

CHURCHES TO RUN DANCES.

Omaha Pastors Consider a Novel Plan to Combat Vice.

MINISTERS INSPECT ALL-NIGHT RESORTS

Church Dances Would Be Held Under the Eye of Religious Workers.

Word comes from Omaha that a proposition is under way in Omaha by several of the churches, by which they hope to provide four halls in which to hold dances for the young people who now frequent the public dance halls of the city. It is planned to hold these dances twice a week, and to have in attendance each night one of the church women, who will be interested in this work for the young people. The Reverend B. H. Bell is at the head of the plan.

With a party of newspaper people, guided by Mogy Bernstein and Assistant Probation Officer Carcer, and under the protecting wing of two city detectives, the Reverend Mr. Bell visited the dance halls of Omaha, the other night and remained until a late hour to study the conditions under which many young people take their Saturday night amusement. Three dance halls were visited.

The managers eyed the party anxiously and offered them every courtesy, a vivid contrast to the visits of a year ago, when much trouble was encountered by the probation officers in getting into the halls. At each place the party was asked if all was to their liking as to the manner in which a proper, self-respecting dance hall should be run. The doorkeepers cheerfully offered to eliminate any dances not conforming to the standard.

"What are you going to do?" inquired one of the detectives, who had accompanied them. "They've got to have some amusement, for these young folks. Many of the girls have no homes where they care to invite their company, and there is no place for them but the dance halls and the parks and the theaters. Why don't the churches get together on this question and provide some wholesome amusement for these young people?"

"We are planning to do this," said Mr. Bell, when the tour of inspection was over. "We hope to establish at least four halls in Omaha, where young people may go to dance decently and in order. Dancing is a natural amusement for young people, and I am heartily in favor of it. But the romping and hugging which I have seen tonight is not dancing. It is something beyond my comprehension. This head-to-head business is not dancing. If we establish our dance halls, as we hope to do, we will have ladies in charge of the halls who will look after the young people and see that everything is conducted decently and in order. We recognize the fact that they must have proper recreation, and that they must provide something better in the place of these halls. We hope to lay this matter before the Omaha Woman's club and to have their co-operation in the matter."

A great deal of good has been accomplished by the rigid watch kept over the dance halls by Bernstein and his staff, and the boys and girls under 16, as well as immoral characters, have been weeded out.

District Court Doings.

In the case of Clark vs. Flesman, which was tried Wednesday morning, the court instructed the foreman of the jury to return a verdict in favor of the defendant.

On account of the case of Carey vs. Craig being settled out of court, there was not much done in district court today as that case was to be tried to a jury today.

The next case on the docket is that of McCollough vs. Dunn, which will be tried tomorrow to a jury composed of J. M. Vondran, S. L. Barker, Frank S. Brinkman, Jas. Hoover, R. D. Dalton, Ed. Dorr, Jos. Mullen, C. S. Trumble, Chas. Weidman, E. A. Loucks and C. M. Andrus.

W. R. Carey and S. H. Carey of Louisville were in the city today on business connected with the district court.

After being out a short time the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendants in the case growing out of the estate of Sarah Philpot, deceased. This decision affirms the Philpot boys in their allotments, as made by the terms of their mother's will.

The case of Carey vs. Craig was settled out of court and the action dismissed.

W. C. T. U. Win Prize Banner.

The W. C. T. U. held a very interesting meeting Tuesday afternoon at the M. E. church. Among the items of interest was the report of the state convention which was held at Aurora, and at which our home union was the fortunate winner of the prize banner of the state, which is presented each year to the union showing the most marked increase in membership for the past year. The union in this city boasts of a membership of forty-five.

At the meeting yesterday Mrs. L. A. Moore was elected a delegate to the national convention, which will meet at Hartford, Conn., during the last of October.

RED SOX LOSE TO SOLDIERS

Last Game of Season Results 9 to 6 in Favor of Fort Crook.

THE VICTORIOUS TEAM GETS HILARIOUS

And in the Mixup With the Police, Nine Members of the Thirtieth Regiment are Arrested.

In the last game of the season, played by the Red Sox and the crack team of the Thirtieth regiment, which is returning to their post at Fort Crook, after taking part in the maneuvers at Fort Riley, Kan., the home team were defeated by a score of 9 to 6. The soldiers played excellent ball, and although the locals put up a stubborn fight for the honors, they were unable to overcome the lead which Fort Crook secured in the fourth inning, when four runs were chalked up to their credit.

Score by innings:
Red Sox.....1 2 0 3 0 0 0-6
Fort Crook.....0 2 4 2 1 0 0-9
Batteries: Graves, Wilkins and Fitzgerald; Stack and Walet.

