Collections Taken at the Churches.

At the churches Sunday special collections to aid the suffering people of San Francisco were taken up and everyone who had not and many who had contributed previously, came forward with a liberal offering toward this worthy cause. The following is a list of the donations:

Presbyterian	$27 02
St. Lukes	10 00
St. John's about	28 00
Christian	8 35
Methodist	4 30
St. Paul Evangelical	26 sacks of flour were solicited from the various members, and the collection was omitted. At many of the churches the members had donated liberally before, and did not feel as though they could give any more which accounts for the small collections.

More Contributions.

TRIBUTE TO CHARLES BLACK

Life Sketch of a Pioneer, Who Was in Business Here Over Thirty Years

During the single revolution of this old earth yesterday, this community was called upon to mourn the demise of a popular and estimable young lady in the second hour of the coming day, and ere the sun had set, their grief was increased by the loss of the energetic pioneer business man Mr. Charles E. Black, who also departed to the land of the never setting sun to join the loving wife who passed away on Thursday night, April 5th.

The subject of this sketch was born in Fraziersburg, O., on the 26th day of January 1847, and on the 1st of November 1861, he, together with his parents removed to Plattsburgh where he has since continuously resided, winning the admiration and respect of all whom he came in contact with. During his early life in this city he assisted his uncle, J. H. Buttery, in conducting a drug store, and in 1879 entered into that business with his brother Fred and C. H. Smith. They continued in that business until about 1890, when they disposed of their stock, and Charles entered the clothing establishment of Joe Klein, where he was employed until Mr. Klein discontinued his business here. Mr. Black then entered the employ of C. E. Wescott & Son, where he has constantly been engaged in the performance of his duty for the past seven years.

After his wife's death he was unable to continue his work, and has been confined at his home, gradually growing weaker, from the ravages of that fatal malady, consumption, until death finally relieved him. Thus has a kind and loving father passed from our midst, to join the wife, son and daughter, who have preceded him. A brother, Fred, and sister, Mrs. C. H. Smith, and two daughters, Misses Capitola and Hannah, receive the sympathy of the entire community during this hour of sad affliction.

The funeral of Charles Black will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock from the home. Rev. Salisbury will have charge of the services. Friends desiring to view the remains will call at the home tomorrow morning from 10 to 12 o'clock.

Out of respect to the memory of Mr. Charles E. Black, who has been a faithful and trusted employe in our store for the past seven years, and whose funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, our store will close at that hour and remain closed, for the day. C. E. WESCOTT'S SONS.

His Father Recovering.

J. H. Miller, of Sallodasburg, Pa., is here today visiting County Clerk Rosencrans. Mr. Miller is holding down a government position in the capacity of overseer of Indian labor. He is returning from a visit to his old home, where he and "Rosey" were both reared. While back to the old town he assisted in taking care of Mr. Rosencrans' father, who was ill for several weeks and at times in a very dangerous condition. "Rosey" went to Omaha to meet his old friend and former neighbor, who will resume his journey to the reservation today. The few hours they spent together were most enjoyable ones.

DISCRIMINATION WITH A BIG D

Charges Filed Against the Missouri Pacific Railroad Company.

W. F. GILLESPIE THE COMPLAINANT

The Matter Will Now be in the Hands of Inter-State Commission for Settlement.

W. F. Gillespie is a grain buyer at Mynard, on the Missouri Pacific railroad, and has been in business there for several years. By his genial qualities and paying the top-notch prices at all times for grain, he has now the confidence and respect of the entire farming community for miles in the vicinity of Mynard. For some time he has failed, after repeated requests, to get cars to ship his grain to the markets and it has time and time again interfered with his business by failing to get the cars necessary to remove his grain, while Murray and other towns along the line have been supplied with more cars than they really could use. This is the case at the present time.

Now if this was the only instance it would not be so bad, but the company has repeated the outrage several times within the past six months, and now Mr. Gillespie proposes to resort to the Inter-State Commission for relief. Mr. Gillespie did not like to begin such action, but this discrimination business has become so plain that in justice to himself and his patrons he feels compelled to do so.

It is one of the plainest cases of discrimination that we have heard of for some time, and Mr. Gillespie was in the city this morning and employed Matthew Gering to file the charges with the Inter-State Commission.

It does look bad for a railroad company to supply a grain buyer in a town six miles distant with more cars than is necessary to remove his grain, when Mr. Gillespie is unable to secure what he needs to carry off even a portion of his accumulated grain, and which also retards the farmers from delivering the corn which they have sold to Mr. Gillespie, and have a desire to deliver before beginning their spring work.

The Journal believes Mr. Gillespie has taken the proper step to remedy this evil, and we will soon know whether there is any justice even in the Inter-State Commission.

SHOOTING SCRAPE AT UNION

Two Residents of that City the Victims of an Attempted Assassination Sunday Morning.

