Orange Blossoms.

A pretty wedding service at high noon today united in marriage Jacob Phillipson, of Chicago, and Miss Mary E. Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sullivan, at the home of the latter, south of the city. The bride is highly educated along musical lines and is highly esteemed by a large number of friends. Their future home will be in Chicago, for which city they will depart this evening. Among those present from the city were Dr. Elster and family, Mrs. A. N. Sullivan and family, Miss Sarah Baker and Miss Mae Patterson. Also Mrs. Blanche Snyder of Nebraska City, and Mrs. C. M. McVicar, of Wichita, Kan., an aunt of the bride.

Rev. Newton Mann, of Omaha, pastor of the Unitarian church, performed the ceremony.

Married in Chicago.

When Henry Weidman went to the depot on Saturday evening last to take the train for Chicago, we could not account for his nervous condition. He dropped in to tell us his destination, but thought nothing of that only that he said he was going on "important business." Well, it was the most important business that he ever transacted in all his life, if his relatives have been properly advised in the matter. The relatives have been informed that Mr. Weidman and Miss Mable Swearingen were united in marriage in Chicago yesterday afternoon.

Miss Swearingen, the bride, is well known in Plattsmouth, but for some time has been employed as head bookkeeper at Auditorium Annex in that city. After the marriage the couple started on a wedding tour, after which they will arrive in Plattsmouth, where they will reside. Everybody knows "Hank" Weidman, as he has lived here all his life.

His strange actions Saturday evening is now accounted for and the Journal extends congratulations.

No Assessment for November.

A telegram was received today from A. R. Talbot, head council of the Modern Woodmen of America, notifying State Deputy E. E. Kester that there would be no assessment for the month of November, there being now in the hands of the head banker over seventeen hundred thousand dollars to the good after paying all death claims for the previous month. This makes the third skip in assessments for this year and will be appreciated by the members. Over 75 applications have already been written for the big class adoption on October 25th, and the members feel confident that the class will number at least 100 for that night. Many Woodmen from other camps will be in attendance to witness the work that will be under the direction of Head Consul A. R. Talbot who has promised to be in attendance on this occasion. A great time is expected and every Woodman will want to be there.

To Whom it May Concern.

We have redeemed the Lightning Rod business from the odium cast upon it in the past by unscrupulous men and agents going through the country. We sell only to local dealers and through them you are able to get our Pure Soft Copper Cable Lightning Rod for less money than you could from agents.

The result now is that some men who we do not care to have represent us may buy some inferior imitation of our goods and claim to sell it cheaper. We furnish each of our dealers Agent's Certificates which authorizes them to give you our written guarantee on all work done by them. Also each spool of our cable has our Trade Mark (W. C. S.) burned on end of spool.

This is for your protection. You should require them to show you this Certificate and if they cannot they are not our dealer and you may regret it if you do not get Shinn's Copper Cable Lightning Rod.

August Gorder and L. B. Underwood are our Authorized Dealers at Plattsmouth and Murray, respectively, and you cannot get our Cable and Guarantee of anyone else. Therefore be careful of the imitators.

(Special Correspondence.)

Quite a number of friends and relatives visited at the home of P. A. Hill Sunday. Among those present were: W. H. Puls, wife, son Harry and daughter Marie, Alfred Gansener, Miss Anna Puls, Otto Puls, Louie Frederick and others too numerous to mention.

Mr. Earl Chassot made a business trip to Plattsmouth last Saturday. He reports a very fine time.

Quite a ball game was played in the pasture of P. A. Hill, Sunday, between the "Chicago Kids" and the "Scrubs." Fred Shaefer did the twirling for the "Chicago Kids" while Louie Frederick pitched the game for the "Scrubs." The score was 13 to 16 in favor of the "Scrubs." Fred Shaefer did the star playing for the "kids." Fred throws good ball but he throws it away most of the time. With a season or so of practice he might make a "league player." Fred kept Adam Hill busy throwing in stray balls.

Mr. Herman and Alf. Gansemer are looking for a nice, little, pretty, rosy cheeked, bright-eyed cook for next spring. The boys are going to farm the Hennings farm near here and don't like to "batch." They are willing to pay any reasonable price but Alf says that the rosier the cheeks the higher the wages. Now, girls, don't all jump in at once. Fred Rice has spoken for the job and Herman says he'll do. Herman wants some one who has had experience.

Chas. Beverage had a runaway last Friday. His team shied at the threshing machine and ran home. No serious damage was done.

Jake Kraeger has about finished his house. He is now ready to move his furniture and wife in.

John Hable has pulled in his threshing outfit for this season. John says there was no money in threshing this fall and he will have to put off getting married till next fall.

John Kraeger, jr., says he knows who of all the candidates this fall will be elected. Let's hear from the rest of the election prophets.
