

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH
AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

Ray Frans of Union was taking in the street fair last evening.

J. I. Low and wife of Cedar Creek, were county seat visitors today.

J. W. Holmes wife and son Ralph of Mynard were attending the street air last evening.

W. H. Heil and family of Pleasant-lev stock farm, came in this morning to take in the carnival.

Miss Nellie Sherwood who has been enjoying a visit with her sister in Louisville, returned home this morning.

Mrs. C. L. Graves and little daughter of Union came up this morning on a mission of sight-seeing at the carnival.

Eat one of Ring's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal and you will not suffer with indigestion. Sold by Gering & Co.'s drug store.

W. E. Gess of Louisville was a county seat visitor today, bringing with him two wolf scalps, which he turned over to the county clerk.

McGinnis Churchhill and wife, James Manners and Misses Marie Berger and Gussie Robb, of Murray were viewing the street carnival last night.

Regulates the bowels, promotes easy natural movements, cures constipation—Doan's Regulents. Ask your druggist for them. 25 cents a box.

Miss Alice Snover who has been enjoying a visit with friends in this city the guest of Miss Fern Greenslate, departed this morning for Omaha for a short visit before going to her home in Detroit, Mich.

Claus Jess was in today to renew for the Journal, and while here told us of his recent trip to the Indian Territory. He is very much pleased with his trip, and seems also to be well pleased with the country.

Mrs. Chas. Herren, accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Renner, both of Murray, are here today to take in the carnival. Both ladies called on the Journal, and while here Mrs. Herren renewed their subscription to the Journal for another year.

Joseph Wolpert, son of John Wolpert, one of the well-to-do farmers of Cass county, came down from Louisville this morning to see the carnival attractions, and while here called and renewed his father's subscription to the Journal.

The proposition to run a special train to Plattsouth from Eagle on the 24th of July, on account of the republican convention, is being agitated. Should this materialize, many farmers would take advantage of the rates to the county seat.

From Saturday's Daily.

H. C. Long of Murray was attending to some business at the county seat today.

Mrs. J. M. Palmer of Nehawka is visiting with her brother, Sheriff C. D. Quinton.

Roy Upton, accompanied by Miss Nina Lynde, of Union, were here last night taking in the carnival.

The cleansing, antiseptic and healing properties of Pinesalve make it superior to all family salves. Sold by Gering & Co.'s drug store.

Farmers, mechanics, railroaders, laborers rely on Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Takes the sting out of cuts, burns or bruises at once. Pain cannot stay where it is used.

Have you Backache? Get a box of Kidney-ettes—the most wonderful remedy for all kidney troubles, and they will make you right. 25c. Gering & Co., druggists.

Louisville is well represented in Plattsouth today, and among the number are James Stander and Herman Pankonin, who are delegates to county convention.

Justice of Peace Barton of Berlin, Iowa, stopped off in our little city this morning for a few days visit, while enroute to Greenwood for a visit with his brother-in-law, Chas. Stone.

When applied and covered with a hot cloth Pinesalve acts like a poultice. Best for burns, bruises, boils, cracked hands, eczema, skin diseases, tetter, etc. Sold by Gering & Co.'s drug store.

An advertisement in the daily newspaper reads: "Ladies, if you wear one of our glove-fitting corsets you will wear nothing else." They ought to have a parasol for hot weather hadn't they?

L. F. Longhorst, of Elmwood, was the guest of County Clerk Rosencrans and wife today, and while here assisted "Rosey" in smoking some of those fine cigars he purchased in Lincoln the other day.

Our friend, Lee Applegate, and daughter, Miss Della, of Union, came in this morning to take in the carnival, and Mr. Applegate the democratic county convention. The Journal was favored with a call from them.

"Doan's Ointment cured me of eczema that had annoyed me for a long time. The cure was permanent." Hon. S. W. Matthews, commissioner of labor statistics, Augusta, Me.

