

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

Personal Points

J. W. Pittman, of near Union, was in the city today on business.

Miss Alma Wortman of Ashland, was visiting at Plattsmouth today.

H. C. Long of Murray was transacting business at the county seat today.

Mrs. W. Smith and son, of Elmwood, were business visitors at Plattsmouth today.

Rev. McVey, from the vicinity of Mynard, was a caller at the court house today.

Wm. Tams, who has been employed by the Burlington at Alliance, is in the city for a visit with his parents.

Hon. William Delles Dernier was over from Elmwood today on business. Bill has hosts of friends in Plattsmouth who are always glad to meet him.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shoemaker, of near Nehawka, were county seat visitors today. Mr. Shoemaker is one of the prominent German farmers of Cass county.

Fred Ebinger came in last night from Plainview to assist in preparing his household goods for shipment to that place. They expect to move to Plainview in the course of two weeks.

Herman Beck of Murray was a county seat visitor today, and while here called and renewed his allegiance to the Journal. Mr. Beck is one of the industrious young farmers of Cass county.

John Groop and Charley Helm were in the city today and were pleasant callers at the Journal headquarters. The boys drove down on business, and report the roads in a very fair condition.

D. O. DWYER, Attorney-at-Law

Office in building east of court house, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

O. W. Zaar of South Bend was a business visitor today at the court house.

The case of Taylor vs. Stull is up for hearing in district court this afternoon.

James Stander of Louisville was transacting business at the county seat today.

The will of the late John Guehlstorf, deceased, was admitted to probate today.

John Gorder and wife arrived in this city last night, after a short pleasure trip.

Misses Mae Cameron and Edith Johnson of Louisville were visiting in Plattsmouth today.

Joe Lloyd and little grandson were among the passengers for the state capital this afternoon.

Mrs. Joe Sans and Mrs. Will Smith were among the passengers for the metropolis on the fast mail.

The sheriff is in receipt of a card from the authorities at Omaha, offering a reward of $50.00 for the recovery of a team stolen from that place on the night of May 16th.

C. E. Tefft, of Weeping Water, was looking after some legal business here today.

C. C. Rawlston, of Weeping Water, was a business visitor at the county seat today.

Thomas Murtie, of Weeping Water, was a business visitor at the court house today.

Chas. Rehart of Cullom, spent Sunday here the guest of John McNurlin and family.

Wm. Deles Dernier, of Elmwood, was transacting legal business at the county seat today.

A hearing was had today on the petition for administration in the estate of Levi Churchill, deceased.

C. A. Rawls, Lawyer. Probate and general practice. Office of County Attorney.

F. W. Ruhge, F. Brickman, H. Masemann and E. Kroeger, all of Avoca, came in last evening on business and returned home this morning on the southbound Missouri Pacific passenger.

A marriage license was issued today to Chester C. Ralston, aged 29, of Hebron, Kan., and Eleda Barnes, aged 28, of Weeping Water. The above couple will be united in marriage by Rev. S. J. Hanford on the 23rd of this month.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

—Quick Meal Gasoline Stoves, all sizes and styles, for sale at Asemissen & Louck's.

John McNurlin and Will Seybert went to Omaha Saturday evening to "take in" the moving pictures of the Britt-Nelson fight, and did some fast sprinting in order to get to the depot, only to find the train was thirty minutes late.

Mrs. M. F. Richardson, who has been here visiting with Mrs. Kennedy for a few weeks, departed for her home in David City, Neb., this afternoon. Mrs. Richardson formerly resided in Plattsmouth, and ere departing for her home she called and subscribed for the Journal.

Mrs. George E. Koehnke came in last evening from her home near Plainview, Neb., for a visit with home folks. Mrs. Koehnke says she is well pleased with her new home and so is George. There is a fine stream running through their farm and splendid fishing only about two hundred yards from the house.

