

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

James Dysart of Union was transacting business at the county seat today.

Mrs. W. H. Hell and daughter, Miss Mayme, of Eight Mile Grove were in the city today.

Mrs. Silas Breckinridge went to Omaha this morning to visit with her husband, who underwent an operation for appendicitis yesterday in the Immanuel hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Deming and daughter drove down from South Bend this morning and will visit over Sunday with the family of Mrs. Deming's brother, W. E. Wells.

John Lundeen, of Charlton, Iowa, is here spending a week with J. G. Likewise and family. Mr. Lundeen is enroute for Denver, but could not resist passing through Plattsmouth without visiting his old chum, Johnnie, whose friendship he made while employed in the B. & M. shops several years ago.

A. L. Tidd, Thos. Walling and W. S. Soper returned this morning from Alberta, Canada, where they have been for the past two weeks inspecting irrigated lands. They were highly pleased with the soil of that vicinity, so much so that Mr. Soper invested in a quarter section and the other two gentlemen have taken an option on a tract.

W. A. Davis, of Richland, Iowa, on his return from Stockton, California, stopped off here last evening to visit his old friend, William Turner and wife. Mr. Davis went to Stockton to visit a son who is a reporter on the Stockton Daily Mail. He also visited San Francisco. Mr. Davis will resume his journey homeward Sunday or Monday.

Since the publication of the article on the chautauqua organization in yesterday's Journal, we have conversed with several parties interested in such work, and they are of the opinion that with a little effort on the part of our people we might yet be able to hold one this fall. We have plenty of fine locations for such an assembly and we hope the matter will be freely discussed and that the movement will receive a favorable conclusion.

From Saturday's Daily.

Geo. M. Porter and wife will spend Sunday with his brother, J. T., at Murray.

Chris Metzger, of Cedar Creek, came down today to spend Sunday with Plattsmouth friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ohelnhansen went to Wymore, Neb., this morning to visit relatives a few days.

Miss Mabel Leslie returned last evening from a visit with friends in Greenwood, Havelock and Lincoln.

S. W. Copenhaver and three sons of Murray visited in the city today, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Porter.

Miss Nellie Sherwood returned this morning from Louisville, where she has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Hoover.

A. H. Earhart, who has been visiting in this city for the past few days, returned to Glenwood, Iowa, this morning.

Hans Selvers and family went to Bloomington, Neb., this morning to enjoy a few days' visit with his brother and family.

C. S. Stone, cashier of the Murray State Bank and Less F. Hall, assistant cashier, were in Plattsmouth yesterday evening.

John Durman, one of our excellent young friends from near Murray, was attending to some business matters in Plattsmouth yesterday.

Ernest Holmberg, who for the past year has been employed as day machinist by the Burlington at Curtis, Neb., came in last night for a visit with his many friends in this city. His wife accompanied him.

Ed. Oliver, Jr., departed this afternoon for Havelock, where he will visit a short time before returning to his home in Rock Springs, Wyo.

Sheriff Quinton returned last evening from Beatrice, Neb., where he has been to attend the semi-annual meeting of the sheriffs of Nebraska.

Mrs. H. E. Calkin has gone to Diller, Neb., where she will visit with the family of her son.

Wm. Long and wife, from near Murray, were Plattsmouth visitors today.

From Monday's Daily.

Abe Ruple drove up from Union Sunday for a visit with his Plattsmouth friends.

A. S. Wills departed yesterday afternoon on a business trip to his ranch near Akron, Colo.

Miss Florence Pitcher of Rushville, Neb., is being entertained this week at the home of P. J. Vallery.

C. E. Metzgar, who has been visiting with friends in this city for several days returned to his home in Cedar Creek this morning.

Miss Ora Hutchinson, who has been enjoying a visit with relatives in Jamesport, Mo., has returned to her home, near Rock Bluffs.

Miss Fannie Biddlecome and little sister Bernice spent Sunday in this city the guests of Miss Helen Travis. They returned to their home in Havelock this morning.

John Hiber came in from Woodbine, Ia., Saturday night for a visit with his folks. John says that Woodbine is a good little town, and the jeweler's business is in a flourishing condition.

C. A. Rawls went to Nehawka on business this morning. His wife accompanied him as far as Murray to meet her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Holmes, who are expected to arrive from Wakarusa, Kan.

