Remember the date to which the M. W. A. picnic is postponed—Thursday, August 24.

Mrs. Frank Marler and son of Mynard went to Glenwood Saturday morning for a short visit.

Will Knoxen of Mynard was in the city Sunday. He says the agricultural outlook is most excellent.

Geo. Wood and wife are here from Louisville today. George says he did not come especially for the picnic.

C. W. Pitman, of Mt. Pleasant precinct, was in the city Tuesday on business and gave the Journal a call. He reports the farmers very busy in his neighborhood.

C. A. Rawls, Lawyer. Probate and general practice. Office of County Attorney.

A stalk of corn nearly eleven feet high is on exhibition in front of August Gorder's store. It came from the farm of Mary Gorder two miles south of town.

County Superintendent Wortman and Prof. E. L. Rouse Superintendent of the Plattsmouth schools went to Weeping Water Sunday where the teachers institute began Monday.

Prof. Ryan, principal of the Murdock schools, was in the city Saturday on business with County Superintendent Wortman. Mr. Ryan is a new man at the head of the Murdock schools.

W. H. Heil of the Pleasant View Stock Farm was in the city Monday. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Minnie, and Misses Katie and Ida, daughters of George and Wendell Heil.

The summer girl who parades the business streets with her sleeves rolled up to her elbows, would think she was disgraced for life if she was caught in the kitchen in such a predicament helping her mother wash the dishes.

Our friend Fred Patterson was up from his farm near Rock Bluffs Monday and brought with him a fine two-pound catfish, already dressed and prepared for the frying pan, which he presented to the editor. Mr. Patterson caught a whopper last week that weighed fifty-five pounds.

Mrs. George Freer, Miss Mamie Whalen and Mrs. C. W. Ellis came down from Omaha Sunday afternoon, the guests of Mrs. Perry Uterback. Mrs. Freer and Miss Whalen will remain until after the Woodmen picnic and Mrs. Ellis returned to Omaha today, from where she will go direct to Boise City, Idaho.

The Union Ledger says: "L. G. Todd, who was injured by being thrown from his buggy a week ago, has not been able to get up since the accident and his injuries are more serious than at first indicated. He has suffered very much the past few days, but it is hoped there will soon be a change for the better." The many friends of the old gentleman in this city and vicinity will regret to learn of this, and hope that his condition will not prove dangerous.

If people growl because we fail to give every scrap of news, such as the arrival or departure of friends visiting them, or of social affairs, or of the heaven-sent babies that visit their homes, the fault is chiefly their own, so long as they dodge around the corners and take no trouble to give the editor or reporter the information. We are not a mind reader or medium, and can not report news that does not come within our knowledge, but are obliged to get the most of news the same as a milkman gets his milk—by pumping.

In the county court the case of A. W. Neihart against the estate of Henry Hollenbeck was decided by Judge Travis on Friday. The nature of this was a claim by Neihart against the estate founded on a promissory note given by the deceased Hollenbeck, who was the father-in-law of claimant. The claim was vigorously contested on the alleged ground that the note was a forgery. Jesse Root represented the administrator and Hon. Wm. Deles Dernier and Judge Chapman represented the claimant. Judging from the decision of the court the battle proved a draw, the court entering a judgment of $263 upon a claim of $400.

"Gut Heil," the favorite cigar Dr. Marshall, Dentist, Coats' Block, F. M. Young, Jr., of Murray, was in town today.

John A. Clements, of Elmwood, was a visitor in town today.

J. P. Wood, justice of the peace of Louisville, was in the city today on business.

The "Havana Tag," the best 5c cigar on the market. Try one today and you will buy one.

Dr. Elster, Dentist, Waterman Block.

Miss Grace Fitzgerald returned this morning from Louisville, where she spent a month with her grandma.

Mrs. A. Lindner of Murray left Tuesday for Peoria, Ill., in response to a message notifying her of the illness of her uncle. She expects to stay at least three weeks.

H. E. Pankonin while in the city Wednesday gave the Journal a call, to renew his faith in the Old Reliable another year. Herman is a dyed-in-the-wool democrat and a great friend of the Journal.

D. O. DWYER, Attorney-at-Law Office in building east of court house, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

William Oliver, of near Mynard, was in town today, enroute to Detroit, Mich., and then to London, Canada, where he will attend an old settlers' reunion. He will be absent about three weeks.

"Give me five cents' worth of dog meat," said a small, barefooted boy in a tattered hat, coming into Hatt's store a few days ago. "Don't give me so much fat as you did before," he added, "because it made the old man sick."

Charley Graves of the Union Ledger and son, Harry, are among the disappointed in Plattsmouth today. But then Charley is always in line to "kill too birds with one stone," and put in his time advertising the Old Settlers' Reunion August 18 and 19.

Charley Banning and wife of Nehawka were in the city today, and while here our good friend called and renewed for the Journal to January 11, 1907. We were sorry to learn that he had sold out and contemplates moving from Cass county next spring.

The register of deeds reports the following for the month of July: Farm mortgages filed, 11; amount $32,950. Farm mortgages released, 11; amount $30,650. Town and city mortgages filed, 13; amount $21,007. Town and city mortgages released, 6; amount $15,963.

M. A. Dunfee, the gentleman who fell from the third floor of the Plattsmouth Hotel, three weeks ago yesterday morning, is able to get about on crutches, and he says if he keeps on improving at the present rate he will soon cast them aside and be his former self once more.

The traction engine becoming a farm necessity, therefore all bridges and culverts should be erected with a view of meeting the load that these machines place upon them. The accident which occurred to B. Dill, near Murray, recalls the fact that this is not the only accident that has occurred from weak bridges in Cass county.

Geo. Wood, cashier of the Bank of Commerce of Louisville and Fritz Wagner were down from that village Wednesday and took back Henry Bartel, who was brought here a week ago on a twenty day jail sentence for resisting an officer. He is released on condition that he will keep sober and go to work for Mr. Wagner.

News has been received here by Mrs. Mary Taylor of the recovery of the body of her nephew, Stanley Hageman. It will be remembered that he was drowned in the Republican river near Clifton, Kas., about three weeks ago, while log-riding. The young man was well known in this vicinity, having lived for years four miles west of town.

R. M. Shrader, son of Z. W. Shrader, of Mt. Pleasant precinct, has just returned from a ten day's visit to Traer, Kan., where he also went to look at the country. He called at this office and ordered the Journal sent to Floyd Harshman, son of George Harshman, of Avoca, who lives near Traer. Mr. Shrader is not very favorably impressed with that section of Kansas, and says he prefers to remain in good old Cass.

Man is a funny little cuss and hasn't long to stay, he flies around and makes a fuss and then he hies away. Some men imagine they are great and try to tear up jack, but each one meets the same old fate and trots the same old track. Great Caesar's dead and turned to clay, and so is Cicero, and Alexander's gone the way the rest of us must go. The sages, heroes, poets, all the men of wealth and worth into an open grave must fall and crumble back to earth. Then let's not join the mad affray, and struggle like the duce, and agonize our life away for really what's the use? Let's live and love and sing the while, and give to everyone a smile that cheers the hearts of men. And whether we are crowned with flowers or chilled with winter's snow, with happiness let's all the hours ere we turn up our toes.
