

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

F. W. Swan of Union was in town yesterday evening on business.

Wm. Deles Derner was at the county seat on business today.

J. P. Keil of Cedar Creek was a business visitor at Plattsmouth today.

Will Yose of Nehawka was a business visitor at the county seat today.

Charles Spence from Louisville was transacting business at Plattsmouth today.

Dr. J. M. Greene and wife of Manley were visiting at the county seat today.

J. R. Cathey and son, C. A., of Weeping Water went to Russell, Ia., this morning.

Final settlement was made today in Strickland estate by A. G. Strickland, administrator.

A. G. Strickland was in town on business from Eagle today. He departed for Omaha on the fast mail.

J. W. Holmes drove up from Murray yesterday, bringing his wife and son, Ralph, with him, who will remain for a few days visit with relatives here.

John Lutz and family are enjoying a vacation trip to St. Jacobs, Ill., where they will visit with relatives. They departed on the late train Wednesday night.

Mrs. Daisy Hoover came in from Louisville this morning for a visit with her parents. Miss Nellie Sherwood, who has been visiting with her, accompanied her home.

Mrs. Peter Zeihen, who has been here for some time visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kanke and other friends, departed last evening for her home in Kenosha, Wis.

Ex-Senator S. L. Thomas departed this morning for his ranch, near Akron, Colo. Mr. Thomas has been here for several weeks, looking after some private matter, and left the ranch in charge of Mrs. Thomas and his grandson, a son of Walt Thomas, during his absence.

After hearing the evidence yesterday against Ebel Miller, a fifteen year old girl, charged with incorrigibility, Judge Travis ordered that she be taken to the industrial school at Geneva. The sheriff took charge of her and departed for Geneva this morning.

From Saturday's Daily.

Mrs. L. G. Todd of Union was in town today on business.

J. Asch of Murray was a business visitor at Plattsmouth today.

Julius Pitz made a business trip to the metropolis this afternoon.

W. B. Virgin, living near Murray was in town today on business.

Mrs. Andy Seybert of Callom was visiting at the county seat today.

T. J. Rhoden of Murray was a business visitor at the county seat today.

Miss Myrtle Peterson went to Bethany this afternoon to visit with relatives.

C. W. Green and wife came in from Havelock this morning to visit with friends.

Phillip Keil and wife from the vicinity of Mynard were visitors at the county seat today.

Mrs. John Donelan of Weeping Water is visiting in the city, the guest of A. W. White and family.

Mrs. Jacob Mason, who has been suffering from gallstones is now in a fair way of recovery, being able to sit up.

Miss Caroline Barkley returned to Omaha this morning, after a short visit with the family of George E. Dovey.

Merrit A. Prouty has brought suit for a divorce from Clara A. Prouty, on the grounds of adultery and deserting family and home.

William Sporer, from West Rock Bluffs was in town on business Friday, and while here he found an opportunity to make a call on the Journal force.

Mrs. Dave Wellman and daughter, Miss Mildred, departed for Lincoln this afternoon, where they will spend a week before going to Denver, where they will make their future home.

The Phillips-Hewett electrical company went to Union this morning, where they will entertain the people of that vicinity with their performance.

Miss Gertrude Rusterholtz departed this morning for Coleridge, Neb., where she will visit with relatives. Her father accompanied her as far as Omaha.

Fred Nemetz who has been enjoying a visit with his brother, John, expects to leave this evening for Chicago. His family will remain here for some time until he locates in Chicago.

Mr. Rufus Acord of Riverton, Iowa, and Mrs. Mo'lie Burk of Council Bluffs, son and daughter of Mrs. A. D. Acord and Mrs. Lydia Powers of Emerson,

Iowa, the latter a sister of Mrs. Acord are here visiting the latter, who is very ill with that dread disease consumption.

C. L. Tate returned this morning from an extended business trip through Colorado and western Nebraska. He reports everything in first-class shape in that section of the county.

Frank McNurlin, from near Cedar Creek, and one of the best farmers in Cass county, was transacting business in Plattsmouth today, and found time to pay the Journal office a brief call.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bates went to Lincoln this afternoon to attend the recital given at the close of the term at the University School of Music this evening, in which their daughter, Miss Lucille, is down for two solos.

R. B. Windham departed this afternoon for Denver, where he goes as one of the four representatives of Knights and Ladies Security of Nebraska, to attend the national council. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Catherine.

