

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

Personal Points

From Friday's Daily.

Dr. Marshall, Dentist, Coats' Block. American field fencing and poultry netting at Asemissen & Louck's.

J. W. Connally departed on a business trip to Malvern, Ia., this morning.

Mrs. E. S. Barstow came in from Lincoln this morning, for a visit with friends.

Miss Maud Mason went to South Omaha this afternoon for a visit with friends.

Miss Daisy Buck of Murray is visiting her friend, Miss Elizabeth Mason, in this city.

Miss Dora Will was a passenger for Lincoln this morning to visit with her sister Miss Minnie, who is attending the university.

C. A. Rawls, Lawyer. Probate and general practice. Office of County Attorney.

Most complete line of screen wire to be found in town, also screen doors and window screen frames. Asemissen & Louck.

R. R. Nickel, brought his daughter Miss Bertha, to the county seat last evening to take the train for Burlington Junction, Mo., where she will take treatment for rheumatism.

Ray Smith and Leander Barnes went to Bellevue this morning to enter the 100 yard and the 220 yard dashes, and the half mile and the one mile run of the track meet which is to be held there today.

Chas. Kerr arrived home from Kansas City this morning, to be present at the commencement exercises of the graduating class of which his sister, Miss Alice, is a member, and for a visit with his mother and sisters.

A deed conveying south 30 feet of lots 1 and 2, block 27, of the city of Plattsmouth from J. W. Johnson and wife to Plattsmouth Telephone company for the consideration of $3,500, was filed in the county recorder's office today.

Will Butler, who has charge of the B. & M. freight depot was summoned to Glenwood on the early train this morning by the serious illness of his mother. G. M. Bruhl is looking after Will's duties and Fred Wynn is taking Bruhl's place at the depot during Will's absence.

From Saturday's Daily.

Miss Euna Towle departed for her home at Wabash this morning.

Miss Verna Whisler departed yesterday afternoon for her home at Lincoln.

Quick Meal Gasoline Stoves, all sizes and styles, for sale at Asemissen & Louck's.

Miss Myrtle Sanders has closed a successful school year near Nehawka, and returned home this morning.

Miss Henrietta Martin returned this afternoon from Peru, where she has been attending the state normal.

Dr. F. A. Bryant of Norfolk spent a few hours in our city this morning while enroute to Red Oak for a visit with his brother.

Misses Helen Herold and Helen Barstow came down from Lincoln last night and are visiting in the city, the guest of Miss Ferne McBride.

August Mumm and wife who have been enjoying a visit with relatives here departed this afternoon for their home in Sheridan, Wyoming.

Fred Nelson and children who have been visiting here, departed this morning for Omaha where they will visit a short time before returning to their home at Denver.

D. O. DWYER, Attorney-at-Law Office in building east of court house, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

From Monday's Daily.

Henry Meisinger, of Mynard, is reported on the sick list.

C. A. Rawls and wife spent Sunday with relatives at Murray.

Peter Kell from near Cedar Creek was in town today on business.

Ben G. Hoover, of Louisville, was a business visitor at the county seat today.

Mrs. L. P. Greenslate went to Elmwood this afternoon to visit with relatives.

Glen Rawls was a passenger for Murray this morning where he will visit relatives.

Mrs. John Burr returned to Havelock yesterday afternoon, after a short visit with relatives here.

A license to wed was issued today to Vern Ackley, aged 31, of Omaha, and Miss Blanche W. Winfrey, aged 24, of Red Cloud.

Miss Engle who has recently closed a successful year teaching in the High school, departed today for Bancroft, Neb., where she will visit before returning to her home at Colon, Mich.

Fred Range, jr. and wife who have been visiting with relatives here, returned to their home at Havelock yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Coates are the proud parents of a new baby boy which weighed nine pounds at his arrival yesterday afternoon.

Miss Fern Greenslate accompanied by her friend, Miss Alice Snover, of Detroit, Mich., spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. W. A. Swearingen.

Bruce Sires, the hustling real estate man, of Plainview, Neb., who came here with the remains of John Behn, returned home Saturday night.

