Wm. Rice was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday.

Dr. A. E. Walker was in Murray Wednesday.

Mrs. A. L. Baker was an Omaha visitor Tuesday.

Father Bradley of Plattsmouth was a Murray visitor Tuesday.

Tom Lindsay and wife were in Plattsmouth Wednesday evening.

Bennett Chrisweiser, of Plattsmouth, was in Murray Wednesday.

Mrs. J. A. Walker and Mrs. Mont Robb were in Plattsmouth Tuesday.

Leslie Hall was looking after some business matters in Omaha Wednesday.

D. L. Amick was in South Omaha Tuesday evening with a car load of hogs.

James Brown went to Omaha Tuesday evening to attend the S. S. convention.

Rev. Ritchie and wife were attending the S. S. convention in South Omaha this week.

Wm. Troop and R. C. Bailey were transacting business in Plattsmouth Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. W. Edmunds is attending the S. S. convention in South Omaha this week, as a delegate.

Park Chrisweiser, of near Nehawka, was in Murray Wednesday, making a short visit with his friends of this community.

James Hatchett and wife attended the Propst wedding at Mynard Tuesday evening, returning home Wednesday morning.

Dr. J. T. Brendel is in Avoca this week looking after the practice of his brother, Dr. J. W., who is taking a short vacation.

Fleming W. Robb, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants' Bank of Verdon, will spend Sunday with his parents in Murray.

Mrs. W. C. Brown went to Villisca Monday evening to attend the wedding of a friend, and to visit home folks for a couple of weeks.

Chas. Chrisweiser shipped his hogs to South Omaha Wednesday evening. Bennett Chrisweiser of Plattsmouth went to the market with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ash and the little Miss Hansen are in Omaha this week visiting friends, and while there will give a number of private musicales.

Chas. Dunham, assistant cashier of the Packer's National Bank of South Omaha, was in Murray the latter part of the week, the guest of Chas. S. Stone.

J. W. Holmes has moved his family to Mynard, where he will look after the interest of the Mynard store. The new store at Mynard is gaining daily in patronage.

If you are needing anything in the line of hardware call and let us figure with you. We carry the goods at our Mynard store and are ready to give you prices. Holmes & Smith.

D. M. Lloyd, who has been on the sick list for the past few weeks, is reported some better at this writing. While he has not been confined to his bed, he has not been able to do much of his farm work this spring.

Mr. Mallory, representing the International Harvester Co., is in Murray this week, and in company with the home dealer, Mr. L. B. Underwood, are talking machinery of the various kinds to our farmer friends.

Edmunds & Brown are placing a new roof on their lumber sheds this week. But few lumber yards in towns the size of Murray are as well equipped as Edmunds & Brown, and they believe in keeping everything in good repair.

Chas. Graves, of Union, was in Murray the latter part of last week, talking newspaper to the people of this community. We understand he wants to place a little plant in Murray, to be run by his son, Harry. As to what encouragement he met with we are unable to tell.

Dr. W. K. Loughridge, of Milford, Neb., was in Murray Tuesday, for a short visit with his parents and brother. He returned to his home Wednesday morning, accompanied by his little niece, May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Loughridge, who will spend most of the summer at the home of her uncle.

Sunday afternoon two games of ball were played at J. H. Kiser's by the J. R.'s and the U. P. C.'s, and the J. R.'s and the M. W. A.'s. The first game was won by the J. R.'s by a score of 13 to 8, and the second game was won by the M. W. A.'s by a score of 12 to 4 in five innings each.

Quite a hotly contested ball game was played west of town last Sunday between Murray and Mynard, in which Murray proved the victor by a score of 19 to 12. It was a good game, and the only thing to mar the pleasure of the entire day was the fierce "in shoot" passed from the pitcher to the batter, who fanned the air, and the speedy leather passed on and struck the catcher, Claude Landers, in the nose. The unfortunate lad received quite a serious injury, and has been laid up most of the week.

Miss Gussie Robb is preparing a recital to be given by her musical class in Union, the coming Saturday evening, at the home of Myron Lyons. Miss Robb has a large class in that little city, and those receiving an invitation are looking forward to quite a musical treat. Miss Babeock, of Chicago, and Mrs. J. W. Holmes of Murray will assist Miss Robb and her class, with a number of choice musical selections. No admission will be charged, the entertainment is simply given to demonstrate the advancement the class has made under the direction of Miss Robb the past years.

In conversation with M. G. Churchill we are informed that a few of the Murray people have already given him new place a bad name, that is they have insinuated that he contemplates on carrying a line of goods that the sale of is prohibited in Murray. Mr. Churchill has instructed us to extend a general invitation to all classes to call and see him when they choose and on whatever mission they may seek, but not to stand upon the outside endeavoring to ascertain whether or not some unlawful act is being committed on the inside. Mr. Churchill intends to run a first-class place, will handle choice cigars, tobaccos and temperance drinks, with a pool table in the rear room for the accommodation of those who desire to indulge in this line of sport.

Miss Nettie Connolly went to Omaha Wednesday evening.

For Sale!

ANOTHER JUNE WEDDING

Albert F. Test of Mitchell, S. D., and Miss Maude E. Propst Married Near Mynard.

At the beautiful rural home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Propst, near Mynard, another pretty June wedding was solemnized Tuesday when their accomplished daughter, Miss Maude, was united in marriage at 7 o'clock to Mr. Albert Fawcett Test of Mitchell, S. D., in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives of the young couple.

