

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

Dr. Marshall, Dentist, Coats' Block. American field fencing and poultry netting at Asemissen & Louck's.

F. W. Bell from Kenosha was a business visitor at Plattsmouth today.

M. W. Kaneff, of South Bend, was a business visitor at the county seat today.

Quick Meal Gasoline Stoves, all sizes and styles, for sale at Asemissen & Louck's.

A. H. Pratt, who has been enjoying a visit with his old comrade, J. W. Johnson, departed this morning for Tecumseh, where he will visit with a brother.

D. O. DWYER, Attorney-at-Law Office in building east of court house, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

Blair Porter, the liveryman, and Fred Young, of Union, were in the city today. They had to make the trip by team on account of the train this morning having to go around over the Burlington from Nebraska City through this city to Omaha.

Fred Elbing and family, who intended to catch the early Missouri Pacific train to Omaha and thence to Plainview, found out this morning that the train as usual was about three hours late. Therefore they found it necessary to take the Burlington this morning.

W. J. Evans who was attached to the office force of the B. & M. depot here about three years ago arrived this morning to assume the cashier's position left vacant by M. E. Nelson. The many friends of his family will be pleased to hear that they are to return to this city.

Andy Taylor departed for Beaver City, Neb., on the afternoon train. Mr. Taylor has several hundred acres of land in Furnas county and is interested in about 200 acres of fall wheat, which he is very anxious about although encouraging crop reports come from every quarter of the state.

From Saturday's Daily.

Machine oil at Asemissen & Louck's.

Mrs. A. L. Baker of Murray was a county seat visitor today.

Miss Daisy Buck of Murry was visiting at the county seat today.

Crede Harris of Rock Bluff was a business visitor at the court house today.

Henry Saunders of Louisville was transacting business at the county seat today.

C. F. Harris from near Murray was among the passengers for Omaha this afternoon.

Mrs. W. C. Brown of Murray went to Omaha this afternoon for a visit with friends.

Nick Opp from the vicinity of Nehawka was a business visitor at Plattsmouth today.

Wm. F. Gillespie, the grain dealer of Mynard, was transacting business at Plattsmouth today.

Grover and Miss Minnie Will from near Mynard, were visiting with friends at Plattsmouth today.

Most complete line of screen wire to be found in town, also screen doors and window screen frames. Asemissen & Louck.

W. J. Ranard and wife who reside on the Walker section near Weeping Water were welcome visitors at the county seat today.

John Albert and J. P. Kell, two of the prosperous farmers near Cedar Creek, were among the visitors at the county seat today.

C. A. Rawls, Lawyer. Probate and general practice. Office of County Attorney.

Miss Ada Winkler, accompanied her sister, Miss Ethel, from Glenwood to Plattsmouth this morning, where the latter took the Missouri Pacific for Auburn, to visit with relatives. Miss Ada returned to Glenwood on No. 4.

Mrs. Latky, grand chief of the D. of H., and Mrs. Lou R. Spencer, a member of the finance committee of the D. of H., who attended a business session of that committee, departed this morning for their homes at Lexington, Nebraska.

Asbland, Weeping Water, Louisville and Elmwood will celebrate the Fourth of July with several other near-by towns to hear from Plattsmouth people and those in this vicinity who desire to honor the "Father of our Country" will have to go away from home to do so. Shame!

Judge A. N. Sullivan and H. N. Dovey departed this afternoon for Stockton, Cal., where the judge will attend the trial of Mrs. Emil LaDeux, who is charged with the murder of his nephew, Albert N. McVicar. The case comes up for a hearing on Tuesday, June 5th.

From Monday's Daily.

Glen Rawls came up from Murray yesterday to spend Sunday.

Sawyer wanted—in small saw mill. Address J. S. Parsons, Malvern, Iowa.

Claude Everett came up from his farm near Union last night, returning home this morning, accompanied by his wife who has been enjoying a visit with relatives here.

Rev. H. M. Johnson, who filled the pulpit at the Christian church Sunday, returned to his home in Bethany this morning. Rev. Johnson made quite an impression among the members of his congregation, and is quite an able speaker.

J. T. Porter and wife from near Murray, were in Plattsmouth today. John says he is pretty busy with farm work, but is almost compelled to find time to come to town once a month anyway. Mr. Porter paid the Journal office a brief call.

Vallery & Bailey, the hustling lightning rod men, put up fifteen hundred feet in three days last week, which shows they are still in the ring on putting up rods for the farmers of Cass county, and everybody else who want the best lightning rod manufactured.

