PREPARED IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE OF MURRAY AND VICINITY ESPECIALLY FOR THE JOURNAL READERS.

[If any of the readers of the Journal know of a social event or an item of interest in this vicinity and will send same to this office it will appear under this heading. We want all items of interest.—Editor Journal.]

DON'T WAIT

Don't wait until you have a dray-load of money before you open up an account with us. The chances are one in a hundred million that you will never have that much, certainly not if you don't get installment of it in the bank, where it will be drawing interest. We are after the little depositor. He will be a big one later on. That's the way nine-tenths of the well-to-do men of to-day got their start. Begin with one dollar here if you like.

Misses Laura and Bertha Pitman, of near Nehawka, passed through here Monday enroute to Plattsmouth.

W. W. Hamilton is building a new addition to the farm house of Robert Good, five miles southeast of Murray.

Several new independent telephones will be placed out to patrons of the Murray exchange in the next few days.

Nellie May Tucker, the little grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Dill, is quite sick at their home west of town this week.

Ezra Murphy, the Murray carpenter, who has been employed down near Nehawka, is spending the week with home folks.

Adam Cook was in Murray Monday. He tells us that he is contemplating a trip to Stanton county for a visit with his parents.

R. R. Nichols departed Monday morning for western Nebraska, where he will spend a few days visiting with his daughter.

Jos. Montgomery, from near Burlington Junction, Mo., is visiting at the home of Geo. Wray and family, south of town.

D. C. Rhoden purchased a fine new surry this week from our popular harness maker, J. H. Cook. The new rig will be placed in the livery barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Miller of Plattsmouth, Neb., are visiting in Murray this week, the guests of Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edmunds.

C. S. Stone, D. C. West and H. T. Todd departed Monday evening for a few days combined business and pleasure trip up near Calgary, Canada.

J. F. Hendricks is building a new farm residence on the Chaifant place, six miles southeast of Murray. Herman Reike is doing the carpenter work.

Several thrashers are running in the vicinity of Murray these days and in consequence thereof the business men of our little town are taking a vacation.

S. G. Latta is busily engaged this week making some repairs about his town property, among which is a new concrete walk surrounding his residence.

L. B. Underwood and the Pittless scale man were interviewing our farmers this week in regard to the many good qualities of this popular weighing device.

J. H. Cook was a passenger for Omaha Tuesday evening going up to get a new spring wagon and a surry for his trade. John is placing a good many vehicles.

W. A. Lewis expects to leave today (Thursday) for a few days visit up in Cedar county, to look after some improvements to be placed on his farm near Coalridge.

Mrs. E. A. Burton, who has been visiting with her brother, A. L. Baker and family for the past two weeks, returned to her home in Surprise, Nebraska, Wednesday. Mrs. Baker accompanied her as far as Omaha.

The democratic convention held in Lincoln Wednesday proved a combined pleasure and business trip for H. L. Oldham, as he met two of his brothers, one from Plattsmouth, and J. G., of Beaver City, both of whom were delegates.

Less F. Hall returned to Murray last Saturday evening after a few days visit with home folks out at Petersburg, Neb. He reports a very pleasant time. He will now be found on duty at the Murray State Bank.

Dr. B. F. Brendel drove to Plattsmouth Tuesday morning to make arrangements for his daughter, Miss Bessie, to attend school in that place the coming winter. Miss Bessie graduated in the Murray schools last spring and wishes to take the higher branches in Plattsmouth this winter before entering the university.

Some of our readers have registered a strong complaint against the Murray "chicken grabber." They are of the opinion that it is pretty tough for the industrious class of people to be compelled to assist in supporting the never works and never will in this manner. We do not know who these people are, but it is certainly a mighty mean trick to "swipe" a neighbors chickens.

Mrs. A. M. Holmes, who is still visiting with friends in Chillicothe, Mo., writes to the Murray relatives that she is improving in health. It will be remembered that Mrs. Holmes and the entire family where she is visiting were poisoned with canned meat a few weeks ago, but they have all recovered without serious results. Mr. Holmes will probably go to Chillicothe in a few days and return with Mrs. Holmes.

In conversation with Postmaster A. L. Baker, he tells us that it is wonderful how great the rural routes have increased the paper business of the small towns. At Murray the increase is fully six times what they were receiving at the time the routes were established. The letter mail, where the government derives the greatest profit has not increased a great deal, and in consequence thereof the rural routes are far from self-sustaining.