A case entitled, Lurena A. Carey vs. Carroll D. Quinton, was filed in district clerk Robertson's office today. Action brought to recover possession of some personal property held by the defendant.

Miss Ida Weidman has been on the sick list for several days, but her many friends will be pleased to learn that it is nothing serious. The Journal hopes to note her good-natured and smiling countenance mingling with her young friends again soon.

Harry Likewise has been transferred to the telephone offices of the Burlington at Lincoln, which place he left for this afternoon. Roy Miles, who has been doing the night stunt at the depot takes the place vacated by Harry while telegrapher O'Hearn of Gretna will assume the night trick at the key.

L. Demmie Hiatt returned home last night after a forty-two weeks engagement with "Hans Hansen," to spend his vacation. Mr. Hiatt has visited nearly all the principal cities of the west with this company, which closed the season at Blair, Neb., Saturday night. The Journal is pleased to see Demmie looking well.

Chris Koehnke departed Saturday night for Oreville, S. D., where he goes to accept a position with his old friend, Frank Hebert. The Journal is informed the position is permanent, and that Mr. Koehnke expects to remove his family to Oreville in a few weeks. This takes away from Plattsmouth one of the oldest and most highly respected families in the city.

H. L. Clapp, jr., of Elmwood spent Sunday with the family of County Clerk Rosencrans, and will leave tonight for the Peru Normal to prepare himself for entering the state university. Young Clapp is son of H. L. Clapp, one of the prominent farmers of Cass county, and last week graduated from the Elmwood High school and has a bright and prosperous future before him.

Anson Salsbury, of Breckenridge, Mo., father of Rev. J. H. Salsbury, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, accompanied by his son gave the Journal a call this morning. Mr. Salsbury has been a resident of the grand old state of Missouri for many years, and it was a great pleasure to meet him, and we extend to the gentleman an invitation to call often during his visit to his son and family. He is a true type of a Missouri gentleman.

From Tuesday's Daily

Machine oil at Asemissen & Louck's. Herman Kleatch, of Weeping Water was a county seat visitor today.

L. R. Carroll of Malvern was transacting business in the city today.

Geo. W. Erwin, of Louisville, was transacting business at Plattsmouth today.

A. S. Will departed this afternoon on a business trip to Akron and Denver, Colorado.

Harley Weldy who has been visiting in this city, returned to his home at Omaha this afternoon.

J. W. Holmes came up from Murray last night and while here made a pleasant call at this office.

Miss Jessie Gilmore returned home from Peru yesterday, where she has been attending the state normal.

J. W. Mann of Rock Bluffs was a passenger for Lincoln this afternoon to visit with his sister, Mrs. Edith Hoenshell.

Mrs. Frank Booth and children of Stephencreek, Neb., are visiting in the city the guests of F. R. Gutmann and family.

W. M. Fisher and little daughter who have been enjoying a visit with M. W. Thomas, returned to their home at Lincoln today.

A marriage license was issued today to Eugene G. Spencer, age 21, of Red Oak, Ia., and Miss Louise D. Marquardt, age 21, of Avoca, Neb.

After suffering considerable pain yesterday, it was decided to remove John Busche to the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha today, and accordingly his wife, Frank Buttery and Dr. E. D.

Cummins conveyed him to that place this afternoon, where he will undergo an operation for appendicitis.

H. H. Duke, who has been enjoying a visit here with home folks, departed this morning for Sioux City where he expects to enter the machine shops.

A. S. Will returned last night from several weeks' visit at his ranches near Akron, Colo. His daughters, Misses Dora and Minnie Will, accompanied him home from Lincoln.

While working with a horse yesterday afternoon Louie Egenberger, jr., was quite severely kicked by the animal, and will be unable to be around much for some time.

Our old friend, J. C. Gilmore, came down from Omaha this morning to spend a couple of days with his old Cass county friends, and dropped into the Journal for a few moments.

The sheriff received a card today from Sheriff Nick Ress, of Lancaster county, offering a reward of $50 for the capture of two fellows who stole a team of horses from Charles Rohrdan near Firth, Neb.