For bloating, belching, sour stomach, bad breath, malassimilation of food and all symptoms of indigestion. Ring's Dyspepsia Tablets are a prompt and efficient corrective. Two days treatment free. Sold by Gering & Co.'s drug store.

Will Kroehler came down from Havelock last evening to take in the carnival and enjoy a visit among his old friends. Will is now growing a moustache and it was hard for some of his friends to recognize him when he was coming up Main street.

—If you want a real estate loan at reasonable rates; or a reliable abstract of title, insurance policy, security bond of and kind, or a contract, deed or mortgage drawn, see John M. Leyda, Gund building. Work promptly and neatly done and charges reasonable.

County Recorder H. A. Schneider and family departed this afternoon for Denver, where they will attend the Elks' carnival, after which they will make a tour of Colorado, Idaho and Utah before returning home. They expect to be gone six or eight weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Bennett of Pittsfield, Mass., are visiting in this city, the guests of the Wescotts. Mr. Bennett, who is a nephew of C. E. Wescott, is superintendent of the Pittsfield high school.

Miss Laura De Fellows left this afternoon for South Bend, where she will visit a few days, and thence to her home in Belle Fourche, S. D. Miss Fellows is an accomplished lady, and her friends are legion in Plattsouth, her old home.

H. D. Barr, who is employed on the Thurman (Iowa) Times, came over this morning to enjoy a visit with relatives and friends and take in the carnival. The Journal is pleased to see "Dick" looking so well, and believes that Iowa atmosphere agrees with him.

From Monday's Daily.

Hill Tarpening of South Bend was in the city today on business.

W. H. McDaniel of Murray was in the city this morning on business.

A. H. Winkler, a real estate man of Greenwood, was in town today on business.

J. P. Stevens of Louisville was looking after business in the county seat today.

Ray and Tom Smith departed this afternoon for Oelrich, S. D., where they will visit several weeks.

Nebraska City was well represented at the carnival Saturday night, there being about thirty-five in the party.

C. D. Long of Burwell, who is visiting in this city, went to Glenwood, Ia., on business this morning.

Dr. C. S. Barnes and wife of Burr, Neb., were in Plattsouth to spend Sunday with his brother, Dr. A. P. Barnes.

Mrs. Geo. Shoeman departed this afternoon for Rawlins, Wyo., where she will visit with her daughter, Mrs. Jno. Mumm.

Miss Annie West was called to her home near Murray this morning by the serious condition of her uncle, Joseph Kastle.

Mrs. J. N. Palmer who has been enjoying a visit with her brother, C. D. Quinton, returned to her home in Nehawka this morning.

Miss Bertha York, who has been enjoying a visit with the family of J. C. York, departed this morning for her home in Watson, Mo.

Clarence English, the Omaha boy, got the decision in the glove contest with Purteil at St. Joseph yesterday. The purse was $400—the winner receiving $300 and loser $100.

County Clerk W. E. Rosencrans and wife and their guests, Mrs. J. G. Stark, L. F. Langhorst and wife of Elmwood were visiting at Lake Manawa Sunday.

James Holmes and family, and W. S. Smith and wife of the firm of Holmes & Smith, of Murray and Mynard, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rawls Sunday.

A small blaze was discovered behind Hatt & Son's store last Saturday night by Merchant Police Cory, who at once secured assistance, and with a few buckets of water the flames were extinguished.

A hundred years ago the best physician would give you a medicine for your heart without stopping to consider what effect it might have on the liver. Even to this good day cough and cold medicines invariably bind the bowels. This is wrong, Bee's Laxative Cough Syrup with Honey and Tar acts on the bowels—drives out the cold—clears the head, and relieves all coughs. Guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. 30 fraction or money refunded. Sold by Gering & Co.'s drug store.

"Gut Heil," the favorite cigar
Dr. Marshall, Dentist, Coats' Block.
—A full line of sickles and sections for all standard mowers. John Bauer, Plattsouth.

