Elmwood

From the Leader-Echo.

John Lynn's were released from quarantine yesterday.

Another child of Bart Hopkins is quite sick with measles.

George Leis and family, of Murdock, were Elmwood visitors Sunday.

L. F. Langhorst has sold his $6,000 stock of general merchandise at Murdock to Langhorst and Rubge, of Avoca. The new firm will take charge April 9th.

Two of Cass county's handsome school ma'ams, who attended the teachers' meeting at Eagle last Saturday, beat the Missouri Pacific out of a few pennies by walking from Eagle to Elmwood Saturday evening, beating the freight here by half an hour.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Neely are the happy parents of a fine nine pound girl, born Friday, March 30th. All doing well except Doc, who hasn't quite recovered enough to answer all calls.

Dr. Bohannon was called to Alvo several times the past week to see a little daughter of R. A. Stone. The little one was dangerously ill and was taken to Lincoln Tuesday for an operation. At last report the child was doing nicely.

D. S. Loring has purchased the L. W. Myers residence property and four lots adjoining the Myers property, and will again make Elmwood his home. Mrs. Loring arrived from Missouri Wednesday and they will move into the store building until Mr. Myers vacates the house. It is needless to say that all welcome the Loring family "back home."

Caught Cold While Hunting a Burglar.

Mr. Wm Thos. Lanorgan, provincial Constable at Chapeau, Ontario, says: "I caught a severe cold while hunting a burglar in the forest swamp last fall. Hearing of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I tried it, and after using two small bottles, I was completely cured." This remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds. It will loosen and relieve a severe cold in less time than by any other treatment and is a favorite wherever its superior excellence has become known. For sale by F. F. Fricke & Co., and A. T. Fried.

Nehawka

From the Register.

Born, Saturday, March 31, to Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Waldo, a ten pound son.

Deputy Assessor Kropp began his duties this week, and is beginning to find out how much people are worth.

There is considerable talk of putting in a concrete sidewalk from the west side of the village to the business part.

The Modern Woodmen are taking a new start. Four candidates were elected at their meeting last Friday night.

Isaac Pollard and wife had all the children home for a good old fashioned dinner Sunday. The sons and daughter-in-laws were all there except Mrs.

E. M., who was left in Washington. She will doubtless look after Nebraska interests there as well as any of the men on the congressional delegation.

Alvin McReynolds, the fifteen-year-old son of George McReynolds, was celebrating the first of April by putting powder in an empty cartridge shell and touching it off with a match. The powder exploded and the shell was driven into his left eye, completely destroying the sight. He was taken to an Omaha hospital the same day.

Mr. Edgar E. Miller and Miss Nettie Vantine, both of this city, were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. J. Vantine, at high noon on Thursday, April 5, 1906, Rev. H. N. Hulse officiating. These young people are both well and favorably known in this community, and need no eulogy at our hands, but we voice the sentiment of many friends when we join in wishing them a long, prosperous and happy voyage over the sea of life. They will begin housekeeping at once on the Easter farm southeast of town.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of la grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston, of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a double dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip." Sold by F. F. Fricke & Co., and A. T. Fried.

Louisville

From the Courier.

Little Elnor Frampton of Lincoln is visiting her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lehnhoff.

The local blacksmiths are doing a good business just now getting the farmers' tools ready for spring work.

Adam Strott sold his property in the south part of town this week and will move to Pittsburg, Pa., where he will make his future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schlater came up from Plattsmouth Tuesday to visit their old time friend and neighbor, Mrs. Fredrick Stohman.

The National stone quarry has received a half dozen drills to be operated with compressed air. They are the latest thing out and are said to drill with wonderful rapidity.

It is said that between $400 and $500 worth of fish were taken from the Platte river above Plattsmouth during the breaking up of the ice. Ben Barker brought a fine one home the other day which he purchased of some fisherman down there.

Election of teachers was held last Monday evening. All the teachers had been requested by the secretary of the board to apply, since the board wished to retain them in their present positions, but only Mr. Gains, Miss McGrew, Miss Johnson and Miss Ross applied. These were re-elected at a raise in salary and the other vacancies were left to be filled at a later meeting in hopes that Misses Cameron, Lee and Towle might be persuaded to accept their former places which they have so successfully filled during the past year.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemorrhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for weak lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co., druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Eagle

Jake Frolich is hauling the lumber for an addition to his house.

J. J. Bahr is again able to be up and around the house but is not yet able to be out.

Will Latrom was quite sick for a short time Sunday as a result of taking an overdose of a cough syrup.

Dr. Jester was called to Clay county last week by the serious illness of his father and one of his aunts.

Rudolph Oberle lost two and Dick Standley five cows this week from some disease which seems to be affecting the cattle in many localities.

Carl Bergman, the father of Mrs. R. Umland, died at the home of his son-in-law near Bennett, Sunday noon. He was aged about seventy. The burial took place Thursday at Bennett.

