

The County Exchanges

Items of General Interest Selected from the Columns of Contemporaries

Louisville

Jim Terryberry and wife are visiting in Denver, Colo., this week.

A little son of John Campbell accidentally cut off one of his toes, with an axe Thursday evening.

Postoffice Inspector Sinclair was in Louisville Friday inspecting the local postoffice, which he found in good condition.

Mrs. Arley Cleghorn and two little daughters are here from Leadwood, S. D., visiting with W. A. Cleghorn and family.

While working on the streets, Wednesday Edward Pribble was overcome with the heat and for several hours his condition was serious.

Harry Green reports the loss of a fine horse Sunday morning. Its death was caused from being over heated while working in the field last Saturday.

Willie Lupton met with a very peculiar and serious accident Thursday. He was driving a water tank when the horses jumped and he was thrown backward, falling on the ground and receiving a penetrating wound over the sacrum, the vertebrae being several inches.

Why does the sun burn? Why does a mosquito sting? Why do we feel unhappy in the good old summer time? Answer, we don't. We use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, and these little ills don't bother us. Learn to look for the name on the box to get the genuine. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Union

Prof. C. H. Taylor went to Springfield Monday morning to make preliminary arrangements for the beginning of the schools, of which he is the principal for the second year.

Miss Daisy Fowler of Ashland, who is to teach the intermediate department of our schools, was here last Saturday, calling on friends and taking a survey of the work for the coming term.

W. R. Cross, W. F. Tracy, Will A. Frans, Joe Banning, John Lidgett, T. G. Barnum and Dr. Newell went to Omaha Monday to help exercise the Ak-Sar-Ben goat—and they did.

Dave LaRue has closed a deal for the purchase of a blacksmith shop at Elmwood, and goes there next week to take possession and his family will move there a few weeks later.

D. W. Foster, accompanied by Miss Mary and Mrs. Foster, returned from their trip to the G. A. R. reunion at Minneapolis Saturday evening. He is very much pleased with the big show.

James Darrough and family arrived home last Friday from California, where they spent a few weeks visiting relatives and old acquaintances. They had a delightful visit and came home feeling as fine and happy as school children.

John H. Douge, a former resident of this village, arrived Wednesday evening from Toledo, Wash., to enjoy the reunion and make a visit with relatives and friends. The "Red Head Club," of which he was a charter member, will have a banquet while he is here.

The Mo. Pac. Ry. is doing an enormous freight business just now. Monday evening there were six long freight trains at this station at six o'clock, four west and two east. If this keeps up for three years, we may reasonably expect the management to order the weeds cut and improve the sanitary condition of the depot grounds at Union.

The End of the World of troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes: "Two years ago kidney trouble caused me great suffering, which I would never have survived had I not taken Electric Bitters. They also cured me of General Debility." Sure cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints, Blood Diseases, Headache, Dizziness and Weakness of body decline. Price 50c. Guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co., druggists.

Cass County's Crop Record.

According to a tabulated statement issued from the state labor bureau at Lincoln by counties, Cass gets credit for the shipment of the following amount of products in 1905:

Wheat	1,200,000 bushels
Oats	1,000,000 bushels
Hay	1,000,000 tons

But one county shipped more corn than Cass and this was Saunders, but Cass beat our sister county on wheat by several thousand bushels.

Nehawka

Mrs. Senator Sheldon is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Higgins, of Roseville, Illinois.

Mr. Arthur Edgren, of Lincoln, is visiting with his old college chum, J. J. Pollard.

Horace Howard was in town Saturday. He had not been here before in years and he tells us he had been having bad times.

Three teams are employed all the time hauling clay from Pollard's pits and loading it on the cars. It is shipped to Omaha, where it is used in making vertified paving and firebrick.

Mr. Nelson has returned from a trip out in Idaho, where he went to see the country and visit a brother. He says it is a very fine country and they raise mostly sugar beets. He says a quarter section of the land will cost $10,000 and it rents for $10 per acre cash.

A wee, winsome girl babe was born to Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Ross Friday afternoon. We hope this delightful seven pound bit of humanity may live long and always be a blessing to her friends. We are looking out for those blessed triplings a little extra!

A Mystery Solved.

To keep off periodic attacks of nervousness and habitual constipation, Dr. King's New Life Pills are guaranteed to give satisfaction to everybody of both sexes. Only 25c at F. G. Fricke & Co.'s drug store.

