Ralph Towle was down from South Omaha to spend Sunday with Plattsmouth friends.

I. S. White, one of Cass county's wealthy farmers, was up from Rock Bluffs Tuesday.

We would like to come across the fellow that predicted a dry planting season. So would some of the farmers.

The "Old Missou" has been on a "bust" for several days, but is not liable to get so unruly as to do any great damage.

Noel B. Rawls departed Tuesday afternoon for Burlington Junction, Nodaway county, Mo., where he expects to take treatment for rheumatism.

The gypsies took their departure Tuesday, going from here to Louisville. They behaved remarkably well while here, and we hear of nothing to the contrary.

The new firm of Fried & Harris will have their soda fountain in operation after today. So if you need an ice-cream soda, or a cool drink of soda without the cream, call on Fried & Harris.

F. J. Baronek came down from Omaha to spend Sunday with his relatives, previous to his departure for Ogden, Utah, where he enters the employ of the Union Pacific railroad.

Why suffer with spring tiredness, mean, cross feeling, no strength, no appetite? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and keep you well. 35 cents, tea or tablets. Gering & Co.

Wm. Wendt, of Louisville, and brother, Gust, of Murdock, were in the city Tuesday, and both called at these headquarters. While here the former renewed his faith in the Journal another year.

The old saying "that persons who had no business of their own have plenty of time to attend to other people's." Now is the time to join the Law and Order League if you have nothing else to do.

Did you ever hear of a Law and Order League doing anything good for any community? If so, point out the place. We have heard of them trying to do so, but in every instance they succeeded only in creating a turmoil in the community.

At the nineteenth annual meeting of the Nebraska branch of the Woman's Auxilliary of the Episcopal church in Omaha this week, Miss Barbara Gering of this city was elected treasurer. About one hundred delegates were present.

Sid Mackey of Reynolds, Nebraska, was in this city last week, and purchased of Chas. Hassen four head of full-blood Jersey cows, one heifer and one calf, which he shipped to his home. Mr. Mackey's wife was a former resident of this city.

Jas. A. Halmes and family of near Greenwood, were down to spend Sunday with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Halmes, previous to their departure for Germany. Monday, while enroute for the depot to take the train for home, he dropped in and renewed for the Journal another year.

Billions Bill was getting bloated, and his tongue was muchly coated. Patent "tonics" wouldn't cure him, Companies would not insure him. All his friends were badly frightened, but their spirits soon were lightened, for Bill said—and they believed him, EARLY RISER pills relieved him.

Sold by Gering & Co

The most excited man that has been in Plattsmouth for 10, these many years, was George L. Farley last Friday when the attending physician announced that he was the father of twin baby girls. It is said he could not reach the telephone too soon to advise the boys at the News office of his happy surprise. May the little ladies live to be a great comfort to Papa and Mama Farley as old age comes creeping along.

"Gut Heil," the favorite cigar

You always know what you are buying when you buy your wall per at Gering & Co.'s.

If you are a judge of a good smoke, try the "Acorns" 5 cent cigar and you will smoke no other.

Mrs. L. B. Underwood and Mrs. J. B. Holmes of Murray were Plattsmouth visitors yesterday, and pleasant callers at the Journal headquarters.

J. P. Keil and wife of Cedar Creek were county seat visitors Tuesday. We were pleased to see our old friend looking so remarkably well, considering his recent illness.

An elegant line of wall paper at Fried & Harris'. If they haven't got just what you want in stock, pick out what you like and it won't take them long to get it for you.

The painting season is on, and we want the Journal readers to know that the new firm of Fried & Harris have a fine line of paints and oils. Go and get their prices on these articles.

Victor Anderson, an employe in the brass foundry of the Burlington, is compelled to take a layoff on account of rheumatism, and contemplates going to Hot Springs, Arkansas, for treatment.

Don't let the children suffer. If they are fretful, peevish and cross, give them Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. The best baby tonic known. Strength and health follow its use. 35 cents. Gering & Co.

Col. H. C. McMaken is attending the state encampment of the G. A. R., at Grand Island this week as representative from McConihe post. Messdames P. C. Peterson and Newland are also attending the state meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps, in a like capacity.

