

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

Dr. Marshall, Dentist, guaranteed work.

H. C. Long was up from Murry on business Friday.

Smoke the Wurl Bros.' celebrated "Gut Heil" cigars.

W. F. Gillespie of Mynard was in Friday on business.

Henry Keil and Miss Alma Sprick went to Omaha Saturday.

Louis Thimman and wife of Murdock, were in the city Thursday.

Fred Kroehler, forman of the machine shops at Havelock, spent Sunday here.

Marion and Norman Dixon went to Elmwood Friday afternoon to visit for two weeks.

Born, Saturday, to Mr. and Mrs. A. Tschirren, a boy. All concerned are doing well.

Mrs. Dick Straight came down from Lincoln Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Jim Sage.

Dr. E. F. Brendel and Col. J. B. Seabolt, of Murray, passed through the city enroute for Omaha Saturday.

Albert Satchell and daughter, Mildred, left last Friday for Akron, Colo., where they will spend three weeks visiting with Will Fight.

G. M. Hild, of Eight Mile Grove precinct, took the train here Friday for Akron, Colo., where he will visit for a couple of weeks, and view the country.

Miss Lucy Laughlan and Will Laughlan returned to their home in Ashland Saturday, after several days visit with the family of S. H. Shoemaker.

The Mynard and Eight Mile Grove base ball teams met Monday and the result was a score of 23 to 13 in favor Mynard. This is the third game they have played and Mynard has won all of them.

Peter Smith and wife, living three miles southeast of Murray, were county seat visitors Friday. Miss Pearl Kniss, of Murray, came with them. Mr. Smith reports the corn crop booming in his vicinity.

D. T. Thacker, of Liberty precinct, was in Monday on business. This is Mr. Thacker's first visit to Plattsmouth for several years. He has been sick for sometime, and is yet very feeble. Mr. Thacker is among the pioneers of Cass county.

A. B. Todd arrived in the city from Denver Sunday. Mr. Todd was here just a few weeks ago, having come because of the death of Jacob Valley, Jr. He came on this occasion because of the serious illness of his cousin, L. G. Todd, of Union.

Charlie Cook, living south of town, was kicked by a horse Friday night. He entered the stable and placed his hand on the horse when the horse without any warning kicked him in the abdomen and right side. No bones were broken, but the flesh was severely bruised.

Miss Ida Pitz, who has been visiting here with her cousins, Julius and Miss Eda Pitz, for three months, departed last Thursday for her home in Manitowoc, Wisconsin. Julius and Miss Eda accompanied her as far as Omaha. Miss Ida made many warm friends while here by her genial social qualities, and the termination of her visit is much regretted.

It is very unfortunate that the Woodmen picnic should have been fixed on one of the gates of the street fair at Louisville. The first day of the fair comes on Thursday, August 24, but as we are to have but one day, it will cut but little ice with the first day at Louisville. Like county fairs—the first day is slimly attended anyway. We can all go up on Friday and Saturday.

"Gut Heil," the favorite cigar

Dr. Marshall, Dentist, Coats' Block.

E. J. Sullivan returned to Omaha this morning having spent the night at A. H. Smith.

Remember the date to which the M. W. A. picnic is postponed—Thursday, August 24.

The "Havana Tag," the best 5c cigar on the market. Try one today and you will buy one.

George A. Spangler and wife who have been here because of the illness of the former's father, Henry Spangler, returned to their home in Lincoln this morning.

Bill Noxen who farms the Dovey section south of Cullom, reports that he has just threshed 110 acres of oats which yielded 5,500 bushels or just 50 bushels per acre.

C. A. Rawls, Lawyer. Probate and general practice. Office of County Attorney.

Misses Elizabeth and Anna Hall went to Omaha this afternoon, where they will meet their mother, Mrs. S. E. Hall, who is returning from a visit in Tecumseh.

P. M. Meisinger was down from Cedar Creek Tuesday on business; he gave the Journal a very pleasant call, and while here he stated that he could not get along without the Evening Journal, consequently he subscribed for one year. Philip is one of the finest young men in Cass county, and is now clerking for Henry Baker at Cedar Creek.

C. S. Hadley, of Wausa, Neb., and brother E. E., of near Nehawka, were in this city today and called at the Journal headquarters. C. S. was called home on account of the dangerous illness of his father. Mr. Hadley moved to Knox county a year ago last spring, and desiring to keep posted on the local events at his old home ordered the Old Reliable sent to his address.

