PREPARED IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE OF MURRAY AND VICINITY ESPECIALLY FOR THE JOURNAL READERS.

[If any of the readers of the Journal know of a social event or an item of interest in this vicinity and will send same to this office it will appear under this heading. We want all items of interest.—Editor Journal.]

H. C. Long was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

Mr. James Allison is reported on the sick list.

Miss Gussie Robb was in Union Wednesday.

Chas. McKeynolds was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday.

John Amick, of Weeping Water, was in Murray Sunday.

Dr. Brendel was a business visitor in Omaha last Saturday.

Val Gobleman and son were in Plattsmouth last Saturday.

Mrs. A. L. Baker was a Plattsmouth visitor Wednesday evening.

W. S. Smith, of Mynard, was visiting with home folks Sunday.

Dr. Gilmore has been treating his office to a new coat of paint.

Guy Burton, of Plattsmouth, was in Murray a few days this week.

Geo. and Dave Patterson and Earl Jenkins were in Plattsmouth Tuesday.

Mrs. C. E. Carroll, who has been on the sick list for the past week, is much better.

M. G. Churchill was transacting business in Plattsmouth Monday afternoon.

Bob Fitch, mayor of Kenosha, was visiting his many friends in Murray Sunday.

J. C. Faught, of Lincoln, has been visiting Murray relatives a few days this week.

Mesdames J. A. Walker and D. J. Pitman were in Plattsmouth last Saturday.

W. H. McDaniel was attending to some business matters in Plattsmouth Wednesday.

C. S. Stone was attending to some business matters in Plattsmouth Wednesday evening.

Grandma Swabb is quite sick at the home of her son, Chas., five miles southeast of town.

Mrs. Georgia Creamer is enjoying a visit from her cousin, Miss Hutchinson from Missouri.

J. W. Pitman, of Union, was visiting with Murray friends and relatives one day last week.

Mrs. Albert Lillie and children visited over Sunday at the Lillie home—stead east of Murray.

L. B. Underwood, our genial hardware merchant, was transacting business in Omaha Tuesday.

The glass to replace the broken one in the Murray State Bank has been received and placed in the front of the building.

Read Underwood's ad in this issue of the Journal. You may, if you have small grain to cut, find something of interest to you.

Mrs. Bert Jameson, living west of town, and her sister, Miss Johnson, of Weeping Water were Murray visitors Tuesday afternoon.

Albert Churchill and little daughter of Unadilla were in town Tuesday spending the day with his brother, M. G. Churchill and family.

G. M. Cotton, of Omaha, representative of the Bankers' Life Association of Des Moines, was in Murray Thursday and Friday of last week.

Robert Alford and Jim Pollard, two of Nehawka's popular young men, passed through Murray Tuesday, going to the county seat on business.

W. D. Wheeler, county treasurer, was in Murray Wednesday, coming down to visit with his many friends, and make a trip to his farm east of town.

The farmers are moving their grain pretty lively this week, both of our elevator men are kept pretty busy loading out about as fast as they can get cars.

Among the farmers who shipped stock to the South Omaha market this week were J. L. Young, C. H. Boedeker, C. N. Beverage, D. L. Amick.

Mrs. Jeff Brendel returned home from the Omaha hospital last Sunday evening. She is feeling much better, and the physician says her ailment is not a cancer.

Grandma Kiser, residing up near Mynard, is still very low, and the physician and relatives fear that she may never recover, owing to her extreme old age.

Dr. J. W. Brendel and Miss Minnie Marquardt, Miss Selma Marquardt and Mr. Gracien, all from Avoca, were guests of Mr. Brendel's parents in Murray last Sunday.

J. P. Thacker and wife have two sick children at their home near Union. They are known as the Thacker twins. John was in Murray Wednesday for medicine for them.

Dr. Cook, of Plattsmouth, was called here Wednesday in consultation with Dr. Brendel to see Mrs. Chas. Wolfe, who resides two and one-half miles southeast of Union. Mrs. Wolfe has been quite sick.

