SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

An Old Citizen of Cass County Enjoys a Great Surprise.

T. L. Campbell was most agreeably surprised at his home, about four miles east of Murray, on Friday, August 4. His children and grand children were the instigators of the affair, and invited the friends and neighbors of the old gentleman to join them in celebrating his 75th anniversary in the beautiful grove, near his residence, where everything that heart could possibly wish was spread upon the tables. After dinner Mr. Campbell was presented with a fine rocker by those present. The good things spread upon this occasion were brought in by the neighbors, who have known Mr. Campbell for so many years. It was a most happy event for one who so justly deserved such.

Thomas L. Campbell has been a resident of Cass county for about fifty years, and his daily intercourse with those with whom he has been dealing, has been of such a nature as to merit the good will of all, and this recognition of his splendid and upright manhood is one to be proud of. May he live to enjoy many more returns of such pleasant affairs.

The following neighbors and friends were present:

Messrs and Mesdames H. S. Oldham, Jesse Rennard and family, D. M. Amick and daughter, Chas. Carroll, Chris Biel, B. E. Brendel, Frank Campbell and family, Chas. Chrisweiser and family, Bud Fitch, John Fitch and son, Frank Young, sr., Joe Campbell and son, James Holmes and son, Fred Bell and son, Pete Spader and family, Will Spitt, J. P. Brisben and son, Joe Sans and family, Justice Lillie, R. L. Fitch, Messrs W. A. Taylor and daughter and John Campbell and son; Mesdames Hutcherson and daughters, Underwood, Peter Campbell and family, Frank Moore and daughters, Sam Schwab and daughters, E. J. Good and daughter, Myra McDonald and daughters, Al Kennedy, Mont Robb, Chas. Creamer, Jeff Lewis and family, Geo. D. Shrader; Messrs Bob Fitch, Paul Clouse, Will Hutcherson, J. W. Polan; Misses Mabel Deering of Grand Island, Pearl O'Neil and Viola Young.

L. Rusterholtz and wife were Plattsmouth visitors last Saturday.

L. B. Underwood made a business trip to Omaha Wednesday evening.

Col. J. B. Seybolt and Dr. B. F. Brendel were Omaha visitors Saturday.

Mrs. James Loughridge returned home last Saturday from a few days visit with Plattsmouth.

Col. J. B. Seybolt has been quite sick for the past few weeks. He is suffering with stomach trouble.

Notice the prices that Chris Miller offers for your poultry. They are given in another column of this issue.

Joe Ambshire will depart this week for a few weeks' visit at his old home in Virginia, being called there by the sickness of his mother.

T. L. Green of Grand Island was in Murray this week, the guest of Miss Mabel Deering, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Underwood.

L. B. Underwood, our popular hardware dealer, is erecting a new impleshouse at the rear of his store. The increased stock carried by Mr. Underwood calls for more floor space.

H. C. Long returned home Thursday from his trip to Furnas county, where he owns a farm. He reports crops looking pretty good in that locality, but "not in it" with old Cass county.

W. H. McDaniel has finished the work of moving his store room to the north side of the street. He has a much better location and when all plans are carried out will be in better position to handle his rapidly increasing trade.

J. L. Long of Walnut, Iowa, is visiting his brother, H. C. Long, one and one-half miles west of town. Mr. Long is an old resident of this section living here for many years on the east side of the river, and delivering the products of his farm in Rock Bluffs in the winter season when the old Missouri was frozen over.

Little Walker Gilmore celebrated his third birthday Tuesday afternoon by inviting in quite a number of his little playmates to assist in making the occasion one of pleasure and enjoyment. Mrs. Gilmore prepared a lunch for the little folks, and among the many good things was the large three candle cake. Those present certainly had a fine time.

A Fishing Party.