Machine oil at Asemissen & Louck's

L. H. Mickle, of Avoca, was a county seat visitor today.

Jno. Frizel was a business visitor at the metropolis this morning.

Ray Smith, from near Nehawka was a Plattsmouth visitor today.

August Gorder was visiting with Weeping Water people yesterday.

Rad Rhoden, one of the best farmers in Cass county, was in town today.

J. A. Stotler of Greenwood made his complete assessment returns today.

H. C. Long, of near Murray, was transacting business in Plattsmouth today.

Ben Horning, assessor for Plattsmouth precinct was in town today on business.

Mrs. H. A. Schneider went to Cedar Creek this afternoon to visit with relatives.

Lloyd Gopen of Rock Bluff precinct was a business visitor at the court house today.

A. P. Churchill, of Unadilla, and M. G. Churchill, of Murray, were business visitors at Plattsmouth yesterday.

W. T. Smith, Joe Floyd, and the former's brother, J. L. Smith, of Nehawka, were passengers this afternoon for Council Bluffs.

Billy Barclay returned from Cedar Creek last evening, where he had been engaged in renovating and putting new fixtures in his saloon.

H. C. Long of Murray purchased a brand new buggy from August Gorder today, and while in town he was a welcome caller at the Journal office.

Parties from Eight Mile Grove precinct and Nehawka report fine rains in those sections this morning. It scarcely laid the dust here in Plattsmouth.

Dr. H. Jensen, the noted veterinary surgeon of Weeping Water, was here today as a witness in the case of McCulloch vs. Dunn, and gave the Journal a call.

Mrs. Georgie Creamer and cousin, Miss Hutchinson, from near Murray, were in Plattsmouth today. Miss Hutchinson lives in northern Missouri, and will make a month's visit with Mrs. Creamer.

Ed Ruffner, who recently had the misfortune to get his left knee bruised by getting struck by the end of a wagon tongue, returned to Cedar Creek this afternoon, where he is employed at the quarry of Atwood & Newell.

Charley Gaebel, the celebrated fine hog breeder, of near Louisville, accompanied by William Wendt and J. G. Shoeman of the latter place, were in the city today on business, and all gave the Journal a call.

J. P. Kell of Cedar Creek was in town today and made a pleasant call on the Journal force. He informs us that through the negligence of the Burlington in repairing the fences on their right of way adjoining his place, four of his valuable cows were killed by freight No. 76 yesterday morning.

While in Nehawka Monday of this week we understand that our excellent farmer friend, J. L. Smith, experienced quite a serious runaway. The team was attached to a new buggy, and while the horses took quite a lively spin, Mr. Smith was not injured, and very little damage done to the vehicle.

T. E. Williams of Mt. Pleasant precinct was in town today on business.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bailey of Murray were county seat visitors yesterday.

Sam Long of South Bend was transacting business at Plattsmouth today.

C. Bengen, one of Cass county's best German farmers, was in the city today.

Fred Muenchau, assessor for Tipton precinct, made his complete returns today.

Ed. Pittman and family are living on Rock street, two blocks west of Chicago avenue.

G. W. Woodruff, of Weeping Water, was transacting business in the county seat today.

S. L. Barker of Eight Mile Grove precinct, was a caller at the court house today.

Will Seagrave came down from Omaha this morning for a visit with his relatives here.

Levi Rusterholtz of near Murray was a Plattsmouth visitor today. Mr. Rusterholtz continues to improve.

Mrs. O. V. Bailey of Murray was visiting with her mother, Mrs. M. Seagrave, in this city yesterday.

Dave Amick came down from South Omaha last evening, where he had been with stock enroute home in Murray.

Mrs. M. Seagrave and daughter, Miss Margaret, returned home last evening, after an extended visit at Murray, the guest of Mrs. R. C. Bailey.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Edward Seagrave, O. V. Bailey and brother, Rolley, of Murray, enjoyed a drive to Plattsmouth behind Mr. Seagrave's fine horse.