Try the White Lily washer. If not satisfactory you may return it. For sale only at John Bauer's.

C. A. Rawls, Lawyer. Probate and general practice. Office of County Attorney.

Two of the street sweepers yesterday were lucky. One is said to have found a pocket book containing about $21, while the other found a $10 dollar bill. Others picked up a few dimes and nickels.

A letter from Judge Travis dated Clairmore, I. T., informs us that he is feeling better and enjoying his outing very much. He will be at home the latter part of this week or the first of next.

No newspaper should give advertising space to any entertainment that is run for profit any more than the grocer should donate the flour and the sugar, yet many do this very thing every week in the year.

Frank Herold, accompanied by his young friend, John Wagner, came down from Lincoln Saturday evening, returning last night. Frank is now in the employ of Rudge & Guenzell, one of the largest retail dry goods establishments in Lincoln.

The people who allow their horses and cows to run at large at night to destroy lawns and mutilate sidewalks, will wake up some morning to find a kick registered in the shape of a warrant for their arrest, and a fine assessed against them. This is simply a note of warning.

The location of the site for the government building is the next thing in order. There are several very desirable locations on Sixth street, and we cannot see why one of these cannot be agreed upon without a scramble from property owners. The patrons will be satisfied with any one on Sixth street.

L. F. Longhorst, wife and Mrs. Stark, the two latter having spent a week with Mrs. W. E. Rosencrans, returned to their homes in Elmwood this afternoon. Mr. Longhorst is one of the prominent merchants of Cass county, and a most thorough business man. The Journal is always pleased to meet him.

Every form of distressing ailment known as Piles originates internally. The real cause of the trouble is inside. Manzan is put up in collapsible tubes with nozzle, so the medicine can be applied where it will do the most good and do it quickly. Guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded if you are not satisfied. Sold by Gering & Co.'s drug store.

The old time method of purging the system with Cathartics that tear, gripe, grind and break down the walls of the stomach and intestines is superseded by Dade's Little Liver Pills. They cleanse the liver, and instead of weakening, build up, and strengthen the whole system. Relieve headache, biliousness, constipation, etc. They never gripe. Sold by Gering & Co.'s drug store.

Seth Laraway came over from Glenwood yesterday afternoon on a combination trip of pleasure and business, and gave the Journal a call. He returned today with a broad smile on his countenance, so we take it for granted that he was successful in both. Mr. Laraway is one of Glenwood's staunch young business men, and the Journal has known him for several years, and is glad of it.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Rev. D. A. Youtzy, who recently accepted a call to Gering, Neb., departed this afternoon, in company with his family, for that place.

Alfred Olson, who has been enjoying a visit with his uncle, Gus Roman and family, returned this morning to his home in Sioux City, Ia.

Fred Hodgson and Nellie Johnson, who have been visiting with the family of Richard Hale, departed this morning for their home in Winside, Neb.

Miss Edith Crisenberry, who has been visiting with Mrs. J. S. Phebus and family, returned to her home in Tecumseh this morning. Miss Crisenberry is a teacher in the Tecumseh city schools.

Chas. Roman and family, who have been enjoying a visit with the family of his brother, Gus, departed this morning for their home in Sioux City, Ia. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Roman accompanied them as far as Omaha.

Miss Janet Buzzell who for the past two years has been making her home with her uncle, G. M. Porter, departed this afternoon for her home in Stoughton, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Porter accompanied her as far as Omaha.