By mistake, J. L. Bickert filled a kerosene lamp with gasoline for the election board, Tuesday evening. John Robotham, falling in his attempt to blow them out smothered the flames with a piece of canvas before all present were blown to Omaha and the records of the election lost.

J. J. Reitter has traded his store for three quarter sections of land in Madison county to a Mr. N. L. Taylor, of Norfolk. The work of involving the store was begun yesterday and as soon as that is finished Mr. Taylor will take possession. Miss Nora Reitter will assist Mr. Taylor in the store. Jake has not yet decided what he will do.

Suffered for Five Years with Kidney and Liver Trouble.

"I suffered for five years with kidney and liver trouble, which caused severe pains across the back and a blinding headache. I had dyspepsia and was so constipated that I could not move my bowels without a cathartic. I was cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and have been well now for six months," says Mr. Arthur S. Strickland, of Chattanooga, Tenn. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co., and A. T. Fried.

Union

From the Leader.

Mrs. Emma Wallace of Lincoln, accompanied by her son Lucian and daughter Harriet, came in last Saturday to Union relatives and friends a few days.

Ralph Easter, one of our popular young men, son of James Easter, departed Wednesday for Canada to take advantage of some of the business opportunities that he believes exist there.

Mrs. H. E. Ruhman departed on the 10:22 train yesterday for her home in Dallas, Texas, after making several months visit with her mother and other relatives and friends in this neighborhood.

Mrs. Agnes Peterson departed on Wednesday for her home at Glencove, Wash. She spent several months here visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gruber, and a number of other relatives and friends in this neighborhood all of whom regret that she could not prolong her visit.

Mrs. Emma Wallace of Lincoln, Isaac Pollard of Nehawka and T. G. Barnum, were in Nebraska City on Monday attending the guardian's sale of the Wallace farm southwest of here. The farm of 160 acres was purchased by William Kropp for $70 per acre.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Clarence, who reside a few miles northeast of here, were called upon to mourn the death of their little daughter Mabel, which occurred last Saturday morning. The child was sick only a few days, suffering from an attack of meningitis so severe that medical skill could not overcome the disease. The funeral services were held in Mount Hope church Monday at 1 o'clock p. m. conducted by Rev. McVay, and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery north east of this village.

No Danger on the Platte.

Railroad reports yesterday did not indicate dangerously high water in the Platte river at any of the railway crossings, and it was said that no trouble is expected from this source. The river is now nearly free from ice and the water moves under the bridges without doing damage.

A married man remarked the other day that his daughter came home about nine o'clock one night last week scared almost to death. She stated that two fellows followed her from the Riley hotel corner almost to her home in the north part of the city, whistling and making all kinds of slurring remarks. She failed to learn the names of the dastardly whelps, or her father would have filed a complaint against them the next morning.

Stomach and Liver Trouble.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures stomach and liver trouble as it aids digestion, and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating these organs like pills and ordinary cathartics. It cures indigestion and sick headache and chronic constipation. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Seed Buying.

The farmer is just now buying his supply of clover and alfalfa seed and it is going up at a rapid rate. There is no doubt that more clover will be sown this spring in Nebraska than in any previous year. When the western farmer wakes up to a need he is not long in getting into action and it has been forced upon him very distinctly of late that his soil is not going to last many more years of constant cropping of corn, oats and wheat. We usually sow clover in this part of the state on fall wheat and the work is done as quickly as the ground is in good working order after the first of April. We run the harrow over the wheat with the teeth laid half way down so that it scratches lightly and just covers the clover seed at the right depth. This harrowing is all right for the wheat, too, if not too dry and windy.—Nebraska Farmer.

A Lucky Postmistress

is Mrs. Alexander, of Cary, Me., who has found Dr. King's New Life Pills to be the best remedy she ever tried for keeping the Stomach, Liver and Bowels in perfect order. You'll agree with her if you try these painless purifiers that infuse new life. Guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co., druggist. Price 25 cents.

Sheriffs Dislike Ruling.

The sheriffs in the state are objecting seriously to the ruling of the attorney general that receipts must accompany vouchers filed for railroad fare. One sheriff wrote in that he would take what he could get, as he was at the mercy of the auditor. He said in his letter he had agreed to serve summons for the railroad company in return for transportation and therefore, he thought, he earned all the transportation he received. Last year he said he had served summons, which, if paid for, would have netted him $87 of the railroad's money. He made no record of the fees because he had the annual. His office, he said, only paid about $400 a year. When it was discovered that the sheriffs in various parts of the state had such a contract with the various railroads the governor asked for a ruling on the question and the attorney general ruled the receipts must be filed with the voucher. The governor found out about the agreement when one sheriff sent in a voucher to which was attached his contract with a railroad company.

—What good does it do you to eat if your stomach fails to digest the food? None. It does you harm—causes belching, sour stomach, flatulence, etc. When the stomach fails a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure after each meal will digest what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. F. G. Fricke & Co., Gering & Co.

Blackleg in Otoe County.

