PREPARED IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE OF MURRAY AND VICINITY ESPECIALLY FOR THE JOURNAL READERS.

[If any of the readers of the Journal know of a social event or an item of interest in this vicinity and will mail same to this office it will appear under this heading. We want all items of interest.—Editor Journal.]

You Can't Eat Your Cake and Have It, Too

Neither can you spend your hundred cents and have a dollar, too. It isn't sensible to let every dollar get away from you. If you spend every dollar of your income some one else puts the money in the bank. It is far better to do your own banking. You can't get rich by spending money, but you can have a growing bank account by depositing regularly, each week or month, as the case may be, some part of your income in

The Murray State Bank

C. S. STONE, Cashier. MURRAY, NEB.

Blair Porter the genial Union liveryman, was in Murray Wednesday.

Geo. Graves has returned to Murray from Topeka where he played ball the past season.

J. A. Walker was looking after some business matters in the county seat Wednesday.

Dr. Gilmore and wife were visiting at the home of Philip Tritsch and family Wednesday.

The Mo. Pac. bridge crew have been making some needed repairs on this section of track the past two weeks.

Miss Mamie Underwood returned to Murray Thursday morning, after a pleasant visit in various parts of the west.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burrows are rejoicing this week over the arrival of a new baby girl at their home Monday night.

Miss Pauline Oldham departed last Friday for Broken Bow, where she takes up her work in the class of elocution.

James Loughridge and wife and mother, Mrs. Wm. Loughridge, attended the Spies-Petersen wedding last evening.

Frank Lindner departed Monday morning for his home in Barstow, Calif. Mrs. Lindner will not return home for some time yet.

Will McLeod, the boss painter, has just finished painting the residence of Nick Klaurens, and is this week engaged in repainting the M. W. A. hall.

A new baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Beckman near Mynard last Saturday morning. Both mother and little one are getting along nicely.

Theo. Buck and wife departed Wednesday evening for the Shoshone reservation in Wyoming, where they drew a farm, and this trip was made to make a selection of the land.

Herman Schlichtemeier and father returned home from Canada Sunday, where they purchased 420 acres of land in the eastern portion for which they paid $14 and $15 per acre.

Mrs. Mont Robb, Miss Carrie Walbridge and Miss Anna Mack went to Omaha Monday morning. Miss Mack will remain in Omaha a few days and then go to California for a visit.

The Christian church has installed a new gasoline lighting plant which is certainly a great improvement over the old kerosene lamps. A bright light is also placed in front of the church.

Dr. T. P. Livingston was called here Monday in consultation with Dr. Brendel to see Uncle George Shrader, who up to the past few days has gained in strength, but suffered a relapse and has been quite sick.

H. G. Todd returned home from his Canadian trip Sunday morning. Mr. Todd is well pleased with that part of the world, and purchased a half section of land in the Alberta country for which he paid $25 per acre.

Mrs. W. B. Gates, of Ottawa, Kan., has been visiting with Murray friends the past few days. She came up to adjust matters in the sale of her farm, south of town near the Buck school house, which was made a few days ago to Chas. Carroll.

F. M. Young, sr., was in Plattsmouth Tuesday looking after some business matters. Among other things he was looking after some help to assist him on the farm, which he failed to find. Some good man can get a good position with Mr. Young.

Of course you know that J. H. Cook handles bugles, but perhaps you do not know the kind. Well they are the best on the market and the prices are right, if you don't believe it just drop in and let him show them to you and be convinced. The Auburn line is the right line to look for.

Mrs. A. L. Baker entertained a number of friends Wednesday afternoon in honor of her relatives who are visiting here from Indiana. During the afternoon refreshments were served which consisted of ice cream, cake and fruit. The relatives were Mr. and Mrs. Johns, and Mr. and Mrs. Parr. The following guests were present: Mesdames Minnie Wood, D. J. Pitman, O. A. Davis, J. W. Edmunds, Chas. Carroll, Addie Hatchett, Jas. Loughridge, H. L. Oldham, W. M. Robb, B. F. Brendel, Miss Viola Young. An excellent time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. J. T. Porter experienced quite a serious runaway Wednesday morning, in which she might have received serious injuries, but fortune was certainly in her favor. She had started for Murray, and when about one mile from home the team became frightened and ran away. Mrs. Porter was thrown from the buggy and received numerous bruises about the head and body, but no bones were broken, and aside from the severe shock she will receive no serious results. The vehicle was picked up in many pieces.

Hay Baling.
I have purchased a new power and lighting hay baler and am fully prepared to do all such work on short notice. All work fully guaranteed. For further particulars see me.