The farm home of our excellent friend J. T. Porter and family, south of Murray, was a scene of much pleasure and enjoyment last Sunday. Chas. Heper and family, of Weeping Water, F. W. Fleming and family and Mrs. James Fleming, of Nebraska City; Mrs. Blair Porter, of Union; Mrs. May Bryan, of Randolph, and John Durham and lady were among the visitors that spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Porter. At the usual hour one of those good old farm dinners was spread before them, to which each and every one did their part in devouring.

In Honor of Brother.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Chriswiler in Beaver City, Furnas county, Nebraska, a delightful party occurred Saturday evening, August 11, given by Miss Marie Cook in honor of Mr. Troy Shrader of Cass county, who is visiting with his sisters and brothers in that locality. The young folks enjoyed themselves with playing various games. At 12 o'clock ample justice was done to the inviting dainties of the table served by Mrs. Wm. Bridgewater and Mrs. R. H. Chriswiler, after which the young people departed for their homes wishing Mr. Troy many more such pleasant times.

Those present were John Cook, Ward and Guy Young, John Sapp, Willie Winslow, Wilhelm Straub, Frank Malone, Owen Winslow, Robert Carr, Lee Gaynes, Lindsey Fultz, I. K. Malone, Robert Volgamore, Fritz Straub, Robert Shrader, James Cook, Delbert Brown, Troy Shrader, Mr. Sultrum, Roy Shrader, Johnnie Bridgewater, Mr. Long, Alex and Curtice Cormick, Mrs. Fred Linville and daughter, Grace, Mrs. Wm. Bridgewater, Nina Hardin, Pearl Bieghler, Myrtle Hines, Anna Straub, Goldie Brown, Edith Winslow, Bettie Straub, Nellie Winslow, Maude Bridgewater, Elsie Winslow, Marie Cook, May Stricklen, Bula Bridgewater, Roy and Johnnie Chriswiler.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

A world of truth in a few words: "Nearly all other cough cures are constipating, especially those containing opiates. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar moves the bowels. Contains no opiates." You can get it at F. G. Fricke & Co's and Gering & Co's.

George Wray's Home Burned.

The farm home of Geo. Wray, south of Murray, caught fire Tuesday morning about nine o'clock and totally destroyed, the cause being from a defective flue. Mr. and Mrs. Wray had just returned from Burlington Junction, Mo., where they were visiting among friends and relatives, and Mrs. Wray was doing some house cleaning and had occasion to burn a lot of old waste paper in the stove, which caused the fire to catch in the roof. Mr. and Mrs. Wray were at home, but every effort to check the flames were in vain, and the house was burned to the ground. The household goods on the lower floor were mostly all saved, but all in the second story were destroyed. It was almost a total loss to Mr. Wray, as the house was only partially covered by insurance.

Cancer of the Throat.

In a letter to his sister, Mrs. S. G. Latta, Hon. David F. Patterson, of Pittsburg, Pa., relates his experience in undergoing an operation recently for cancer of the throat. The operation was performed by cutting from the outside of the throat and the attending surgeon is of the opinion that every particle of the cancer has been removed and that no further trouble will result. The operation has temporarily removed his voice, and at present he is unable to speak above a whisper, but the surgeon says this difficulty will be overcome in a short time. Mr. Patterson is one of the leading attorneys of Pittsburg, also a leader in political matters of the state. He is also quite well known in Plattsmouth, as he is a brother of the late James M. Patterson of this city, also a brother of Mrs. S. G. Latta, of Murray and a cousin of J. A. Walker.

Sixty-Ninth Birthday.

One of our excellent farmer friends, F. M. Young, sr., passed his sixty-ninth mile stone last Friday, and in honor of the occasion his children, those who are at home, and his good wife planned a little surprise for him. The affair was complete in every particular. At noon an excellent dinner was served and the afternoon was spent in social conversation, with a few musical numbers by the younger people. Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Young, jr. and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gopen and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lewis and family and Warren Wiley. The Journal joins with the many friends in hoping that Mr. Young may live to enjoy many more such happy occasions.

Why does the sun burn? Why does a mosquito sting? Why do we feel unhappy in the good old summer time? Answer: we don't. We use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, and these little pills don't bother us. Learn to look for the name on the box to get the genuine. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Close Big Ranch Deal.

Through the hustling real estate man, J. P. Falter, of this city, a deal was consummated last Friday whereby J. V. DeLashmatt, of Pacific Junction, Iowa, becomes the owner of a tract of land, extending six miles along Calamus river in Loup county, Nebraska. The ranch is all bottom land, consisting of 4400 acres, with which are included 250 head of cattle, 30 head of horses, all farm machinery and the crops for this year. The property is known as the old Dahlman ranch, formerly belonging to Omaha's popular Mayor. Mr. DeLashmatt will take charge of his newly acquired ranch immediately. The other parties of the transaction were Messrs. Hunter, Bock and Peters, who in turn receive the 240 acre farm occupied by Mr. DeLashmatt, near Pacific Junction. The above gentlemen will take possession at once.