Park Chriswiser and wife, from the vicinity of Nehawka, were in town on business last evening, and for a visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Chriswiser.

American field fencing and poultry netting at Asemissen & Louck's.

Most complete line of screen wire to be found in town, also screen doors and window screen frames. Asemissen & Louck.

Dr. Marshall, Dentist, Coats' Block.

Mrs. T. L. Murphy was visiting in Omaha today.

Miss Helen Chapman is visiting in Omaha this afternoon.

L. W. Lorez made a business trip to Omaha on the fast mail.

J. W. Edmunds of Murray was a county seat visitor today.

Miss Clara Brown was a passenger for the metropolis this afternoon.

A. W. White was a business visitor at the metropolis this afternoon.

John Faught, a real estate dealer of Lincoln, was in the city on business last.

C. A. Rawls was looking after some legal business at the state capital today.

M. Waybright returned last night from a trip to the western part of the state.

Mrs. James Burr of Havelock is visiting in the city, the guest of Miss Bessie Ballance.

Mrs. J. W. Johnson, who attended the W. R. C. convention at Lincoln, turned home last night.

Antone Liebershall went to Omaha this afternoon to secure some supplies for the new cigar manufactory.

Miss Nellie and Carrie Sherwood departed for Louisville this afternoon to visit with their sister, Mrs. Hoover.

Mrs. L. Trilety and daughter, Miss Louise, were passengers for Havelock this morning to visit with Mrs. Matous.

Mrs. Sarah E. McElwain, who was a delegate to the W. R. C. convention at Lincoln, returned home last night.

With rhetorical exercises that are being held at the high school this afternoon, the city schools close for the summer vacation.

Mrs. J. J. Svoboda and baby, who have been enjoying a visit with Anton Trilety and family, returned to Omaha this afternoon.

John Henry, Phillip and John Meisinger and S. H. Shumaker were among the passengers for the metropolis this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. May are the proud parents of an eleven pound girl which arrived a short time before midnight Monday.

Dr. E. D. Cummins went to Omaha this afternoon to attend the commencement exercises this evening of the Nebraska medical college.

Itching, bleeding, protruding or blind piles yield to Doan's Ointment. Chronic cases soon relieved, finally cured. Druggist all sell it.

—Have you Backache? Get a box of Kidney-ettes—the most wonderful remedy for all kidney troubles, and they will make you right. 25c. Gering & Co., druggists.

W. C. Terhune was in town today in the interest of the Mineral Springs Sanatorium, which is located near Burlington Junction. While here he made a pleasant call on the Journal.

August Krecklow, of near Manley, was a Plattsmouth visitor today, and while here paid the Journal a short call. Mr. Krecklow is one of the prosperous central Cass county farmers, and we are always pleased to meet him. He came in on the train, returning home this afternoon.

Mr. F. C. Clark, of Scotland, S. D., arrived last night for a brief visit with his brother, E. M., and family. From here Mr. Clark will go to Oklahoma to view the country and may perhaps Done House Cleaning?

If not, you may need that new Carpet or Matting. We have a fine line of Straw Mattings we will be glad to show Short Lengths of BRUSSELS CARPETING for Rugs 9x12 can be made for $8.80 and up.

Short Lengths of Brussels, suitable for stairs, can be had much cheaper than the Regular Stair Carpet

Carpets 50c a yd
Fringed Rugs $1.25
Floor Oil Cloths
one and two yards wide

Ingrain All Wool
Rugs 9x10½ feet
Several Splendid Patterns of the 12-ft wide Linoleums

QUEEN QUALITY SHOES

The Queen Quality Shoe fits as a shoe should fit—not too big in one place and not too small in another, not too wide in the toe and not too narrow in the heel—but just right. Not only comfortable when old, but comfortable when new.

It is no longer necessary to use your foot as a stretcher nor to buy one size for style and another for comfort. Queen Quality has done away with all that. You can get style and comfort together in the Queen Quality Shoe.