Hon. Wm. Deles Dernier was in the city Monday on business with the county court, and made the Journal a brief call. Our friend Will does not belong on our side of the fence, but then he is a pretty nice fellow, just the same. We are always pleased to meet him.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Halmes departed today for Germany. They go direct to Wilhelm Schake, Humfeld Lippe, Detmold, where they will spend most of the time while in the Fatherland. Good luck to them. The Journal will visit them during their absence.

The premises of H. M. Marks, living west of Oreapolis, was surrounded by water Tuesday, and it was with considerable difficulty that the family was rescued and taken to a place of safety. Some stock was also drowned, and the corn all washed out. Mrs. Marks was ill in bed at the time. The farmers on the bottom lands have suffered seriously.

Dr. T. J. Todd was another man made very happy during the past week. All on account of a bouncing baby boy at his home. The little fellow put in his first appearance last Monday morning, and "Timothy" says he has the finest pair of lungs he ever heard, and can almost say "papa" already. Oh, that's a smart kid alright and as pretty as a "peach," for it looks just exactly like it's mamma.

Ex-Representative D. S. Snyder, of Johnson county, is being favorably mentioned for congressional honors on the fusion ticket. Mr. Snyder was the fusion candidate for float representative from Nemaha and Johnson counties at the last election and was defeated by the present incumbent, Hon. William Ernst.

Evidently, the News editor is afflicted with "girl on the brain," and is bound to have it that Henry Zuckweiller has a new baby girl at his house. To have them come double is almost enough to craze any ordinary man the extent of trying to make his readers believe that his neighbors are likewise afflicted. Henry denies the allegation, and says the "allegator" is badly mistaken in his charge.

The holding of a county mass convention saves the trouble of calling of precinct primaries, and time and trouble to those who generally have the matter in hand in the various localities. Let as many democrats as desire attend this convention, as it is very much desired that a full representation from this county be present. Hon. William J. Bryan, the peoples' favorite, will be present to address the convention. And this alone will be worth going to Lincoln to hear.

Fanger has the goods and also the prices to suit the times.

McMaken & Son have been appointed local agents for the Standard Oil Company.

Victor Anderson went to Lincoln yesterday to the sanitarium for treatment for rheumatism.

Reserve your seat for the class play early Monday morning. Lower floor 50 cents; balcony 35 cents.

Hon. W. J. Bryan will address the Congressional convention which meets in Lincoln, Thursday, June 15.

Call and see the new goods at Fanger's. He can suit anybody in Cass county, both in quality and prices.

M. Fanger has a few more of those lovely hats left—handsome enough to make the homeliest lady look pretty.

"The Glass of Fashion," the Senior class play, will be equal in every way to the one of last year. You must not miss it.

J. K. Donevan, chief clerk at Dovey's accompanied by his wife, departed for Creston last evening to attend the funeral of a friend.

Dr. G. W. Todd and wife came down from Omaha Sunday to spend the afternoon with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Todd.

If you heard the class play last year you will not miss it this year. Make your arrangements to be present and reserve your seats before they are all sold.

Make your arrangements, democrats, to attend the county mass convention at the court house in Plattsmouth on Saturday, June 3. Take a day off and come and mingle with us a short time.

M. Fanger's department store is headquarters for the latest patterns in summer dress goods. Don't buy your summer dresses until you have seen Fanger's goods.

M. Fanger's store is filled with the finest goods of every variety, and all you have to do is to drop in, make your wants known, and his accommodating clerks will do the rest.

Towns west of us are receiving a taste of what Plattsmouth suffered by the floods two and three years ago, and we know how to sympathize with Norfolk, Beatrice, Schuyler and other points.

Mrs. Martha R. Young has filed her petition in the district court asking for a divorce from Howard M. Young on the ground of cruelty and non-support. They were married in Youngsville, Ohio, in 1878.

William Jones, the young horse thief, who served a term in the pen for this county, and then a one year term from Lancaster county, has just been sent up from Andrew county, Mo., on a similar charge, for a term of two years.

Dr. D. R. Corley and little daughter, who came down Sunday evening for a visit with Mrs. M. Archer, the little one's grandmother, returned to Omaha yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Archer who will visit there a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Halmes departed today for Germany. They go direct to Wilhelm Schake, Humfeld Lippe, Detmold, where they will spend most of the time while in the Fatherland. Good luck to them. The Journal will visit them during their absence.