MURRAY LADY IS ROBBED

Mrs. C. S. Carroll and Mother, Mrs. Wm. Hendricks Had Started for Plainview

IN HAYDEN BROS. STORE AT OMAHA

Man Slipped Up to the Ladies Back, Grabbed Pocketbook from Arm and Escapes.

Mrs. C. E. Carroll and mother, Mrs. Wm. Hendricks, who passed through Plattsmouth from Murray Saturday enroute to Plainview, Neb., were robbed by some unknown thug in Hayden Bros. store in Omaha this morning. The pocketbook, or rather a strap hand bag contained something over $30 in cash.

The ladies having a few hours to spare in the city while awaiting the departure of the north bound train for Plainview, they were willing away a few moments in Hayden Bros. store, when some unknown, possibly professional hold-up man, slipped up to the ladies' back and grabbed the purse from her hand and made his escape through the crowd. The police were immediately notified and a hot chase began for the thief, but up to the present time he has not been captured and the chances are he never will be.

Grandma Kiser Dies.

Grandma Kiser, who has for many years lived near Mynard, died at her home in that place Sunday evening at 10 o'clock, of old age, and the funeral service was held at the Liberty Chapel this afternoon and interment made in Oak Hill cemetery in Plattsmouth.

The deceased was near eighty years of age, and for the past year or more had been almost a helpless invalid. She fell and broke her limb about ten years ago, and about one year ago she again fell with more serious results, breaking the same limb and rendering her almost helpless, in which condition she remained up to the time of her death.

Pleasant Gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Porter, living near Nehawka, entertained a number of relatives and friends at their home Sunday. At the noon hour they were invited to partake of a well prepared dinner which was very appropriate for the occasion. The day was spent in having a general good time. Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. C. Snaveley, of near Nehawka and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Copenbaver and family, of Murray, and Misses Lula Vallery, Gertrude Jenkins and Mr. Steve Beckner.

A Pleasant Time.

At the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cook, last Sunday, an elegant dinner was served, in honor of Mrs. Cook's birthday. At noon the guests were invited to the dining room to partake of a very bounteous dinner. This was a complete surprise to Mrs. Cook, but as usual she was well prepared for this happy event. The day was spent in having a general good time and every one seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent. The music was furnished by graphophone was very much appreciated by one and all. As the evening came the guests departed for their homes wishing Mrs. Cook many more such happy birthdays. We can truly say that Mr. and Mrs. Cook are royal entertainers. Among those present to enjoy this happy event were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jean, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Cole and daughter Berdella, Mrs. William Snyder, Mrs. T. W. Vallery and son Charley and daughter Major.

A Live Wire

Every nerve is a live wire connecting some part of the body with the brain. They are so numerous that if you penetrate the skin with the point of a needle you will touch a nerve and receive a shock—pain it is called. Aches and pains come from a pressure, strain or injury to a nerve; the more prominent the nerve the greater the pain. When the pain comes from a large nerve it is called whether it be the facial nerves, or the heart, stomach, sciatic or other prominent nerve branch. To stop pain, then, you must relieve the strain or pressure upon the nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do this.

"I suffered intense pain, caused by neuralgia. I doctored and used various medicines without getting relief until I began taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They never fail to cure my headaches, and their use never leaves any bad after-effects."

MRS. W. M. BECKMAN, 907 W. 4th St., Erie, Pa. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails, he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

More Wedding Bells.

Miss Nellie Creamer and Mr. William Wehrlein were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Creamer, near Murray, last evening, the exact hour we have been unable to learn. These are two of Cass county's most worthy young people, and the event was attended by a large number of friends of the contracting parties. The Journal tomorrow will contain a more lengthy account of the happy event.

DENIES THE STATEMENT

T. J. Doyle, the Democratic Candidate for Congress, Denies Endorsing Pollard's Grab.

EVERYBODY KNOWS HE NEVER SAID IT

Mr. Doyle Says the Steal Was Wrong and the United States Supreme Court Says So.

A report has been in circulation in some parts of the First district that Hon. T. J. Doyle, democratic candidate for congress, had endorsed Pollard's action in taking $1900 from the United States treasury that did not belong to "Easy Money." Several papers had gone so far as to eulogize Mr. Doyle for the statement. The editor of the Nebraska City News noticing the statement in these papers, wrote to that gentleman regarding the statement, and the following is Mr. Doyle's reply:

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 24, 1900.—C. M. Hubner, Nebraska City, Neb., My Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of your favor of September 22, enclosing clipping from the Johnson News of the date of September 21.

I note the editor of this paper in discussing Mr. Pollard's action in taking $1900 salary for the period previous to his election, states: "Mr. Doyle says that Mr. Pollard did nothing but what any other man would have done under the circumstances."

