

CHRISTMAS

Only Ten Days Away.

Have you found just what you wanted to give for Xmas? If not, come to our store and see the many things we have suitable for gifts. We may save you worry,--we'll surely save you money.

10 % Off on Toys for Cash; 25 % Off on China

We can give you more for your money than you can get in Omaha or elsewhere in the state and you can pick from the largest and best line of toys and holiday goods ever seen in Plattsmouth
Do It Now, and Quit Worrying About It.

Mauzy & Murphy

10
%
off on Toys

25
%
off
on china

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

"Gut Heil," the favorite cigar. Smoke the Wurl Bros.' celebrated "Gut Heil" cigars.

Cloaks and Furs. Late arrivals. Lowly prices at Herold's.

Dr. Elster, Dentist, Waterman Block.

Geo. N. LaRue, of Union, was a business visitor in Plattsmouth Wednesday.

Philip Meisinger, one of the prosperous farmers of the precinct was in Plattsmouth today.

In county court Monday J. Reinke of South Bend, was appointed guardian of Annie Reinke, incompetent.

F. H. Stander and wife, of Wabash, were in the city Monday. Mr. Stander to pay his taxes and Mrs. Stander to make some Christmas purchases.

A. S. Will and Wes Cherry and family departed this morning for the Will ranch in Colorado. Mr. Cherry has a position on the ranch and will remain.

Geo. Horn and wife came in from Cedar Creek last evening to attend the Renner-Robbins wedding. George returned home this morning but Mrs. Horn remained until this evening.

Mrs. J. D. Lewis, of Murray, was in town Tuesday, and showed her good judgment in subscribing for the Journal one year as a Christmas gift to herself. A good way to do.

Marriage licenses were issued Monday to Lee Paris, aged 25 of Murray, and Miss Lorena May Harris, aged 20, of Union. Also to Cash L. Wiles, aged 20, and Miss Olive M. Cole, aged 20, both of Plattsmouth.

J. L. Kennedy, electrician for the Plattsmouth Telephone company and wife, went out to Louisville Tuesday to look after some telephone business. They were accompanied by Harve Manners, manager of the Weeping Water exchange.

J. L. Young, from near Murray, passed through Plattsmouth Tuesday morning going west with a view of purchasing some land. He expects to go as far west as Alliance and will look at a number of large tracts as he wishes to purchase a ranch.

T. J. Rhoden, who has been laid up with the rheumatism ever since the 7th of November, made his first trip to Plattsmouth Wednesday since then. In fact this is the first time he has been away from home. But the Journal is pleased to note his improvement.

Otto Becker, of Pacific Junction, was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday. He started over with his team but when he got to the river he found that the ice prevented the ferry from running, and he was compelled to return to the Junction and come over on the train. Otto came over to do some holiday trading.

The Misses Gertrude, Laura and Bertha Pitman, of Nehawka, were in the city Saturday, to the final settlement of their mother's estate, which was closed up in the county court today. Miss Gertrude will leave the fore part of next week for Los Angeles, Cal., where she will make her home at least for the winter and perhaps longer. Misses Lora and Bertha will, about the first of the year, go to Council Bluffs, Ia., to make their home.

Cloaks and Furs. Late arrivals. Lowly prices at Herold's.

Adam Meisinger, of Cedar Creek, was a Plattsmouth visitor today.

If looking for economical gifts patronize the "10c counter at Herold's."

Uncle Nick Halmes while in the city Friday called on the Journal and renewed his faith in the paper another year.

You will be surprised when you see what fine gifts you can buy off of the "10c counter" at Herold's.

August Krecklow and John Rohrdanz, of Manly, were in Plattsmouth Saturday and paid the Journal office a pleasant call.

J. K. P. Carper, of Union, came up today to pay his semi-annual dues to county, and while here made the Journal office a pleasant call.

James Stander, of Louisville, was in Plattsmouth a few hours this afternoon, returning home from a business trip out in Merrick county.

John Knabe, a prominent farmer of Nehawka, was in the city Saturday on business, and while here called and renewed for the Journal.

Dainty Handkerchiefs make the best Christmas presents. Most complete assortment at Herold's.

A. B. Fernoff, one of our prosperous farmers west of town, was in the city Saturday and paid the Journal office a pleasant call. He will, in the future, be a reader to the Daily Journal.

Most complete assortment of Handkerchiefs in town for Ladies and Gentlemen at Herold's. They make most acceptable presents to everyone.

Thos. Nix, of near Murray, accompanied by his uncle, A. A. Holmes, of Union, was in the city Wednesday, and were callers at the Journal office. Mr. Nix will leave today for Thomas county, to spend the holidays with his father.

You will be Surprised when you see what fine gifts you can buy off of the 10c counters at Henry Herold's.

Among the prizes awarded at the corn growing contest in Lincoln last week, Talmage Miller, of Greenwood, was second best, Robert Engel, of Saunders county, securing first prize. The former secured a steel windmill and the latter a cream separator. Two hundred and thirty prizes were awarded.

J. B. Meisinger, one of the boss farmers of Cass county, living west of town, was in the city Saturday, and in conversation with him he tells us that he has been troubled considerable with his rheumatism this fall. He tells us that his son Phillip, out at Cedar Creek will, in all probability, be elected mayor of that town next spring.

Henry Lehnhoff, of near Louisville, was down to pay his taxes Wednesday, and of course called on the Journal. Mr. Lehnhoff has been a resident of Cass county for forty-five years, and of course is numbered among the early pioneers of Nebraska. Not only this, but he is one of the best citizens of Cass county. We are always glad to meet him.

