The Plattsmouth Journal.

Overturned the Vehicle.

home Thursday night and had pro-household had retired-the exact hour

HOUSE

Two Ladies and Gentlemen Making

Pleasure Trip to the Gulf.

Tied up near Rocky Point, this side of the Burlington bridge, is what can truthfully be termed a modern house-

VOLUME XXV

PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 31, 1905.

NUMBER 35

TART CURB-STONE JOSHINGS CONVENTION AT ELMWOOD Culled, Clipped, Penciled and Prepared for ceeded but a few blocks from the busi-Democrats Will Nominate a County Ticket ness part of the city, when some unthe Readers of the Journal. scrupulous whelp, coming from an op-If a kindness has been shown Tuesday, September 19th. Pass it on Let it travel and be known. posite direction, ran into them, over-Pass it on og along and feel you're glad. Sobling in this being sad – f you get some coin that's had – Pass it on! 202 DELEGATES TO SELECT

He who goes on an occasional spree is better off.

It is easier to float a rumor than it is to sink the truth.

About the hardest crop to raise on a farm is the children.

Loafers believe in acquring their daily bread a loaf at a time.

Instead of trying to kill two birds with one stone use a shotgun.

A wicked man's frown is less dangerous than the smile of a hypocrite.

It's a good thing some people are not as good as they pretend to be.

A theory is an impracticable plan of doing something that is impossible.

There is more or less envy in the makeup of every man and woman on earth.

When you see a man holding up a post the post must be loose or the man tight.

A woman would rather have a hat with one wing than be an angel and have two.

There are traces of greatness in all men, but the majority manage to kick over the traces.

Try letting other people's affairs alone and you will have more time to devote to your own.

Our idea of a pleasing conversationalist is one who possesses the faculty of making a long story short.

More people would avoid getting into the fire if they had sense enough to keep out of the frying pan.

You wouldn't know some people had turning the spring wagon and spilled did not stop to even see whether they had hurt any one or not. The Ratio Fixed on the Basis of One Dele- SNEAK THIEVES AT WORK 8,000 gate for Every Ten Votes Cast for George Enter the Home of H. Dill on Washington W. Berge or Fraction Thereof. Ave and Make Way With $12 or $15 .. MEETING OF DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE Sometime last evening, after all the not known-some sneak thief entered Pursuant to the call of the chairman, the democratic central commit-$12.00 or $15.00 in cash, all the old gentee met at the office of D. O. Dwyer tleman happened to have in his trowyesterday afternoon at half-past one sers at the time. o'clock, to fix time and place for holding the county convention to nominate candidates for the various county offices to be elected at the November election.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, M. A. Bates, and H. R. Gering was elected secretary. The roll of precincts was called and the folowing members answered, as follows: South Bend-Oscar W. Zaar. Center-John Tighe.

Eight Mile Grove-Chas. Reihart. Liberty-W. B. Banning. Plattsmouth-Geo. W. Snyder. Weeping Water-A. J. Box. Louisville-Herman Pankonin. Mt. Pleasant-Frank Massie. West Rock Bluffs-Geo. H. Manners. Stove Creek-George Carnahan. Salt Creek-B. F. Laughlin. Elmwood-George W. Towle.

Plattsmouth City-H. R. Gering and boat. The parties who have been W. K. Fox.

them out. The meanest of all is, they The Grandest. Most Glorious and Interesting Event in the History of Plattsmouth.

10,000 PEOPLE The Woodmen Did Themselves Proud and Everybody Went Home Happy.

the home of A. Dill and secured some GOOD ORDER REIGNED SUPREME them himself.