Charley Lovell is making considerable improvement on his farm residence, six miles southwest of Plattsmouth, and when completed, he will have a most comfortable home. Many farmers in eastern Cass are either building new residences or overhauling the old ones.

J. H. Schmidt, of Avoca, and F. Garrow, of Omaha, passed through Plattsmouth about noon Sunday with a fine driving team enroute to Omaha, where they expected to sell them at a good figure. They crossed the Missouri river here and went up the Iowa side to Council Bluffs.

From Tuesday's Daily.

P. M. Meisinger of Benson, Neb., was visiting in the city yesterday.

C. A. Richey of Louisville was a business visitor at Plattsmouth today.

Otho Wortman of South Bend was in Plattsmouth on business last evening.

Chas. Schildmeier of South Bend was a business visitor at the county seat today.

Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Butler of Weeping Water were visitors at the county seat today.

James J. Day of University Place was transacting business at Plattsmouth today.

John Flight, Jacob Tritsch and John McNurlin were business visitors at Weeping Water yesterday.

Fred Martins departed this afternoon for Denver, Colo., where he has accepted a position with the Burlington.

Dr. Jesse M. Carr registered his certificate with the county clerk today, and will engage in practice at Louisville.

Mrs. W. H. Seybert and daughter came in from Culom this morning for a visit with the family of John McNurlin.

Special Sale on Trunks, Suit Cases, Telescopes and Valises at Herold's. New Stock. Lowest price.

Mrs. J. C. Scott and little daughter, Charlene, of Central City, Neb., are visiting in the city the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wash. Smith.

John Flight and wife departed this afternoon on a pleasure trip to Norfolk and Columbus, Neb., where they will visit with friends and relatives.

The county commissioners are in session today and this afternoon have under consideration fourteen applications for the position of janitor at the court house.

A hacking cough is most annoying. One Minute Cough Cure draws the inflammation out of the throat, chest and lungs. Sold by Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Wanted—Girls to run sewing machines making cotton flannel gloves and mittens. Apply in person or by mail to Nebraska Cotton Glove Co., 1509 Jackson st., Omaha, Neb.

Glen Phebus departed this morning for Burwell, near which place he has a homestead of 160 acres. He will also visit with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Long who reside about thirty miles north of Burwell.

Mrs. T. J. Rhoden and daughter departed this morning for Greenwood to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Katie Laughlin, to Joseph Gavin. Mr. Rhoden accompanied his folks as far as Omaha, going from there to Council Bluffs on business.

C. A. Clark of Gloversville, N. Y., who sells the Icemaster & Place gloves, is at Wescott's Sons today, and after examining the products of the Plattsmouth Glove Co., he said, "the gloves prepared by them is as good as any made in the United States."

From Wednesday's Daily.

David Miller came in from Deadwood, S. D., this morning for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Joseph Tzhe arrived last night from Wabasha for a visit with the family of Conrad Schlater.

Harry White departed this afternoon for Alamosa, Col., where he expects to spend several months.

Geo. Loucks and wife, who have been visiting in this city, departed this morning for their home at Arapahoe.

G. W. Snyder and C. H. Vallery, from near Mynard, were business visitors at the South Omaha markets today.

Mrs. H. H. Tartsch, who has been enjoying a visit with relatives here, departed this morning for her home at McCook, Neb.

Special Sale of Trunks, Valises, Suit Cases and Telescopes at Herold's. New Stock. Lowest price.

D. O. Hewett and son Glenn who have been enjoying a visit with relatives here, returned this afternoon to their home at Havelock.

A telephone message to Col. J. H. Thrasher, conveyed the glad tidings this morning that Miss Agnes is rapidly gaining in health and spirits.

Mrs. Morris O'Rourke and daughter, Miss Margaret, departed this afternoon for McCook, in response to a message informing them that Morris was ill.

John Bock and wife departed this afternoon for Newcastle, Wyo., where they expect to make an extended visit with their son who is on a ranch near that place.

Miss Mary Schaffer, who has been enjoying a visit with her sister, Mrs. D. Hawksworth and other relatives departed this morning for her home at Burlington, Ia.

R. B. Moffit, who has been weighing mail for the government for the past three months, got through with his work and returned to Plattsmouth to remain permanently.

Miss Rose Patton returned last night from a few weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. C. W. Grassman and family at Alliance. Her sister accompanied her home to visit with her parents.

J. C. Cooper, who has been visiting with his son, departed last night for Creston, from which place he expects to visit his old home in Illinois before returning to his home at Beloit, Kan.