I never made such a statement. I never stated anything that could be construed into such a thought. The convention from which I received my nomination denounced this action of Mr. Pollard in language clear and unequivocal. As an honest man I could not have accepted the nomination were I not in accord with the spirit of the resolution.

The United States statute which fixes the matter of salary is clear and unambiguous, and will not admit of an interpretation which would sanction the taking of this money.

A committee in the interest of Mr. Pollard submitted this question to two among the ablest republicans attorneys in this district and received from the attorneys an opinion that Mr. Pollard's action in accepting this money was clearly wrong. The U. S. Supreme court has decided the same question in the same way, it is without excuse.

This editor is unwittingly doing me a gross injustice. He attempts to place my seal of approval upon Mr. Pollard's act in accepting this money and in so doing, brands me with duplicity.

So far as my campaign is concerned I am attempting to place it on a high plane. The people of this district know the facts with reference to this money. It is a matter which must be decided by the enlightened conscience of the people of the district. I deem it unnecessary to attempt to mould opinion upon the subject. I should thus leave the matter throughout the campaign had not this newspaper attempted to place me in the light of approving a thing that I deem morally wrong and also legally wrong. They leave the inference from this statement that I would have done as Mr. Pollard did, had I been placed in his place. This does me an injustice.

In charity I must believe that the editor of the Johnson News was misled and misinformed by some partisan and has unwittingly thrust upon me this injustice. I trust that the same paper will make a retraction in the interest of fair dealing.

All parties are demanding from their candidates a high moral stand. This they have a right to do. Action speaks louder than words. People will not have much confidence in a public servant who preaches the doctrine of high morality and engages in any practice which does not accord with the preaching. We much teach by example as well as by precept. I do not want to be placed upon record before the people of this district as approving an act of a public officer which is disapproved as being wrong by a majority of the voters in his own party, by the decision of our own supreme court, and by the best legal minds in the country.

I thank you for calling my attention to this matter. With regards, I am, Yours truly, T. J. DOYLE.

We like best to call SCOTT'S EMULSION a food because it stands so emphatically for perfect nutrition. And yet in the matter of restoring appetite, of giving new strength to the tissues, especially to the nerves, its action is that of a medicine.

CAUGHT IN CUPID'S TOILS

One of the Prettiest Home Weddings of the Season.

A LARGE NUMBER OF GUESTS PRESENT.

The Happy Couple United Being Miss May Peterson and Mr. Edmund L. Spies.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season occurred last evening at 7:30, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson, when Canon Burgess of St. Luke's church, united in marriage Mr. Edmund L. Spies and Miss May Peterson, the ring service being used. At the appointed hour the bride and groom entered the parlor attended by John Neville, as groomsmen, and Miss Edna Peterson, as bridesmaid, Miss Bernice Ballance acting in the capacity of ring-bearer.

As the bridal party entered the elegantly decorated parlor, Miss Ethel Ballance played splendidly Lohengrin's Wedding March. As they advanced to the center of the room they were met by the officiating minister, and the impressive words said by good old Canon Burgess which linked together for life two happy hearts. The bride was tastily and elegantly attired in white Persian lawn, and wore a veil, while the groom was attired in the usual conventional black.

After the ceremony and congratulations, punch, cream and cake was served by the Glee Club, of which the bride was a member. The serving room was decorated with asters, and Mrs. James Donnelly served as chef, while Mrs. L. B. Egenberger and Mrs. L. W. Berger of Lincoln ushered the guests through the house.

During the evening Mr. Beck and Miss Warren furnished music on the violin, while Miss Florence White sang several appropriate selections.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson, and is a young lady of very high standing and fine moral characteristics, and having been reared in Plattsmouth, has a host of friends. The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Spies, and was also reared in Plattsmouth, and is a young man of sterling worth.

Many beautiful and costly gifts, as tokens of the esteem in which the happy couple are held, were received. So numerous indeed were these tokens that space will not permit a publication of the list in the Journal.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Loughridge and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Loughridge of Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ballance and daughters, Misses Vera and Bernice, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Berger, Lincoln; Hans Nelson and daughter, Olga, Bennington; Mrs. Ernest Wilber, Beuna Vista, Col.; Mrs. H. R. Neltzel, Murdock; Miss Nellie Anthony, Hillsdale, Iowa; Miss Amy Oliver, Rock Springs, Wyo.; Miss Frances Mumm, Rawlins, Wyo.; John Neville, Omeva, Iowa, and Charles Peterson, Havelock.

The happy couple departed on the 10:18 train last night for Lincoln, thence to Chicago, from which city they will return to Plattsmouth for a few days. Then after a visit in South Dakota, they will be at home to their friends in Alliance, Neb., where the groom is an employe in the Burlington machine shops.

The Journal joins their hosts of friends in wishing the happy couple a long, happy and prosperous career through life.