The prize offered to the camp having the largest per cent in attendance as usual, never dreaming that he lowering clouds in the early hours of was not claimed as there was really no should receive such a call, and slept the morning made some of our people way of ascertaining the fact, but it is through the whole proceedings. The uneasy for fear a repetition of the believed by many that Mynard would Robert Sherwood and son won the decided to leave trowsers in the yard. date. But as the hours flew by the prize for the most appropriately The police were notified this morn- clouds began to get thinner, until Old dressed window. Many of our business men deserve great credit for the the workings of the order. Mr. Talbot is a good talker and no one can possibly interest taken along this line. All of which were heartily approved by the alive with people, and still more com- judges and after close examination of BOAT ing from every section of the county each and every one they decided that hour the special train from Omaha most appropriate and the firm was The Marriage of Guy D. McMaken and

In the Senior Foresters' competitive B. & M. depot by the Bohemian city drill, consisting of teams having won a band and members of the local Wood- prize at national encampments, award- CEREMONY AT THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH. men Camp, and the arrivals marched ed as follows: 1st-$50, Lodge No. direct to the Chicago avenue ball 120 Omaha, 971 points. 2nd-$30, Beach here two or three days and expect to grounds where everything had been Camp, Omaha, 932 points. 2nd After taking several votes Elmwood received a majority and was declared as the place for holding said conven-tains a week or ten days longer. The names of the gentlemen and ladies are Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hart-tains a data and Mrs. C. A. Hart-tains and M

Abmanson third.

Mabel Peterson 3rd.

J. H. Killion 3rd.

age

Camp, 3rd.

ent, Head Consul A. R. Talbot, was many Omahans wanted to stay longer. the principal and most interesting ad-"Plattsmouth is a good town to come dress, and was listened to with eager to when you want a good time," was attention, not only by members of the the expression of more than one last night

The management of the Log Rolling leserve great credit for the manner in which everything pertaining to the be better posted on "Woodcraft" than celebration was conducted.

Mayor Gering and his police force After the dinner hour then came the came in for their share of credit for amusements, and among the most inthe splendid order kept. teresting was the Plattsmouth turners'

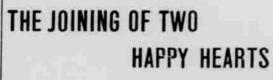

Exceedingly good behavior on the exhibition, which always catches the eyes of the most appreciative. Then grounds is the verdict of yesterday's followed an exhibition drill of Royal celebration.

Neighbors team of Pansy Camp No. The people certainly had a variety 10, which is claimed to be the finest of amusements. When they got tired drill team in the state. And many at the park they could change to the were the expressions that if there were street fair. any better they would like to see

The man who had an opportunity to gaze upon the young ladies yesterday could easily decide that Cass county Following were the prizes offered can outrank any county in Nebraska for good looking girls.

> Plattsmouth always draws a crowd when she wants to do something nice. Everybody in town hopes the Woodmen will come again next year.

Chief of Police Fitzgerald looked like an army general on his charger getting ready for battle.

Miss Minnie A. Peterson

A wedding brilliant with beauty and overflowing with joy was celebrated

Yesterday was unquestionably the biggest day that Plattsmouth has and the names of winners:

Upon retiring Mr. Dill placed his enjoyed in many years. The small trowsers upon a chair at the bedside sprinkle the night before and the party entered through a window and same kind of weather that occasioned have won with hands down. made way with trowsers and all, but the postponement of the event to this ing, but as yet no clue has been found Sol lit up the eastern horizon and all that will lead to the detection of the indications of rain disappeared. By 10 o'clock the Main street was and from over the river. About this the above mentioned display was the a arrived with eight heavily laden awarded accordingly. coaches. This train was met at the ever been on earth if you didn't acci dently stumble on their tombstones.

When a woman goes shopping it takes her all afternoon; when she goes buying it takes her only a few minutes.

A society woman says that men probably quit courting their wives because other men do it so much more nicely.

Yes, the world may owe you a living, MARRIED but you will starve to death if you sit down and wait for it to come around and settle.

It certainly does try a girl's nerve when she braces herself to receive a shock of a proposal and the shock fails to materialize.

he doesn't want.

not an angel is to let her marry him. About the first year will do the work.

make money than it is to make it yourself. But few men who attend strictly to their own business dies 'from overwork.

than before the street carnival, and it | with the three sisters. didn't take all the $115, received from the company to do it either.

pot full of liquid rainbows, and even now claimed on behaif of the three description."

it reminds me of marriage." she added. | Daniel and Catherine Rieger. "First of the diamond, when they are when the men go out, and finally the question as to the descent of the prodifficulty in getting home." Then he perty .- Lincoln News. sat and thought and thought.