Word has been received in this city that Merrit S. Kerr and family, who have resided in Pittsburg, Kan., for the past few months, have returned to Kansas City, where Merrit has secured a more lucrative position, and where they hope to make their permanent home.

The Cass county teacher's institute will convene at Weeping Water, Neb., August 13 for a weeks session. The choice of place was left to the teachers and Weeping Water received a majority of seven votes over Plattsmouth. Supt. Fulmer of Beatrice, Dean Fordyce of University Place and Miss Margaret Farley of Lincoln will be the instructors. Several evening addresses will be given by prominent speakers.

Mrs. William McCauley, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Sam Patterson, of Arapahoe, returned home last evening. Mrs. McCauley reports her daughter suffering from a very severe attack of ivy poisoning, which broke out on her face and neck and attained a very painful phase before the worst was passed. When Mrs. McCauley left her Mrs. Patterson was convalescing nicely. Doris Patterson accompanied her grandmother home and will visit with her for a little while.

County Assessor J. M. Teegarden came in from Weeping Water this morning.

Clyde McLain is here from Twin Falls, Idaho, for a visit with friends and relatives.

Our young friend, Chris Metzger, of Cedar Creek, spent Sunday with Plattsmouth friends.

J. D. Kendis and family of Omaha were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Pearlman yesterday.

Mrs. Ed Johnson came down from Lincoln yesterday to visit with Mr. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson.

Chancellor Phillips and wife returned to their home at Marquette, Neb., this morning, after a short visit with relatives.

Alton Vroman departed this afternoon for Sheridan, Wyo., where he has been transferred to take charge of the air brake repairs.

Charley Patterson returned to Arapahoe yesterday, after spending a few days most enjoyably among the young people at his old home.

Superintendent Rouse departed yesterday for York, Neb., where he will assist this week as an instructor in the county teachers' institute.

Frank Mary came in from a business trip down in Kansas Saturday and spent Sunday with his family, returning to Omaha this morning.

The summer school begins today at Lincoln, and among those attending from Plattsmouth are Misses Nellie Whalen, Verna Cole, Hattie Eight and Minnie Doering.

Mrs. Clark, who was called here on account of the death of her sister, Mrs. D. M. Jones, departed for her home in Lead, S. D. Mr. Jones accompanied her as far as Omaha.

Reports received from John Busche are to the effect that he is improving nicely and will be able to sit up in a few days. It will be remembered that Mr. Busche recently underwent an operation at Omaha for appendicitis.

C. W. Green and wife came down from Havelock Saturday evening and visited with friends over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Green resided in Plattsmouth many years, and they received a cordial greeting by all their old friends.

Mrs. John Chapman of San Diego, Cal., who has been visiting here for some time, went to Omaha and Council Bluffs, Iowa, this morning for a brief visit with friends. Her niece, Miss

From Monday's Daily.

County Assessor J. M. Teegarden came in from Weeping Water this morning.

Clyde McLain is here from Twin Falls, Idaho, for a visit with friends and relatives.

Our young friend, Chris Metzger, of Cedar Creek, spent Sunday with Plattsmouth friends.

J. D. Kendis and family of Omaha were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Pearlman yesterday.

Mrs. Ed Johnson came down from Lincoln yesterday to visit with Mr. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson.

Chancellor Phillips and wife returned to their home at Marquette, Neb., this morning, after a short visit with relatives.

Alton Vroman departed this afternoon for Sheridan, Wyo., where he has been transferred to take charge of the air brake repairs.

Charley Patterson returned to Arapahoe yesterday, after spending a few days most enjoyably among the young people at his old home.

Superintendent Rouse departed yesterday for York, Neb., where he will assist this week as an instructor in the county teachers' institute.

Frank Mary came in from a business trip down in Kansas Saturday and spent Sunday with his family, returning to Omaha this morning.

The summer school begins today at Lincoln, and among those attending from Plattsmouth are Misses Nellie Whalen, Verna Cole, Hattie Eight and Minnie Doering.

Mrs. Clark, who was called here on account of the death of her sister, Mrs. D. M. Jones, departed for her home in Lead, S. D. Mr. Jones accompanied her as far as Omaha.

Reports received from John Busche are to the effect that he is improving nicely and will be able to sit up in a few days. It will be remembered that Mr. Busche recently underwent an operation at Omaha for appendicitis.

C. W. Green and wife came down from Havelock Saturday evening and visited with friends over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Green resided in Plattsmouth many years, and they received a cordial greeting by all their old friends.

