

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

Personal Points

From Friday's Daily.

A. A. Wetenkamp and wife of Myrard were county seat visitors today. Mrs. A. L. Baker of Murray was a business visitor in the city yesterday evening.

Quick Meal Gasoline Stoves, all sizes and styles, for sale at Asemissen & Louck's.

Joe Carrigan came in from Havelock this morning for a visit with friends here.

New supply of garden seed in bulk, also all kinds of field seeds, at Asemissen & Louck's.

Mrs. T. J. Todd came in from Wahoo this morning for a visit with relatives and friends.

J. S. Lindsay came up from Murray last night to see his new grandson—the boy of his son, Pete.

Mrs. Newland, son Emery and daughter Blaine, came in from Shenandoah this afternoon to visit with friends here.

Wm. Kemp and George Oberle of Eagle were transacting business in the city last night, returning home this morning.

Rudolph Ramsel and his force of ten men, returned this morning from Alliance, where they have been assisting the car repairing department of the Alliance division.

Miss Lulu Koehnke, departed this morning for a visit with relatives at Plainview and Orchard, Neb. She was accompanied as far as Omaha by her sister, Miss Mamie.

From Saturday's Daily.

A. S. Willis returned last night from a trip to Colorado.

Miss Anna Kanka was visiting this morning in Omaha.

Lee Oldham of Murray was a county seat visitor yesterday afternoon.

Ed Barstow came in from Lincoln this morning on railroad business.

Mrs. John Fight and daughter, Miss Hattie, were Omaha visitors today.

Prof. A. H. Earhart came up from Murray last night and visited friends here.

Mrs. H. Allison and Miss Jessie Drost, of Murray, were visiting in town today.

Peter Kell and wife of Cedar Creek were visiting friends at Plattsmouth today.

Full line of Quick Meal and Round Oak Steel Ranges, at competing prices. Asemissen & Louck.

Mrs. Addie White came in from her school in the Hill district last evening on business, returning via Cedar Creek this afternoon.

A transcript of the case entitled, State vs. Jack Chamberlain and J. N. Beaver was filed today with County Clerk Robertson.

In the county court, Asa D. McCullough has brought suit against Wm. Dunn to recover the sum of $162.50 paid for a horse that was found to be imperfect.

Mrs. J. E. Emery and daughter departed this morning for their home at Lincoln, after a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Murray, at Myrard.

Miss Lizzie Kroehler suffered a stroke of paralysis this morning, but we are pleased to learn as we go to press, that she is recovering from the effects of the same.

A suit was filed with the district clerk today by Devoe & Reynolds Co. vs. Jos. E. Truitt, wherein the plaintiffs seek to secure a judgment in the sum of $318.47 against the defendant.

Will Murray departed this morning for Grafton, Neb., where he will visit a few days. From there he will go to Merino, Colo., where he will enter into business as a carpenter.

John T. Porter and John Durman were here from near Murray were in Plattsmouth today on business and were pleasant callers at Journal headquarters. They are both energetic young farmers and "hale fellows well met."

Mrs. M. A. Bates returned last night accompanied by her daughter, Miss Lucille. After arriving at Lincoln the attending physician gave his consent to have her removed home, although very weak. We are in hopes she will get along nicely now under the care of her mother.

The body of John Boyce who jumped into the Missouri at Henton Station on April 3, was recovered yesterday. The deceased was fifty-one years of age, and has been confined at the asylum at Clarinda several times. He was a resident of Glenwood, Iowa, and the body was taken there for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hild came in from their home place yesterday and will visit over Sunday with their son, Mike and family. Mr. Hild is one of the well-to-do German farmers of Cass county, and no one has a better right to take a day off occasionally than our old friend. Mr. Hild was in last evening and renewed the subscriptions of his brother and nephew, Philip Hild and Phillip Huffman, at Green Valley, Illinois, to whom he has been sending the Journal for several years.

J. B. LaChapelle has again assumed control of the Ashland Journal. P. R. Wilmarth, who leased the outfit from him for two years, steps down and out, after an experience of a few months. Why, we have not learned, but it will be many a day before the Journal can boast of man at its head who will conduct its columns with the ability of Mr. Wilmarth.

From Monday's Daily.

"Gut Hell," the favorite cigar Machine oil at Asemissen & Louck's. Dr. Marshall, Dentist, Coats' Block.