Eagle

Born, on Saturday, August 18, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Ossenkop, a boy.

Mrs. Ed. Betts and daughter, Pearl, left Monday evening for a week's visit with friends at Newport, Neb.

It has been decided to put two furnaces in the school house as it was thought that one would not properly heat the building.

"Dick" Wright was overcome by the heat while threshing at his place one day last week, but he has got all right and is able to be out again.

While playing Tuesday, little Vina Vinson fell and a small stick penetrated the roof of her mouth just above the tonsils, causing a very painful wound.

Heigh Weaver who left here a few weeks ago and bought 480 acres of land in Garfield county, is putting up a house and other buildings, and expects to move there in a few weeks.

Robert Boesewetter, a brother-in-law of Otto Boesewetter living south-west of Otto Boesewetter living south-west of town, left last Friday for his home in Wisconsin. Mr. Boesewetter has rented Fred Otto's farm for next year and will move here in the fall. Fred will move to town.

Summer Diarrhoea in Children.

During the hot weather of the summer months the first unnatural looseness of a child's bowels should have immediate attention, so as to check the disease before it becomes serious. All that is necessary is a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by a dose of castor oil to cleanse the system. Rev. M. O. Stockland, Pastor of the first M. E. Church, Little Falls, Minn., writes: "We have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years and find it a very valuable remedy, especially for summer disorders in children." Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and A. T. Tried.

Elmwood

From the Leader-Echo.

Mrs. G. G. Meisinger, of Cedar Creek, is visiting at Geo. Stecher's.

Mrs. John Gardes is quite seriously ill at this writing with appendicitis.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Roseno Thursday last week.

Howard Saxton, of the clerical force in the pension department at Washington, D. C., is spending his vacation with relatives and friends here.

Joe Nichols, who has been sick in California for several weeks, came home Saturday evening. He is suffering from catarrh which has infected his nose.

Cyrus Williams, of Guthrie Center, Iowa, came Wednesday for a week's visit at home. Mr. Williams is superintendent of the public schools at Guthrie Center and will return in time to take up his work.

James Durbin left for St. Louis last evening on receipt of a letter announcing the serious illness of his brother, Link Durbin. The letter was from his physician and stated that it was impossible for him to live but a few days longer.

Last Saturday afternoon, Rev. Standard was called to Wabash to attend the funeral of J. W. and E. M. Gillespie's child, ten months old. It was their only child. They have many friends to sympathize with them in their sad affliction.

Merrill Shelp, of New Milford, Penn., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stark over Sunday. Mr. Shelp and Mr. and Mrs. Stark were schoolmates in Pennsylvania and enjoyed meeting again very much. Mr. Shelp expects to remain in Nebraska and for the present will find employment at Weeping Water.

A woman worries until she gets wrinkles, then worries because she has them. If she takes Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea she would have neither. Bright, smiling face follows its use. 25 cents. Tea or Tablets. Gering & Co. druggists.

LOOK WELL TO YOUR DUTY

The Circular Letter Sent Out by Superintendent Gamble to School Directors.

County Superintendent Gamble has just issued a circular letter to school directors, calling their attention to several important matters that should be attended to before school opens. Among the many things of importance to which he calls their attention we reprint the following:

1. Trouble of various kinds will come upon the year. It asks you to let me know when you have any fault to find with this school. I am not perfect and will make mistakes, and you are not perfect and will make mistakes. By working together, we can do much good for the schools. I shall appreciate suggestions from you at any time. I shall work first, last and all the time for the best interests of the schools, and feel sure that I will have your support so long as my efforts are in the right direction.

"The weeds should be mowed, window lights replaced, the school house thoroughly cleaned and a drinking tank or pail, preferably the former, provided before the opening day. Have the out-buildings clean and in good repair and insist that they may be kept that way.

"If you want to get the most value for the money paid your teacher see that she has the necessary supplies. Get acquainted with her and find time to talk school occasionally. It will pay.

"I am asking each school board this fall to secure for your teacher a copy of Condra's Geography of Nebraska. Unless the teacher already has a copy of the book she will very likely ask you to procure one for her. It is published by the Nebraska School Supply House, Lincoln, Neb.

"At this time all but about five schools have teachers. I have done my best to adjust the supply to the demand and if any district has no teacher in mind I will try to secure one for you, although practically all our teachers who have not secured schools here have gone to other counties.