Mrs. John Chapman of San Diego, Cal., who has been visiting here for some time, went to Omaha and Council Bluffs, Iowa, this morning for a brief visit with friends. Her niece, Miss Helen Chapman, accompanied her. Mrs. Chapman expects to visit friends farther east ere she returns home.

William Neville spent Sunday with home folks. Our old friend will be kept pretty busy for several months. He has the contract for putting in all the bridges and trestlework in the new Lincoln-Milford branch of the Burlington.

Mrs. B. S. Ramsey went to Lincoln Saturday afternoon to attend commencement exercises at the university. Mrs. Ramsey's niece, Miss Gertrude Foxwell and Edwin D. Crites, a nephew, both graduate at this commencement.

From Tuesday's Daily.

"Gut Heil," the favorite cigar W. E. Doud of Murray was in town on business today.

A. L. Anderson representing the Hong-Kong company of Omaha is in the city today on business.

Bennet Christwiser and son, Park, were business visitors at the South Omaha market this morning.

Miss Mable Hayes departed last evening on a trip to Chicago, where she will enjoy a few weeks visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kuhney are the proud parents of a new ten pound girl, which arrived this morning at their home.

Glen Dutton, who has been enjoying a visit with his grandmother, Mrs. Sarah McElwain, returned to Lincoln this afternoon.

Father W. F. Bradley departed this afternoon for Howell, Neb., where he expects to be several days in the interest of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Swartzfischer, of Mt. Pleasant precinct, were Plattsmouth visitors today, and our old friend was in his usual happy mood.

Among the teachers who went to Lincoln this afternoon to attend the summer school, were Misses Olive Gass, Nettie Hawksworth and Bertha Kennedy.

Miss Ethel Winkler, who has been enjoying a visit with relatives at Auburn, stopped off in this city this morning, while returning to her home at Glenwood.

Miss Anna Kanke returned from Nebraska City last evening, where she had been visiting with the family of T. J. Harcom. She took in the carnival while there and reports having had a splendid time.

Our friend, Frank Massie, of Mt. Pleasant precinct, one of the best democrats in Cass county, was in the city today, and of course paid his respects to the Journal, spending a few moments in social chat.

P. A. Horn, who has been in the city receiving treatment for an injured hand, caused from poison, reports the same almost entirely well. It threatened for some time to give Mr. Horn considerable trouble.

Mrs. William Batterson, who has been enjoying a visit with her parents, County Treasurer and Mrs. W. D. Wheeler, departed this morning for her home at Cedar Rapids, Neb.

The assault and battery case entitled State vs. Renold Wozzel, was settled today by the parties to the action, and after a reprimand by Judge Travis, they departed for their home at Murdock.

Sheriff Quinton has been notified to be on the lookout for a fellow by the name of Alex Mann, who travels under several aliases as a horse trader. A reward of $50 is offered by Lancaster county for his capture.

T. M. Carter went to Blair this afternoon to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, J. P. Stricklett, who died last night at the age of seventy-five years. The funeral will occur tomorrow from the late home in Blair.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore of Murray came up today and went to Council Bluffs to bring home the Misses Laura and Bertha Pittman, who have been attending the St. Francis Academy at that place.

Mrs. C. O. Hutchison, who has been enjoying a visit with the family of Wyatt Hutchison, near Rock Bluffs, departed today for her home at Jamesport, Mo. Misses Ora and Winnie Hutchison accompanied her home, for a short visit.

Among the Havelock items in the Lincoln News we note the following: "J. M. Todd and Mrs. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Tracey from Union were the guests of Mrs. J. W. Kinsey Sunday. They came up in an automobile early Sunday morning."

Levi Rusterholtz and wife of near Murray were in Plattsmouth today. While Mrs. Rusterholtz was doing her shopping Mr. Rusterholtz called and renewed for the Journal another year. He says they need rain in his section of the county and nothing will save the small grain from being a short crop.

Mrs. George Houseworth and daughter, Miss Ruth Houseworth, of Plattsmouth, Neb., relatives of Plumbing Inspector C. B. Murphy, have arrived in Long Beach to join husband and father and make their home here. Mrs. Houseworth is prominent among members of the P. E. O. in Nebraska.—Long Beach (Cal.) Daily Press.

The Red Socks will cross bats with the Hanscom Park club of Omaha next Saturday on the local grounds. This will be another interesting game.