Mrs. Frank Wheeler and little granddaughter, Ferne Grassman, departed this morning for Waco, Neb., where they will spend Decoration day, after which she will visit with relatives at Phillips, Neb., a few days.

Mrs. Hayward of Lincoln, formerly Mrs. Willett Pottenger, of Plattsmouth, and a sister of Elam and the late Calvin Parmele arrived yesterday for a visit with her brother, Elam, and old time friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Ella Cooper returned yesterday from Long Beach, Cal., where she has been visiting with Capt. and Mrs. L. D. Bennett, formerly of this place. Mrs. Cooper reports all the Plattsmouth contingent as well and prosperous.

J. G. Richey and wife returned last night from Lincoln where the latter and son, Livingston, have been making their home the past winter. Livingston is at Beatrice, at the annual encampment of the university cadets, after which he will return home.

Gus Hyers, the postmaster at Havelock, was visiting here Decoration day. T. C. Parks of Greenwood was a business visitor at the county seat today.

A hearing on claims against the estate of Phoebe E. Robbins, deceased, was had today.

Miss Katie McHugh departed for South Bend yesterday to attend the Hill-Wallick wedding.

In county court today the annual report in the estate of Christian Metzger, deceased, was made.

Mrs. Martin Houk came down from Omaha yesterday and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Antone Libershall.

Joseph Gray and daughter, Miss Edith, came down from Havelock Tuesday evening to spend Decoration day.

Jas. Manners, Will Wehrlein and Misses Marie Berger and Nelle Creamer of Murray were visiting here yesterday.

J. J. Hill was down from South Bend yesterday on some very important business and gave the Journal a pleasant call.

Everybody's friend—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Cures toothache, earache, sore throat. Heals cuts, bruises, scalds. Stops any pain.

F. W. Ruhge, one of the best doctors in Cass county, was in the city Tuesday evening on business, returning home on the night train.

Itching, torturing skin eruptions, disfigure, annoy, drive one wild. Doan's Ointment brings quick relief and lasting cures. Fifty cents at any drug store.

—Have you Backache? Get a box of Kidney-Ettes—the most wonderful remedy for all kidney troubles, and they will make you right. 25c. Gering & Co., druggists.

Col. T. J. Majors, of Peru, who delivered the memorial address at the Parmele yesterday afternoon, in company with Judge S. M. Chapman called on the Journal a few moments in the morning and we were pleased to meet him.

Emory Halbert, while coming to Plattsmouth yesterday from the Nick Halmes farm, six miles west of town, had the misfortune to lose a bran new $20 bill. The finder will be suitably rewarded by returning the same to the owner or leaving at the Journal office.

—The largest and most complete stock of furniture in this city. We are not selling at 25 per cent discount, but can assure all that we will duplicate articles and prices of any furniture establishment in Plattsmouth, at Michael Hild's. We are not going out of business, but are here to stay.

Judge Travis returned from his western trip Tuesday evening. The judge was accompanied on this by Hon. William Deles Dernier of Elmwood. They spent most of the time in Chase county, of which Imperial is the county seat. Judge Travis says it is a pretty country and the land suitable for all farming purposes. Land is also very cheap and ranges all the way from $9 to $20 an acre. A fine

Done House Cleaning?

If not, you may need that new Carpet or Matting. We have a fine line of Straw Mattings we will be glad to show Short Lengths of BRUSSELS CARPETING for Rugs 9x12 can be made for $8.80 and up.

Short Lengths of Brussels, suitable for stairs, can be had much cheaper than the Regular Stair Carpet

Carpets 50c a yd
Fringed Rugs $1.25
Floor Oil Cloths
one and two yards wide

Ingrain All Wool
Rugs 9x10½ feet
Several Splendid Patterns of the 12-ft wide Linoleums

QUEEN QUALITY SHOES

The Queen Quality Shoe fits as a shoe should fit—not too big in one place and not too small in another, not too wide in the toe and not too narrow in the heel—but just right. Not only comfortable when old, but comfortable when new.

It is no longer necessary to use your foot as a stretcher nor to buy one size for style and another for comfort. Queen Quality has done away with all that. You can get style and comfort together in the Queen Quality Shoe.

