

The Plattsmouth Journal

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AT PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.
R. A. BATES, PUBLISHER.

Entered at the postoffice at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, as second-class matter.

DEMOCRATS, don't fail to attend your ward primaries Saturday evening.

THE gallant Captain Taggart found out what war means according to Sherman.

ONLY two more days until the ring ticket will be nominated. We mean Farley's ticket.

THE nominations of register of deeds goes bravely on in other counties. What will the Cass county conventions do?

HAVING established cabinet connections with Pierpont Morgan, Mr. Roosevelt is now ready for a strenuous anti-trust campaign.

EX-SENATOR DEIRTRICH for governor! Wouldn't that cork you? Well that is just what some republicans in Nebraska would like to see.

DEMOCRATIC primaries in each ward and precinct on Saturday, September 16. Don't fail to come out and assist in selecting delegates to the county convention.

THE political pot is beginning to boil. It won't be but a few days until it will be boiling over. But in Cass county it is always the best man that "knocks the persimmons."

WARD committeemen will please notify this office where their primaries will be held on Saturday, September 16, so that proper notice can be made of the same in the Journal.

CORPORAL TANNER is now commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. He will be remembered as an ex-commissioner of pensions. He was a good friend of the old soldiers while at the head of the pension department.

WHEN the railroads of Nebraska cut loose from the republican party the stars will cease to shine and the sun will go into an eclipse forever. Too many willing tools in that party for any such thing to occur in Nebraska.

BROKEN BOW is a town where the preachers make sensations by running away with each other's wives. And now a crowd of about thirty people have organized a new church, possibly to supply the demand for preacher.

It is expected that the republican state convention will be very slimly attended, compared with previous conventions, if the "anti-pass" sentiment is strictly adhered to. Free transportation is what catches most republicans.

THE Rosewaters seem to be in the saddle, and will run the republican convention this week. They have succeeded in side-tracking Senator Sheldon and they will succeed in side-tracking Judge Ames when the convention assembles.

THE Taggart divorce, if interesting, is hardly edifying. It has brought the light to the fact that army officers have considerable time to prepare material for scandal, and has given the public an unpleasant impression of the character of some of the army officers.

It is shrewdly surmized that President Roosevelt was seeking the acquaintance of McGinty when he went to the bottom of the sea the other day. The President's political party will make the same descent next year, will find McGinty and will stay with him.

MICKEY for U. S. Senator! Are the people of Nebraska crazy? Mickey for senator! Ha! Ha! Ha! What a joke some people are trying to perpetrate upon the midget, in their efforts to get favor while he is governor. When Mickey steps down and out as governor he will be consigned to private life for all time to come.

WHY NOT?

The Telegram frankly admits that the policies now advocated by President Roosevelt are endorsed by a majority of democrats of the nation.

Why not? They are democratic policies and it is only natural that they should be approved by democrats.

Every anti-trust speech made by President Roosevelt has been in harmony with democratic sentiment in recent years.

Every move made by President Roosevelt to make the coal barons play fair with their laborers has been suggested by democratic platforms for a dozen years.

Every effort on the part of President Roosevelt to compel American tariff-protected manufacturers to sell goods to Americans as cheap as they sell them to foreigners has been based upon democratic declarations since 1876.

Every Roosevelt declaration against the robber tactics of the great railroad corporations is simply an echo of democratic protests along the same line.

While it is true that President Roosevelt has done nothing to harm the trusts; while it is true that he has gone no further than to scare the tariff barons; while it is true that he has never allowed any of his railroad friends to be prosecuted for criminal conduct, it is equally true that he has made some splendid threats in that direction. It is natural that democrats should be pleased by the conduct of a president who by his speech proclaims the justice of democratic principles and who constantly urges the application of those principles in the affairs of government.

It will be well for democrats to remember that only a little while ago democrats were denounced as "anarchists" and "traitors" for talking just like President Roosevelt is talking today.

Whatever of good is being attempted by President Roosevelt is based upon those same governmental principles for which democrats have for years been condemned.