Garden tools of every description at John Bauer's.

Dr. Elster, Dentist, Waterman Block

Jacob Melsinger, of Cedar Creek, was a county seat visitor today.

Sheriff Quinton went to Weeping Water this afternoon to serve some papers.

Oliver Edmunds returned this morning from a visit with friends at Schuyler, Neb.

Mrs. Teegarden of Hickman is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith.

Mrs. Claude Everett came up from Union Saturday evening to see her brother, Charles Grimes, returning this morning.

Mrs. Charles Richey and children returned to Louisville this afternoon, after a pleasant visit with F. M. Richey and family.

Mrs. Ed. Johnson and children, who have been enjoying a visit with relatives here, departed yesterday for their home at Lincoln.

Chamberlain's Salve is good for any disease of the skin. It allays the itching and burning sensation instantly. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co. and A. T. Fried.

Dr. A. P. Barnes departed yesterday afternoon for Lincoln to transact some business matters previous to the assembling of the state veterinary association, which meets in that city Wednesday.

Chief of Police Fitzgerald is in receipt of a card from Will McNeill, of Bancroft, Neb., offering a reward of $100 for the recovery of the body of an Omaha Indian, who is supposed to have been drowned in the Missouri near Decatur.

The members of the G. A. R. held memorial services of the surrender of General Lee at their hall last Saturday night. Many of the citizens were in attendance and enjoyed the interesting services.

John McNurlin returned home yesterday evening. He has been out at the old home place ever since his father died last Monday, looking after matters and condoling with his dear old mother.

You feel the life giving current the minute you take it. A gentle soothing warmth, fills the nerves and blood with life. It's a real pleasure to take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Sold by Gering & Co.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Henry Long and wife, of Murray, were visiting in Plattsmouth today.

Dr. J. M. Green, of Manley, was transacting business at Plattsmouth today.

Mrs. J. H. Teegarden returned to her home at Hickman this morning, after a few days visit with her parents.

Ed Pitman, formerly of Nebawka, but who has been barbering at Bancroft, Neb., came in Sunday and is now employed in the Riley house barber shop.

Some of the merchants here in town are paying ten cents per dozen for eggs in trade and then sell them out to their customers at two dozen for 25 cents. Is this fair?

In a letter received from Will Robertson he stated that he arrived in San Francisco on the 4th and has been through the government mint the battleship Oregon and the navy yard.

Misses Ida Boedeker and Gertrude Long, of Murray, were visiting at the county seat today. The latter departed this afternoon for Johnson, Neb., where she will enjoy a visit with friends.

A suit in equity to set aside decree of court and deed, and for issuing of an injunction was filed in the district clerk's office today, by Chas. H. McIntire and wife vs. James Hartshorn and Mary J. McIntire.

A force of seven men in charge of George Kennedy, the electrician of the Independent Telephone Co., went to Elmwood this afternoon to build twenty miles of telephone line between Elmwood and Nebawka.

Money on hand to loan on city property. No delay. H. D. TRAVIS.

This is the season of listlessness, headaches and spring disorders. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is a sure preventative. Make you strong and vigorous. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Sold by Gering & Co.

Adolph Giese of Omaha has purchased the saloon of Hans Goos, on the southeast corner of Main and Fifth, and is in the city today perfecting arrangements to soon take possession. He seems to be an exceedingly clever gentleman.

Miss Marshall, of Plattsmouth, sang at St. Mary's Catholic church Sunday morning and at the Presbyterian church in the evening. She has a sweet voice and the audiences were delighted with the songs rendered on each occasion.—Nebraska City News.

Mrs. M. J. Gildersleeve of New York City at Mrs. O. C. Dovey's tonight. This will be worth while and every one is invited to come. Mrs. Gildersleeve is secretary of band work for the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions at New York City. Mrs. J. W. Gamble and Miss Florence White will sing.

Don't tie a cough or a cold up in your system by taking a remedy that binds the bowels. Take Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It is different from all other cough syrups. It is better. It opens the bowels—expels all colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. An ideal remedy for young and old. Children like it. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co., Gering & Co.

