A LARGE CONVENTION

The Democratic Assemblage in Lincoln Yesterday the Largest in the History of the State

POPULAR STANDARD-BEARER NOMINATED

Ashton C. Shallenberger is His Name and For Two Terms He Was a Member of Congress.

Democratic State Ticket.

ASHTON C. SHALLENBERGER, of Alma, for GOVERNOR.

WILLIAM H. GREEN, of Creighton, for Lieutenant Governor.

CARL R. GOUCHER, of Wahoo for secretary of state.

ERANK C. BABCOCK, of Hastings, for treasurer.

ED. H. LUKHART, of Tilden, for auditor.

PROF. WATSON, of Cherry county, for superintendent of public instruction.

LYLE ABBOTT, of Omaha, for attorney general.

One of the largest state democratic conventions that ever assembled in the history of Nebraska was that held in Lincoln yesterday, and it was with great pride that a former Cass county boy presided over the deliberations of that great body of democrats in the person of Judge C. M. Skiles of Butler county, and his speech of acceptance was one of the finest ever delivered before a body of that character, and during its delivery he was frequently applauded by the great democratic masses there assembled. The convention continued in session only a few hours when they adjourned to 7:30 in the evening.

On reassembling in the evening the committee on resolutions were not yet ready to report, and the convention learning that Lieutenant Richard P. Hobson, of Merrimac fame was present, he was called on for an address. He had simply stopped in Lincoln while passing through to meet some of his lecture engagements. He had also received the news that he had been nominated for congress in his home district in Alabama, and he was in fine shape for speech making. Mr. Hobson has a fine voice and being a gentleman of high education he was listened to with great interest.

After which nominations were in order, and that of governor being the first on the program. Three candidates were placed before the convention—Berge, Shallenberger and Thompson, but the latter gentleman declined to be a candidate, and in spite of his declination some of his friends voted for him anyhow. After the roll call of counties it was seen that Mr. Shallenberger had received a majority of the votes cast and was declared the nominee amid great enthusiasm. The other nominations as appears at the head of this article were then nominated, and that state superintendent of schools was the last nomination made at 5 o'clock this morning when the convention adjourned to confer with the populists in regard to the balance of the ticket.

The democratic candidate for governor, Hon. Ashton C. Shallenberger, was called for and made a most powerful address. While he was thus engaged Hon. George W. Berge was addressing the populist convention, and the writer was present when he was so engaged. He encouraged his populist friends to vote and work for the success of Mr. Shallenberger, stating that two years ago Mr. Shallenberger had worked hard for his election, and that he was going to return the favor by working just as hard for the election of the democratic candidate. Mr. Berge's speech had much to do in pacifying a sentiment in the populist convention that seemed inclined to nominate Mr. Berge or someone else for governor.

Ashton C. Shallenberger was born in Toulon, Stark county, Illinois, in 1862. He received his education in the common schools of his town and at the University of Illinois. He moved to Nebraska in 1881 locating in Polk county, and in 1887 moved to Alma, Harlan county. There he engaged in banking and stock raising. In 1897 he was elected democratic member of the Nebraska bi-metallic league and was temporary chairman of the democratic state convention. He was elected to the Fifty-ninth congress, being the candidate of the entire fusion party in the Fifth district, defeating W. S. Morlan by only 409 votes. He was defeated by G. W. Norris.

The following is the state central committee selected by senatorial districts:

T. S. Allen, Lincoln, chairman.
Herbert S. Daniels, Omaha, secretary.
1—H. C. Davis
3—C. N. Hubner, Nebraska City.

- 4—W. D. Wheeler, Plattsmouth
- 5—Dan Beatey, Papillion
- 6—E. H. Danilla, Geo. Rogers, H. B. Fladarty, Omaha.
- 8—Thos. Sullivan, Jackson.
- 10—Dan V. Stephens, Fremont.
- 11—Douglas Cones, Pierce
- 12—Patrick E. McKillip, Humphrey.
- 13—Arthur F. Mullen, O'Neill.
- 14—J. D. Scott, Rushville.
- 15—Robt. W. Fleming, Berwyn.
- 16—A. E. Waldron, Kearney.
- 17—F. Paseski, St. Paul.
- 18—J. W. Sparks, Central City.
- 19—Geo. Dobson, Ulysses.
- 21—J. Buck, Crete
- 26—O. F. Campbell, Upton.
- 28—Martin D. Harlan, Orleans
- 29—Sam'l Patterson, Arapahoe.

It is quite likely that a fusion will be accomplished today by conceding to the populists the balance of the nominations.