Blackleg has broken out in this vicinity again. William Wrenn, who lives on the Van Wyck farm northwest of the city, lost three cattle from the disease yesterday. Dr. A. G. Bernard was hastily summoned from this city and vaccinated all of the cattle on the farm likely to be subject to the disease. Blackleg only affects cattle under two years old. Veterinary surgeons are now able to prevent the spread of the disease by vaccination but as yet have discovered no cure for animals once affected. Blackleg has appeared on two or three farms in this vicinity during the past winter.—Nebraska City Tribune.

—Why suffer with your kidneys? The discovery of Kidney-Etts has proved a blessing to thousands of kidney sufferers who have been restored to perfect health. These tablets drive the diseased germs out of the system and we urge all sufferers to give this scientific and successful kidney remedy a trial. 25 cents. Sold by Gering & Co.

HORSE STILL IN THE LEAD IS IT A FAKE STORY?

Preachment on the Animal and His Mechanical Rival.

The use of the automobile does not seem to have discouraged horse raising in the least, but rather the horse is in greater demand today than ever, and they are commanding higher prices. Official reports show that the horse is still paramount. In 1905 there were 17,056,702 horses in the United States, against 14,213,837 in 1890. The export price averaged $308.99 last year, against $174.50 in 1893. The horse is flesh, blood and intelligence, and people of natural and practical predilections can have an affection for him. He has the graces of instinct, and if he gets proper attention is a thing of beauty and satisfaction. The spread of the automobile is amazing, but it is still to a great degree a fad and a toy. It is a product of prosperous times, when men are making money and have the means of treating themselves to novelties. Its best use is for heavy delivery transportation in cities, but it has nothing to commend it over the horse for family driving or pleasure riding. It goes faster than the patient four-footed beast, but the horse is as rapid as is necessary. It goes at as great a pace as ought to be permitted in the streets of a city, and is less tempestuous than the bellowing and snorting motor. Anybody with human instincts can acquire a positive affection for a faithful horse, but who could love a greasy automobile, with its absurd noises, gaseous wheezing and noxious orders? The horse, the noblest of all beasts—if indeed, it is not a shame to call it a beast—is a creature of bountiful and beautiful nature, while the horseless wagon is a senseless, ponderous machine that is not bridled, and has to be guided at every motion by a man in a spectacular overcoat and wearing on his eyes horrid goggles. The automobile has not advanced save in devilment. It is still largely a vehicle for the transportation of grotesque exhibitions. Loyalty to the horse is a sign of the best human temperament. He is one of the pioneers of civilization, as well as one of its greatest finishers.

Was She a Grafter?

A smooth-tongued, well-dressed and handsome lady arrived in town this morning, and hardly had she landed on the Burlington depot platform before she produced her little book and began to solicit aid for a branch hospital to be located at Aurora, Neb., so she said. She succeeded admirably well, and in a few hours she raised not less than fifteen or twenty dollars raked into her coffers. Now, she may be all right and honest in her endeavors, but it will be remembered that the Journal a few weeks ago published a clipping from an exchange, exposing this sort of a graft, and she was described in that article exactly. Why her haste out of town? By the time she had partaken of dinner at the Perkins House, a livery team was in waiting to convey her to Murray. Whether her object is a charitable one or not, it is always best for such parties to carry credentials, properly certified to. It's strange how lavishly some of our people donate to such people, especially when approached by a beautiful lady, as upon this occasion.

Wright Returns to His Home in Valley as Though Nothing Had Happened.

The Nebraska City papers of yesterday contained accounts of the elopement escapade of William Wright, of Valley, and Mrs. J. J. McCoy, of Fairbury. It seems now that the whole story has been declared a fake so far as the same concerns Mrs. McCoy; the following special from Valley to the World-Herald may be read with interest:

"The one topic of conversation here Sunday and Monday was the story of the sensational search of Mrs. William Wright for her husband and the statement made by her attorney to the World-Herald saying that Mrs. Wright believed Mrs. J. J. McCoy was with her husband. While there had been some talk among the townfolk for some time concerning Wright it was not believed that there was anything of a serious nature underneath these rumors.

"Wright came home Sunday from Omaha, where he had been since Saturday. He went to his home only to find that he was locked out and that the house was empty. He finally effected an entrance, but it seems as if he had remained in the house almost since his arrival.

"Deputy Sheriff Brown, from Omaha, reached here today and served Wright with a restraining order which prevents him from disposing of his property pending an application for divorce which was instituted in district court today by his wife.

"The Wrights and McCoy's have been well acquainted for some time, but the wives have had frequent disagreements, over just what outsiders have failed to learn.

"Mrs. McCoy was expected to return to Valley today, but she did not put in an appearance here."

HUSBAND DENIES REPORT.

Over long distance telephone last night J. J. McCoy, the Burlington yardmaster at Fairbury, said:

"There is nothing in the story coming from Nebraska City that my wife and William Wright eloped and went to that place together or singly, for that matter. Mrs. McCoy is now in Fairbury with me and she denies emphatically that she has been in Nebraska City or has been with Wright at any other place.

"There is not a word of truth in the story. Of that you can rest assured."