"Just a word here about agents. As a rule it does not pay to buy from agents who travel about the county. While some of their supplies may be good, the price is always high. I keep on hand catalogues of reliable houses and will at any time furnish them on request.

"I shall begin my work of visiting schools Sept. 10 and shall try to visit all schools that have beginning teachers before the end of October. I shall call upon as many of you as possible when visiting the schools and shall expect you to call upon me when in Plattsmouth, especially on Saturdays, when you will always find me in the office. Feeling sure that I will secure your help in making this a successful year for Cass county schools."

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains: no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope nor charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMER TIME

You want to save your money to buy your

COAL FOR THE WINTER

AT OUR CITY Coal Yards.

Full Weight Guaranteed Best Threshing Coal All Kinds of Feed

J. V. Egenberger

Proprietor Plattsmouth Coal Yards
Corner Third and Main Streets
Phone 25
Platts Phone 22

A Former Cass County Girl.

The following in reference to a former Cass County girl and daughter of the late Judge Maxwell, is taken from the Ironmount Herald: "Miss Marilla Maxwell, who has been instructor in music in Fremont's public schools for the past two years, has determined to follow her profession and will leave the city on Wednesday for Chicago. There she will study privately under the direction of the famed Prof. Torrens, and then go to New York giving another year to the finishing of her musical education. It is her expectation to return to Fremont for an occasional visit, but will not return permanently until she shall have completed the course of study proposed. Miss Maxwell is a charming woman, thoroughly in love with her chosen work, and her many friends here wish her a most profitable and enjoyable absence from home."

WELL DESERVED

The Praise That Comes From Thankful Plattsmouth People.

One kidney remedy never fails. Plattsmouth people rely upon it. That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Plattsmouth testimony proves it always reliable.

J. B. Patridge, living on Eighth street between Oak and Locust streets, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "I never before had any remedy that did me so much good as Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured from Gering & Co.'s drug store. Before using them I was pretty nearly broken down with my back. I could hardly straighten and suffered almost constantly from pain across my loins and kidneys. My first experience with this kind of trouble dates back a long time ago and I believe I know what misery and torture kidney complaint brings. At times I have been so crippled up that I could not get around without the use of a cane. The first box of Doan's Kidney Pills did me so much good that I got the second box. This brought me out all right. It did the work thoroughly. There is no expression I can give that would overestimate the value I place on Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Is Improving Nicely.

H. C. Brinkman, the gentleman who was seriously injured at the Burlington shops last Monday afternoon, was down town this morning to have the bandages removed from his wounds, and in company with his sister, Mrs. Deltz, of Lincoln, gave the Journal a call. Mr. Brinkman is improving much better than expected, and with the exception of the knee cap of the right leg, which is bothering him considerably, Mr. Brinkman can be considered as doing remarkably well.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

REPUBLICANS ARE WORRIED

Chairman Sherman Admits that Forty Seats in the House are in Danger.

A special from New York, under date of August 25, says:

"No hard-headed, unsympathetic politicians can figure on the coming election for membership of Congress without realizing that a Republican House of Representatives in the Sixtieth Congress is very much in doubt.

"No one knows this better than Representative James S. Sherman, chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee. Mr. Sherman is a good politician, and he is playing the game well. Just now he is engaged in putting to sleep the democrats and the labor allies of the democrats. That is the meaning of his statement made on Saturday to the republican newspapers that the House was safely Republican on the prosperity issue.

"Mr. Sherman had admitted within a short time to the President and other American leaders, however, that the Republicans stood to lose forty seats that they now hold in the House. This would mean a drop from the majority of 112, elected in November, 1904, to a majority of only thirty-two in the Sixtieth Congress.

"It is frankly admitted that no living man who feels there will be a loss of forty Congressional districts to his party can safely make the prediction that the loss will not be fifty or perhaps more, and a loss of fifty-six districts would be the result.

"This is due to almost unparalleled conditions which prevail in the republican party organization in a dozen states and to the agitation along socialist lines, for the destruction of parties which is now sweeping along like a prairie fire.

What Sherman Feels.

The districts that Mr. Sherman expects to lose, evidently, are those which were carried by the democrats in 1902, and were swept into the republican column by the phenomenal run of Mr. Roosevelt in 1904. These districts are situated thus: California, 3; Delaware, 1; Illinois, 7; Indiana, 2; Iowa, 1; Kentucky, 1; Michigan, 1; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 8; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 2; New York, 6; North Carolina, 1; Ohio, 3; Pennsylvania, 2; total, 40.