Congressional Nomination.

The congressional conventional convention met at 11 a. m. and named a very able and most popular candidate for congress in the person of Thomas J. Doyle, of Lincoln. The nominee in accepting the nomination demonstrated that the democrats made no mistake in placing Mr. Doyle before the voters of the First district to oppose "Easy Money" Pollard, and in case he is elected will most assuredly look after the interests of his constituents in such a manner as to cause the people to respect him as their representative in the lower house of the national congress, and without the disgrace of having the stigma "Salary Grabber" attached to his name.

Thomas J. Doyle

Democratic nominee for congress from the first district, was born in 1858 in Green county Tennessee. He was educated at Knox St. Mary's college at Emmetsburg, Md., and was admitted to the bar at Greenville, Tenn., in 1881. He practiced law two years at Marion, Va. He came to Greeley Co., Neb., in 1884, and practiced law there until 1897 when he removed to Lincoln where he has lived ever since. He has continued the practice of law, being for several years a partner of George W. Berge. He has never held office, but twice ran for district judge while in Greeley county. The last time, in 1895, he was defeated by a majority of only fifty-seven votes.

The congressional committee is composed of the following gentlemen from the various counties of the district:

Cass—M. A. Bates.
Nemaha—H. L. Feistner.
Lancaster—Samuel Hinkle.
Otoe—R. H. Miller.
Pawnee—J. K. Henninger.
Richardson—W. H. Crooks.
Johnson—J. B. Douglas.

The Platform.

The platform adopted is as follows: "We, the democrats of the First congressional district assembled in convention, reaffirm the principles set forth and advocated by that great democratic leader, W. J. Bryan, who has been recognized by all the nations of the world as the greatest statesman living.

"We favor an interstate commerce commission clothed with ample power to fix rates, settle grievances, enforce its decrees and protect the interests of the most humble citizen against the blighting power of discrimination.

"We denounce as destructive of American progress the fostering of laws made for the enrichment of the few at the expense of the many—denounce all legislation having for its purpose the building of a moneyed aristocracy and pledge ourselves to labor earnestly for legislation which will give to every citizen an equal opportunity in the race of life, recognizing no superiority save that of merit.

"We denounce all salary grabbers as unfaithful to duty, setting an example of dishonesty which has an unwholesome influence; directly in conflict with the spirit of justice and reform. We recognize in the final analysis we must look alone to the integrity and manhood of our representatives for all true reform.

"We recognize in labor the foundation of all wealth, the material achievements of our nation are but the triumphs of the millions of honest toilers. We favor legislation which will give to the laborer just recompense, and the power of arbitrating grievances between capital and labor by an unbiased tribunal.

"We take pride in the fact that our district possesses the highest degree of literacy of any in the United States and merits representation in congress which will portray our high standard of intellectuality and pledge ourselves to furnish such a representation and that his light shall not be placed under a bushel.

"We condemn the national republican congressional committee's method of deception and sham reform in trying to deceive the people by a one-dollar contribution plan, when the party refused to pass a law at the last session of congress, as passed by the United States senate, forbidding contributions to political parties from corporations and trusts, and believe their sincerity could be better shown if they would inaugurate a dollar contribution fund to put back into the reserve funds of the many insurance companies the money set aside for the protection of widows and orphans and unlawfully used to keep the republicans in power.

"We declare that the tariff law enacted by a republican congress is the mother of trusts, and that the democratic party of this congressional district is absolutely committed to a just revision of the tariff.

"That common carriers, having gone beyond the purposes of their creation for mercenary purposes, to control caucuses, conventions, legislatures and other officials, should be put out of such work. That using the pass system as incubators to hatch out their political roustabouts to do such work, and as brooders to maintain them, the whole system should be destroyed and all manner of reduction of rates of transportation to individuals, (except employes and objects of charity), below what is charged the public generally, should be completely abolished, and the giving or taking of such reduced rate of transportation should be made criminal and subject to penalty. We would take from the few the free pass and give to all a two-cent fare."

P. M. Lindsay, living on Marble street, between Sixth and Seventh streets, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "Off and on for about two years I have had pain in my back and at times was much annoyed on account of it. While at work being on my feet most of the time, it was then that the dull persistent aching distressed me. I had reason to believe that the trouble was owing to a disturbed condition of the kidneys and though I tried several kidney remedies, I derived no benefit until I was told of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at Gering & Co.'s drug store. The results obtained from its use proved to me that it was just the remedy and I got a second box. Improvement followed its use and to that extent that I can unhesitatingly and with pleasure endorse the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills."
