"OUR OLD KENTUCKY HOME"

Home Coming Week Looked Forward to With Fond Anticipations.

HOW MANY FROM CASS COUNTY WILL GO

One Hundred Thousand Whose Homes Are Elsewhere Expected.

The program for "Home Coming Week" in Louisville, June 13 to 17, when one hundred thousand former Kentuckians are expected to go back to their native heath, is rapidly taking shape.

The first day, Wednesday, June 13, will be known as Reception and Welcome Day; the second, June 14, as Foster Day; the third, June 15, as Daniel Boone Day; the fourth, 16, as Greater Kentucky Day, and the fifth, Sunday, as "Until We Meet Again."

The address of welcome is to be delivered by Henry Waterson, and responded to by D. R. Francis, of Missouri. Others on the program are Wm. Lindsay, John G. Carlisle, John M. Harlan, Thomas T. Crittenden and Adial E. Stevenson.

There will be a civic and military parade on the first day, and every county in the state will establish headquarters in the new Armory, which is the second largest building of the kind in the United States. On Foster Day there will be several events in memory of the author of "My Old Kentucky Home," including the unveiling of a statue of Foster, which will later be set in bronze and placed in the new capitol at Frankfort. Daniel Boone Day will be one of the features of the week, during which there will be sewing bees, apple parings, corn huskings and old-fashioned dances. The Commercial Club has offered a handsome medal to the person who can prove the closest relationship to the great pioneer. On Greater Kentucky Day there will be barbecues, campfires, etc., and orators will be given the opportunity to tell how Kentuckians have helped make other states greater by their having lived in them. On Sunday former Kentuckians will fill all the pulpits in Louisville. Send names and addresses of any former Kentuckians you may know to R. E. Hughes, Secretary Commercial Club, Louisville, Kentucky.

There are several former Kentuckians scattered over Cass county, but we have not learned the names of those who expect to attend the grand event. The Journal would like to have the names and addresses of all Kentuckians who contemplate attending.

Stomach Troubles.

Mrs. Sue Martin, an old and highly respected resident of Faison, Miss., was sick with stomach trouble for more than six months. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured her. She says: "I can now eat anything I want and am the proudest woman in the world to find such a good medicine." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co., and A. T. Fried.

Woodmen Win Case.

The supreme court has reversed the decision of the district court of Douglas county in the case wherein Mrs. Mabel P. Ogden, widow of the late Charles Ogden, secured a verdict against the Woodmen of the World for $2,000, the amount of the policy carried in that order by the deceased. It was shown Ogden failed to pay an assessment levied for the month of November. He died the following January. The widow brought suit alleging her husband was in good standing and denying the legality of the assessment as it was made by the sovereign commander and the finance committee rather than the sovereign camp. The court holds under the laws of the order an assessment is due and payable each month unless remitted and consequently the deceased was not a member in good standing at the time of his death. The case was remanded.

A Singular Incidence.

It is now announced that the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Emery Steele is out of danger. His was a case seldom known to medical science—the third attack of pneumonia in one year. The attending physician has been asked for a full history of the case by medical men all over the state, which he has cheerfully furnished, together with the manner in which the case was treated.—Louisville Courier.

—It is possible to obtain relief from chronic indigestion and dyspepsia by the use of Kodol for Dyspepsia. Some of the most hopeless cases of long standing have yielded to it. It enables you to digest the food you eat and exercises a corrective influence, building up the efficiency of the digestive organs. The stomach is the boiler where in the steam is made that keeps up your vitality, health and strength. Kodol digests what you eat. Makes the stomach sweet—puts the boiler in condition to do the work nature demands of it—gives you relief from digestive disorders, and puts you in shape to do your best, and feel your best. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co., and Gering & Co.

Rev. Father Bradley.

Speaking of the ceremonies of the laying of the corner stone of the new Catholic church in that city last Tuesday morning, the Auburn Herald says: "The Rev. Father Bradley of Plattsmouth delivered a most eloquent sermon, couched in language which showed a remarkable acquaintance with the English tongue and was noted for the beauty of the word pictures which he drew, as well as the liberally and high moral plane to which he urged his audience to aspire."