"A loss of forty seats from the showing made at the presidential election would be a serious matter, because it would still leave to the republicans a safe working majority of thirty-two votes. But Mr. Sherman and his associates have to confront a phenomenal situation in many states.

"There are troubles of the first magnitude in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Iowa. There are obstacles to easy party success elsewhere, but these states will suffice to point out to the Congressional Committee the difficulties it will labor under the depending on prosperity alone for success in keeping down the democratic gain to forty."

What Sherman Feels.

The districts that Mr. Sherman expects to lose, evidently, are those which were carried by the democrats in 1902, and were swept into the republican column by the phenomenal run of Mr. Roosevelt in 1904. These districts are situated thus: California, 3; Delaware, 1; Illinois, 7; Indiana, 2; Iowa, 1; Kentucky, 1; Michigan, 1; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 8; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 2; New York, 6; North Carolina, 1; Ohio, 3; Pennsylvania, 2; total, 40.

"A loss of forty seats from the showing made at the presidential election would be a serious matter, because it would still leave to the republicans a safe working majority of thirty-two votes. But Mr. Sherman and his associates have to confront a phenomenal situation in many states.

"There are troubles of the first magnitude in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Iowa. There are obstacles to easy party success elsewhere, but these states will suffice to point out to the Congressional Committee the difficulties it will labor under the depending on prosperity alone for success in keeping down the democratic gain to forty."

What Sherman Feels.

The districts that Mr. Sherman expects to lose, evidently, are those which were carried by the democrats in 1902, and were swept into the republican column by the phenomenal run of Mr. Roosevelt in 1904. These districts are situated thus: California, 3; Delaware, 1; Illinois, 7; Indiana, 2; Iowa, 1; Kentucky, 1; Michigan, 1; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 8; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 2; New York, 6; North Carolina, 1; Ohio, 3; Pennsylvania, 2; total, 40.

"A loss of forty seats from the showing made at the presidential election would be a serious matter, because it would still leave to the republicans a safe working majority of thirty-two votes. But Mr. Sherman and his associates have to confront a phenomenal situation in many states.

"There are troubles of the first magnitude in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Iowa. There are obstacles to easy party success elsewhere, but these states will suffice to point out to the Congressional Committee the difficulties it will labor under the depending on prosperity alone for success in keeping down the democratic gain to forty."

What Sherman Feels.

The districts that Mr. Sherman expects to lose, evidently, are those which were carried by the democrats in 1902, and were swept into the republican column by the phenomenal run of Mr. Roosevelt in 1904. These districts are situated thus: California, 3; Delaware, 1; Illinois, 7; Indiana, 2; Iowa, 1; Kentucky, 1; Michigan, 1; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 8; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 2; New York, 6; North Carolina, 1; Ohio, 3; Pennsylvania, 2; total, 40.

"A loss of forty seats from the showing made at the presidential election would be a serious matter, because it would still leave to the republicans a safe working majority of thirty-two votes. But Mr. Sherman and his associates have to confront a phenomenal situation in many states.

"There are troubles of the first magnitude in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Iowa. There are obstacles to easy party success elsewhere, but these states will suffice to point out to the Congressional Committee the difficulties it will labor under the depending on prosperity alone for success in keeping down the democratic gain to forty."

What Sherman Feels.

The districts that Mr. Sherman expects to lose, evidently, are those which were carried by the democrats in 1902, and were swept into the republican column by the phenomenal run of Mr. Roosevelt in 1904. These districts are situated thus: California, 3; Delaware, 1; Illinois, 7; Indiana, 2; Iowa, 1; Kentucky, 1; Michigan, 1; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 8; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 2; New York, 6; North Carolina, 1; Ohio, 3; Pennsylvania, 2; total, 40.

"A loss of forty seats from the showing made at the presidential election would be a serious matter, because it would still leave to the republicans a safe working majority of thirty-two votes. But Mr. Sherman and his associates have to confront a phenomenal situation in many states.

"There are troubles of the first magnitude in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Iowa. There are obstacles to easy party success elsewhere, but these states will suffice to point out to the Congressional Committee the difficulties it will labor under the depending on prosperity alone for success in keeping down the democratic gain to forty."

What Sherman Feels.