A lively shooting scrape that gave two of the participants an exceedingly bad scare occurred at Union about one o'clock Sunday morning. It seems that Mrs. Nettie Turner and Miss Foster came in on the midnight train Saturday night and were on their way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Todd, where they expected to spend the remainder of the night, and when a short distance from the depot a man suddenly stepped out in front of them from behind the corner of a building, and flashing a gun in their faces began snapping it until it exploded and the bullet whizzed past over their heads. The ladies were thoroughly frightened by this and ran back to the depot, from which place the marshal was summoned and a search instituted for the perpetrator of the attempted murder. Every nook and corner of that vicinity was inspected, but no trace of the guilty party was discovered. The ladies were very much frightened by their thrilling experience, and narrow escape from death, but could give no description of the man as it was quite dark at the time. Neither can they imagine why any one would wish to harm them in any way.

WHY NOT ANOTHER EFFORT?

The Residents in the Western Part of the County Demand It.

A NEW TRAIN ON THE MO. PACIFIC

From Lincoln to Omaha and Return via Weeping Water and Union.

Last spring and summer a feint effort was made to secure a train service over the Missouri Pacific from Lincoln to Omaha via Weeping Water and Union, the same to leave Lincoln at 6 o'clock a. m. and return, leaving Omaha at 4 p. m.

Such a service would greatly benefit Plattsburgh as well as result most beneficially to those having business at the county seat who live in the extreme western part of the county. As the trains run on that road now, parties coming from the west side are compelled to come to Union at midnight and remain there to catch the early morning train coming north, which is due here at 5:34. That is entirely too early for the transaction of any great amount of business and return on the next train south at 9:45. They have either got to do so or wait till 12 o'clock at night, and then again remain at Union over night. Making two nights away from home, while with a train from Lincoln to Omaha they could leave home in the morning and return the same evening.

The Journal believes that with a united effort on the part of the business men of Plattsburgh, combined with those of Nehawka, Weeping Water, Wabash Elmwood and Eagle, this service can be inaugurated. We believe such a service could be made a paying business for the company. It would occasion more travel than is at present done by the farmers on the west side, and eventually the Missouri Pacific would do an immense amount of passenger traffic with this special service.

Let our business men agitate this matter among themselves and start a movement in that direction, and if necessary let a committee of five be selected to visit headquarters in St. Louis and submit the matter to the proper parties in its true light. The service is worthy of a desperate effort. It would not only please the people who come to this city on business but it would result more beneficially to our merchants than any of them can possibly imagine at the present time.

Just received a car of the American fencing. If in need of any please give us a call before buying.

ASEMISSEN & LOTCKS.

Sold His Fine Residence.

D. H. Mills and wife, of Wahoo, were here last Thursday, and while here purchased the fine residence property of Dr. H. Jensen, just south of the Congregational church. We are not informed as to the purchase price, but understand it was in the neighborhood of $6,000. This will make Mr. and Mrs. Mills an elegant home and they will occupy it as soon as it can be vacated. Dr. Jensen has rented the George Carter residence and will occupy it until he can build another home, which, we understand he will do.—Weeping Water Republican.

In the Good Old Springtime.

How doth the little busy man Improve each shining hour From early morn till dewy eve To earn the meat and flour. Then when his daily work is done He hastens down the street, To seek the quiet and the rest Of home, that safe retreat.

But disappointment here awaits, For as his home he nears The good wife meets him at the door And this is what he hears: "O Hubby dear, I'm glad you've come The garden must be made; So go and get the rake and hoe, The shovel and the spade.

A lot of seed of various kinds, And it is getting late, So don't stand there and talk all day Your supper? That can wait!" The good man ventures not a word, For he has learned full well From many a past experience 'Tis useless to rebel.

And so he digs, and rakes and hoes, And sweats from every pore Until his back is broken quite, And every muscle's sore. A Then when he's done, too tired to eat, He lies himself to his bed, And tosses on a sleepless couch, And wishes he was dead.

BOUND FOR SAN FRANCISCO.

The following letter is from Monte Streight, and written to his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Streight of this city, where he makes his home. Monte is in the employ of the Adams Express company, and was sent from Chicago to San Francisco in charge of a car of provisions for the San Francisco sufferers. Monte is one of the faithful and trusty messengers for the express company, and has been pressed into doing this special service:

OS TRAIN, April 23, 1906.

Dear Folks: I am off now for San Francisco, going through the Sierra Nevada mountains, running extra. I can't tell when I will be home, but will be in San Francisco sometime tonight or early on the morning of the 24th, presume I will come right back. Don't worry about me for you know I am able to take care of myself. Have not seen a paper since I left Chicago so I don't know how they are out in Frisco. Yours, MONT.

CAUGHT IN CUPID'S COILS

John Hatt, Jr., and Miss Delia Neuman United in Marriage Last Night.