Other makes of shoes at $1.75, $2.00, $2.25 and $2.50. These shoes were bought before the heavy advance in leather.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

IN PLATTSMOUTH

Every Claim Is Backed by Local Testimony.

conclude to locate there. E. M. and his brother gave the Journal a pleasant call this morning and we were pleased to meet him.

M. Fanger was transacting business at the metropolis today.

Mrs. M. Archer was visiting in the metropolis this afternoon.

Philip Theiroff made a business trip to Omaha on the early train.

Sheriff Quinton went out in the vicinity of Avoca this morning.

V. V. Leonard made a business trip to the metropolis on the fast mail.

Perry Utterback was transacting business at Omaha this afternoon.

J. L. Hortshorn of Havelock was a business visitor at Plattsmouth today.

John P. Kuhney made a business visit at the metropolis this afternoon.

Mrs. L. W. Barger, of Lincoln, is visiting with her parents in this city.

Harry Todd of Murray was transacting business in Plattsmouth today.

County Judge Travis departed this morning on a business trip to Imperial, Neb.

Harry Phillips and wife were passengers for Nebraska City this morning.

M. L. Friedrich and wife of Cedar Creek were visitors at the county seat today.

Mrs. A. N. Sullivan and daughter, Miss Alice, were visiting in Omaha today.

James Root from the vicinity of Murray was at the county seat on business yesterday afternoon.

Miss Kittie Cummins went to Tabor, Ia., this morning to be present at the May festivities of the college.

Mrs. C. C. Hansen and daughter who have been visiting in this vicinity, returned to Omaha this afternoon.

A marriage license was issued in Lincoln yesterday to William B. Hursh aged 28, and Nora Reitter, aged 19, both of Eagle, Cass county.

Otto Spriek, from the vicinity of Louisville, was a business visitor at Plattsmouth today, and while here renewed his allegiance to the Journal.

John Kaffenberger, one of Cass county's enterprising German farmers, while in the city today called and paid for the Daily Journal one year.

Cures baby's croup, Willie's daily cuts and bruises, mama's sore throat, grandma's lameness—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—the great household remedy.

Our young friend, John M. Meisinger of near Mynard, returned from Omaha this morning. While John was spending the day in Omaha the wife and baby spent the day with her mother in Plattsmouth.

Maple Grove

(Special Correspondence.)

Rev. Fred Spriegel is on the sick list this week.

Quite a number attended the platform dance Saturday night.

Henry Engelkemeier is building a new addition to his house.

Corn shelling is now the order of the day and quite a little will be shelled this week in this section.

Quite a number of friends and relatives were the guests of Louie Puls and wife Sunday.

John Hable made a business trip to Omaha Friday.

John Young shipped fat hogs to Omaha Tuesday.

There will be a basket picnic at the Rose Henning's grove Sunday, May 27. Come one and all.

Otto Puls made a business trip to Plattsmouth Friday.

Quite a number attended the ball game at Mrs. Schafer's last Sunday, which was quite a game.

Mrs. R. A. Davis visited with relatives in Lincoln last week.

Wm. Puls and daughter, Annie, were among the Plattsmouth visitors last Saturday.

A lazy liver leads to chronic dyspepsia and constipation—weakens the whole system. Doan's Regulets (25c per box) correct the liver, tone the stomach, cure constipation.

Children's Slippers

Don't pinch up your little tot's feet in poorly shaped shoes when there is at your command the

Neatest and Daintiest Line of STRAP SLIPPERS and SAILOR TIES in Black, Tan and Patents, 50c to 80c on lasts that fit, have shape, look well and wear.

This Way For Children's Slippers

SHERWOOD & SON

VEGETABLE SICILIAN
HALL'S Hair Renewer
Renews the hair, makes it new again, restores the freshness. Just what you need if your hair is faded or turning gray, for it always restores the color. Stops falling hair, also.