You can see the poison Pine-ules clears out of the kidneys and bladder. A single dose at bedtime will show you more poison upon rising the next morning than can be expelled from the system in any other way. Pine-ules dissolve the impurities and lubricate the kidneys. Guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. 30

Summer Bargains

Silks

Our Silk Department has some rare bargains in Plain Taffeta.
Plain Taffeta, 36 in. wide, $1.25 quality, for one week only at $1.00
20-in. Black Taffeta, good quality, at 43c a yard
27-in. Black Rajah Silk, 75c quality at 45c
These goods are guaranteed to give satisfaction

Linens

We carry a large line of Linen and Napkins.
Full Bleached 61 in. 33c
Full Bleached 70 in. 68c
Silver Bleached, 64 in. 40c
Silver Bleached, 64 in. 50c
Fine line of red Table Damask, new line just in, at 25c, 35c, 45c, 50c and 60c

JUST RECEIVED
A new line of Dotted and Embroidery Swisses, at 15c, 20c and 25c.

Ribbons

This is a great Ribbon season. We have a full and complete line in every conceivable width and color, both plain and fancy
Extra Good Values in Black Ribbon
No. 40, at 15c No. 60, at 18c No. 80, at 20
All our ribbons will be found priced at Bargain Figures. A few pieces No. 100 Pink and Blue Taffeta at 13c

Corsets

By careful comparison of Corsets you can always find the kind that best suits your figure. It is well known that a dress cannot possibly fit well over an ill-fitting corset. We have given special attention to this feature of corset selling and our stock will be found to contain shapes to fit almost any figures. The J. G. Justrite at 50c and $1.00. A few odds and ends

Bargain Prices

For Years We Have Had the Exclusive Sale of Famous Queen Quality Shoes

We are better pleased every year we handle them because they give such satisfaction. They keep their shape and look well until worn out. The best leather is used and they're stitched with best silk after it has been strength-tested. The soles are selected for flexibility. The interiors are replicas of human feet, no matter what the outward shape! What other shoe is so constructed? What other shoe

Grows Old So Gracefully?

E. G. DOVEY & SON

days treatment $1.00. Sold by Gering & Co.'s drug store.

Mrs. T. J. Todd who has been enjoying a visit with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mauzy, departed this afternoon for her home in Wahoo.

There will be more "red" machinery exhibited at the State Fair the first week in September than has ever been shown at one time and place in the state. All the implement ground has been assigned and it has been necessary to lay out an annex.

Mrs. Z. W. Shrader returned this morning from Furnas county, where she has been for two weeks or more visiting her children. Mrs. Shrader brought to the Journal office several stalks of the second crop of alfalfa grown in that county this season, fully three and a half feet in height. This speaks well for Furnas county.

From Wednesday's Daily.

J. Asch of Murray was a county seat visitor yesterday evening.

James Stander of Louisville was in the city on business today.

Miss Ona Brady arrived from Watson, Mo., this morning for a visit with the family of J. C. York.

Mr. and Mrs. James Edmonds, of Blair, Neb., are here to spend a week with their son, O. P. Edmonds and family.

Mrs. W. H. Mason and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, departed this morning for Memphis, Mo., where they will visit relatives.

H. C. McMaken went to St. Joseph, Atchison and Kansas City this morning to buy more ice for his Plattsouth patrons.

Dr. W. H. Schildknecht departed this afternoon for Lincoln, where he will enter a sanitarium for treatment. He was accompanied by his wife.

Mrs. Henry Miller has gone to Madison, Kansas, for a few weeks visit with relatives, and consequently "Barney" is taking his meals at the Perkins hotel.

C. D. Long, who has been here on business for several days, departed this morning for Burwell, Neb., near which place he has been located on a ranch for the past two years.

John Petty came in from Havelock last evening for a visit with Plattsouth friends. John has been working at the carpenter trade, and has had all the work that he could take care of.

The special events at the State Fair include "Emma," a "guideless" mare who enters a pacing race without driver or hoppers, scores the same as the other horses in the race and goes when the word is given by the starter. She has a record of 2:14. This attraction is advertised for Tuesday, September 4th.

Mrs. C. H. Smith and daughter and the latter's husband, J. H. Teegarden, who have been enjoying a visit with relatives in Galesburg, Ill., returned home last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Teegarden departed this afternoon for their home in Hickman, Neb.