Just turn the town over to a few to give these fellows absolute control a per cent.

of it. It would only be a question of time until the sheriff would sell half Don't forget to call on J. P. Faiter shop and begins the final invoice. In Royal Neighbors," which was very of the property in town for taxes. The before purchasing a farm, as he has other words, it has got both hell and entertaining, and especially instruc- crowd.

mous vote the chairman was authoriz- trip. ed to issue the following call:

THREE SISTERS

Supreme Court Records Disclose Case of Man Who Married Three of Same Family.

The supreme court records in the the boat where they have sleeping A man might give his wife more case of Yoesl et al. vs. Rieger, et al, apartments and fine kitchen furniture so much of it on things for him that for sisters in the same family. Daniel meal. Rieger, now deceased, whose estate is who were sisters. The controversy the local artist.

It is claimed on behalf of the three one of the fortunate saved. minor children of Catherine Yoesel

A confirmed old bachelor of this city Rieger that they are entitled not only says: "While other cities, towns and to the one-seventh of the Yoesel estate villages are singing the rosetinted accruing to their mother as one of the praises of their beautiful daughters, seven children, but also to the share we would like to add. in all candor, of Christina Rieger. This result is atthat should a writer undertake to des- tained from the fact that Christina cribe the beautiful women and girls of Rieger died in the spring of 1898 leavthis town and vicinity he would have ing an infant daughter, who died in dependent, the people who can comto use a ruby-pointed pen and an ink- the summer of the same year. It is then he would fall far short in his minor claimants that the one-seventh interest in the Yoesel homestead

She was a bright girl and they were vested contingently in Christina at the ball game last Thursday. She Yoesel Rieger before her death and, south of Plattsmouth on account of the had won his enthusiastic heart, under- then. in her daughter as her heir, and serious illness of his son, Albert. One standing the game right off, and he finally on the death of this infant a day last week he received a slight sunloved her more than if she had been a few months later in the father Daniel stroke, from which he did not fully resister. "It reminds me more of the Rieger, whose subsequent demise left cover, and is now suffering from a high household," he says, "the plate, the the property to Walter, Otto and fever. Albert is an industrious young batter, the fouls and the flies." "And Sophia, the surviving children of man, and the Journal trusts that his music by the band, President J. W. the race but the Omaha boys proved flowers, whose fragrance shall sweeten On the other hand it is claimed that engaged then the struggle and hits, the provisions of the will settled the Settlement of Estate.

A final hearing in the R. W. Swearknockers and in less than twelve ingen estate was had in county court utes the following: Gossip is a hum- Henry R. Gering, which was delivered months you will have no town at all. Friday, and it was found that the ad- ming bird with eagle wings and a voice in his usual happy manner, and was It is passing strange that some fellows ministrator, Miles Standish, will be like a fog horn. It can be heard from warmly received especially by the viswill become knockers on every enter- able to pay about 85 per cent on all Dan to Bersheba and has caused more itors. The address of welcome by prise that is gotten up, unless they claims against the estate. This is trouble than all the bedbugs, ticks, Jesse L. Root, on behalf of Cass Councan see a stream of yellow metal head- certainly caused from the excellent fleas, mosquitos, coyotes, grasshoppers, ty Camp No. 332, was very interesting. ed for their pocket books. And what management of Mr. Standish, as no chinch bugs, rattlesnakes, sore toes, As was also the response by Mr. Henry would the town amount to if you was one thought the estate would pay such cyclones, blizzards, smallpox and indi- P. Leavitt on behalf of the association.

tion. And after considerable discus- man and wife of Denver, Col., Mr. sion upon the date, Tuesday, Septem- and Mrs. J. M. Ford of Chicago. Their everyone that the day was an ideal ber 19, was the time fixed upon for destination is New Orleans, and they holding the convention. By a unani- are taking their time in making the guilty parties.