A Handsome Stool and Scarf with every instrument. These goods embrace leading factories of the world. Instruments of such world-wide reputation as the Knabe, Kimball, Sweetland, Hallet & Davis, Kiamch & Bach, Weser Bros., Cable, Nelson, Hospe, Cramer and many others, many of which have been on the market for almost three quarters of a century.

Our 30 consecutive years of piano business, combined with ample capital, enables us to contract for pianos in such quantities as to get the lowest possible figure, as well as take advantage of over production known as "surpluses" actually selling annually more instruments than the combined output of several small factories, as well as buying them at a much less figure than factories under limited facilities can make them.

Remember this sale will last only long enough to close out this car load of Pianos.

Misses Gass and Cummings, High school teachers, visited relatives in Glenwood, Iowa, over Sunday.

Miss Anna Oliver came in from Rock Springs, Wyo., Tuesday evening on a visit to relatives and friends.

Miss Edith Martin, a teacher in the Omaha schools, came down Saturday to spend Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Martin.

F. G. Fricke & Co., druggists, paint, and glass dealers. Agents for the Sherwin-Williams' Paints, and Heath-Milligan best prepared paints.

Nick Halmes, jr., and wife, of Weeping Water, were over to spend Sunday with his parents, previous to the departure of the old folks today for Germany, where they go to spend a couple of months.

A. B. Todd of Denver came in for a day or two Tuesday. Ami says he is feeling much better than when last here, and will soon be in shape to give any of his old Cass county friends successful tussle.

Frank Green and wife came in from Kearney, Neb., yesterday for a visit with Mr. Green's parents. Frank will return to Kearney Sunday, but Mrs. Green will visit here about two weeks. Frank still "holds the fort" as chief local reporter on the Hub, and is well pleased with his position.

Happily Wedded.

A very pretty, but quiet wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zuckweiller, in this city, last evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Emma Lutz, of Plattsmouth and Mr. A. Paul Roessner, were united in marriage. Rev. Ploetz, of the German Presbyterian church pronounced the words that made them one in the presence of a number of near relatives. After the ceremony an elegant repast was served, when the happy couple took their departure on the 10:28 train for Lincoln, their future home.

The bride was reared in this city, where she has hosts of friends who extend congratulations. She is a young lady admired by all who know her for her many excellent qualities. The groom is also well known in this city, and is at present employed as engineer on the Burlington, with headquarters at the capital city.

The Journal joins in with the friends of the newly wedded couple in wishing them a happy and prosperous career henceforth and forever.

Turners' Exhibition.

The Parmele theatre was crowded to its utmost capacity with admirers of the Plattsmouth turning society, and from all reports they were well paid for their trouble. The program was carried out to the letter in every particular. The music was all that could be desired, and much credit is bestowed upon Otto Wurl for the manner in which he has the several classes trained. The entertainment was not only well received by the large audience present, but there were many surprises in the acting that were decidedly beyond the expectations of many of those present.

George Heil, jr., of Louisville was in the city Tuesday.

Commencement Season.

The commencement exercises of the Plattsmouth High school will begin with the baccalaureate services at the Presbyterian church. Besides the sermon by Dr. Baird there will be some excellent numbers of music.

Tuesday evening the Senior class will present "The Glass of Fashion." Mrs. Dovey and daughter, Miss Ethel, have worked faithfully with these young people for over two months. The play is bound to be a success.

Thursday evening the commencement exercises will be held in the Parmele theatre. Judge Jessen will deliver the address, and the members of the class will furnish the remainder of the program. Our citizens should give each of these exercises a good hearing.

High Water at Louisville.

A special from Louisville, under date of May 16, says: The recent heavy rains have caused the Platte river to go out of its banks, and the entire bottoms west of town are under from one to three feet of water. Sunday evening the river rose very rapidly and one family living on the bottoms near the river were forced to leave their home for places of safety. The bottoms across the river in Sarpy county are also under water. No damage of any great extent has been reported yet.

Chauncey D. Shupp and Miss Ella Walker were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at the home of Dr. J. T. Baird, in this city yesterday afternoon, that gentleman pronouncing the words that made them one. After a sojourn over night in Plattsmouth the couple returned to Union, their home, this morning, apparently as happy as the birds in the forest after mating time. The Journal extends congratulations.