A supper from 6 to 8 p. m. will be given at the home of Mr. Shepherd's, 2 1/2 miles west of Plattsmouth on Friday evening, August 11. All who desire to attend from this city will be conveyed to and from the supper free of charge. All who wish to do so will please assemble at St. Paul's Lutheran church in this city, previous to the hour set for supper.

J. H. Snell, the Ashland miller, was in the city Monday on business, and in company of Prof. Wortman gave the Journal a pleasant call. Mr. Snell has lived in Ashland about forty years, and was one of the prime movers in having that corner (of then, Cass county) cut off and annexed to Saunders. Mr. Snell is a rock-ribbed democrat, and is well known to many of the pioneer settlers of Cass county.

Ben Dill, who went through a bridge south of Murray some time ago, was here Friday and called at the Journal office. Ben says he didn't know he was hurt at first, it all happened so quick. The wounds in his leg had healed sufficiently to allow him to get about slowly. His shoulder is giving him the greatest trouble, the ligaments being badly sprained. The engine has been taken out and repaired.

Joe Wiles, living three miles south of town had one of his fine driving horses seriously injured Friday by barbed wire. One of Mr. Wiles' employes drove the animal through a gap in the fence where the wire was down and the horses leg caught in the wire, making a terrible gash in one of the hind hocks. Dr. Barnes was called and had to take six stitches to close the wound. Pure carelessness on the part of the driver is in evidence.

Two men were disputing over their respective churches. Finally one called a neighbor who was passing and asked his opinion as to which was the only church in which to be saved. "Well," said he, "my son and I have hauled wheat to the same mill nigh onto forty years. Now there are two roads that lead from our place to the mill—one's the valley road, t'other takes over the hill. And never yet, friends, has the miller asked me which road I took, but he always asks: "Is your wheat good?"

The county institute just closed at Weeping Water is certainly a great big feather in Superintendent Wortman's cap. Last Saturday morning while going from Weeping Water to Lincoln, a Journal reporter overheard a number of teachers that had attended the institute commenting upon the professor's manner of conducting an institute. They all complimented him very highly in all his official acts, with the exception of one who thought "he was too strict," which objection is highly commendable by the people and everyone favorable to good schools.

Joseph Linhart was up from Union today.

Dr. F. L. McLeod, of Union, was in Plattsmouth today on business. Dr. McLeod is the county physician.

Sheriff McBride left this morning for Avoca to serve a warrant on W. H. Betts, charged with assault upon Mary E. Larson.

C. Bengen, of Mynard, left Tuesday afternoon for Peoria, Ill., in response to a telegram telling him of the serious illness of his brother Philip.

Miss Agnes Schrader returned to Cedar Creek Tuesday after a short visit at the home of Henry Slontz, Master Chris. Slontz accompanied her.

E. B. Shelley, representing the International Correspondence Schools, is at the Perkins house to enroll new students. He has some interesting samples of instruments with him.

Information came to the Journal direct from the office of the adjutant general that the site offered by Plattsmouth for the permanent government rifle range is the best offered or found so far.

D. O. DWYER, Attorney-at-Law Office in building east of court house, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

Mrs. A. H. Smith accompanied Mrs. E. J. Sullivan of Omaha, to her home this morning. The Sullivan's are camping at the cottage at Lake Manawa. Mrs. Smith will remain with them the rest of the week, and be joined by Mr. Smith next Saturday.

A. F. Seybert, of Cedar Creek, was down today to see Dr. Cook, and called and renewed for the Journal. Andy has an injured arm, caused from scalding, which renders him entirely unable to work. It is a very serious matter just at the present time when there is so much to do on the farm.

Chris Koehnke and Jack Murray came up from Murray yesterday where they have been busy with carpenter contract work. They are just finishing up on the Brown residence there. Next they will have the carpenter work on Col. Jenkins' business block, and also on the Jenkins farm residence west of town which will be begun in about ten days.

A supper will be given by St. Paul's Evangelical church from 6 to 8 p. m. next Friday evening at the home of Martin Steppart, 3 1/2 miles west of this city. All who desire to attend will be conveyed to and from the farm free of charge and the big supper will be only 25 cents. Those desiring to take advantage of this liberal offer please assemble at St. Paul's church previous to the hour set for the supper. It is a good chance for big parties of young people.

Mrs. John McNurlin and Mrs. C. N. Beverage returned from their visit to Virginia last Thursday. They have been absent six weeks, and report a most pleasant time among their many friends in the Old Dominion. The trip was most tiresome, but aside from that, they enjoyed the trip very much to and fro. Mr. McNurlin was notified of their arrival and came down on the Schuyler to meet Mrs. McNurlin. Mr. Beverage was also notified and he came in for Mrs. Beverage. Both wear a different appearance than the day they left—the smiles of both gentlemen reach from ear to ear.