The sheriff is in receipt of a card, requesting information in regard to Oliver Knight, a 14-year-old boy, who left his home in Guthrie Center, Ia., and about whom the mother is very much worried. Word to be sent to Sheriff Brown of Guthrie county.

Miss Emma Goos was visiting in Omaha today.

M. S. Briggs went to Tabor, Ia., on business this morning.

S. H. Atwood came in from Lincoln on business this morning.

I. Pearlman went to South Omaha this afternoon on business.

C. E. McEntee made a business trip to the metropolis this morning.

Rae Patterson was a business visitor in the metropolis this afternoon.

T. H. Pollock made a business trip to the metropolis on the fast mail.

Mrs. E. A. Wurl went to Council Bluffs this morning for a visit with relatives.

L. W. Lorenz was looking after business matters in the metropolis this afternoon.

Mrs. William Morley and son Will were among the Omaha passengers on the morning train.

Miss Minnie Moeckenhaupt departed this afternoon for Omaha where she will visit with friends.

Miss Mary Robinson came in from Omaha this morning for a visit with Henry Donat and wife.

John Bauer, sr., and daughter Miss Emma were among the passengers for the metropolis this morning.

Mrs. P. E. Ruffner and Mrs. C. S. Duke, went to Omaha this morning to spend the day visiting with relatives.

E. H. Wescott and wife, Mrs. C. C. Wescott and Mrs. Chas. Bennett of Pittsfield, Mass., who is visiting with the Wescotts, went to Omaha this afternoon to visit that city.

J. H. Thrasher sold today the W. L. Pickett property on Granite street, between Fifth and Sixth, to Mike Hill, for $1,250. He also sold the Mrs. Alexander property in the north-west part of the city, to a Mr. Reynolds, for $750.

Cornelius Coffey and son, Cornelius, and daughter Miss Mame, who have been located at Fort Worth, Texas, since last January returned last night. Mr. Coffey was greatly benefited by the oil-mate, but still has a tender feeling for the people of Plattsouth, and may make his residence here again, among his many friends.

Sheriff Quinton went to Weeping Water this morning to serve some papers.

Mrs. C. A. Rawls went to Mynard this morning to spend the day with relatives.

Chief Draughtsman W. L. Barger of Lincoln was in town on business last evening.

H. C. Miller, Burlington claim agent at Lincoln, was in town today on business.

H. E. Weidman and Henry Goos were among the Omaha passengers this afternoon.

Night Yardmaster E. I. Reynolds and family, who have been enjoying a week's visit with relatives near Percival, Ia., returned home this afternoon.

Through Judge Archer an increase in pension from $12 to $24 per month has been secured for Andrew J. McKinney. This is effective from June 16th of this year.

If you want to buy a farm call on J. H. Thrasher and learn about the famous South Platte Valley lands near Sterling, Colo., the greatest irrigated lands in the west, where crops are sure.

Do you know that you can buy irrigated farm lands and water rights for $40 per acre and up, owing to the location and improvements. For particulars see J. H. Thrasher.

My Hair is Extra Long

Feed your hair; nourish it; give it something to live on. Then it will stop falling, and will grow long and heavy. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the only genuine hair-food you can buy. It gives new life to the hair-bulbs. You save what hair you have, and get more, too. And it keeps the scalp clean and healthy.

The best kind of a testimonial—
"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also manufacturers of SARSAPARILLA,
PILLS,
AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL.

Pine-ules BACK-ACHE

GUARANTEED TO GIVE SATISFACTION OR MONEY REFUNDED.
A DOSE AT BED TIME WILL USUALLY RELIEVE THE MOST SEVERE CASE BEFORE MORNING.

The medicinal virtues of the crude gums and resins obtained from the Native Pine have been recognized by the medical profession for centuries. Pine-ules contain the virtues of the Native Pine that are of value in relieving Backache, Kidney, Blood, Bladder and Rheumatic Troubles.

Sold at GERING & CO'S Drug Store