Democrats are lovers of principle, and that is why they speak well of the principles now advocated by their president. They are democratic principles.—Columbus Telegram.

The republican county convention, which met in Weeping Water Saturday, finished its day's labor by renominating E. Hilton for surveyor and L. D. Switzer for commissioner for second district. An "anti-pass" resolution was adopted. Pollard, Windham & Co. made speeches and Byron Clark placed in nomination J. W. Gamble, "of the village of Stove Creek," for county superintendent of schools. The attendance was good, but minus any enthusiasm. Following is the ticket as nominated: Treasurer, W. T. Adams; clerk, W. W. Perry; judge, A. L. Tidd; sheriff, C. D. Quinton; superintendent, J. W. Gamble; coroner, B. I. Clements; surveyor, E. E. Hilton; commissioner, L. D. Switzer; register of deeds, Henry E. Snyder.

THE Protective Tariff League and the misnamed Home Market Club are saying that, since the president means to make railroad rate legislation the paramount issue in the coming session, congress will let the tariff alone. But the western farmers, to whom the Home Market Club has not given a home market, combining with other powerful interests that suffer from the Dingley act, are not going to ask the president's permission to talk tariff. There will be plenty of time for other business than that which the president maps out, and reciprocity and tariff revision are two of the issues that cannot be gagged.

THE Otoe county democrats met in convention yesterday at Syracuse and nominated the following ticket: Treasurer, C. C. Bickel; clerk, C. H. Busch; judge, W. W. Wilson; sheriff, John Donovan; recorder of deeds, Theo. Schrunder; coroner, Dr. F. S. Marnell; surveyor, C. W. Pierce. The ticket is said to be an exceedingly strong one, from top to bottom.

Johnnie's Mental Reservation.

Nothing more interesting has dropped from human lips in a long time than Mr. John D. Rockefeller's remark to the American Press Humorists, that "when I was a small boy I was taught not to believe all I heard—or even what I read in books."

One hears a good many things in youth, such as that honesty is the best of policy and that one ought to do unto others as one would be done by, which are apt to be taken literally. But a bright boy, such as Johnnie must have been, would not be misled.

Nor would he fall into the error of accepting at their face value such good books as found their way into his hands. We have it upon his own authority that young John early perused the Scriptures, but it is evident that he did not too strictly interpret the statement about the camel and the needle's eye.

It is curious and instructive to trace the influence of his early acquired caution upon his later habits of mind. He learned to take the many sermons that he heard cum grano, to discover behind the lines the real meaninglessness of the interstate commerce laws against rebate and the provisions against agreements in restraint of trade, and in general to read the statute books with a mental reservation.

Mr. Rockefeller probably keeps true to his training and doesn't believe all that he hears now about business reform and improved commercial morals and standards; and it is likely that he doubts much of what he reads in McClure's Magazine, and even in Everybody's.

No, there is nothing specially credulous about Mr. Rockefeller.

DEMOCRATIC precinct committeemen are requested to note the convention call in this issue very closely and the number of delegates each precinct is entitled to. And we desire to impress upon their minds the necessity of selecting a full delegation, and select men who you are sure will attend the Elmwood convention.

SCANDALS crack at Washington with a rapidity almost as difficult to record as it would be to register the concatenated poppings of a string of fire-crackers. But they are all pretty much alike and belong to the same family. Graft in the printing department, graft in the bureau of animal industry, graft in the land office, graft in the postal department, they are the children of patronage and machine politics. A new member is born into the family in the form of the Panama scandal. It is a promising infant and bids fair to outgrow many of its brothers and sisters. Already it towers on the horizon. The charges are that favoritism has been shown—"favoritism" being euphemistic for a divide between the grafter and graatee—in the letting of Panama concessions for feeding and housing employes; and the charges are direct and supported by detailed explanations. In fact, the charges come in the shape of a protest to the president. The only salvation for the country is to "turn the rascals out" bag and baggage.