Summer Goods at Bargain Prices

Corsets, Hosiery, Laces, Toweling, Etc.

G. D. Corsets, style 131, tape girdle with garters attached in white only, at..... 50c

No. 546, same, only in Batiste.

G. D. style 178, easy and comfortable low bust, girdle top, long hip, side and front garters fine quality white Batiste..... $1.00

G. D. style 452; long hip, deep front, medium bust; good quality Batiste, lace trimmed..... $1.00

See our H. & W. silk ribbon girdles, comes in white only, sizes 19 to 23, at..... $1.00

See our Huck Towels, 17x35 in. at 10c

We are showing a beautiful line of ladies' white and black lace hose in ankle and full lace lengths, at 25c, 35c, 40c, 50c and 75c

Ladies' sheer white waists, tucked and pleated, trimmed with embroidery and lace insertion. All this season's at favorite styles $1. - $3

A fine line of wash torchon laces with insertion to match. All widths 5c per yard at.....

Embroideries, all widths, at 5c, 7c, 10c

Odds and ends in lace curtains at a great reduction.

A Lot of Odds and Ends in Ladies' Oxfords at Interesting Prices if we can Fit You

Leather prices advancing, many shoe manufacturers are putting shoddy into their shoes. They look the same to the eye but the test of wear reveals the fraud. But every woman has one safe guard against this deception—the "Queen Quality" is the safety sign—the emblem of real quality of material and workmanship. We control "Queen Quality" sales in this community, and our stock includes many new styles that you ought to see to appreciate. Other excellent lines of shoes, good values full line sizes at from $1.75 to $2.50

PARASOLS A beautiful line of ladies' parasols and umbrellas. Children's parasols light and dark colors, at from 25c to $1.00
The best assortment of these goods for the little folks we have ever had.

E. G. DOVEY & SON

Nobody will be admitted without an admittance fee except the ladies.

George Falter, who is home from the state university to spend the summer vacation, has accepted a position in the Wescott store.

Miss Millie Tabbs is expected home Friday from Joliet, Mont., where she has been engaged in school teaching for the past two years.

D. O. DWYER, Attorney-at-Law
Office in building east of court house, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

From present indications Dan Cupid has already secured a matrimonial grip on several of Plattsmouth's fair damsels. Dan is a hustler in the month of June.

Mrs. F. D. Burgess and children, Lucille, Norene and Frank, departed for Omaha this morning, where they will visit a short time before returning to their home at Cedar Rapids, Neb.

The assault and battery case entitled State vs. Renold Wozzel, was settled today by the parties to the action, and after a reprimand by Judge Travis, they departed for their home at Murdock.

Sheriff Quinton has been notified to be on the lookout for a fellow by the name of Alex Mann, who travels under several aliases as a horse trader. A reward of $50 is offered by Lancaster county for his capture.

T. M. Carter went to Blair this afternoon to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, J. P. Stricklett, who died last night at the age of seventy-five years. The funeral will occur tomorrow from the late home in Blair.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore of Murray came up today and went to Council Bluffs to bring home the Misses Laura and Bertha Pittman, who have been attending the St. Francis Academy at that place.

Mrs. C. O. Hutchison, who has been enjoying a visit with the family of Wyatt Hutchison, near Rock Bluffs, departed today for her home at Jamesport, Mo. Misses Ora and Winnie Hutchison accompanied her home, for a short visit.

Among the Havelock items in the Lincoln News we note the following: "J. M. Todd and Mrs. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Tracey from Union were the guests of Mrs. J. W. Kinsey Sunday. They came up in an automobile early Sunday morning."

Levi Rusterholtz and wife of near Murray were in Plattsmouth today. While Mrs. Rusterholtz was doing her shopping Mr. Rusterholtz called and renewed for the Journal another year. He says they need rain in his section of the county and nothing will save the small grain from being a short crop.

Mrs. George Houseworth and daughter, Miss Ruth Houseworth, of Plattsmouth, Neb., relatives of Plumbing Inspector C. B. Murphy, have arrived in Long Beach to join husband and father and make their home here. Mrs. Houseworth is prominent among members of the P. E. O. in Nebraska.—Long Beach (Cal.) Daily Press.

A. S. Will departed this afternoon on a business trip to Akron, Col.

John Schiappaccase was a business visitor at Omaha this afternoon.

Otis McNurlin of Murray was a business visitor at Plattsmouth today.

Wilson Gilmore of Mt. Pleasant precinct was in town today on business.

