WASH GOODS

The term, Colored Wash Goods, nowadays covers a wide range of fabrics. Each season produces something new. There is a rivalry existing among big manufacturers of this class of goods, and each strive to outdo the other. All grades are closely imitated. This is not done to mislead the public, but merely shows an age of progressiveness and gives us a large variety of beautiful and useful cloths at moderate prices.

In our stock we show some of the choicest of the season's weaves. Batiste, Figured Organdie, Dimities, etc., at 10c, 12½c and 15c. Flowered Silk Organdie at 25c per yard.