Gottlieb Metzger, who resided in this county near Louisville about sixteen years ago, and who has been enjoying a visit with old friends here, departed last night for his home near Broken Arrow, I. T.

Mrs. V. E. McFarland who has been enjoying a visit with her parents in this city departed this afternoon for Hastings, Neb., where she expects to attend the druggist's convention in company with her husband before they return to their home at York.

Special Sale of Muslin Underwear at Herold's.

The permits to wed were issued to the following persons today by the county judge: William E. Pierson, age 21, and Miss Susan M. Payne, age 19, both of Omaha; Oscar W. Johnson, age 27, of Omaha, and Miss Odja Katherina Berggren, age 19, of Plattsmouth.

Through faithful and conscientious performance of his duties, while acting as janitor at the court house, the county commissioners awarded Frank Svodoba that position, which was sought for by twelve other candidates. The commissioners made no mistake in their selection.

Mrs. Eliza Lindsay of Hamilton, O., who has been enjoying a visit with her sister, Mrs. Margaret Schulhof, and other relatives, departed this morning, in company with Mrs. Mollie Giffin of Richmond, Ind., who has been visiting with old friends here, for their respective homes in the east.

The beautiful home of H. N. Dovey is the scene of a merry house party this week. Misses Florence, Ione and Heien are entertaining Misses Stella Brandels of Omaha, Margery Walker of Murray, Grace Green and Bobette Well of Lincoln. Two more, Misses Teresa Heltschmeier of Glenwood and Frances Westervelt of Lincoln are expected tomorrow to join the jolly gathering.

The cards have been received in this city, announcing the forthcoming marriage of Miss Ferne Vilette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Hager of Lincoln to Judge Ora Earl Farnham of Belle Fourche, S. D. The happy event will occur on the 19th of June, at the home of the bride to be. The Hager family formerly resided in this city, and Miss Ferne has made frequent visits here and her numerous friends in the city will be pleased to hear the news of the coming wedding.

Mrs. C. W. Ellis, sister-in-law of Mrs. Perry Utterback, who underwent an operation at the Swedish hospital in Omaha, some time ago, is in a very critical condition and her life is despaired of. Mrs. Ellis has visited here numerous times and is one of those quiet unassuming ladies, and of the style to make friends wherever she goes.

Done House Cleaning?

If not, you may need that new Carpet or Matting. We have a fine line of Straw Mattings we will be glad to show Short Lengths of BRUSSELS CARPETING for Rugs 9x12 can be made for $8.80 and up. Short Lengths of Brussels, suitable for stairs, can be had much cheaper than the Regular Stair Carpet

Carpets 50c a yd
Fringed Rugs $1.25
Floor Oil Cloths
one and two yards wide

Ingrain All Wool
Rugs 9x10 1/2 feet
Several Splendid Patterns of the 12-ft wide Linoleums

QUEEN QUALITY SHOES

The Queen Quality Shoe fits as a shoe should fit—not too big in one place and not too small in another, not too wide in the toe and not too narrow in the heel—but just right. Not only comfortable when old, but comfortable when new. It is no longer necessary to use your foot as a stretcher nor to buy one size for style and another for comfort. Queen Quality has done away with all that. You can get style and comfort together in the Queen Quality Shoe. Other makes of shoes at $1.75, $2.00, $2.25 and $2.50. These shoes were bought before the heavy advance in leather.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

Personal Points

Mrs. J. S. Hall was an Omaha passenger on the early train.

Plattsmouth gloves for sale by the local merchants.

Mrs. T. M. Patterson was a passenger for the metropolis this morning.

A. H. Earhart made an unusual weekly trip to Glenwood this morning.

Misses Addie White and Anna Hessel were visiting in Omaha this afternoon.

The choral union will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. K. Hasse.

Miss Antonia Kessler came in from Lincoln last evening for a visit with friends.

Carl Kunsman was a business passenger for the metropolis on the fast mail today.

Miss Bertha Richey returned this morning from a visit with her brother at Louisville.

Dr. E. W. Cook went to Omaha this afternoon to attend the M. W. A. banquet this evening.

J. F. Polk was a passenger this morning for Lincoln, where he will visit several days.

Harry Barthold returned this morning from Havelock where he has been employed for some time.

Nelson Jones and Joe Black were among the business passengers for the metropolis this morning.

Mrs. F. R. Guthman, Mrs. Droege and the latter's sister, Mrs. Casper Reutter of Deadwood, S. D., were visiting in the metropolis today.