Proceeding the ceremony, Miss Edna Propst, a sister of the bride, sang a beautiful solo. Then the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Stella Long, could be heard, and while the bride, dressed in beautiful cream silk, accompanied by her bridesmaids, Misses Blanche Bagg and Evelyn Taylor, the groom, accompanied by his best men, Thayer Propst and Frank Jean, could be observed advancing to the front room, where the blessings and the words that would make them husband and wife were pronounced by Rev. McVey of the U. B. church.

The guests were received at the door by Misses Alitia Warner and Edith and Nellie Jean, who with their courteous manners made all feel perfectly at home. After the congratulations had been received by the newly wedded couple, the guests made their way to the dining room, where a very elegant dinner was served by Misses Porter and Stokes.

The couple departed Wednesday morning over the Missouri Pacific for their future home in Mitchell, S. D. We join the many friends in congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Test and especially the former in securing one of Cass county's most popular young ladies.

In Honor of Her Father.

Mrs. William Morrow entertained a few of her friends at her pleasant home, near Murray, a few days since in honor of her father, Mr. J. Shaw, who lives at Tabor, Iowa, and who has been visiting Mrs. Morrow for a few weeks. Those who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore and daughters, Misses Vera and Frances; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Young, sr., and daughters, Misses Viola and Isabelle; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Young, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lilly, and Mrs. McDonald and daughter, Florence.

At noon the guests were invited into the dining room, where they were seated around a table that fairly groaned under its weight of good things, such as only excellent cooks can prepare, and with a countenance beaming with cheerfulness Mrs. Morrow seemed delighted to wait upon her guests.

The afternoon was spent in social conversation and in relating stories of long ago. Mr. Shaw located in Mills county, four miles southeast of Pacific Junction, in 1852, and there, after rearing a large family, his wife died fifteen years ago, when Mr. Shaw went to make his home with his son, at Tabor, Iowa.

At a late hour in the evening the guests departed for their homes, declaring they had spent a most delightful day, and with the wish that Mr. Shaw would visit his daughter frequently under such circumstances.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

Mrs. Gilmore Entertains.

Mrs. G. H. Gilmore most royally entertained a number of her Murray friends Wednesday afternoon in honor of her musical class. The entertainment consisted of a number of musical selections by the entire class, assisted by Miss Pauline Oldham in a number of choice readings. An excellent program was prepared, the rendition of which was all that the many visitors anticipated.

ONE OF OUR OLDEST SETTLERS PASSES AWAY

James Allison Died at His Home Two Miles Southeast of Murray Last Night.

At an early hour this morning the Journal received a telephone message from Murray conveying the sad intelligence that James Allison passed away at his home, two and a half miles southeast of that place last evening at 7:55 o'clock.

The deceased had been ailing for several months, but no serious results were apprehended until within the past three weeks, since which time he has been confined strictly to his room. The principal cause of his death was kidney and bladder trouble, from which he complained, although a tape worm was taken from him a few days ago measuring in length twenty-five feet. Up to ten days ago his friends had great hopes for his recovery.

James Allison has been a resident of Cass county for many years, coming sometime in the 50's, where he has since resided, and most of that time upon the farm where he died.

A wife and four daughters survive him, namely—Mrs. J. H. Hasenyager, Mrs. Clint Clineburg and the Misses Eva B. and Carrie M. Allison.

The funeral will occur tomorrow (Friday) at 2 o'clock, p. m., from the late home of the deceased, and interment made at the Lewiston cemetery. Canon Burgess of St. Luke's church of this city will conduct the services.

The Journal in a future issue will have a more extended obituary of our old friend. He was one of the pioneers of Cass county, an excellent citizen and to know him was but to respect him. Peace to his ashes.

Maple Grove

(Special Correspondence.)
Chas. Boedeker is visiting with relatives in Wisconsin this week.

Mrs. W. H. Puls and Mrs. Lewis visited at the home of Adam Hill Tuesday.

Quite a number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Louis Puls Sunday.

Quite a ball game was witnessed Sunday afternoon at Louis Puls' pasture between Murray and Manley, the former winning by a score of 12 to 10.

Our annual school meeting was held Monday evening. John Young was elected treasurer.

Bank Drafts

have many advantages

they have many advantages over P. O. money orders.

Postoffice money orders are good only at the office named in the order, and must be cashed at that place. Postoffice orders can be transferred but once by endorsement. Bank drafts are cheaper than P. O. or express money orders. A bank draft is a bank money order. A bank draft may be transferred as many times as desired. Bank drafts are returned the bank issuing them and may be examined by the purchaser. The endorsements on back of a bank draft serve as a receipt. There is no red tape or delay in case a bank draft is lost—a duplicate is issued to the purchaser of the original draft without addition expense. Buy your bank money orders at the

Murray State Bank.

Pretty Good For Amateurs.

While fishing in the Platte river yesterday Wade Miner and his uncle, A. P. Churchill, of Unadilla, who is visiting with relatives here, were surprised to discover that one of their lines was undergoing a severe strain, and upon taking hold of the line to pull in, they found that they had their hands full, but after a plucky fight a dandy blue channel catfish, which weighed twenty-six pounds, was landed. They consider this, together with the other small fry, to be a pretty good catch for amateurs at the angling business.