Other makes of shoes at $1.75, $2.00, $2.25 and $2.50. These shoes were bought before the heavy advance in leather.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

stream of water passes through the entire county.

D. M. Lloyd has been on the sick list for the past few weeks.

Will Noxen, jr., of Cedar Creek was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Sawyer wanted—in small saw mill, Address J. S. Parsons, Malvern, Iowa. Albert Wallinger of Elmwood was visiting in this city Decoration day.

Mrs. Claud Everett came up from Union yesterday and will visit over Sunday.

Byron Clark and Miss Helen were among the passengers for the metropolis this afternoon.

Mrs. C. L. Herger and Miss Frances Svoboda went to Lincoln yesterday for a few days' visit.

Mrs. J. H. Becker and Charlie Brinkman went to Avoca this morning to visit with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Prentice and nephew, Hollis Green, of Havelock, were down yesterday to spend Decoration day.

Peter Zelhen, son-in-law of Mrs. Anton Kanka of this city, departed for his home in Kenosha, Wis., Tuesday evening. His wife will follow later.

Mrs. Geo. Dodd and son, Master Marion, of Kansas City, arrived Tuesday evening for a visit with friends in this city, the guest of Mrs. J. G. Richey.

After a heavy meal, take a couple of Doan's Regulents, and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulents bring easy, regular passage of the bowels.

—Danger is near at hand when the kidneys are sick. Kidney-Ettes will purify and strengthen the kidneys and restore them to their normal and healthy condition. 25 cents. Gering & Co., druggists.

Many ills come from impure blood. Can't have pure blood with faulty digestion, lazy liver and sluggish bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens stomach, bowels and liver, and purifies the blood.

Wanted—Girls to run sewing machines making cotton flannel gloves and mittens. Apply in person or by mail to Nebraska Cotton Glove Co., 1509 Jackson st., Omaha, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Eigenbrodt and daughter of Lincoln, came in Tuesday evening. Mr. Eigenbrodt returned yesterday, leaving the wife and daughter here to visit friends a few days.

C. S. Stone and Leslie Hall, cashier and assistant cashier of the Murray State bank, were in the city a few hours Tuesday evening. Here are two as fine young men as ever trod the pike.

F. W. Schleifert and family of near Louisville, were in the city today. The roads being in a pretty fair condition they drove down. While here Mr. Schleifert registered at Journal headquarters.

—Have you weakness of any kind—stomach, back or any organs of the body? Don't dope yourself with ordinary medicine. Hollester's Rocky Mountain Tea is the supreme curative power. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Gering & Co.

Frank Boyd shipped their household goods to Omaha Tuesday, and he and his wife departed for that place this afternoon. This family has resided in Plattsmouth for over fifteen years, and have many friends in this community who will regret to lose them from their midst.

Our old friend and steadfast democrat, Henry Behrus, of near Avoca, accompanied by his son, J. S., were in the city today, and made the Journal a most agreeable call. They drove up, and consequently can return home at their leisure, and not have to wait till midnight for a train south. While here Mr. Behrus renewed his faith in the Journal another year.

Mrs. J. W. Rynott of Lincoln spent Decoration Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson. Her sister, Miss Jennie, accompanied her to Lincoln last night for a visit.

W. H. Heil and daughter, Miss Mayme, of the Pleasant View Stock Farm, were in the city today, and while here Mr. Heil called and renewed for the Journal another year. Mr. Heil says they are needing rain in his section pretty badly.

PHIL SAUTER
PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA

Dealer In Edison Phonographs

the most wonderful musical instrument of the times. Write for catalog and price. We carry a large and complete stock of Edison and Victor records. Hear them free.

Ayer's Pills

Vegetable, liver pills. That is what they are. They cure constipation, biliousness, sick-headache.

Want your moustache or beard a beautiful brown or rich black? Use

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE

Reduce Your Ice Bill

By purchasing one of those high-grade

Refrigerators Below Cost

GASOLINE STOVES, of best makes at prices that are WAY BELOW COST

Come in and see me when you need these goods and get prices on many other desirable articles in the line of Housefurnishing Goods.

FURNITURE I. PEARLMAN STOVES, &c