Miss Stella Brandies, who has been participating in the house party at H. N. Dovey's, this week, returned this morning to her home at Omaha.

"Suffered day and night the torment of itching piles. Nothing helped me until I used Doan's Ointment. It cured me permanently."—Hon. John R. Garrett, mayor, Girard, Ala.

The delegates from Plattsmouth who attended the Cass county Sunday school convention at Nehawka, returned home last night. In all there were one hundred and fifteen delegates present.

Among those who went to Omaha to attend the Lincoln-Omaha game were T. L. Murphy, R. L. Mauzy, F. L. Cummins, J. P. Kuhney, H. A. Schneider, J. D. McBride and son Dorr.

Many ills come from impure blood. Can't have pure blood with faulty digestion, lax liver and sluggish bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens stomach, bowels and liver, and purifies the blood.

Lost—Sunday morning, a black sack coat, near the Taylor school house. In the pocket was a Catholic prayer book with the name of the owner on flyleaf, and a pair of gloves. Will give fifty cents to have same left at Journal office.

The Red Socks baseball team has made arrangements for a game with the Diamond "C" team of Cudahy packing house, to be played on next Saturday afternoon. The Omaha team will arrive on the stub which is due here at 4:10 p. m.

Special Sale on Muslin Underwear at Herold's.

J. M. Meisinger of Mynard was in town today on business.

Oscar Eledge departed this afternoon for Denver, Colo.

Special Sale of Muslin Underwear at Herold's.

E. W. Black was looking after business matters at Omaha today.

Mrs. J. W. Pritchard was visiting in the metropolis this afternoon.

Mrs. Oscar Eledge departed this afternoon for Missouri Valley, Ia.

A. W. White made a business trip to the metropolis this afternoon.

Sheriff Quinton went to Omaha this afternoon to attend the ball game.

V. E. Gallagher was among those attending the ball game at Omaha today.

Col. J. H. Thrasher and H. E. Weidman went to Omaha to visit with Miss Agnes, who is on the way to complete recovery of her health.

A healthy man is a king in his own right; an unhealthy man is an unhappy slave. Burdock Blood Bitters builds up sound health—keeps you well.

Leonard Kluffinger, the resident consul in Italy for Germany, arrived in this city yesterday for a visit with his nephews and nieces, the Geringes.

Accidents will happen, but the best-regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurts.

The proper permit to wed was issued last evening to Wm. F. Barnard, age 24, of Hilldale, and Grace Edna McMillan, age 25, of Hastings, Ia.

Special Sale of Trunks, Suit Cases, Telescopes and Valises at Herold's. New Stock. Lowest prices.

—When the baby talks, it is time to give Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It's the greatest baby medicine known to loving mothers. It makes them eat, sleep and grow. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets. Gering & Co.

Mrs. Rozella Jeffrey of Wynare and Miss Teresa Hempel, departed this morning on a trip to Montreal, Canada, where they go as representatives of the Degree of Honor of this state, to the superior lodge convention which convenes on the 11th of June.

—If you want a real estate loan at reasonable rates; or a reliable abstract of title, insurance policy, security bond of and kind, or a contract, deed or mortgage drawn, see John M. Leyda, Grand building. Work promptly and neatly done and charges reasonable.

Henry F. Dutton, who has been enjoying a visit with the family of Geo. Dovey, departed this afternoon for Munsey, Ind., from which place he will return to his home in New York.

Misses Ethel and Alice Dovey accompanied him as far as Omaha.

—There is no need worrying along in discomfort because of a disordered digestion. Get a bottle of KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA, and see what it will do for you. Kodol not only digests what you eat and gives that tired stomach a needed rest, but is a corrective of the greatest efficiency. Kodol relieves indigestion, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, flatulence, and sour stomach. Kodol will make your stomach young and healthy again. You will worry just in the proportion that your stomach worries you. Worry means the loss of ability to do your best. Worry is to be avoided at all times. Kodol will take the worry out of your stomach. Sold by Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Decoration Services.

Memorial services will be held at Eight Mile Grove church at 11 o'clock a. m. on Sunday, June 17, 1906. After services the congregation will repair to the cemetery and decorate the graves of departed friends. At 8 o'clock in the evening services will be held especially for young people.

PHIL SAUTER PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA

Dealer In Edison Phonographs the most wonderful musical instrument of the times. Write for catalog and price. We carry a large and complete stock of Edison and Victor records. Hear them free.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN Hair Renewer

Always restores color to gray hair, all the dark, rich color it used to have. The hair stops falling, grows long and heavy, and all dandruff disappears. An elegant dressing.