Mrs. John West, of near Nehawka, was in the city today, and was a caller at the Journal office. She reports her brother, Joseph Kastle, at whose home the unfortunate man is stopping, in a very serious condition and his recovery exceedingly doubtful.

From Tuesday's Daily.

David Hite, of Alvo, was in the city on business yesterday.

D. L. Amick of Murray was among the business passengers for Omaha on the early train.

Robert Windham, who has been enjoying a visit with home folks, returned to Arapahoe this morning.

Jesse L. McVey returned last evening from Tama, Ia., where he spent several months with relatives.

Misses Jeannette and Doris Nelson are attending the chautauqua in Glenwood, Iowa, a few days this week.

Sam Patterson and Mrs. Houser who accompanied the body of her dear friend, Mrs. Patterson, to this city, returned this afternoon to Arapahoe.

Rev. A. L. Zink arrived last evening from Tecumseh to make the acquaintance of the congregation of the Christian church, to which he has accepted a call.

Jas. Frye and wife, who have been enjoying a visit in Denver, Colo., arrived in this city this morning for a short visit with their relatives here before returning to their home in Fairfield, Iowa.

Henry Petty departed last evening for Omaha, and from there he will go to Weeping Water today to join Company "D" of the national guard, which will start out in a short time on the march to Fort Riley, Kan.

John Neville, Louie Rheinaekle, Johnnie Turner and George Poisal, Jr., left this morning for Milford, Neb., where they will work for Wm. Neville, who has a contract on the construction work of the new branch being built by the Burlington.

Judge O. E. Farnham and wife arrived in this city last evening for a visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Herold and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Farnham have been enjoying several weeks visiting with his relatives in Ohio, and will remain here a few days before departing for their home in Belle Fourche, S. D.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Col. J. B. Seybolt of Murray was in town today on business.

J. W. Pitman of Union was at the county seat on business today.

Warren Nickel and Ed. Shumaker of Avoca were business visitors in the county seat today.

T. J. Bhoden of Murray was at the county seat today, taking the afternoon train to Omaha.

Miss Nellie Sherwood went to Louisville this afternoon for a few days visit with her sister, Mrs. Will Hoover.

W. H. McDaniel, one of Murray's busy citizens, came up on the early morning train and returned on the 10 o'clock train.

O. C. Shannon of Columbus, Neb., was visiting in the city last evening, the guest of his mother and sister, Mrs. Virginia McVicker and Mrs. John Leesley.

J. P. Keil, of Eight Mile Grove precinct, was in the city today, and called on the Journal to renew his faith in the Old Reliable for another year. We are always glad to meet our old friend.

The Journal acknowledges the receipt of a supply of nice eating apples at the hands of our good friend, Fred Patterson, of Rock Bluffs. Mr. Patterson always remembers the Journal when he has anything good.

In police court this morning W. H. McDaniels secured a writ of attachment on the wages due Walter Fauver who was employed by the Missouri Pacific in Murray, and who attempted to get out of town without meeting his obligations.

George Jung, of Louisville, accompanied by his brother-in-law, John Heil, of Eight Mile Grove precinct, were callers at Journal headquarters today, and while here Mr. Jung renewed for another year's reading of the great county paper.

Mrs. Will Coolidge and children who have been enjoying a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Washington Smith, departed this afternoon on their return home to Central City, S. D. Enroute they will visit her sister in Central City, Neb., and Mr. Coolidge's brother in Columbus, Neb.

Charles Marshall and wife came in last evening for a visit with her cousin, Mrs. Phil Harrison, returning to their home in Douglas, Neb., this morning. Mr. Marshall formerly resided in this city, and thirty years ago, before the Missouri Pacific railroad came through this city, he carried the mail between this place and Weeping Water.

Judge O. E. Farnham and wife, who have been enjoying a short visit with relatives in this city, departed this morning for Lincoln, where they will spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hager, after which they will return to their home in Belle Fourche, S. D.

Rev. J. H. Salsbury and his guest, U. S. Grant, of Lincoln, and C. S. Duke, went to Cedar Creek yesterday to try their luck at fishing. From the reports we received of the outing, Mr. Salsbury was the most fortunate angler and caught several fine black bass, and they all caught a thorough soaking by the heavy rain that fell yesterday.

Sam Long, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Cass county for several weeks, departed for his home in Washington yesterday afternoon. He was accompanied by Matt Spader, who goes to Seattle to visit his daughter, May, who has made that city her home for several years. Mr. Spader expects to view the surrounds, and may conclude to locate in Washington.