James Holmes and wife, T. L. Green and Miss Mabel Deering, and L. B. Underwood and wife composed a jolly crowd that drove down to Rock Bluffs Sunday for a few hours fishing and boating in the Old Missouri, but they returned with the usual luck the average Murrayites meet with, and on Monday they decided to try it once more, and the same crowd with the exception of Mr. Underwood drove up to the Platte River, near Swallow Hill, where, if all reports are true, they struck it rich. Our friend, D. L. Amick, who furnished the rig for the occasion claims it will be many moons before he will get the fish scales removed from the carriage. Mr. Underwood claims to of had a fine breakfast of fresh cat fish the following morning, but of course he does not claim that Mrs. Underwood caught them. Miss Deering claims a portion of the glory for being able to return home with a goodly supply of the finny tribe, but we feel that we are safe in saying that Mr. Underwood caught them with a silver hook.

C. S. Stone was transacting business in Omaha Thursday.

Mrs. A. L. Baker was in Omaha Thursday of last week.

J. W. Valery was attending to some business matters in Plattsmouth Wednesday.

Mont Robb spent Sunday with his mother at the old home down in Otoe county.

Mrs. A. L. Baker and Mrs. Chas. Carroll were shopping in Plattsmouth Monday.

Wm. Philpot shipped two ears of cattle to South Omaha, Wednesday morning.

Mark White, from down near Rock Bluffs, was delivering corn in Murray Wednesday.

Chas. Ellington of Omaha, is visiting in Murray the guest of his sister, Mrs. Al Kennedy.

L. B. Underwood and wife and Miss Mabel Deering were Plattsmouth visitors Wednesday evening.

James Mannors, the genial R. F. D. mail carrier of route No. 4, was visiting friends in Union, Sunday.

Mrs. D. C. West, of Nehawka, is visiting this week at the home of her brother, R. B. Stone and family.

Remember the Royal Highlander's social at the home of Lloyd Gopen, Saturday evening. You are invited.

Miss Carrie Allison returned from Weeping Water last Friday, where she has been attending the county teachers' institute.

Uncle Henry Spangler, living north of town, is quite sick this week, suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism and kidney trouble.

Dr. Morseman returned to Omaha Tuesday evening. Dr. Morseman has been looking after Dr. Gilmore's practice for the past five weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kraeger, living up near Mynard, are the proud and happy parents of a bouncing baby boy, arriving at their home yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cole, living four miles southwest of town, are rejoicing this week over the arrival of a new baby boy at their house. Both mother and little one are doing nicely.

W. C. Brown and Chas. S. Stone attended the croquet party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. West at Nehawka, last Friday evening. The boys report a very pleasant time.

James M. Stone and son, Lester E., were transacting business in Murray last Thursday. Lester took the evening train for Omaha and from there will go to Tuscola, Mich., for a visit with relatives.

Tom Barnum, of Union, passed through here Wednesday morning enroute home. In conversation with Mr. Barnum he tells us he has spent the summer on his farm near Bone-steel, and after a few days' visit with home folks will return to that country.

Ben Dill, who was injured in the threshing machine accident a few days ago, seems to be improving very slowly. He was in town Wednesday and in conversation with him he tells us his shoulder seems to be the most seriously injured member, and at times he has no use of it at all.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore returned from his western trip Tuesday. The doctor tells a very interesting story of his five weeks sojourn on the Pacific slope. He spent three weeks at the home of his brother near Flora, Oregon, the balance of the time being spent in various cities of note, including a short stay in Portland attending the fair.

Mrs. D. J. Pitman, son Vance and daughter, Mrs. Glenn Perry, started today for Mrs. Pitman's old home in Corydon, Ind. They expect to be gone about thirty days.

Mrs. Mark White and mother, Mrs. I. S. White went over to Sidney, Iowa, Tuesday, to attend the chautauqua and visit a few days with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Hiatt.

Miss Bessie Brendel went to Avoca Wednesday for a few days' visit with her brother, Dr. J. W. Brendel. She will also visit a few days with her friend, Miss Eunice Ferguson, in Dunbar.

Mrs. C. E. Carroll entertained the Ladies' Missionary Society at her home last Saturday. Those present were: Mesdames Rennard, Walker, Berger, Wood, Thomason and Gilmore, and Miss Leona Sans. At the proper hour ice cream and cake was served, and the afternoon was very pleasantly spent.