Mr. and Mrs. Slater Return.

Mr. and Mrs. William Slater returned from their eastern trip Thursday afternoon, and their many friends in Plattsmouth extend to them a most cordial greeting. Mr. and Mrs. Slater departed from this city about four months ago to visit among their friends in Vermont, and they had not fully determined as to remaining there permanently. They are both looking remarkably well, and the Journal hopes they have returned with the determination of making Plattsmouth their home for all time to come.

Death of J. J. Reitter.

In speaking of the death of J. J. Reitter, a prominent citizen of Eagle, which occurred on Sunday morning, May 13, the Beacon says the announcement "came as a shock to the citizens of this village, although it was known that he was sinking very rapidly for a short time before. Mr. Reitter had been confined to his bed only one week prior to his death, which resulted from typhoid fever." The following biography of the deceased appears in the Beacon: "John Jacob Reitter was born in Germany, July 25, 1864. In December, 1868, he came to Nebraska with his parents who located at Nebraska City, where they resided until the year 1875, when he came with his parents to a farm in this county, just southwest of where Eagle now stands. On December 24, 1885, he was united in marriage to Miss Anna Weaver, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weaver, living southeast of town. To this union six children were born—four girls and two boys. One child, a son, died in infancy; the others—Nora, Florence, Ollie, Katie and Johnnie—remain to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father. Just four years prior to the death of their father, within a few hours, these same children were deprived of a mother's help and care by death. Besides his five children he leaves an aged father, one brother, one sister with other relatives and a host of friends to mourn his death.

"The early part of Mr. Reitter's life was spent on a farm near here, but for the past nine years he had been engaged in business in Eagle and had disposed of his stock of merchandise only a few weeks ago."

CITY IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY

Nearly One Hundred and Fifty Citizens Present Thursday Night.

MAYOR AND COUNCIL IN ATTENDANCE

Many Excellent Suggestions Presented—R. B. Windham Elected Chairman.

At the meeting held at the Parmele theatre Thursday for the purpose of discussing and perfecting a permanent organization of the Village Improvement society, about one hundred and fifty people were present and preferred timely suggestions. Mr. R. B. Windham opened the meeting by a description of many beautiful homes that he has had the pleasure to visit, and how by united effort by an entire community the interior and exterior of the home, the lawn and the streets may be beautified, and the backyards and alleys kept free from weeds and debris.

After this address the meeting was thrown open to the audience who selected Noel Rawls temporary secretary, and then proceeded to a general discussion of the various phases and the suggestions presented. Among the excellent suggestions offered by Mrs. C. C. Parmele, Attorney Travis, Mayor Gering, Superintendent Rouse and others was the necessity of placing the cemetery in a better condition, requiring the people to keep down the weeds, or, as Judge Travis suggested, to drive about a thousand head of sheep slowly through the streets in order that they might devastate the weeds. After extended consideration of the present needs of the city, R. B. Windham was elected chairman of the meeting with the authority to select a committee of five or seven persons to assist him. A motion that a committee be appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws, was carried, and the chairman assigned Mrs. C. C. Parmele, Mrs. S. M. Chapman and Attorney C. A. Rawls to that task. After concluding to await the action of this committee the meeting adjourned until further notice.

Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey & Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co., and A. T. Fried.

Frauverein Enjoy Outing.

A rare treat was enjoyed yesterday afternoon by the Frauverein, who were conveyed in a carryall to the hospitable home of Fred Kehne, four miles west of town. The afternoon was pleasantly enjoyed at social conversation and plying nimble fingers at fancy work. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, and at a late hour the ladies took their departure, deeply indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Kehne for the delightful hours spent with them. Those present to indulge in the social event were: Mesdames Wurga, Ohms, Zuckweiler, Vallery, Wise, Root, Huffman, Wolfe, Mumm, Pearlman, L. B. Egenberger, F. G. Egenberger, Weckbach and Weber.