"Gut Heil," the favorite cigar Dr. Marshall, Dentist, Coats' Block, W. L. Barger and wife came in from Lincoln last night for a visit with relatives.

The attachment suit of W. H. McDaniels vs. W. D. Fauver was dismissed today.

Mrs. Fritz Heinrich came in from Havelock this morning for a visit with relatives in this city.

Try the White Lily washer. If not satisfactory you may return it. For sale only at John Bauer's.

Misses Janet and Harriet Clement returned this morning from a visit with friends in Louisville.

Mrs. George Alrup and children went to South Omaha this afternoon for an extended visit with relatives.

Misses Emma Bauer and Margaret Weber, were among the passengers for the metropolis on the morning train.

F. S. Selvers and wife of Salina, Kan., are in the city for a visit with his sister, Mrs. F. P. Brown and family.

Miss Ollie Mann, who has been enjoying a visit with relatives here returned yesterday to her home in Lincoln.

A warrant was sworn out against Tom Sedlock for disturbing the peace. The case will come up for hearing tomorrow.

Most complete line of screen wire to be found in town, also screen doors and window screen frames. Asemissen & Louck.

Eat one of Ring's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal and you will not suffer with indigestion. Sold by Gering & Co.'s drug store.

D. Hinshaw and wife who have been enjoying a visit with relatives here returned to their home in Tarkio, Mo., this morning.

J. W. Frye and wife, who have been enjoying a visit with relatives in this city, departed this morning for their home in Fairfield, Ia.

Gus Rhode and family departed this morning for Ashland and Greenwood, where they will spend several days visiting with relatives.

Can't look well, eat well or feel well with impure blood feeding your body. Keep the blood pure with Burdock Blood Bitters. Eat simply, take exercise, keep clean and you will have long life.

Mrs. Geo. Boeck of Johnson, Neb., and daughter, Mrs. Louisa Nabe, and granddaughter, Miss Nellie, of St. Louis, Mo., are visiting in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boeck.

Miss Helen Herold, who has been enjoying several weeks visiting with friends in this city returned to her home in Lincoln this afternoon. Miss Fern McBride accompanied her home for a visit with friends in that city.

Mrs. Frank Boyd arrived last evening from Omaha, to make her residence in this city again. Miss Lucy Martin, who has been visiting with her since Sunday, accompanied her home.

The Red Sox have made arrangements for another game with the Lake Side team of Omaha on Saturday afternoon, and feel confident that they

A Mid-Summer Clearance Sale

The first two months of spring and summer selling have encouraged us much. Our lines of Summer Fabrics were large and have sold out freely, leaving some odd lots which we want to clear out entirely. You will find here some good things left which are great bargains. Here are a few of them:

Neckwear

Every season shows decided changes in styles of ladies' neckwear. We've just received some of the newest things; they are dainty and nicely put together, and will give that finishing touch to the summer gown.

12 1/2c Lawns go at... 8c
15c Dimities at... 10c
Challies... 5c
35c Silk Organdies at... 20c and 25c

Shoes

In shoes we have some odds and ends in Oxfords we wish to close out at bargain prices.

All our Ladies' white Oxfords sold at $1.75 to close at... $1.48
All Children's white Oxfords sold at $1.35 to close at... $1.15
Queen Quality Blucher Oxfords, latest, $3.50 quality at $2.69

Bags, Etc.

Of a fine line recently received we have some nice things left which we will close at reduced prices.

Beautiful silk stripe tissue, 50c kind at 25c a yd
All sorts of remnants at BARGAIN PRICES.
White Lawn Shirt Waists, Lace and Embroidery Trim-med, for only... $1.00

Foot Comfort

Every woman who has difficulty in accurately fitting a pair of shoes to her feet; every woman whose shoes cause her feet to burn or be otherwise uncomfortable; every woman who appreciates the best thing in shoe making and shoes that require no "breaking in" is invited to inspect our assortment of Queen Quality Shoes to be convinced that they offer the solution of all her troubles.

PRICES, $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50

E. G. DOVEY & SON

will be able to down them this trip, as the team has been strengthened since the defeat at the hands of the Lake Side team.

A specific for pain—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, strongest, cheapest, liniment ever devised. A household remedy in America for 25 years.

Mrs. Klein who has been enjoying a visit with her sisters Mrs. Fanger and Misses Laura and Rose Schall, returned to her home in Omaha this afternoon.

