NEWS OF THE RAILROADS

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers Recognized by the Burlington.

The management of the Burlington railroad, after twenty years of opposition, has recognized the brotherhood of locomotive engineers and has signed the first wage schedule of the organization since the strike of 1888. Heretofore all wage schedules for the engineers of the Burlington have been promulgated over the signatures of the railroad managers, the brotherhood having no option in the matter of acceptance. This time the schedule was signed by the officers and by the members of the general committee of the brotherhood after a three weeks' conference. The hostility of the Burlington road to the brotherhood was the result of the engineers' strike in 1888, when 1,400 men deserted their engines. Paul Morton, then in the Burlington's service, had charge of the strike for the railroad, and won the most stubborn fight in the history of the brotherhood. Several months ago word was sent forth that the engineers employed by the Burlington could openly join the brotherhood if they so desired. Since that time fully 70 per cent of them have become members of the organization.

A Burlington man says that the car shortage is not a serious matter now, although a few more cars could be used. Farmers are now very busy with corn husking and wheat is not being brought to market so rapidly as it was several weeks ago. He doesn't look for the shortage to grow more serious soon. "We are furnishing many cars now, and grain offerings are being taken off the dealers' hands fairly well," he says. New corn has not started to move and probably will not for some time to come.

Mrs. H. N. Dovey Entertains.

Mrs. H. N. Dovey delightfully entertained a number of her friends at a high five party at her palatial home yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Coolidge of Central City, S. D. The afternoon was most enjoyably spent until luncheon hour when a feast was prepared consisting of the delicacies of the season. Those who served were Misses Eva Fox, Ione, Florence and Helen Dovey. The following ladies were present: Mesdames Knapp, Fox, O. Dovey, Will White, V. V. Leonard, Dr. Martin, R. B. Livingston, L. A. Moore, D. O. Dwyer, M. A. Dickson, J. Pepperberg, W. D. Jones, Helps, B. Elson, Mrs. Heath, Lincoln; Mrs. Adams, Eagle, and Mrs. Coolidge of Central City, S. D.

An Old Policy.

Probably one of the oldest life insurance policies in this vicinity is the one held by the late George W. Grimes. The policy was issued August 17, 1868, by the Northwestern Mutual, of Milwaukee, Wis., for the sum of $1,000, the wife, Nancy M. Grimes, being the beneficiary. Mr. Grimes had always taken care that this policy was kept in force from the date it was issued.—Union Ledger.

Are Full Brothers.

According to an exchange, the man who went out to milk and sat down on a boulder in the middle of the pasture and waited for the cow to back up, was a full brother to the man who kept the store and would not advertise because he reasoned that the purchasing public would "back up" to his place of business when it wanted something.

Death of Mrs. McNurlin.

News of the death of Mrs. McNurlin at the home of her daughter Mrs. B. S. Hasemeier, in Lincoln, was received Thursday. Mrs. McNurlin was an old resident of this county and the news of her death will be received with regret by her many Cass county friends.—Louisville Courier.

Celebrates Her Ninth Birthday.

A number of little friends were invited to the home of Mrs. H. Goos Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Margaret's ninth birthday. The afternoon passed quickly with music and games and before departing they were treated to a most delicious lunch. Misses Stoneroad and Mathilda Soennichsen assisted the hostess in entertaining. Those present were: Fustine Murray, Gladys McMaken, Ethel Tyson, Essie Buttery, Edith Rampe, Marie Spies, Clara and Hulda Goos and Margaret Goos.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

True to the Letter.

Doc. Tanner of the South Omaha Democrat very truthfully remarks: "Every town has a covey of sad-eyed loafers who live in a narrow sphere. They are usually men without children and who cause their own wife, if they have one, to eke out an existence that in comparison would be a hot corner of hell alongside of a slave in a Turkish harem. They knock everything and everybody. Never having given employment to a living soul, with never the worry of digging a pay roll on Saturday night, absolutely foreign to the thrill of joy in purchasing a half dozen pair of shoes for as many legitimate offsprings, ignorant in the extreme of the meaning of the word charity, they are naturally made of the same brand of material that mummies are made from. The only word in the English language that rolls from their tongue without an effort is graft. Every man who earns a dollar is a grafter. Yet in the full meaning of the word these vultures of the community are grafters of the rottenest ilk. They feed on the spendings of the busy man and lap up the sum that was intended for dogs and swine. Their home life is miserable and cheerless. Nature naturally dries up their carcass and in time they whither mentally, socially and physically until they are neither company for man or beast. Cheer up you deformed, depraved skeletons of hell and let the sunshine of the Almighty penetrate your being. Life is short at best. If you can go no further try at least to make one soul happy. Don't cheat yourself out of all the good things the Lord has set before you. Let your finish be at least of such a character that even the worms will not refuse to fatten on your remains when planted."

