Have you attended the demonstration at Underwood's this week in honor of the "Monarch Range?" If you have not, we want you and your friends to come and partake of the delicious biscuits and coffee.

A MOST PLEASANT AFFAIR

Given at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Chriswiser in Honor of Miss Pearl Lewis.

One of the most pleasant events that has occurred in this vicinity for some time, was that given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Chriswiser, three miles southwest of Murray, on Saturday evening last, in honor of their guest Miss Pearl Lewis.

Arrangements were made to entertain a large number of young people, and it was done to perfection on this occasion. The house was tastefully decorated for the event, and on the arrival of the guests the amusements began, and they did not end until a late hour. Music, both vocal and instrumental, was interspersed and added much to the pleasure of the event. Games of various kinds were indulged in, and so pleasant did the time pass that parting time came entirely too soon for the merry crowd.

Elegant refreshments were served during the evening, and all went home feeling that "it was good to be there."

Those present were Misses Daisy Campbell, Anna Davis, Minnie Herren, Dula Vallery, Sela Vallery, Ada Mast, Nellie Creamer, Pearl Lewis, Gertie Jenkins, Rosa Woods, Edith Dill, Nora Hinton, Zupha Chriswiser, Margrette Beck and Miss Murle Barthold, of Plattsmouth; Messrs. Wade Porter, Kell Rhoden, Earn Carroll, Harrie Massie, Pearl Long, Earl Jenkins, Ray Dill, John Campbell, Aleck Campbell, Ray Chriswiser, Homer Schlichtemier, Corbett, Hutchison, Gile Rhoden, George Rhoden, Wallace, Arnold Mast, Ed. Seagraves, Herman Beck, John Durman, Ed. Murray and Homer Shrader.

Mrs. Bertha Shrader and Mrs. Herman Beck were present to assist Mrs. Chriswiser in keeping the young people in order, and also to note if things were carried on as they used to be when they were girls.

Death of Little Boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook, of Murray, are deeply grieved over the loss of their little son, Paul, whose death occurred at their home on Tuesday, September 4, 1905. The cause of the little fellow's death was diabetes, although several operations have been performed upon the little fellow recently in Omaha. Paul was a bright boy and his loss will be deeply felt by the parents and those who were well acquainted with him. He was aged about six years, and just at that age when childhood is most interesting to all. But the silent messenger comes to all, and many times without warning, which should impress all with the fact that "in the midst of hope we are in death."

"We remember well our sorrow
When we stood beside the bed;
And the deep and heartfelt anguish
When they told us he was dead.
And, Oh! that cup of bitterness,
Let not my heart rebel,
God gave, He took, He can restore,
He doeth all things well."

Phil Brisbin and wife were Plattsmouth visitors today.

Be cure and call at Underwood's and see the Monarch Range in operation. It has the ground polished top—needs no blacking. Your choice of a 39 piece dinner set or 10 pieces of cooking utensils, free with each Monarch Range sold this week at L. B. Underwood's.

Miss Hopkins, of Valisca, Iowa, sister of Mrs. W. C. Brown, made many warm friends during her short visit in Murray. It is said that one young man in particular was much grieved when she departed for her home. Now watch out for another young man keeping the road warm between Murray and Valisca.

Lee Nickles and Mr. Tignor have taken the contract to unload several car loads of brick for Col. Jenkins. The brick arrived here Friday from Southern Kansas, and are of an excellent quality. With a pressed-brick finish we can promise you that the Colonel will give us one of the finest buildings in the county.

Mrs. Shafer, living seven miles west of town, was greatly surprised Monday night by a sister, Mrs. Broeker, of Harlan county, whom she has not seen for twelve years, calling at her door. Labor Day being a holiday for mail-carriers, a letter requesting some one to meet her at the station, was delayed. Mr. and Mrs. Broeker will return home this week.

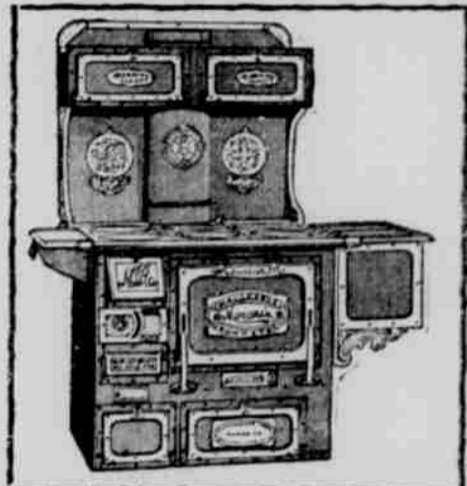

There has been many visitors to L. B. Underwood's hardware store this week to see and taste of the cooking demonstration of the Monarch Range. While no doubt the range is without an equal, yet without such excellent cooks as Mrs. L. B. Underwood and Mrs. Thos. Stokes, the demonstrations might not be so impressive. The Monarch Range will be on exhibition until Saturday night. Hot coffee and biscuits served to visitors.

Do You Need A New Range

If you do, don't fail to attend the great

DEMONSTRATION

at the store of L. B. Underwood, all next week

All This Week

If you do not need a range attend this affair anyway. You will meet your friends here. Everybody is coming. It will pay you to learn the good qualities of this Range

Monarch MALLEABLE

The "Stay Satisfactory" Range

is superior to all others. Hot Coffee and Delicious Biscuits will be served every day FREE, and will demonstrate the working of the Monarch Range. Will also give, absolutely free, with each Monarch Range sold during this demonstration a full set of Monarch Cooking Ware, or a 59-Piece Dinner Set of handsomely decorated semi-porcelain ware. There is no advance in the price of the range on account of this special offer, and in the future you will pay the same price for the range without the ware. Remember, you can have your choice

—FOR THIS WEEK ONLY—

The Monarch Malleable Range

IS Superior because it is made of malleable iron and steel and will not crack or break, nor warp with three times the abuse that would destroy other kinds.

It cannot open up in the seams or joints and increase the amount of fuel required even after years of use.

It has polished top and polished steel body, requiring no blacking or painting to keep it looking as nice as new.

It has the wonderful duplex draft which can be had on no other range, and which must be examined to be appreciated.