The districts that Mr. Sherman expects to lose, evidently, are those which were carried by the democrats in 1902, and were swept into the republican column by the phenomenal run of Mr. Roosevelt in 1904. These districts are situated thus: California, 3; Delaware, 1; Illinois, 7; Indiana, 2; Iowa, 1; Kentucky, 1; Michigan, 1; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 8; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 2; New York, 6; North Carolina, 1; Ohio, 3; Pennsylvania, 2; total, 40.

"A loss of forty seats from the showing made at the presidential election would be a serious matter, because it would still leave to the republicans a safe working majority of thirty-two votes. But Mr. Sherman and his associates have to confront a phenomenal situation in many states.

"There are troubles of the first magnitude in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Iowa. There are obstacles to easy party success elsewhere, but these states will suffice to point out to the Congressional Committee the difficulties it will labor under the depending on prosperity alone for success in keeping down the democratic gain to forty."

What Sherman Feels.

The districts that Mr. Sherman expects to lose, evidently, are those which were carried by the democrats in 1902, and were swept into the republican column by the phenomenal run of Mr. Roosevelt in 1904. These districts are situated thus: California, 3; Delaware, 1; Illinois, 7; Indiana, 2; Iowa, 1; Kentucky, 1; Michigan, 1; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 8; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 2; New York, 6; North Carolina, 1; Ohio, 3; Pennsylvania, 2; total, 40.

"A loss of forty seats from the showing made at the presidential election would be a serious matter, because it would still leave to the republicans a safe working majority of thirty-two votes. But Mr. Sherman and his associates have to confront a phenomenal situation in many states.

"There are troubles of the first magnitude in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Iowa. There are obstacles to easy party success elsewhere, but these states will suffice to point out to the Congressional Committee the difficulties it will labor under the depending on prosperity alone for success in keeping down the democratic gain to forty."

What Sherman Feels.

The districts that Mr. Sherman expects to lose, evidently, are those which were carried by the democrats in 1902, and were swept into the republican column by the phenomenal run of Mr. Roosevelt in 1904. These districts are situated thus: California, 3; Delaware, 1; Illinois, 7; Indiana, 2; Iowa, 1; Kentucky, 1; Michigan, 1; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 8; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 2; New York, 6; North Carolina, 1; Ohio, 3; Pennsylvania, 2; total, 40.

"A loss of forty seats from the showing made at the presidential election would be a serious matter, because it would still leave to the republicans a safe working majority of thirty-two votes. But Mr. Sherman and his associates have to confront a phenomenal situation in many states.

"There are troubles of the first magnitude in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Iowa. There are obstacles to easy party success elsewhere, but these states will suffice to point out to the Congressional Committee the difficulties it will labor under the depending on prosperity alone for success in keeping down the democratic gain to forty."

What Sherman Feels.

The districts that Mr. Sherman expects to lose, evidently, are those which were carried by the democrats in 1902, and were swept into the republican column by the phenomenal run of Mr. Roosevelt in 1904. These districts are situated thus: California, 3; Delaware, 1; Illinois, 7; Indiana, 2; Iowa, 1; Kentucky, 1; Michigan, 1; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 8; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 2; New York, 6; North Carolina, 1; Ohio, 3; Pennsylvania, 2; total, 40.

"A loss of forty seats from the showing made at the presidential election would be a serious matter, because it would still leave to the republicans a safe working majority of thirty-two votes. But Mr. Sherman and his associates have to confront a phenomenal situation in many states.

"There are troubles of the first magnitude in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Iowa. There are obstacles to easy party success elsewhere, but these states will suffice to point out to the Congressional Committee the difficulties it will labor under the depending on prosperity alone for success in keeping down the democratic gain to forty."

What Sherman Feels.

The districts that Mr. Sherman expects to lose, evidently, are those which were carried by the democrats in 1902, and were swept into the republican column by the phenomenal run of Mr. Roosevelt in 1904. These districts are situated thus: California, 3; Delaware, 1; Illinois, 7; Indiana, 2; Iowa, 1; Kentucky, 1; Michigan, 1; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 8; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 2; New York, 6; North Carolina, 1; Ohio, 3; Pennsylvania, 2; total, 40.

"A loss of forty seats from the showing made at the presidential election would be a serious matter, because it would still leave to the republicans a safe working majority of thirty-two votes. But Mr. Sherman and his associates have to confront a phenomenal situation in many states.

"There are troubles of the first magnitude in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Iowa. There are obstacles to easy party success elsewhere, but these states will suffice to point out to the Congressional Committee the difficulties it will labor under the depending on prosperity alone for success in keeping down the democratic gain to forty."