Chas. Boedeker was in South Omaha Tuesday evening, "sorta" looking after the markets with a view of shipping his cattle. With the present fluctuating market, it is pretty dangerous to take a chance.

The mule sale which was held here Saturday was very well attended by the farmers, the mules that were sold brought a fair price; those who purchased were F. M. Young, Jr., F. E. Vallery, H. F. Gansemer and R. C. Kendall.

The Journal was slightly in error last week when we made mention of a new girl being at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cook. Instead of a bright eyed baby girl, the little stranger is a bouncing baby boy, and John is the proudest man in the old town.

W. H. McDaniel, Ezra Virgin, James Loughridge and Sam Pitman composed a crowd of patient fishermen who went to LaPlatte last Friday evening to relieve the pond of a few of the finny tribe, but the boys are rather quiet about telling of their success.

D. C. West, of Nehawka, passed through Murray Wednesday morning, returning to his home from a prospective trip up in Canada. We understand that Mr. West was well pleased with that part of the world, and while there purchased a big ranch in the Alberta country. He evidently thinks the country has a bright future.

Miss Evelyn Taylor closed a very successful term of school in the Rock Creek district last Friday, and in honor of the occasion a genuine old fashioned school picnic dinner was held in the grove near the school house. All the children were in attendance and had a most enjoyable time. An entertainment was held in the school room after dinner, which was attended by many parents and the members of the school board. Many musical numbers were rendered, also recitations, dialogues, drills, etc. Miss Taylor is an excellent teacher and all parties concerned are well pleased with the term just closed.

Lee and His Fine Pigs.

Lee Oldham, the champion hog raiser of these parts, sold his fine bunch of fall pigs this week, fourteen in number. They were seven months old and balanced the scales at an average of 230 pounds. Lee gives the old hand separator credit for the rapid growth of these pigs, and in return shakes hands with the old machine every morning, and when he meets one at any old place and any old time he is tempted to take off his hat to it in honor of the great help they have been to him.

Big Picnic Sunday.

Alfred Gansemer has announced that he will give one of those good old fashioned picnics at his home on the Rose Hennings farm in Eight Mile Grove next Sunday. He has secured the services of the Hewitt family band to furnish music, and various other lines of amusements will be offered the many visitors. Everybody is invited and every effort will be exerted to make the day a pleasant one for all.

Little Folks Entertained.

Quite a number of the little friends and schoolmates of Marie Davis were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davis, one-half mile from Murray, a few days ago, in honor of little Marie's tenth birthday. They were entertained by both instrumental and vocal music by the Misses Lucille Rice, Olga Minford, Bessie Brendel, Addie Dill, Marie Davis, Isabella Young, Villa Gopen and Loretta Walker. Refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, cake, bananas and oranges. The tables were decorated in green and white. Following were those present, all of whom had a most enjoyable time: Villa Gopen, Lucille Rice, Ester Rice, Olga Minford, Alice Gobleman, Ruth Hamilton, Opha Baker, Vera Hatched, Velma Wood, Loretta Walker, Mae Loughridge, Jessie Jarnau, Esther Spangler, Ruth, Johnnie, Louise and Kenneth Lindsay, Bessie Cook, Addie, Ethel and Gracie Dill, Isabella Young, Elizabeth Oliver, Bessie Brendel, Geraldine Young, Jeanette Young, Mrs. Alta Young, Mrs. Ida Young, Mrs. Mary Young, Mrs. Hattie Davis and little daughter, Leona, Mrs. Ida Lindsay. Little Marie received quite a number of very pretty and useful presents.