MODERN

The name of the boat is "The Idler" and is handsomely constructed for comfort. It is 16x40 feet, with cabin 12x26, and contains three rooms. It is weather-boarded on the outside and canvassed and papered on the inside. It is strongly built and well prepared for the trip. The house is neatly painted in cream and white. The furniture is made of white weathered oak. They live right on spending money if she wouldn't spend disclose a remarkable case of affection and everything to get up a good square The party started down the river now in controversy, having married, from Sioux City, and the gentleman girl that her favoriate young man is respectively and successively, Oathe- are introducing in the houses a crowd. One thing certain there were rine, Elizabeth and Christina Yoesel, minature picture, through Mr. Soper, now in the supreme court hinges on They appear to be exceedingly pleas-It is easier to tell others how to the distribution of the estate to the ant people and have already made a various children of the different mar- number of friends in the city. Mr. riages. The suit involves the 150 Hartman is used to the water, and acre farm of the elder Yoesel in feels as safe upon the raging Missouri Richardson county. The suit involves as upon the land. He was on the Main street has been brushed up and a pecuilar legal proposition growing Colinca, a ship that was wrecked upon it presents a more cleanly appearance out of the marriage of Daniel Rieger the coast of Lower California in 1895, acter to suit the immense crowd in when 180 lives were lost, and he was attendance. The dancing + platform

To Live Life Over.

As we glance over the field of labor, rived. and the opportunities which stand out before the people now on earth, we feel that if we were to live life over, we would be a hired girl. 'They are riages. the most eagerly sought, the most inmand the best wages of any engaged in the arts and sciences.

Albert Wheeler Very Sick.

County Treasurer Wheeler was summoned Sunday to his farm, 6 miles illness will not prove dangerous.

Infested With Gossipers.

A man who has been a resident of North Platte for thirty years, evievent. It was the general remark of Camp.

one for the celebration. About the same hour that the train arrived on the B. & M. another train The tallest Woodman proved to be our young friend, J. Berge Miles, 6 on the Missouri Pacific arrived with seven or eight coaches comfortably foot 21 inches. well tilled with people from various sections of the county-Eagle, Elmwood, Wabash, Weeping Water, Nehawka, Union, Murray, Mynard and pounds. other points. In fact every section of Cass county was represented yesterday, met before in several years, and regular much of an enjoyment to many as the Horn fell short 10 pounds. attractions afforded.

The attractions of the street fair kept people moving between the park and town, and most of the time it was hard to tell at which was the largest plenty at both places, and no one lacked for amusement at either. While the street amusements were going on, amusements of various kinds were in operation on the grounds. Space will not permit of the Journal

Hall, 3rd. giving the full program that entertained the people: suffice to say that they were plenty and varied in char-Gilmore 3rd. mer Root 1st, Ray Barlow 2nd and seemed to enjoy more than its share Wayne Murphy 3rd.

of patronage, as this pleasure began long before the principal crowd ar-

ORDER OF PARADE. B. & M. Band.

Head Consul and Officers in Car-Lady Foresters and members of the R. N. A. Camps. Visiting Foresters and Neighbors of Omaha Camps.

Visiting Foresters and Neighbors of Camps outside of Cass County. Visiting Foresters and Neighbors of lass County.

Cass Camp No. 332, M. W. A., Plattsmouth. Foresters of Cass Camp No. 332.

ON THE GROUNDS. After arrival on the grounds and Barnett called the Log Rolling to too fast for them. order. The first thing after the immense throng was quieted was vocal Bajeck; 2nd, Maude Kuhney; 3rd, Eva music by the South Omaha quartette, Stiles.

which was most excellent and delightdently considers that that town is fully rendered. Then came the adinfested with gossipers, for he contrib- dress of welcome to the city by Mayor gestion this town has known or will Next followed the address of Mrs. know when the universe shuts up Remington on the subject of "The husband and wife by Canon Burgess at Individual Foresters' drill. 1st-$5, St. Luke's church. Quite a number

. H. Killian; 2nd-$3, J. B. Davis; of invited guests were present to wit-3rd-$2, W. H. Eussell. All of Omaha. ness the ceremony.