Rev. J. H. Salisbury's catechism class met with him socially last night, the evening being spent in contests and conversation. Miss Vesta Douglass and Miss Catherine Windham winning the prizes. Marvin Root and Jack Patterson the consolation favors. Every one seemed in the spirit of the occasion and enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Don't drug the stomach to cure a cough. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the mucus, draws the inflammation out of the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes, heals, soothes and cures. A quick cure for croup and whooping cough. Its constantly increasing use for many years tells of the fact of its absolute usefulness. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co., Gering & Co.

Judge H. D. Travis returned from his trip to the Indian Territory this morning and says that is a fine country, and no mistake. While at Clairmore he enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Wortman, and states that the ex-county superintendent of schools is doing well, which his many friends in old Cass will be pleased to learn. The judge enjoyed his trip amazingly well.

Living indoors so much during the winter months creates a sort of a stuffy, want-of-ozone condition in the blood and system generally. Clean up and get ready for spring. Take a few Early Risers. These famous little pills cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels and give the blood a chance to purify itself. They relieve headache, sallow complexion, etc. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co., Gering & Co.

If you ever bought a box of Witch Hazel Salve that failed to give satisfaction the chances are it did not have the name "E. C. DeWitt & Co." printed on the wrapper and pressed in the box. The original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve never fails to give satisfaction for burns, sores, boils, tetter, cracked hands, etc. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles it affords almost immediate relief. It stops the pain. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co., Gering & Co.

From Wednesday's daily.

Will Jean made a business trip to Omaha this morning.

H. A. Schneider went to Cedar Creek to visit for a few days.

George Peters of Avoca, was transacting business at the county seat today.

P. H. Melsinger and daughter, Miss Lena, were passengers for Omaha this morning.

Mrs. Andrew Seybert returned to Cedar Creek after a short visit with friends here.

Mrs. W. E. Rosencrans was a passenger for Elmwood this afternoon to visit a few days with relatives and friends.

James Sage went to South Omaha this morning to look at some western horses that were shipped to that place recently.

John H. Spangler, of near Murray, while in the city today on business, called and renewed for the Journal another year.

Mrs. Geo. H. Horn came down from Cedar Creek this morning and will remain the guest of Mrs. Chas. Heger until tomorrow afternoon.

A letter has been received by the authorities here from A. M. Drew, an attorney at Fresno, Cal., offering a reward of $50 for information leading to the identification and locating of one

E. G. DOVEY & SON

A Curtain Lecture

DIDN'T we tell you the weather man would fix things properly when he got to going right? The thunder shower and heavy rains weren't for nothing. It sure means an introduction to spring—beautiful spring, with its mud and other things. But while we're talking, see here—

While we have beautiful spring goods in all lines we call your especial attention to our new line of Lace Curtains which we think far exceeds any line heretofore shown. Ruffled Net and Swiss curtains at 98c, $1.40 and up.

++++

You may not care to put much money into new lace curtains. You can have your choice of some pretty patterns at 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 a pair. If you care to pay more we have excellent values and pretty patterns at $2, $2.50, $3, $3.50, $4, $5, $6 and $7.50.

Look over our new line of Door Panels at 40c, 50c, 75c and $1.00.

Net Curtains with Battenberg Insertion and edge, $2.50 a pair. White and Arabian Net Curtains with real Cluny insertion at $5 and $6. Bonne Femme Curtains at from $3.50 to $8.00

++++

A beautiful line of Madras Curtains in wide silk stripes at $5. Can be used for portieres or curtains. Madras Curtains in cream with blue, red and green cross stripes, $1, up. Curtain Swisses in stripes, dots and figures, 10c, 12½c, 15c and up. In cross stripes 42 in. in all colors. Regular $1.00 Wrappers for 85 cents.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

Wm. Hardie, who left his home at Oleander, Calif., on September 4, 1897, and has not been heard from since.

Don't think that piles can't be cured. Thousands of obstinate cases have been cured by Doan's Ointment. 50c at any drug store.

C. A. Rawls, Lawyer. Probate and general practice. Office of County Attorney.

C. G. Parmele and little son returned from their California trip this morning. They enjoyed quite an extended trip and visited most of the principal cities on the coast.

Farmers, mechanics, railroaders, laborers rely on Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Takes the sting out of cuts, burns or bruises at once. Pain cannot stay where it is used.

The sheriff is in receipt of a letter from P. D. Nelson of Lincoln, offering a reward of $50 for the capture and conviction of a thief who stole a horse and buggy from him on Monday night.

