MARRIAGE OF DON C. DESPAIN

The Ceremony Occurs at the Home of the Bride's Parents in University Place.

THE WEDDING AN ELABORATE EVENT.

A Number of Relatives and Friends of this City in Attendance.

The Sunday State Journal contains the following account of the marriage of Don C. Despain, which event occurred last week. The groom is a former Plattsmouth boy, and was reared in this city, where he has many friends:

"One of the prettiest weddings of the fall was that which took place Wednesday evening at the home of Ex-Mayor and Mrs. T. W. Smith in University Place, in which their daughter, Daisy Wilson, was united to Mr. Donald C. Despain.

"The marriage ceremony was solemnized at promptly 7:30 o'clock. The bridal party entered to the strains of the Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Mary A. Smith. The groom, accompanied by Chancellor D. W. C. Huntington of Wesleyan university, who officiated, took his place at the left of the archway in the front parlor and awaited the coming of the bride who entered unattended and followed by little Elizabeth Despain, niece of the groom, who acted as ring bearer, carrying the ring in the petals of an American beauty.

"The groom advanced to meet the bride and together they proceeded in the beautiful bower beneath which they stood during the ceremony. Originality was displayed in the construction of the wedding arch and the mammoth bouquet of white chrysanthemums tied with white ribbon which hung in the place of the customary wedding bell. The ring service was used.

"The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white silk voile, en train, trimmed with lily designs and chiffon. The veil was gracefully draped and a shower bouquet of white daisies was carried. 'Narcissus' was played during the wedding ceremony at the close of which the entrancing notes of Mendelssohn's 'Wedding March' were heard. Only intimate friends and relatives were present at the wedding.

"A reception followed immediately after the marriage ceremony, attended by about two hundred and fifty guests, friends of the bride and groom. The color scheme of green and white was used except in the dining room which was in red and white, the latter scheme being carried out in the refreshments which consisted of frozen fruit, sherbet, coconut kisses, marshmallow cakes and banquet peppermints. Miss Florence Shirley of Minden presided at the table and was assisted by the Misses Lee and Johnson. American Beauty roses were the flowers used. Mrs. Clara Akers, Miss Edna C. Noble and Mrs. Lehman C. Peters assisted in the parlors where a profusion of ferns, smilax and bouquets of mammoth white chrysanthemums formed affective decorations. Walt's orchestra furnished the music for the entire evening, being secluded by an embankment of palms. The guests were presented to the receiving line by Mrs. Lowell B. Stoner of Alliance, sister of the bride, who wore a dainty white gown and carried pink carnations. The bride's mother was gowned in gray tulle silk and the mother of the groom in black silk. Many beautiful gifts were received by the young couple and were displayed in a large room off the back parlor.

"The bride is an accomplished young lady having a host of friends in Lincoln and University Place. The groom is a young man of ability with a promising future. He was a student in the law school of the university of Nebraska when appointed deputy commissioner of labor by Governor Mickey. Many congratulations and good wishes were extended the young couple who departed immediately for a two weeks' trip to Chicago and other points. On their return they will be at home to their friends in Lincoln.

"The out of town guests present included Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Despain, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Despain, Albert R. Despain, Mrs. Belle Swarthout of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Lowell B. Stoner and Mrs. Clara Akers, of Alliance; Miss Florence Shirley, of Minden; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. F. McKesson, of Emerald; Lloyd B. Wilson, of Central City; Miss Doty of David City.

Lady County Superintendents.

Dick Barr, of the Nelawka Register, favors the election of female county superintendents, and has started the ball to rolling in that direction in the following words:

"Hall county seems to be the only enlightened county in the state. At the late election the people out there elected Miss Margaret Brown superintendent of public instruction by a rousing majority over her republican opponent. That's the spirit. The woman should govern the schools entirely, from directors to county superintendents. Why? They are more capable of governing and training the youths than men. What does a man know about raising and training his own 'kids' to say nothing about those of other families, when he only sees his own children at meal times? No, the mother has the care and training of them and ought to have a hand in their education."

Sure! Only think—only two male teachers in Cass county outside of the towns! Then with all these female teachers, why not one of their number for county superintendent?

Sixty-Fourth Mile Stone.

