Hans Johnson's delivery team did a neat job of running last Friday afternoon. They chased around a block and turned the corners nicely, then darted in behind the store ready for Jimmy to deliver more orders.

Irene Thomas is another happy girl that has a pony. It is a little spotted fellow, and cute as can be.

The forepart of last week, J. D. Williams was summoned to Elk Point, South Dakota, to see his sister, Mrs. George Peck, who was seriously ill. He left there thinking she was much better, but on his arrival home received word that she had died.

Word was received last week from Los Gatos, California, of the death of Linus Fleming, a former resident of Weeping Water. We did not learn the date of the accident, but Mr. Fleming was struck by an electric car, and one leg broken, and also his neck. He was about 70 years old, and has made his home with Henry Fleming; notice of the latter's death appeared in the Herald a few months ago.

R. L. Latta, who is a mail clerk on the Rock Island railway, had a narrow escape from death last Friday afternoon. Just after leaving Lincoln on the west-bound flyer, they collided with a switch engine and both trains were a complete wreck. His mother at this place, received a letter from him in which he states that his miraculous escape was due to the fact that he was in a new car, and that he was only slightly injured about the legs.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at F. G. Fricke & Co.'s drug store; price 50c.

Union

From the Ledger.

Simon Gruber returned last Saturday from Kingfisher, Oklahoma, where he had been to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. F. Trow.

Mrs. H. E. Ruhman arrived yesterday morning from Dallas, Texas, being called here by the very critical condition Mr. Henry J. Davis.

The Ledger regrets very much to report that Henry J. Davis is in a very critical condition and that the chance for his recovery is considered very meager. This has been an unusually bad week for him, and he is gradually losing strength.

The hotel will change proprietors next Tuesday, three months sooner than was expected, Mr. Vyse having sold his lease to Mr. VanCleave, who bought the property subject to the lease which extended to August 1. Mr. Vyse has not yet decided definitely where he will locate.

Mrs. G. F. McNamee, Mrs. Winnie McNamee and Miss Ogareta McNamee departed on Wednesday morning for Sterling, Neb., to attend the wedding of Miss Stella Bailey, which took place Wednesday evening. The bride is a popular young lady well known in this village, having attended school here two years ago.

The burning of a chicken house yesterday forenoon at T. J. O'Day's south of town caused some excitement, but the loss was not great. Mr. O'Day's principal cause for mourning is the fact that he lost a lot of hatched and unhatched chickens that were in an incubator that burned, cooking the fowls too well done to serve for dinner or to give to a hungry newspaper man.

The switch board for the Union Telephone Co., arrived a few days ago and is being put in shape for business, the central office being at Dan Lynn's residence with Mrs. Lynn as operator. The territory east of town has many phones in operation, and poles have been set on into town, so it will be short work to connect them with central. Other locations will receive attention just as fast as they can be reached.

Louisville

From the Courier.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Neff, a boy, Tuesday, April 25.

Louisville is taking a boom this spring in the erection of new dwellings. An even half dozen are being erected at present.

The Courier is informed that Miss Bell, one of Louisville's best teachers, will resign her position here at the end of the present school year and will accept a better paying position in the schools at Scott's Bluff.

C. E. Noyes has platted a part of his farm adjoining town on the west and is willing to have it taken in as an addition to the village. As there will be a number of good residences erected the village should welcome the Noyes addition.

J. M. Hoover went to Omaha Tuesday to undergo treatment for appendicitis. He will probably have to submit to a surgical operation, S. W. Ball will go to the hospital next Monday and be operated on Tuesday for the same affliction.

In a letter received this morning from Mrs. S. L. Thomas, of Plattsmouth, but who has been spending the winter at Sacramento, California, she states that the weather is fine there, or about like mid-summer in Nebraska. She will remain there for some time.

A gang of men are here putting in the track leading to the clay banks west of town. Manager Hazen informs the Courier that he hopes to have everything in readiness to begin loading from the new clay banks within ten days. A large number of men will be employed.

Superintendent O'Brien, of the state fish hatcheries' is in town Wednesday. He states that extensive improvements are under way at the hatcheries this spring, that a number of new ponds will be built, cement walks put down and many other needed improvements made. Mr. O'Brien drove home by way of South Bend.

Do Not Be Imposed Upon.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. F. G. Fricke & Co.

Cleared for Action.

When the body is cleared for action by Dr. King's New Life Pills, you can tell it by the bloom of health on the cheeks, the brightness of the eyes, the firmness of the flesh and muscles, the buoyancy of the mind. Try them. At F. G. Fricke & Co.'s drug store, 25 cents.

Get SCOTT'S Emulsion

When you go to a drug store and ask for Scott's Emulsion you know what you want; the man knows you ought to have it. Don't be surprised, though, if you are offered something else. Wines, cordials, extracts, etc., of cod liver oil are plentiful but don't imagine you are getting cod liver oil when you take them. Every year for thirty years we've been increasing the sales of Scott's Emulsion. Why? Because it has always been better than any substitute for it.

Send for free sample

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists
409-415 First Street, New York
50c. and $1.00. All druggists

THE TRIUMPHS OF PE-RU-NA INCREASE.

Thousands of Unpublished Testimonials on File.

Thousands of Chronic Ailments of Women Cured Every Month.

Disguised Internal Catarrh the Enemy of Women.