Over in an Iowa town they have a mayor who is a trust-buster of the most approved and up-to-date type. Learning that preachers of the town had formed a combination on the marrying business, he announced that he would perform that service for all dwellers in the town free of charge in order to "bust" the trust. We don't know that there is any such trust in Plattsmouth, but if there is we would advise our good looking mayor to try a similar way of breaking it up. The only trouble is, he is a candidate for matrimony himself, and the question arises, in case of a failure to "bust the trust," he would be compelled to go away from home when he gets ready to get "spliced."

Mrs. H. D. Travis of Plattsmouth, Neb., who was visiting with the Fellows family for several days, returned Monday to Deadwood and Central City where she will remain a day or two before starting on her homeward journey. She will stop off at Hot Springs and Grand Island, Neb. This was Mrs. Travis' first trip to the Black Hills, and she was greatly impressed with the scenery and country in general, and particularly with Belle Fourche and its possibilities. Mrs. Travis is a writer of ability and at the request of the editors of two Plattsmouth dailies, she sent to one a letter descriptive of the Black Hills and to the other one describing Belle Fourche and the irrigation ditch project.—Belle Fourche Northwest Post.

A. J. Nushbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success."—F. G.

Peter Keil was down from Cedar Creek today.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Wagner came in from Havelock yesterday and will visit for a few days at the home of George Ballance.

Miss Gertrude Fassbender entertained Miss Lulu Guthman at dinner last evening. Miss Guthman will leave for St. Joe next Monday.

Home Chapter No. 189, will meet in special session tomorrow (Friday) evening at 8 p. m. Kattie Cummins, W. M., Florence White, secretary.

A. R. Brown left last evening for Rock Island, Ill., where he will make his home in future. He has been living for the past year with his son, E. P. Brown.

The Sunday school classes of Mrs. C. C. Parmelee and Miss Heisel will give an ice cream social at the home of J. M. Roberts next Thursday evening. Everybody come.

Mrs. Charles E. Chessot and two children left this morning for Snyder, Neb., where they will spend a week with relatives. Mr. Chessot accompanied them to Omaha.

Ice cream 10 cents at the social to be given by the ladies of St. John's Catholic church on the church lawn Tuesday evening, August 15. Proceeds for the benefit of the heating fund.

Our old friend, Adam Hild, of Eight Mile Grove precinct, was a caller at Journal headquarters Tuesday. Mr. H. is one of the wealthy German farmers of Cass county and a mighty nice old gentleman.

A notice came yesterday from A. Bannan, Jr., sheriff at Fremont asking the police to be on the lookout for a number of carpenters' tools which were stolen on the night of August 6, from the Fremont foundry.

Conveyances will leave St. Paul's Evangelical church as early as six p. m. and as late as eight p. m. tomorrow for the big supper at Martin Steppart's. It's a big chance and surely a "bargain." It will be moonlight, too.

Miss Freda Herold left on the afternoon train for Lincoln where she will take a position in a millinery store. She was accompanied by her niece, Ninnie Skinner, daughter of her sister, Mrs. W. R. Skinner. Minnie has been visiting here for the past two months.

J. H. Johnson was in the city Wednesday enroute to his home in Glenwood Iowa, from Murray, where he had been doing some house moving. Mr. Johnson has quite a reputation in this county for this business and has several other jobs for this season, among which is a large barn for Geo. Rhoden. He does his work well, and besides he is a nice, clever gentleman.

Henry Huckins and wife, of Lincoln, came down from the capital Tuesday morning to see how the old town was prospering. Mr. Huckins is editor of the Lincoln Herald, and was formerly a reporter on papers in this city. He still has a warm feeling for Plattsmouth and her newspapers. Mr. and Mrs. Huckins gave the Journal a pleasant call while here, and departed for Omaha on the afternoon passenger.

F. C. Weber went to Omaha this afternoon to see Consulting Engineer Warring of the gas plant.

Alex. Clifton, an old-time resident of Plattsmouth, and now boiler inspector at the Havelock shops, was shaking hands with friends in this city Tuesday and Wednesday. A few weeks ago Mr. Clifton was thrown from a car and received injuries from which he has not fully recovered, and came down to consult Dr. Livingston.

Judge Newell went to Wymore today on business connected with his stone crusher there.

Clay Conner and wife of Elmwood came in last Tuesday from Council Bluffs, where they had been visiting, and will visit Mrs. C.'s mother, in the northwest part of the city a few days. Mr. Conner had the misfortune to get kicked by a horse a short time since, and was compelled to cease his work of painting for a while.