Mrs. Katherine Holly celebrated her sixty-fourth anniversary on Saturday evening, November 25th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Novotny. The event was rather in the form of a surprise to Grandma Holly, and all those who took part in the pleasant affair were her children, grandchildren and relatives and friends. It is said that when the guests began to arrive with their baskets and good things, the old lady began to surmise what was "in the wind", and a broad smile beamed over her face, which denoted her happiness to be thus remembered in her dotage.

Mrs. Holly is the mother of Mrs. Joseph Novotny and Mr. William Holly, and the event proved one of joy as much to the children and grandchildren as to grandma. The occasion was attended with plenty to eat and drink, and it was a late hour when the guests repaired to their various homes, with the wish that Grandma Holly will live to enjoy many more such happy occasions.

Accident at Louisville.

About 10:30 o'clock Saturday night, Gus Segars, a carpenter, it is presumed, was struck by an M. P. freight train going north, and when found it was discovered that the extent of his injuries was three broken ribs. It is hard to tell how he was injured as he was under the influence of liquor, and was unable to tell himself. Ben Barker discovered the injured man as he was crossing the track on his way home, and had him taken to the place where he is boarding. At last reports he was getting along as well as could reasonably be expected.

Must Get New Certificates.

A special from Lincoln says: "County superintendents of public instruction elected at the last election who held first-grade teachers' certificates, which will expire before the end of their terms, must requalify or their offices will be declared vacant. The state department of public instruction has so ruled after a conference with the attorney general. A number of the superintendents-elect hold certificates which will expire within six months. They will be advised by State Superintendent McBrien to prepare for a new examination." Wonder if this ruling won't catch the superintendent-elect in Cass county."

Jawbone Broken.

Andrew Deitrich, a farmer living near Louisville, was kicked in the face by a mule last Saturday, resulting in the fracture of one of the jawbones, and seriously injuring him otherwise. Mr. John Koop, who was here from Louisville, says Mr. Deitrich, while seriously injured, will recover.

MRS. EDGAR BARKER IS DEAD

She Succumbs to the Fearful Burning She Received Two Weeks Ago.

SUFFERS UNTOLD AGONIES UNTIL DEATH

Funeral Today and Interment Made in the Horning Cemetery.

Mrs. Edgar Barker is dead. After suffering untold agonies from the awful burning she received two weeks ago, Mrs. Barker passed away on Saturday night, November 25, 1905, at her home near Mynard.

The readers of the Journal will remember that about two weeks ago, while engaged in rendering aid out of doors, she received the awful burning which finally caused her death. As she passed the fire under a large kettle, her dress caught and in a few seconds she was enveloped in flames, and before her clothing could be gotten off her body was horribly burned. She lingered along, and at times she appeared better, and it was thought at one time she might possibly recover. It is said a few hours before death relieved her, she told those around her she was going to die—that it was impossible for her to get well.

Minnie Henton and Edgar Barker were united in marriage on the 15th day of January, 1902, at the home of her uncle, Mr. Joseph H. Adams, near Mynard, where she had made her home since childhood. She was born in Washington county, Neb., twenty-four years ago. Her mother and two sisters reside in Mynard, a brother in St. Joseph. Her grandmother, Mrs. Caroline Henton, and her aunts, Mrs. Joseph H. Adams and Mrs. William F. Gillispie, also live in Mynard, and Mrs. Joseph Johnson in Plattsmouth.

The death of Mrs. Barker is one of great sadness among those who have known her from childhood, always pleasant to those around her, and in the neighborhood of where she lived, "none knew her but to love her." She was a grand good woman, and the sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved husband in his irreparable loss.

A Very Sudden Death.

C. E. Denson died at the home of his brother, L. Denson, in this city Sunday evening at 5:30 of acute pneumonia, aged 29 years. The deceased took sick Sunday morning, and his sudden death was a great shock to his brothers and sisters.

Five brothers and sisters survive deceased—namely: J. R., L. and Fred Denson, Plattsmouth; J. J. Denson, foreman of the boiler shops of the I. C. railroad, Waterloo, Ia.; J. H. Denson, Council Bluffs, Ia.; and Mrs. Simon Hansen, Weeping Water, Neb.

At the time of his death the deceased was in the employ of J. V. Egenberger, where he has been employed for the past four years. He was an honorable, upright citizen, very attentive to his duties, no matter by whom employed. His mother, Mrs. Mary Denson, died six months ago yesterday.
