Dr. C. F. Ballard attended the funeral of the late Dr. Robt. Livingston at Plattsmouth last Sunday. The burial was in the local cemetery just at sun set and quite impressive.

The Postal Department has notified Postmaster Hyers that Havelock is now large enough to be entitled to a 10-year lease on a building for post-office purposes. Anyone wishing to submit a proposition can do so through the local office, also get information concerning the requirements and condition of lease.

The last of the SI engines recently purchased from the Baldwin works, left the local shops this week for their work at various points of the B. & M. system west of the river. These engines, of which there were thirty-one, are the largest in the Burlington service and are a good indication of the rapidly growing business of the road in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Rickards came in from Sheridan, Wyo., last evening. Mr. Rickards, who was recently transferred to that point is foreman of the B. & M. paint shop. #### She Could Not Count.

At a recent divorce the husband claimed the real cause of his suit being the fact that his wife does not know the value of money, throwing it away in a foolish way. She would never make a stitch to repair small tears, which leads to a premature ruin of the clothing. Some people are just as negligent with their health; in the beginning of a disease a small indisposition could have been cured easily by Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine and a life could have been saved.

Whenever you get up in the morning and feel tired, or come to dinner without healthy appetite, or cannot perform the same amount of work as usual, take Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. If you are a sufferer from constant headache, or nervousness; if you are pale and weak; if you are despondent and irritable; if you are constipated; if your tongue is coated and your eyes dull, take Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 799 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

For Sale.

An elegant home for $850.00, cost twice the money. Must be sold at once; also, a six acre tract well located. Other bargains in cottages.

WINDHAM INVESTMENT CO.

There is nothing so pleasant as that bright, cheerful, at-peace-with-the-world feeling when you sit down to your breakfast. There is nothing so conducive to good work and good results. The healthy man with a healthy mind and body is a better fellow, a better workman, a better citizen, than the man or woman who is handicapped by some disability, however slight. A slight disorder of the stomach will derange your body, your thoughts and your disposition. Get away from the morbidness and the blues. Keep your stomach in tune and both your mind and body will respond. Little indiscretions of overeating can be easily corrected and you will be surprised to see how much better man you are. Try a little Kodol For Dyspepsia after your meals. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Fractures Left Collar Bone

While riding on a bicycle last evening, Charley Brinkman, who is employed in the Burlington shops, struck an obstruction, causing him to pitch headlong from the wheel. He fell upon his left shoulder, and fractured the collarbone, which was reduced by a physician. The injury will compel Charlie to carry his arm in a sling for several weeks, and also take a layoff from his duties in the shops.

Don't drag along with a dull, bilious heavy feeling. You need a pill. Use DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Don't sicken or gripe but results are sure. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

THE RAGING MISSOURI RIVER

Capers of the "Big Muddy" Excites the Imagination of an Eastern Scribe.

In a brief respite from its self-appointed task of regulating humanity and human institutions in its vicinity the New York World turns its batteries on the Missouri river and insinuates that it is a land pirate which should be regulated. Merely to show its wide range of vision and grasp of events the World says:

The Missouri river is at its tricks again. A thousand men started in recently to prevent it from changing in Nebraska back to a bed which it abandoned fifty years ago. There is no trouble comparable to this of having a river which will not stay put. Such the Missouri has ever been. On this account congress almost resolved in 1902 never to spend another cent on the stream.

Earth, money and steamboats the Missouri has devoured ravenously within the fifty or sixty years witnessing its rise and decline as a navigable river. Some of the earth it has put back in new places. Of the steamboats more than two hundred have been buried in the bends between St. Joseph and St. Louis.

Left to its own present impulse, the Missouri would run five miles away from Blair, Neb., now a river port. The bridge of the Northwestern railroad would be left spanning a long stretch of dry land. But a little thing like that is nothing to the big stream. It has been known to wipe out a 2,000-acre farm in a night. In March, 1903, its waters encroached on the main street of Wilton, Mo., which was two miles from the river thirty years before. Above Wilton farmers were growing rich on acres added by the flow.

Four years ago the erratic river moved three miles from Nebraska City, and in 1902-03 it cut $1,000,000 worth of land from farms above Omaha.

The Missouri river has changed state boundaries and has caused law suits between states, counties and individuals. In 1892 in a single night it threw the 1,700-acre farm of A. L. Beardsley, ten miles south of Sioux City, from Missouri into Nebraska. Down opposite Kansas City it ate up most of an island which the government was trying to wrest from a squatter. In irony the government gave a deed for what was left. Then the river put the island back, added to it and made the squatter rich.

In the composition the Missouri is six parts sand and mud and four parts water. This make-up gives its local color and the name of "The Great Muddy." It is about two thousand nine hundred miles long, and in 1850-54, the period of its prime, its surface witnessed a strenuous steamboating life. Later came the railroads, with their blow to navigation; later still the dwindling of the great stream itself in its upper waters.

The Poor Animal Rescued.

For two days and two nights a blind mule was stranded in the center of the Platte river near the National stone quarry. Tuesday noon some of the workmen took pity on the poor animal and swam out and brought him to shore. It was found to belong to Art Benjamin, who had it in a pasture on the north side of the river. He rewarded the boys for their trouble.—Louisville Courier.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains; no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Committee to Meet Bryan.

According to a special from Lincoln to the Omaha Bee, the following gentlemen will constitute a party of democrats who will go to New York to greet Nebraska's favorite son: "Mayor F. W. Brown, Mayor Watzke, Humboldt; Mayor Wood, Tecumseh; Mayor Hunter, West Point; Mayor Burke, Friend; Dr. P. L. Hall, Lincoln, John G. Maher, Lincoln; J. H. Wintersteen, Fremont, "Ed" Friend, Lincoln; F. W. Brown, Jr., Lincoln; O. W. Palm, Lincoln. Mayor Gering of Plattsmouth may possibly go. Dan Stephens, Edgar Howard, both of Fremont, and P. E. McKillip, of Humphreys, will go from Fremont." The party will probably leave Lincoln about August 24.

Galveston's Sea Wall

makes life now as safe in that city as on the higher uplands. E. W. Goodloe, who resides on Dutton St., in Waco, Tex., needs no sea wall for safety. He writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption the past five years and it keeps me well and safe. Before that time I had a cough which for years had been growing worse. Now it's gone." Cures Chronic Coughs, LaGrippe, Croup, Whooping Cough and prevents Pneumonia. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at F. G. Fricke's drug store. Price 50c and $1. #### No Good in Nebraska.

A friend of the Journal who lives near the Otoe county line, was in Plattsmouth yesterday and told us the following true story which happened in our sister county on the south: The wife of a farmer had a sister come from Chicago to make a visit. One day last week the threshers came and the guest insisted on doing the work alone and sent her sister away to rest. When twenty-seven threshers filed in to supper that night they found a sandwich tied with ribbon, one chicken croquette, one cheese ball the size of a marble and a button hole bouquet at each plate. Nothing more. The men refused to come back for breakfast.

Change in Avoca Bank.

For several days it has been reported that a change was to be made in the ownership of the bank at Avoca, and a telephone message from there states that a complete change will be made September 10th. Hon. V. W. Straub and his friends have purchased the stock of the original stockholders and will take possession on the date mentioned.—Nebraska City News.
