LEGAL NOTICE

In the District Court of Cass county, State of Nebraska, In the matter of the estate of Frank Plak, sr., deceased.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE The cause came on for hearing upon the petition of Emil Plak, executor of the estate of Frank Plak, sr., deceased, praying for license to sell on 10th in the NE 1/4 of the NW 1/4 of section 13, township 12, north of range 13, E. of the 10th P. M., in said Cass county, subject to the life use of the same by Mary Plak, widow of said Frank Plak, sr., deceased, or to sell a sufficient amount of the same to bring the sum of $250 for the payment of debts allowed against said estate and the cost of administration and the expenses of this suit, there not being sufficient personal property to pay the said debts and expenses of the said estate.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at the District court room in the court house at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, on the 6th day of November, 1905, at 10 o'clock a. m., to show cause why a license should not be granted to said executor to sell the above described real estate of said deceased or so much thereof as shall be necessary to pay said debts and expenses. It is hereby directed that this order be published for the period of four successive weeks in the Plattsmouth Journal, a weekly newspaper published at Plattsmouth in said Cass county, and of general circulation therein.

Dated this 1st day of September, 1905. PAUL HESLIN, J. D. DWYER, Judge of the District Court, Attorney for Executor.

Severely Burned.

Good luck prevented Henry Betts, of near Avoca, from being frightfully burned. Last Wednesday he had his threshing outfit at Jno. Seablom's farm. Just before they started work the stay bolt of the engine blew out. All the fire in the engine was blown out of the door and burned Mr. Betts on the hand and arm. The steam also caught him on one leg and cooked the flesh on that some. His position on the engine prevented him from coming in conflict with the greater part of the burning coal.—Weeping Water Herald.

Delays Traffic.

The Lincoln Journal says, so cramped is the Burlington for yard room that it is compelled to use the Lincoln passenger yards for making up freight trains almost every night in the week. The amount of freight business being handled through Lincoln is too heavy to be accommodated in the freight yards.

BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING

The Joining of Two Happy Hearts in the Midst of Friends. We saw two clouds in the morn'g. Tinged with the rising sun, And in the dawn they floated on. And mingled into one. A beautiful wedding occurred at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Otto Sprick, on Wednesday, September 6, 1905, when Mr. Henry Keil and Miss Alma Sprick were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

At the hour designated (high noon) for the ceremony to occur the bride and groom entered the room, which had been tastefully decorated for the happy event, attended by Mr. Edward Sprick and Miss Olga Keil, and there in the presence of a large number of invited guests Rev. Spreigel said the words that made the young couple happy. The ceremony was very impressive, and was delivered in such a manner as to impress upon the minds of the young people, their duty to one another during their earthly career.

The bride was gowned in beautiful brown silk and carried white roses, while the bridesmaid was gowned in white and carried pink roses. After the ceremony and congratulations, elegant refreshments was partaken of by the invited guests, all of whom pronounced the refreshments most elegant in every respect.

The young couple are very popular wherever known in Cass county, and their many friends join with the Journal in extending congratulations and wishing them long life, and to the end may it be attended by prosperity and happiness.

Following is a list of articles received by Mr. and Mrs. Keil in honor of the event: Mr. and Mrs. Peter Keil, carpet; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Seybert, chamber set; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Seybert, rocker; Chas. Rehart, gold berry spoon; Mr. and Mrs. George Keil, set of irons; Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sprick, fruit stand; Mr. and Mrs. William Keil, lace curtains; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sprick, $10; Mrs. E. K. Barker, water set; Frank Gordon, set of glasses and tray; Louis Keil and Miss Christina Schroeder, lamp; Charley Keil, salt and pepper set; August Keil, berry set; Olga Jensen, vase; Edward Sprick, washing set; Josie Yelneck, silver sugar shell and butter knife; Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, set of silver teaspoons; Henry Fornoff, set of silver teaspoons.