Promptly at 7 o'clock the bridal party arrived at the church, and as they entered it was to the music of Shortest Woodman-R. R. Hunter. the "Wedding March" played by Miss 5 foot 11 inches in height; also the May Peterson, cousin of the bride, and lightest Woodman, only weighing 92 immediately took their places beneath a splendid floral arch, where the im-In the heavy weight class Henry pressive ceremony was performed in Horn, of near Cedar Creek, and Wilson Canon Burgess' usual happy manner and friends met friends they had not Gilmore, of Omaha, were the close of joining young people in the holy contestants, Mr. Gilmore tipping the bonds of wedlock, in the presence of a reunions of friends seemed to be as beam at 295 pounds, of which Mr. number of near friends and relatives.

The young couple were attended by The foot race for Royal Neighbors Miss Sophia Peterson, a sister of the resulted in Mrs. Ada Wiley winning bride who acted as bridesmaid, and first, Mrs. Z. Bardow second and Mrs. Don York was best man. Mr. L. H. Peterson gave the bride away and The foot race for wives of Woodmen. | Carl Reese and Henry McMaken acted Mrs. Ed Burge, of Weeping Water, ushers.

1st; Mrs. Myrtle Tritsch, of Cedar 'The bride and bridesmaid were most Creek, 2nd: Mrs. E. Stiles, of Cass tastefully gowned, and each carried a cluster of white roses. The church Foot race for girls under 15-Vera was also very tastefully decorated for Ahmanson, 1st: Eva Smith, 2nd: Myrtle | the happy event.

After the ceremony a reception was In the fat men's race Elmer Younker given at the home of the bride's won 1st, Ben Horning 2nd and Wilson parents Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Peterson, where a sumptious repast was served. The young people who have thus joined their fortunes for life are well and favorably known here, both Ladies' spoon race-Mrs. Shimrod having been reared in Plattsmouth, 1st, Mrs. Ahmanson 2nd and Miss so that eulogy is scarcely called for. The bride is admired and loved by all Past and present V. C. race-Henry who know her for her beauty and

R Gering 1st, Ben Horning 2nd and sweet traits of character. The groom is a son of Mr. H. C. Mc-Maken, one of Plattsmouth's pioneer citizens, an honorable, upright young Boys' race-Wayne Murphy 1st, R. man, clever to a fault, and is well respected by everyone whom he comes H.C. McMaken proved to be the in contact.

oldest Woodman present-66 years of The young people will make their home with the groom's father in the Oldest Woodman a member-S. B. north part of the city, with all the Reckart, of Omaha, and the youngest comforts of life surrounding them.

Woodman in years was Geo. Lindley. The Journal joins the many friends The one-hundred yard dash was won of Guy and Minnie in wishing them a by John Diamond, and second prize long and prosperous career through taken by George Smith, both of Oma- life, and may their pathway be conha. A number of home men entered stantly strewn with the rarest of the love that binds them in an in-In the little girls' race-1st, Lillian dissoluble and lasting union.

Thanks, Gentlemen.

It will be impossible for the Journal to give a complete list of its callers. Everybody seemed to enjoy the cele- Thursday, because they were "too bration, and it was near the midnight numerous to mention." The following were among those who called and Not a fight occurred. Something deposited subscription money with the cashier: George A. Mills, Murdock, $4.50; J. L. Smith, Nehawka, $1.00; Wm. Stockholm, Nehawka, $1.50; A. A. H. Weichel, Elmwood, $2.00; I. N. Applegate, Union, $2.00; Adam Stoehr, Cedar Creek, $1.00; Henry Beherns, The police report an exceedingly Nehawka, $1.00; A. J. Box, Weeping quiet time considering the immense | Water, $2.00; A. A. Wallinger, Murdock, $1.00; F. M. Massie, Nehawka,

NOTES.

Plattsmouth for five years.

hour when quiet reigned. remarkable for such a mass of people. There was plenty of noise, however. People were here from the west side of the county who have not been in

The Burlington train left for Omaha $1.00. May you all live long and Barrel race for boys under 15-El-

Clerk's race-E. F. Steppe 1st,

Connor 2nd and Chas. Reynolds 3rd.

Kougal 2nd and N. J. Jaka 3rd.