A Pleasant Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Vallery, residing west of Murray, entertained a large number of friends at their home last Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Vallery's sister, Miss Wurga, of Plattsmouth. The affair was given as a surprise to Miss Wurga, and proved to be one of the most pleasant occasions of the season. At the usual hour refreshments were served and at a late hour all departed for home, with but one regret—that the departing hour came too soon. From one who was present we understand they had a genuine "tatty pulling" time. Mr. and Mrs. Vallery understand how to entertain such a jolly crowd, and at this event they were at their best. The guests were Misses Lena Niday, Bertha Adamson, Lena Meisinger, Kate Kaffenberger, Maggie Kaffenberger, Lotie Vallery, Nettie Vallery, Mary Meisinger, Anna Parkening, Fern Ruby, Maggie Meisinger, Emma Meisinger, Teresa Marler and Blanche Vallery; Messrs. Henry, Fred, Will, Emil, Louis and Phillip Meisinger, Ben Speck, Otto and Frank Parkening, George Kaffenberger, Henry Hirz, Clyde Adamson, Guy White; Max, Fritz and Gerald Vallery, Mr. and Mrs. John Swarts, son and daughter.

Good Pasture

for cattle and horses. I have room for sixty head. Plenty of grass and good water, on Walker section, seven miles west of Murray. W. J. RANARD.

Pasture—300 acres; blue grass and white clover; running water; plenty of shade; charges reasonable; 6 miles southeast of Murray. Enquire of Edward Graves, Murray, Neb.

Not if as Rich as Rockefeller.

If you had all the wealth of Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate, you could not buy a better medicine for bowel complaints than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The most eminent physician can not prescribe a better preparation for colic and diarrhoea, both for children and adults. The uniform success of this remedy has shown it to be superior to all others. It never fails, and when reduced with water and sweetened, is pleasant to take. Every family should be supplied with it. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and A. G. Fried.

AT THE ELYSIAN REALMS

Glenn Rhoden and Miss Ellen Gregory United in Marriage at 3:30

This Afternoon.

A pretty wedding was solemnized this afternoon at 3:30, when Mr. Glenn Leonard Rhoden and Miss Ellen Lorna Gregory were united in marriage at the court house, by Judge Travis. The young couple were accompanied by Herbert Philpot, and Miss Jennie Gregory, of Nehawka. The groom was attired in conventional black and the bride in a beautiful white silk dress, and white hat.

The young man is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rhoden of Murray, and is a capable and industrious gentleman. He, together with the bride, who is a talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. C. Gregory of Nehawka, will receive the best wishes of the host of friends and relatives who will be pleased to hear of this happy event.

The happy young couple will be at home to their many friends at Murray, where they expect to commence house-keeping.

A Good Time.

Hewitt's band and Prof. Phillip's Metropolitan orchestra went out to the Rose Henning's grove Saturday evening to play for the platform dance under the management of Alfred Gansemer. The musicians left here about ten minutes to seven o'clock, and when they arrived there about 9 o'clock not a person was in sight, and they did not know what to make of it. They got out of the vehicle and onto the platform and began to play, and they said that in less than a half hour there were over three hundred persons on the grounds, and it was a surprise to the musicians where all the people came from so quickly. Prof. Phillip says the dance was a success in every particular, although the night was rather cool for those who did not engage in dancing. After enjoying the event until about one o'clock the band played the "Home, Home, Sweet Home" waltz and all wended their way homeward, the gentlemen and ladies comprising the band and orchestra arrived at home about four o'clock Sunday morning. We understand a picnic will be held on the same grounds next Sunday, and that the same band and orchestra will furnish music. This announcement ought to be sufficient to guarantee to every attendant a most enjoyable day.

New Hope.

Special Correspondent.

Will Troop was a Plattsmouth visitor Saturday.

Miss Minnie Ault of Plattsmouth is spending a few days with Miss Ada Mast.

W. A. Lewis and family visited at the home of A. Davis of Weeping Water Sunday.

Misses Bertha and Nettie Sporia of Valparaiso spent last week with Miss Gertrude Jenkins, but returned to Plattsmouth Sunday.