J. F. Hild of Mt. Pleasant was in town Wednesday.

George Oberle and Jake Reiter, of Eagle, were in Plattsmouth Monday.

If looking for economical gifts patronize the "10c Counter at Herold's."

Mrs. J. A. Walker and daughter, Mrs. Dr. Gilmore, of Murray, were here Wednesday making Christmas purchases.

If you want to remember them all, and only a few dollars to spend, patronize Herold's 10c counter.

J. W. Hostetter, of near Murray, was in the city Wednesday, reports his son, Claude, as much improved in his late illness.

Dainty Handkerchiefs make the best Christmas presents. Most complete assortment at Herold's.

John McNurlin, of Mt. Pleasant precinct and Charley Reihart, of Cullom were in town Wednesday, and made this office a business call. They will have a big sale at Mr. McNurlin's home on Wednesday, January 10, at which a great deal of personal property will be disclosed.

The many friends of Claus Breckenfeld in Plattsmouth will regret to learn that he was again compelled to go to St. Mary's hospital at Rochester, Minn., for treatment. He has been there several times already, and it is hoped he will return this time much improved. Mr. Breckenfeld is a former resident of Plattsmouth, where he lived for a number of years.

Nels Murray is pretty busy this week installing his new feed grinding machinery, and in a few days he will be ready to meet parties wishing feed and meal. The new machinery is being placed at his elevator near the Missouri Pacific tracks.

Jim Sage returned from his farm near Gallatin, Mo., where he went to get four head of horses that he had sent there for the summer's work. They were shipped over the Wabash to Malvern, Ia., and driven from there home. Two of the animals were sold today and will be shipped to Pierce county.

Mrs. M. O. Metzger, and children of Cherry county, Nebraska, arrived in Plattsmouth yesterday evening, and she was met here today by A. B. Fernoff, who conveyed her to his home west of town. Mrs. Metzger will remain in Cass county visiting her mother, sisters and other relatives for several weeks. Mr. Metzger will arrive later to return home with her.

W. A. Stephenson, who represents the American Collection agency of Minneapolis, Minn., is in the city in the interests of that company. Mr. Stephenson will be remembered by many of the older Plattsmouth people as playing ball here some eighteen or twenty years ago. He has played with the Plattsmouth team, and also against them with the visitors. In those days Plattsmouth could boast of a ball team that understood the game, and played ball all the time.

A marriage license was issued from the county judge's office yesterday evening to Mr. Ray Chriswiser, aged 21, of Murray, and Miss Rosetta Wood of near Rock Bluffs. The groom is a son of Bennett Chriswiser, of this city, an old and highly respected citizen of Cass county, and the bride is a daughter of Joseph Wood of near Rock Bluffs. The young people are spoken very highly of in the community where they have resided all their lives, and have hosts of friends who have none but the best wishes for their future success and happiness.

Miss Anna Goos was a passenger for Omaha this afternoon.

Joe Klein, of Lincoln, arrived in Plattsmouth last evening for a short business visit with old friends here. Mr. Klein has been suffering with a stomach trouble for the past few weeks that has confined to his home in Lincoln a greater portion of the time.

Have you Backache? Get a box of Kidney-Ettes—the most wonderful remedy for all kidney troubles, and they will make you right. 25c at Gering & Co's.

Benjamin Banard, from near Murray, was attending to some business matters in Plattsmouth today, and while making the rounds he dropped into the Journal office for a short visit.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is simply liquid electricity. It goes to every part of your body, bringing new blood, strength and new vigor. It makes you well and keeps you well. 35 cents. Gering & Co.

Do Not Wait Longer

But go right now to I. Pearlman and secure a great bargain at the Big Reduction Sale of

FURNITURE AND STOVES

The goods must go, the prices are low, so now is the time to buy if you are looking for great

Bargains in Furniture

Come and see the goods and prices. If I can't please you no harm is done.

I can save you money I. PEARLMAN Plattsmouth Nebraska

E. G. DOVEY & SON

CHRISTMAS

THERE is only a short time left for Christmas preparation and shopping. The useful is combined with the ornamental in the superb array of merchandise we are showing and you will find here just the things for holiday presents. The past months we have been personally selecting the very best goods of the leading wholesalers and manufacturers. We send a cordial invitation to all to inspect our large and handsome line of holiday novelties, we have plenty of sales people to show you around and help you to select just what you want.

Handsome China

We have a large assortment of decorated China, Fancy Plates, Cups and Saucers, Chocolate Pots, Celery Dishes, Salts and Peppers, in Cut Glass and China, Sugar and Creamers, Cracker Jars, Candle Sticks, Sterling Novelties, etc.

Novelties, Etc.

Mirrors all sizes, Shaving and Smoking Sets, Gloves, Jewelry, Handkerchief Boxes, Toilet Cases, Manicure Sets, Collar and Cuff Boxes, In fact you can find just what you want here for Xmas presents. Come in and look around.

Dress Goods, Silks, and Furs

Nothing pleases better than a Dress, Silk Waist or Fur Collar. We can show you some handsome handsome things in Silks, Dress Goods, and $3 Fur Scarfs, Clusters and Collars to select from. Sable Fur Collars, special, $5.00, also Children's Fur Sets.

Ribbons, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Etc.

We are headquarters. Handkerchiefs, 5c, 10c, 15c, 18c, 20c and up to 75c each.

Christmas Rugs

A large line of Elsetra Axminster Rugs, handsome patterns, $2.25 to $25.00

Make our store your headquarters. We are prepared to make it as pleasant as possible for you to do your Holiday Trading here. Your Patronage Appreciated.

E. G. DOVEY & SON