In this state it is not necessary to serve a five days' notice for eviction of a cold. Use the original laxative cough syrup, Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. No opiates. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Visit of An Old Pioneer.

Dr. E. A. Donelan, of St. Joseph, Mo., accompanied by one of his nieces, will arrive in Plattsmouth tomorrow to visit his sister, Mrs. Conrad Schlatter and family. Dr. Donelan is a pioneer citizen of Plattsmouth, but this will be his first visit to this city for thirty years. He formerly owned the building which is now occupied by Jake Heinrich for a restaurant, in which he conducted a drug store. Dr. Donelan would like to meet all his pioneer friends, and all those who would like to visit him are invited to do so at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schlatter, and talk over incidents of pioneer days.

ASKS $5,000 FOR 15 HOURS IMPRISONMENT

Damage Suit Against Chief Fitzgerald and John McNurlin Filed Today by Frank Fisher.

FALSE AND FRAUDULENT PROSECUTION

Claimed by Plaintiff During Trial Before Judge Archer, Who Fined Him $8 on Several Charges.

Through his attorney, A. N. Sullivan, Frank Fisher today filed suit for damages in the sum of $5,000 against John McNurlin and Joe Fitzgerald, to recompense him for the injuries received while being arrested on the 10th of July; for the anxiety and humiliation he suffered during the fifteen hours' incarceration in the county bastille; for the sum of $28 paid to Judge Archer to discharge the case; for five days of labor lost on account of injuries received during the arrest, and in general for the public scandal in which he was involved; for the damage to his reputation, and for the disgrace and infamy resulting therefrom.

The circumstance from which this action arises occurred on July 10 while the carnival company was in this city. The plaintiff to the case was arrested by Special Policeman McNurlin and Chief of Police Fitzgerald, and in so doing, the plaintiff complains, that he was unlawfully arrested and imprisoned, without a reasonable or probable cause. For this first cause of action Fisher asks for $2,500 damages.

In the second cause the defendants are accused of falsely and maliciously prosecuting Fisher, before Judge Archer, on a charge of being drunk, disturbing the peace, and several other similar charges. The plaintiff also claims that he was induced to plead guilty to this charge or face a more serious one of libel.

For the two causes of action, the plaintiff prays for $5,000 damages and costs of the action.

UNITED IN HAPPY WEDLOCK

Miss Mabel Hayes and Mr. Otto Wurl Married at 9 O'Clock Last Evening by Rev. J. T. Baird.

In the presence of a few near friends and relatives, Miss Mabel Hayes and Mr. Otto A. Wurl were united in the holy bonds of marriage by Rev. J. T. Baird, at 9 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boeck.

At the appointed hour the contracting parties quietly advanced to the parlor, and were there pronounced husband and wife, the impressive ring ceremony being employed. The bride appeared very charming in a dress of shadow embroidered swiss, while the soon to be benedict bore himself with dignity in conventional black. Many sweet flowers scattered their fragrant perfume through the rooms and materially assisted in the happy event. After the ceremony, the newly married received the congratulations of their friends, and then repaired to the dining room, where refreshments were served by Misses Gertrude Donnelly, Gladys Sullivan, Bertha Richey and Jeanette Morgan.

The bride, who has been reared to womanhood in this city, where she has taught in the public schools for a number of years, has a large circle of friends, who regret to lose her from their midst, and from the schoolroom where she has won the love of her pupils.

The groom, who has also been reared in this community, is an active promoter of athletic sports, and he no doubt will be greatly missed in the athletic contests, that are frequently held in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wurl departed this morning for their future home in Indianapolis, Ind. Enroute they will stop in Chicago for a few days' visit with friends. In Indianapolis, Mr. Wurl has recently secured a lucrative position as instructor in the gymnasiums of the two high schools of that city. The best wishes of the entire community, among whom the Journal desires to be numbered, accompany them to their home in the east.

The out of town guests present were Prof. Ed. Schullhoff, Glenwood; Ed. Guggenheim, Lincoln; Mrs. Jas. Mitchell and daughter, Miss Frances, Mrs. Andrus, Mrs. B. Drummond and sister, Miss Mabel Sidell, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wurl and son of Byron, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Richey of Louisville.