Misses Margaret Conner, Gertrude Jenkins, Pearl Lewis; Messrs. Kelly R. Rhoden, Oscar Hoback, Will Bolin and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Porter spent Sunday with Miss Leola Vallery.

Miss Anna Davis was a Plattsmouth visitor Saturday.

Misses Bertha and Nettie Sporia, Pearl Lewis, Gertrude Jenkins, Olga Ficht, Margaret Conner and Earl Jenkins called at the home of T. W. Vallery Friday evening.

Miss Anna Davis who has been teaching at New Hope, closed her school Friday with a picnic. About fifty were in attendance. Miss Davis has taught a very successful school this term and all her pupils regret to think school is out. Those who successfully passed the eighth grade examination under Miss Davis were: Ada Mast, Pearl Lewis and Gertrude Jenkins.

Where the Trouble Lies.

There are many things that could be done to help out Plattsmouth, if we only had a well organized commercial club, and every business man would come to the front with his part to pay the expenses for such efforts as may become necessary in running such an organization. But we have no well-organized commercial club, and if we had, we have not the proper number of live and energetic business men who will give liberally of their means to assist in doing something for the city. That's the trouble.

If Every Person Who

ought to keep a bank account had one now there would be a decided change in the conditions of the community. Every person who keeps a bank account raises his standing among his fellows and with the banker. He also helps to make conditions better in his town.

Ninety per cent of the commercial business is done by means of paper. Money represents property. A check means there is money deposited in the bank to the credit of the one who writes the check. If you have credit at the bank your check is just as good as Uncle Sam's money.

The check system, where safety and convenience are assured, is much better than handling the money when there is risk of error or loss. It will pay you to open an account at the

Murray State Bank.

OLD CASS COUNTY RESIDENT

D. R. MARSHALL

..... DENTIST.....

William Cardwell, of St. Joseph, Mo., Visits the Scenes of Early Childhood.

William Cardwell, of St. Joseph, came in yesterday for a short visit with some of the early pioneer citizens of Plattsmouth and Cass county, and favored the Journal with a brief visit last evening.

Mr. Cardwell came to Cass county with his parents in 1854, his father purchasing four hundred acres of land one and one-half miles south of Plattsmouth, where he continued to live until 1864, when the family removed to St. Joseph, where Mr. Cardwell has since resided. The original farm has long since been cut up into four farms.

Mr. Cardwell says this is only the second visit to Plattsmouth since his parents departed from here forty-two years ago, and he says he has no particular business here now only to view the home of his early childhood and to visit some of the old resident acquaintances for the last time.

Mr. Cardwell is a fine gentleman, is in the real estate business in St. Joseph and is doing well. Last evening he visited Dr. Schidknecht and Mr. F. S. White, with whom he spent an hour talking of the early days of the old town. Today he went out to the old home place to view the many changes that have taken place since he was a boy. He says this will be the last time he expects to visit here, and will return to St. Joseph today or tomorrow.

Treat All Alike.

From ten to fifty horses are hitched to the telephone poles on the south side of Main street every day. The result is that manure piles are formed at each pole in a very short time. Yesterday, after the rain, the rotting manure raised a stench in the heat of the afternoon, which was unbearable almost to all passers-by. When it is dry and windy, the dry manure blows into the stores and homes nearby. The city has placed hitching posts on the side streets, where there is no paving, for hitching horses, but so long as these poles remain on Main street it is impossible to keep people from hitching horses there.

The Light Company and the Plattsmouth Telephone Company have placed their poles in the alley. The Nebraska Telephone Company should be required to do the same. The people demand fair treatment at the hands of this corporation, but the Nebraska Telephone Company refuses to pay any attention to the City Council or ordinances passed requiring it to remove the poles.

This company came into the city and took possession of the streets without any permission from the city or state. It has been here since 1888, and has ignored all ordinances and regulations of the city ever since.