It is rumored that Johnnie Hatt, the junior member of the firm of Hatt & Son, and Miss Delia Neuman were married at Hastings, Neb., Monday. The young couple departed from here Monday morning for Curtis, Neb., where they intended to visit, but it seems that they stopped at Hastings, in the course of their trip, long enough to secure a license to travel as one. When Johnnie presented the written consent to his father, the Judge at Hastings took exception to the signature, because he could not understand why the young couple should wonder so far from home to get the knot tied; therefore Johnnie was compelled to telephone home last night to have his father allay the suspicions of the judge, and it is presumed that the ceremony was carried out in detail and that the young couple are now rejoicing in the bonds of wedded bliss.

The young man is well known in this community and has hosts of friends who will be pleased to hear of his marriage to such a lovable and intelligent young lady as he has secured for a life partner. We might add in conclusion that, although Johnnie's friends were unable to ascertain the purpose of his trip, they surmised as much from the reserved statements that he made, and from the fact that Miss Neuman had resigned her position at Henry Herold's store. Be that as it may, the Journal joins the many friends of the young couple, in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous married life.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned take this method of returning their most sincere and heartfelt thanks to those kind friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted in the care of our dear mother during her late illness and also in preparing for her funeral and burial. Their kindness will ever be remembered by us.

No Remonstrances.

Much to the surprise of the saloon men, every application went through in the city council Monday without the least objection. It had been currently reported for several days previous that remonstrances in ever instance would be presented. We suppose the Law and Order League wisely concluded that when they made such a desperate effort at the recent election and completely lost out, it would show that they remonstrated for pure cussedness, which some of them wanted to do, regardless of everything.

OTHER INTERESTING LOCAL HAPPENINGS

From San Francisco Sufferers.

John Nemetz, of the firm of Nemetz & Foral, has a brother who has been employed in the capacity of clerk in the Palace hotel in San Francisco for the past twelve years, and when he received the following letter notifying him that he, his wife and child were safe, you can hardly imagine with what joy the news was received by those who have been so anxious for days to learn the fate of that dear son and brother and his little family, who were so fortunate as to escape the great calamity in which so many perished. The following letter will explain the brother's condition:

"Dear Mother, Brother and Sister:—We are safe from the earthquake and fire-stricken city. We lost some of our goods, but thank God we escaped with our lives. We are camped out on the government grounds inside the fort; we are protected and fed and is not costing us a cent. I may lose all my money that is in the bank, also eighteen days wages I have coming. If I can get my money out of the bank here it won't take me long to start for Plattsburgh. I am writing this in the dark. Don't worry, we are safe."

State vs. M. P. R. R. Co.

An action has been filed in the district clerk's office entitled State of Nebraska vs. Missouri Pacific Ry. Co. The information is filed by the county attorney on behalf of the state, seeking to recover a penalty for violation of a statute passed by the legislature. This statute was passed for the purpose of providing equal facilities to all persons who desired to ship grains and prevent a monopoly of the shipment of grain by the elevator trust or the monopoly of grain shipping at any given point by any corporation or individual. The statute provides that if a person or company build their own elevator on their own land adjacent to the right of way of the railroad company it is bound to provide side tracks for the purpose of shipping grain from such elevator, and it is upon a refusal of the Missouri Pacific to furnish side tracks to the elevator of the Manley Co-operative Grain association that this action is based.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF MRS. F. STOHLMAN

Over Five Hundred Neighbors and Friends Attend the Last Sad Rites.

Seldom in the history of any community is the burial of any of its citizens the occasion of calling out so large a proportion of the people as turned out Sunday, April 23, 1906, to pay the last tribute of respect to the remains of the late Mrs. F. Stohlman, near Louisville. The body was removed from the residence to the German Lutheran church at 2 o'clock p. m., and there the solemn service was performed in the presence of a very large audience, that filled every available space on the floor from the altar to the entrance. Rev. Mr. Jung officiated and preached an excellent sermon from St. John the Divine, 7th chapter, 9th to 11th verse—"After this I beheld and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations and kindreds, and people and no tongues stood before the throne and before the lamb clothed with white robes and palms in their hands."

Mrs. Stohlman's maiden name was K. Shoeman, and was born June 17th, 1838. Came to America and landed in Wisconsin on the 25th of March, 1854; was united in marriage to Mr. Fred Stohlman May 15, 1859, and started for their future home October 30, 1859, and forthwith started on their farm and went through all the hardships of early pioneer life. Mrs. Stohlman was a noble woman, a good mother and a kind friend and neighbor to all of us. She was laid beside her husband who preceded her some two years, and the last words we can give her is "rest in peace."

Mrs. Stohlman bore her terrible suffering with patience and without complaint. She was aware that her end was near and rejoiced to know that she would soon be united again with her beloved husband and they together would sing at the throne of God a lasting hallelujah. Never before was there such a multitude of people out to pay their last respects to a noble woman, and never before was there in this section such a large display of beautiful flowers. The grave was one solid flower bed.

Pall-bearers selected were Messrs. Henry Lehnhoff, Patrick Blessington, Wm. Newman, F. Lau, August Wendt and John Ossenkop.