Miss Pearlman Entertains.

In response to the invitation to spend the evening the Five Hundred club assembled last night at the home of Miss Ida Pearlman, who very pleasantly entertained them at progressive five hundred. In the contest for the honors Miss Emma Falter proved to be the most successful, and was accordingly presented with the much sought for prize. The guests were then escorted to the dining room where a delicious two-course luncheon was served, and a good social time enjoyed. Those present to participate in the occasion were Misses Gladys Marshal, Ione Dovey, Emma Falter, Gladys Sullivan, Ellen Windham, Ida Pearlman, Helen Dovey, Gretchen Donnelly, Frances Weidman, Zetta Brown, Margaret Mauzy and Ruth Johnson.

Woman Dies on Train.

Mrs. A. F. Pearson, en route to Lincoln from Altoona, Kan., to visit her mother, Mrs. W. J. Hamilton, died on the train, near Weeping Water yesterday. The woman complained of being ill of heart trouble and during the night she took some headache powders. It was the opinion of the coroner at Lincoln that she died as the result of this medicine.

Continued to June 5.

Judge Sullivan was notified by telegram Thursday that the examination of the murderer of his nephew, A. N. McVicar, will not occur until June 5, consequently the Judge and Mr. Dovey did not start for California last evening. For some cause not known the trial has been continued to that date.

"Pitch" Contest.

Thursday, as we were wending our way homeward about half past six o'clock, we observed our old friend, J. A. Walker, of Murray, parading the street, and we made up our mind then that there was "something in the wind." And this morning we found out what it was—a card contest. Mr. Walker was accompanied by Mr. Allen Wilson, of Nebraska City, and it seems that H. N. Dovey and W. K. Fox had challenged these parties for a series of games of "pitch" in which our old friend from Murray claims to be proficient, and from all reports we should judge he still wears the belt. Messrs. Walker and Wilson played against Messrs. Dovey and Fox, and after playing ten games, the result was 8 to 2 in favor of the visitors. The victors returned home this morning victory inscribed upon their banners. They say that as soon as the vanquished learn a little more about the game they will favor them with another trial.

District Court Notes.

In the case of Aultman & Miller Buckeye Co. vs. J. W. Manners, a motion to strike out a certain part of the deposition concerning the reputation of defendant for truth and veracity, was sustained.

A demurrer to the counter claim in the case of Westinghouse Co. vs. Lafayette W. Nelson et al., was sustained.

The testimony in the case of M. A. Low vs. O. H. Eggleston et al., was concluded and the issue found in favor of the plaintiff.

In the case of Coatman vs. Drum the report of the referees was examined, approved and deed ordered to purchaser.

On motion of the plaintiff the case of State vs. Ed Egenberger, was dismissed at cost of defendant.

A motion to dismiss appeal in the case of State vs. Wm. and Jos. Sack, was sustained and appeal dismissed.

On motion of the plaintiff the case of State vs. Missouri Pacific was dismissed without prejudice to further action.

Wedding Bells Will Ring.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Anna Towle of Wabash and Mr. Jess G. Hill of South Bend, which will occur at the bride's home Monday, May 28th. Miss Towle is the accomplished and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Towle and a sister of Miss Euna Towle, a well known teacher in the Plattsmouth schools, and is herself a teacher of prominence throughout the county. The prospective groom is a son of W. D. Hill of South Bend and is a young man of sterling character who has recently embarked in the real estate business in Holdrege, where they will make their future home. It is also very strongly rumored that Mr. and Mrs. Hill are about to lose another son and daughter—or perhaps we might better say they are about to gain another son and daughter—through a double wedding, when their son, Chas., will be united in marriage to Miss Blanche Wallick of South Bend, and their daughter, Miss Eunice, will be married to Jacob C. Kline, a young man reared in South Bend, but now employed by the Rock Island railroad with headquarters at Fairbury. This double wedding will probably occur early in June, and particulars of all these happy events will appear later in the Journal.