Married Twenty Years.

The Manley correspondent of the Weeping Water Republican reports the following: "Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Murphy gave them a pleasant surprise last Sunday, the occasion being the twentieth anniversary of their wedding. Dinner was served at six o'clock, to about seventy guests, after which the evening was pleasantly passed with music and conversation. A handsome dinner set of Haviland china was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, as a slight token of the affection and esteem in which they were held. That they may live to celebrate many as happy anniversaries is the wish of the many friends."

The Gas at Nebraska City.

Nobody in Nebraska City will ever be asphyxiated by the brand of gas furnished by the local gas company, says an exchange. There isn't enough real stuff in a million feet of it to lay out a mosquito, but almost anybody would be justified in dropping dead when they see their gas bill.

Waking Up.

Nebraska City is sure waking up to the march of progress. The city council has ordered all the telephone and telegraph poles removed from the business streets and the wires placed under ground.

Every Ounce You Eat.

Every ounce of food you eat that fails to digest does a pound of harm. It turns the entire meal into poison. This not only deprives the blood of the necessary tissue-building material, but it poisons it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant. It digests the food regardless of the condition of the stomach. It allows that organ to rest and get strong again. Relieves Belching, Heart Burn, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, etc. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co., Gering & Co.

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Diers, of Louisville, With Their Children and Friends Celebrate the Same.

On Thursday, November, 16th, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Diers, sr., celebrated their golden wedding at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Henry Tangeman, in Louisville, which was one of the grandest events that has occurred in that village for many days.

Mr. and Mrs. Diers were married at Garnaville, Ia., in the year of 1855. They lived in Iowa on a farm for nearly forty years, after which they came to Nebraska and settled on a farm in the western part. Eight children were born to them, all of whom were given a good education.

The brothers presented Mr. Diers with an elegant overcoat and Mrs. Diers with a black silk dress, which she wore at the anniversary. Mr. Lawson and Mr. Osterberg presented Mr. Diers with a gold headed cane, and Mrs. Diers with silk umbrella with gold head.

Those present were Fred Diers, wife and son Herald of Madison; Lou Diers and wife of Humphrey; John Diers, wife and daughter, Ethel, of Fullerton; Mrs. Fred Fuller, of Fullerton; W. D. Towner and wife, of Wolfbach; Herman Diers, wife and daughter Margaret; Henry Diers, wife and daughter Anise, of Ulysses; Herman Diers and wife, Seward; Bert Diers, Seward; Harry Lawson and wife, Lincoln; John Osterberg, St. Louis; Will Diers and wife; Henry Tangeman, wife and daughter, Lenora, and son, Cort, Louisville.

Weather Prognostication.

The weather prophets are again making their guesses as to what kind of weather will be experienced during the coming winter. They say that inasmuch as the corn husks are light, and as the muskrats are building light houses, as the weather was fine when the sun crossed the line, as the goose bone is about all right, and inasmuch as several other signs are favorable they prognosticate that the winter will be mild and delightful, and that the climate will be more like California and Florida than like the winters experienced in the north for the past few years.

Gilman at Brock.

Geo. W. Gilman, of Nebraska City, is now in charge of the drug store here as manager for Wilkie & Son. Mr. Gilman is an experienced druggist. He was formerly located at Talmage and later at Plattsmouth, Neb., where he is reputed as having conducted a very successful business. His family will continue to reside at Nebraska City for the present.—Brock Bulletin.

Refused to Accept It.

R. D. Pollard, tax commissioner for the Burlington railroad, was in the city Monday and offered to pay to County Treasurer Wheeler the amount of taxes due Cass county $18,483.90 less the sum of $3,513.80. Mr. Wheeler refused to accept that amount without being instructed to do so by the court.

District Court.

The time in district court this afternoon was occupied in selecting a jury in the case of the State of Nebraska against George Pitman, who is charged with having committed statutory rape upon the person of one Ida Lopp, who says she is under 15 years of age. The case will be called in the morning.