Miss Della Stroebe, Rural Route No. 1, Appleton, Wis., writes: "For several years I was in a run-down condition, and I could find no relief from doctors nor medicines. 'I could not enjoy my meals and could not sleep at night. I had heavy dark circles about the eyes. 'My friends were much alarmed. I was advised to give Peruna a trial and to my joy I began to improve with the first bottle. After taking six bottles I felt completely cured. I cannot say too much for Peruna as a medicine for women in a run-down condition.'—Della Stroebe.

MISS DELLA STROEBE, Rural Route No. 1, APPLETON, WIS.

MR. E. M. MERALD, 128 W. 28th St., INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

Mrs. E. M. Merald, 128 W. 28th St., Indianapolis, Ind., member of A. D. Straight Circle of the Ladies of the G. A. R., writes: "I am to-day enjoying perfect health, thanks to Peruna. For nearly four years I suffered with ovarian troubles. 'The doctor insisted on an operation as the only chance to get well, but I had always dreaded an operation and strongly objected. 'My husband felt disheartened as well as I, and when a friendly druggist advised him to bring me a bottle of Peruna he did so, and I started to use it. 'In a short time my health began to increase, and my aches and pains diminished. Within eighteen weeks I was like another being, in splendid health. 'Words fail me when I try to tell you how glad and grateful I am.'—E. M. Merald.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

All correspondence held strictly confidential.

All correspondence held strictly confidential.

All correspondence held strictly confidential.

All correspondence held strictly confidential.

Nehawka

From the Register.

Chicken pox is getting in its work decorating the children.

James Deles Dernier is about to build an addition to his house three miles west of town.

J. A. Dysart has been exploring the wilds of Arkansas to his dissatisfaction we understand.

Everett Carroll is in the well business with his brother-in-law in southern Washington.

Grandpa McBride has been quite sick at Mrs. Reynolds' for some time, and his condition is quite serious and gradually growing weaker, being confined to his bed the greater portion of the time.

Jimmie Banning came down from Omaha Monday evening for a week's vacation, and a taste of his mother's famous cooking. If he don't go back dissatisfied with his boarding house we are much mistaken.

On last Monday Jacob Gruber passed the 75th milestone on his journey through life, and his children concluded they would properly observe it on the previous day, Easter Sunday, and make the occasion a general reunion of the family. The following sons-in-law with their wives assembled and took dinner with the aged couple: John Sharp and wife, Henry Hendricks, wife and family, Nick Klaurens, wife and family of Murray, Fred Nutzman and wife, Fred Burdick, wife and family, and a son, Henry Gruber. Very few can enjoy the company of as many children and grandchildren as did Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gruber on this Easter day. To add to the pleasure of the occasion William Liebold, the Nebraska City baker, and an old friend of the family, sent a fine, large cake, on which was worked in colored sugar "Jacob Gruber, 75 years old," in raised letters, to grace the well filled table. The Register hopes the old couple may be permitted to enjoy many more such happy occasions.

Juggling With Dynamite

Is no more dangerous than to neglect kidney disorders. Foley's Kidney Cure corrects irregularities and has cured many severe cases after other treatment has failed. It builds up the worn out tissues and restores health and vigor. "I was troubled with kidney complaint for about two years," writes A. H. Davis of Mt. Sterling, Ia., "but two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure effected a permanent cure. F. G. Fricke & Co.

Pe-ru-na, the Only Internal Systemic Catarrh Remedy Yet Devised.

Prominent Cases in Illustration.

Mrs. W. F. Hoffman, 601 North 6th street, Kansas City, Kans., writes: "For eight months I suffered with bearing down pains, dizziness, and wretched headaches. The doctors called it by different names, but all agreed that I had female trouble, which was really the cause of my illness. 'They prescribed for me, and I took their medicines, but kept getting worse, until a friend told me I would never get well until I took Peruna. 'Within a week after I started to take it I felt much better and I continued taking it for two months with almost marvelous results. 'I am without an ache or pain, feel ten years younger, and feel that I owe my life and happiness to Peruna.'—W. F. Hoffman.

MRS. W. F. HOFFMAN, 601 North 6th St., KANSAS CITY, KANS.

MRS. M. BRICKNER, 99 11th St., MILWAUKEE, WIS.

Mrs. M. Brickner, 99 11th street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes: "I have strong faith in the efficacy of Peruna to cure the ills peculiar to women. A short time ago I found my condition very serious. 'I had headaches, pains in the back and frequent dizzy spells, which grew worse every month. 'I tried two remedies before Peruna, and was pretty discouraged when I took the first dose; but my courage soon returned as I could see that I was being benefited, and in less than two months my health was restored.'—M. Brickner.

A reward of $10,000 has been deposited in the Market Exchange Bank, Columbus, Ohio, as a guarantee that the above testimonials are genuine; that we hold in our possession authentic letters certifying to the same. During many years' advertising we have never used, in part or in whole, a single spurious testimonial.

Every one of our testimonials are genuine and in the words of the one whose name is appended.

War on China and Queensware

THIS means just what we say. Every piece of Queensware in our large stock will be reduced to the original cost, and on many articles below cost. This line of goods must be moved, as we need the room. The prices we offer will certainly do it.

In Our Grocery

This Old Reliable store, as it always has done, stands ready to offer you the best values for the money. Our line is certainly one of the most complete to be found in Cass County.

H. M. Soennichsen.

Successor to Weckbach & Co. Plattsmouth, Neb.

Tutt's Grocery Store

Is the place to get everything fresh in the grocery line. Every article to be found here that any other grocer handles, and all at the lowest prices. Special bargains in China and Glassware. Also, odd pieces in Porcelain ware at your own prices. We have the goods you want, and everything at prices to suit. Give us a call.

E. S. Tutt, Bennett's Old Stand