W. J. White went to Davenport, Ia., last night on a business trip.

F. E. Hay of Elmwood was at the county seat on business today.

V. V. Leonard was a business visitor in the metropolis this morning.

Fred Egenberger is confined to his home with an attack of the lumbago.

Grandma Dovey went to Lincoln for a visit with relatives this afternoon.

Mrs. F. Heinrich arrived from Havelock this morning for a visit with relatives.

C. E. McEntee was a business passenger for Omaha on the morning train.

M. E. Manspeaker was looking after some business at the metropolis this morning.

F. M. Young, sr., of Murray was looking after some business at Plattsmouth today.

George Popsall went to Glenwood this morning to look after some business matters.

Glen Rawls came up from Murray last evening on business, returning this morning.

Mrs. Victor Sherwood came in from Havelock this morning for a visit with relatives.

Carl Kunsman was a business visitor at the South Omaha markets this afternoon.

C. H. Smith went to Omaha this afternoon to attend the postmaster's convention.

Z. W. Shrader and wife of Mt. Pleasant precinct was in town today on business.

Robert L. Mauzy and Frank Benfer were business visitors at the metropolis this afternoon.

Harry Presby and John Harkins were among the Omaha passengers this afternoon.

Miss Lena Fricke departed for Omaha this morning, where she will visit with friends.

H. T. Richards from the vicinity of Wabash was a business visitor at Plattsmouth today.

C. S. Polk departed for Adams, Neb., this morning to attend the Epworth League convention.

Mrs. Grant Owens departed this morning for St. Joseph, where she will visit with relatives.

Mrs. C. A. Rawls and Miss Emma Cummins went to Murray this morning to spend the day.

Miss Margaret Fetzer of Lincoln is visiting in the city the guest of F. R. Guthman and family.

Harry Shields, the advance man for the Parker Amusement company, who was here last week endeavoring to arrange for the appearance of that company in the city, arrived here this morning. He went from here to Glenwood, returning this afternoon.

Sawyer wanted—in small saw mill, Address J. S. Parsons, Malvern, Iowa.

Mrs. Martin Houk came in from Omaha this morning for a visit with Mrs. Antone Libershal.

Mrs. E. H. Wescott departed this afternoon for Adams, Neb., to attend the Epworth League convention.

Miss Nellie Greag, daughter of the ticket agent at Havelock is visiting in the city the guest of August Anderson and family.

Stops itching instantly. Cures piles, eczema; salt rheum, tetter, itch, hives, herpes, scabies—Doan's Ointment. At any drug store.

Mrs. Kasper Ritter of Deadwood, S. D., returned home this morning. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Joe Droege, as far as Omaha.

Miss Mayne Graves came down from Lincoln Tuesday evening to spend a few days with home folks and to rest from her labors as professional nurse.

Ed. Donat and family went out in the country yesterday for cherries and returned with several bushels. They are selling at $1.25 per bushel on this market.

In a letter received by his folks, Will Robertson says he is having a most enjoyable time in California, and that he expects to come home about July 1st.

—How are your kidneys? It is dangerous to delay when the kidneys are sick. One box of Kidney-Extes will recommend the next. Gering & Co. druggist.

Mrs. Ed. Kunsman departed for Chadron, Neb., where Ed. has accepted a position with the Northwestern. Miss Mary Kunsman accompanied her as far as Omaha.

For a mild easy action of the bowels, a single dose of Doan's Regulents is enough. Treatment cures habitual constipation. 25 cents a box. Ask your druggist for them.

Henry R., Matthew, Miss Mia Gering and their mother, and guests Leonard Kluffling and family and Henry Herold went to Omaha this morning to spend the day.

"Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is the best remedy for that often fatal disease—croup. Has been used with success in our family for eight years."—Mrs. L. Whitacre, Buffalo, N. Y.

Carl T. Seely, a veteran newspaper man formerly of the Madison (Neb.) Chronicle but now located in Missoula, Mont., arrived in Plattsmouth last evening for a short visit with his daughter, Mrs. W. E. Wells. Mr. Seely has been in Plattsmouth frequently in the past and has a number of friends here who were glad to see him.

—Why suffer with your kidneys? The discovery of the Kidney-Extes proved a blessing to thousands of kidney sufferers who have been restored to perfect health. These Tablets drive the diseased germs out of the system, and we urge all sufferers to give this scientific and successful kidney remedy a trial. 25 cents. Gering & Co., druggist.