ANNUAL CHURCH FESTIVITIES

The Day of All Days Which is Observed Purely as a Day of Thanksgiving.

WHY IT IS THUS OBSERVED.

It Antedates By Far Both Easter and Christmas.

Today is the date of our annual religious festivals. The origin antedates by far both Easter and Christmas. Its origin runs back to the days of the Israelites in the wilderness when the Divine command was: "Thou shalt keep * * * the feast of harvest, the first-fruits of thy labors, which hast sown in thy field; and the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labors out of the field." The observance of this Feast of Harvest has never been intermitted among pious Jews. Its spirit has moreover, been recognized in all ages of the Christian church. In Harvest Festivals and autumnal Thanksgiving days. In the Church of England these days have always had prominence. Even now the English religious papers are filled with sketches of Harvest observances in churches of various denominations. Thanksgiving day has been sometimes spoken of as in this country, peculiarly a New England holiday; but this is hardly the truth. The Dutch governors appointed Thanksgiving as early as 1614. Such a day was designated annually by the Federal congress during the revolutionary war. In the Book of Common Prayer of the Protestant Episcopal church of the United States as ratified in 1789, it is recommended that "the first Thursday in November, or, if any other day be appointed by the civil authority, then such day shall be observed as a day of Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the fruits of the earth, and other blessings." And this festival is as seemingly and as reasonable as it is venerable.

"For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a Cough or Cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble." His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed at F. G. Fricke & Co.'s drug store. Trial bottle free.

"Uncle Josh" Is Coming.

The attraction at the Parnelo on Friday December 1, 1905, will be the ever reliable "Uncle Josh Perkins," undoubtedly the most successful rural comedy drama that has been produced in years. It serves a distinct and highly commendable purpose, for it teaches in the cleverest and most entertaining way imaginable and in a thoroughly up to date manner the truth of the old saying, that "love will find a way." The chief interest in the piece centers in the love of Uncle Josh for his young daughter Nan. The entire cast of "Uncle Josh Perkins" has been selected from among the best known, most widely experienced and most conscientious actors and actresses of the American stage. The piece is most elaborately staged, and equipped with beautiful scenery. The engagement is for one night only.

Sluggish Liver a Foe to Ambition.
You cannot accomplish very much if your liver is inactive, as you feel dull, your eyes are heavy and slight exertion exhausts you. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and bowels and makes you feel bright and active. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe, and is mild and very pleasant to take. Orino is more effective than pills or ordinary cathartics. Refuse substitutes. F. G. Fricke & Co.

Reasons for Teaching.

At the recent teachers' meeting in one of the western counties of Nebraska, each teacher was called on to answer the question, "Why am I a Teacher?" and here are some of the replies, which the Journal prints for the benefit of Cass county teachers:
"Because I thought I might do more good than by being a preacher. It was a choice between those two professions."
"Because I wanted to be respected. Teachers are all respected by children."
"Had nothing else I could do, so I tried teaching and like it."
"I am a teacher because I like power. I still long for more power. My ambition in that line is not yet satisfied."
"Because I could make better wages than by working out as a hired girl."
"Because my friends and relatives said I would make an ideal teacher and old maid."
"Because it runs in the family and I love children."
"Because I think Carnegie will pension wornout school teachers. Only