Mrs. Arabia Pitt, who has been enjoying a visit with Herman Herold and family, departed this morning for her home at Sheridan, Wyo. She was accompanied by Miss Freda Herold who will visit with her.

The base ball subscription list is mounting right up to the $200 mark. One hundred and eighty-five dollars have been subscribed, and the prospects of Plattsmouth having a first class team are encouraging.

D. O. DWYER, Attorney-at-Law Office in building east of court house, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

The members of the Elks lodge sent to the sick room of Miss Lucille Bates yesterday afternoon a large, handsome bouquet of cut flowers, which was highly appreciated by the patient. After suffering a slight relapse night before last she is now in a fair way to an early recovery, which her friends will be pleased to learn.

Frank Schlater returned this morning from the vicinity of Louisville where he went to look after his father who had been taken quite sick while he and Mrs. Schlater were visiting old friends and neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. Schlater also returned with him. Our old friend, aside from weakness caused from the attack, is feeling pretty well considering his serious illness.

Injured While Playing Ball.

While playing catch with some of her girl friends on Tuesday evening Ruth Johnson had the misfortune to step into a rut and seriously sprain her left ankle. A physician was summoned to examine the injured member, which is exceedingly painful, and it will be several days before Miss Johnson will be able to bear her weight upon the injured ankle.

Mrs. A. M. Young, who has been enjoying a visit with R. H. Frans at Union, passed through this place this morning enroute to her home at Ottumwa, Ia. Ray Frans accompanied her as far as this city, returning on the morning train to Union.

Jacob Wolf came in from Wahoo last night on business.

S. H. Atwood came in from Lincoln this morning on business.

D. M. Jones was a business passenger to Omaha on the morning train.

J. D. McBride was transacting business this morning at the metropolis.

John Carnes of Union was transacting business at the court house today.

The Burlington's pay car was a welcome visitor to the employees today.

Mrs. F. T. Darrow came in from Lincoln this morning to visit with friends.

Miss Pearl Staats came in from Lincoln last evening to spend a few days with her parents.

Miss Luella Stonerod was a passenger this morning for Omaha, where she will visit with friends.

Sheriff Quinton went out in the vicinity of Union and Elmwood last night to serve some papers.

John Spangler of Louisville was in Plattsmouth on business today, and made the Journal a pleasant call.

Mrs. D. A. Youtz and Mrs. D. Campion went to Omaha this afternoon to spend a few days with friends.

Our old friend, Theo. Helm, of Louisville, was in the city today, and of course paid his respects to the Journal.

The sheriff is in receipt of a letter from Chief of Police Collins of Chicago offering a reward of $50 for information leading to the identification and location of one Sam. J. Frank who has been missing from his home at Chicago since March 31st, and is supposed to have committed suicide.

A. S. Will made a business trip to Omaha this morning.

Mrs. A. E. Fried was a passenger for Omaha this afternoon.

Mrs. P. F. Goos was visiting in the metropolis this morning.

Miss Ethel Robinson was visiting in the metropolis this afternoon.

Robert Mauzy made a business trip to the metropolis this afternoon.

Mrs. James Newell and Mrs. T. H. Pollock were visiting in Omaha today.

R. J. Tate of Plainview visited in the city today, returning home this afternoon.

George Falter came in from Lincoln last night to visit with his folks for a few days.

Roy Pepperberg came in from Lincoln last night to spend a few days with his folks.

Miss Hazel Dovey, who is attending the university this year, is visiting with her parents.

Will Wehrlein and Miss Nellie Creamer of Murray were passengers for the metropolis this morning.

Mathew Gering was a passenger this afternoon for Omaha, and expect to depart this evening on a business trip to Chicago.

Mrs. J. R. Wells and daughter, Mrs. Warren Deming, came in from South Bend this morning to visit with friends and relatives here.

The ordinary routine of work at Wren's laundry was slightly interrupted this morning when a hand plug blew out of the boiler and filled the room with steam, necessitating the removal of the laundred articles to D. C. York's barber shop in order to protect them from injury.

Kroehler & Kroehler

HARDWARE

In selecting your spring needs, please bear in mind that we carry a complete line of Builders' Material in the Hardware Line. Also,

Gasoline Stoves,

Lawn Mowers,

and the old Reliable....

Buck's Stoves and Ranges

We do all kinds of Roofing, Repairing and Spouting. Call and see us.

KROEHLER & KROEHLER