An Awful Crime.

On the South Side of Chicago the body of an old lady, the mother of a well known American actress, was found in her apartments and it was thought that an awful crime had been committed there. Physicians pronounced that the old lady died of alcoholism. What a warning to those who still believe that stomach troubles can be cured by cheap "Stomach Bitters" made of raw spirit or wood alcohol. Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is the most reliable remedy for the stomach. It is made of pure grape-wine and imported herbs. Indicated in all disease marked with loss of appetite and loss of strength. It makes the blood pure and rich, the digestion perfect. In drug stores. Jos. Triner, 799 South Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

A New Cigar.

One of the finest cigars ever placed on the market is the "Eagle" manufactured by Herman Spies. This new brand contains the finest tobacco, seldom found in a cigar of much higher price. If you are a lover of a cool and refreshing smoke, the next cigar you call for should be an "Eagle." Manufactured and guaranteed by Herman Spies, and for sale by all dealers.

The police have received a postal from Mrs. C. A. Herbert of Fairbury asking them to look out for her boy who disappeared from his home about three weeks ago. She says the boy goes under the alias of William Webb. She gives a full description of him and asks the police to send word at once whether or not they can find him.

The Picnic Next Sunday.

The Plattsmouth Turnverein picnic which will be given next Sunday, August 13, in Holschuh's grove in the west end of the city, is now the topic of conversation. The park has been fixed up and makes an ideal place for a picnic. A good time is assured all who attend. Remember the day—Sunday, Aug. 13.

FIVE TO FOUR IS THE SCORE

The Elks Defeated by the Above Score at Weeping Water Yesterday Afternoon.

GAME HOTLY CONTESTED

The Elks Won't Do a Thing to Then When They Line Up on Plattsmouth Soil.

WERE DEFEATED BUT NOT VANQUISHED

Defeated but not vanquished. That was the state of the local Elks when the Weeping Water aggregation got through with them yesterday—5 to 4—that was the score. So near and yet so far. The second game dropped by the Elks this season and that by so close a score.

It may have been due to the grounds. The men of Weeping Water are good jumpers and a couple of ravines running across the diamond did not interfere with them at all. But, of course, the Elks were not used to that kind of grounds. Some claim that Schneider was corrupted by the political meeting just before the game, but to say so is not kind, inasmuch as he made one of the runs.

Mauzy had evidently formed a trust on runs. He made the first three of the Elks' four runs but took Schneider in as a partner allowing him to make the final score.

The game was opened by the Elks. In the first Mauzy knocked the leather to short stop and beat it to first. He stole second and third and reached home on the catcher's fumble. Weeping Water followed suit with one run in the first.

In the second neither side completed the circuit. In the third Mauzy made another score and then the men of Weeping Water covered that one score and went the Elks one better.

An unfortunate accident occurred in this inning. Ed Kennedy, a Weeping Water man, fell near second base and broke his knee cap. The fracture was extremely painful but Kennedy jumped up and hobbled on to third where he fell exhausted. A physician was hastily summoned and the injured man was removed and cared for. In this inning F. R. Ballance, who had been umpiring, threw up his job, being tired of the jeers and jibes of the spectators, and John Donelan, the banker, took his place.

The Weeping Water men made two more scores in the sixth and the Elks followed with a like number in the seventh, but they couldn't get up steam enough to make another run and the game closed in favor of Weeping Water.

A good double play was made in the sixth inning when Weeping Water had three men on bases. Presbrey stopped a fly, threw it to Kosek and Kosek to White on third, putting out two men.

Joe Fitzgerald, who accompanied the team, lost his hat which was lying in the bottom of the carriage, on the way down, but one of the carriages following picked up the chapeau and restored it to the chief in Weeping Water. Worse luck happened to Judge Billy Weber for he lost his coat on the way home and thus far no one has restored it to him.

The score by innings was as follows:
Elks.....1 0 1 0 0 2 0 0—4
Weeping Water...1 0 2 0 0 2 0 0—5