How are your kidneys? It is dangerous to delay when the kidneys are sick. One box of Kidney-Ettes will recommend the next. 25c. Gering & Co. druggists.

Eddie Egenberger, who has been confined to his room for several days on account of a severe attack of rheumatism, was down town a little while this forenoon.

Miss Aggie Rickard, who has been enjoying a visit with the family of J. C. York, departed this morning for Watson, Mo., where she will spend a few days before returning to her home in Seattle, Wash.

The ice cream social given by the Sunday school teachers of the St. Paul's Evangelical church was very largely attended and the ice cream and cake was indulged in by an exceedingly large number—twenty-one gallons of cream being required to satisfy the cravings of those participating.

Arthur Holmes departed this morning for Burwell, Neb., where he will spend a month with his sister, Mrs. D. R. Churchill, who resides on a ranch about twenty miles north of that place. From there Arthur will go to Red Cloud, and Columbus for a visit with relatives.

Clerks and their employees are wearing broad smiles today. It is the first evening of their early closing and all are anticipating the pleasure of an evening in the open air and freedom from the cares of business and the worry of nine o'clock customers who have no thought for the pleasure of any but themselves.

Roy Boyd came in last night from Omaha, to make his home in this city. His father will accompany their household goods to this city today.

When applied and covered with a hot cloth Pinesalve acts like a poultice. Best for burns, bruises, boils, cracked hands, eczema, skin diseases, tetter, etc. Sold by Gering & Co.'s drug store.

C. E. Wescott, and Charles Bennett of Pittsfield, Mass., who is visiting with the Wescotts, returned last evening from a pleasure trip to Denver, Colo.

Mrs. John Schiappacasse and daughter went to Colfax, Ia., this morning, where she will take treatment for rheumatism, with which she has been afflicted for several years.

Hives, eczema, itch or salt rheum sets you crazy. Can't bear the touch of your clothing. Doan's Ointment cures the most obstinate cases. Why suffer. All druggists sell it.

Frank Janda, who has been compelled to relinquish his work at the shops for nearly two weeks, on account of rheumatism, is able to get around some with the aid of a cane.

Don't use harsh physics. The reaction weakens the bowels, leads to chronic constipation. Get Doan's Regulents. They operate easily, tone the stomach, cure constipation.

Every form of distressing ailment known as Piles originates internally. The real cause of the trouble is inside. Manzan is put up in collapsible tubes with nozzle, so the medicine can be applied where it will do the most good and do it quickly. Guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded if you are not satisfied. Sold by Gering & Co.'s drug store.

Peaches for Sale.

The undersigned will have a number of bushels of large budded peaches for sale at his place, two miles west of Mynard, at 75 cents per bushel. Will be ready for market next week.

EDGAR BARKER.

Why suffer with your kidneys? The discovery of Kidney-Ettes has proved a blessing to thousands of kidney sufferers who have been restored to perfect health. These Tablets drive the diseased germs out of the system, and we urge all sufferers to give this scientific and successful kidney remedy a trial. 25c. Gering & Co., druggists.

An Ugly Job for Jimmie.

Mr. James Teegarden, of Weeping Water, campaign manager for Congressman Pollard and chairman of the congressional committee spent yesterday in this city. "Jimmie" as we familiarly call him, was not a caller at these religious headquarters though he would have been very welcome. Jim has an ugly job on hand and is deserving of sympathy as it is known to be as distasteful to him as it ought to be to any man. It is reported that Jim desired to invest certain parts of what Henry George called the "unearned increment" in Otter county securities but found none on the market.—Nebraska City Tribune.

You can see the poison Pine-ules clears out of the kidneys and bladder. A single dose at bedtime will show you more poison upon rising the next morning than can be expelled from the system in any other way. Pine-ules dissolve the impurities and lubricate the kidneys. Guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. 30 days treatment $1.00. Sold by Gering & Co.'s drug store.

Ayer's Pills

The dose is one, just one pill at bedtime. Sugar-coated, mild, certain. They cure constipation.

Want your moustache or beard a beautiful brown or rich black? Use BUCKINGHAM'S DYE

Reduce Your Ice Bill

By purchasing one of those high-grade

Refrigerators Below Cost

GASOLINE STOVES, of best makes at prices that are WAY BELOW COST

Come in and see me when you need these goods and get prices on many other desirable articles in the line of

Housefurnishing Goods.

FURNITURE I. PEARLMAN STOVES, &c