After the victory won from the Red Sox, the soldiers proceeded to celebrate by attempting to absorb the greater part of the local stock of "corn juice," and when several of them had acquired too much for their own good they engaged in an altercation that soon resulted in a free for all mix. When Chief of Police Fitzgerald and Night Police Slater attempted to quell the disturbance by arresting the principal offenders, they were interfered with by others, but after a tussle lasting close onto an hour, nine soldiers, among whom was Captain Bent, were incarcerated in the county bastille. Captain Bent and three others were later released, but the others were arraigned before Judge Archer Wednesday to answer charges of being drunk, fighting and disturbing the peace to which charges the quintet plead guilty, and four were assessed fines of $10 and costs while one received $5 and costs. These fines were suspended pending good behavior.

From the reports we receive of the fracas, there was something doing on the streets last evening and many rash threats uttered by the soldiers, who wanted to go to their camp near Orepolis and secure arms with which to clean out the town, and release their comrades and officer from the jail. Wild rumors of a suit for $10,000 damages, to be brought against the city by Captain Bent were circulating about the streets late last night, but of this we have heard nothing further today.

The baseball team of the Thirtieth United States Infantry, whose members were in the disturbance last night, returned to Fort Crook this afternoon on No. 7.

The Millinery Joke.

Comic papers could hardly exist without the joke of the big millinery bill. Just the same, most men want their wives and daughters to have stylish millinery. The effect of the most becoming toilet is instantly "killed" if the headwear is not in keeping. Distinguished designs, correct styles and moderate charges make our millinery department remarkable.

FANGER'S DEPARTMENT STORE.

A Lesson From a Postage Stamp.

"Young man, consider the postage stamp! Its influence and its ability to stick to one thing until it gets there."

Truth is considerable amount of truth in the above quotation, which should be memorized by every young man who possesses the ambition to rise and it should be brought to mind every day in the week. The caliber of a young man is shown by his ability to stick to a task no matter what obstacles he may have to surmount to complete it, for like the postage stamp his usefulness in the world of business lies in his sticking to one thing until it is completed; in truth, the young man has to contend with an endless chain of tasks, and as soon as one is completed, he is brought face to face with a new one. The young man who goes at the daily task and does not starting from any of them is the one who will be most likely to be called when promotion is at hand. In sticking to one thing at a time, like the modest postage stamp, is the first step on the ladder of success.

Evidence of Other Prowlers.

It seems that Mr. Walling was not the only one to receive a visit from the night prowlers, as a tool chest and many and diverse other articles are reported to have been stolen from the premises of D. Hawksworth, and Harry Johnson. Evidence of visits to other places have also been found by several other residence of this city.

BURGLARS BUSY IN TOWN

Home of Tom Walling Visited Last Night by Stealthy Thief, Who Pilfers the Sleeping Household.

GETS A FEW DOLLARS AND GOLD WATCH

From Mr. Walling's Clothes, Which Were Found in Pantry Window, Through Which Entrance Was Secured.

When Tom Walling awoke this morning from a night of undisturbed repose, he reached out to obtain his clothes, which he is accustomed to place upon a chair nearby and failing to discover them in this immediate room he hastened to inquire of his wife in regard to their location. Mrs. Walling was unable to answer this query, until in the search that followed for truant apparel, they were found neatly folded with the purse lying on top of in the pantry window, which on a further examination showed that it had been pried open during the night and an entrance thus secured by the stealthy thief, who had deprived Mr. Walling of several dollars in cash and a valuable gold watch.

After investigating the extent of his loss, Mr. Walling was exceedingly glad to see that several drafts, checks and other papers had been left by the midnight visitor, who either failed to observe them, or did not desire to take chances on passing them off.

The Walling family did not retire until nearly 11 o'clock last night, and did not have the least intimation that a burglar had been in the house, took Mr. Walling's clothes from beside his bed, and escaped with his booty, without awakening some member of the household until the morning light disclosed the undisputed evidence.

Was Given a Pleasant Surprise.

The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Meisinger was the scene of a happy gathering, Saturday evening, when a party of friends came to surprise their daughter, Miss Lena, whose birthday anniversary it was. The party was given by her sister, Mrs. Edward Tritsch. The evening was most pleasantly spent in social chat and dancing. Refreshments were served, and at a late hour all departed for their homes wishing Miss Lena many more such happy occasions.

Those present were the Misses Ida, Anna, Mary, Lena, Emma and Nettie Meisinger, Anna Hell, Anna Tritsch, Anna Parkening, Emma Hild, Blanche Vallery, Mary Wegener, Lena Hinz, Emma Kaufman, and Adella Tritsch; Messrs. Fine Cass County Apples.

Mrs. J. D. McBride, who attended the Nehawka fair last week, brought home with her a number of specimens of apples which were on exhibition, and she favored this office with several. Among those placed on the Journal desk is a sample of the Wood River variety, a mammoth red apple that weighs one pound and nine ounces. This was grown on the farm of C. A. McReynolds, about a mile north of Nehawka. Another is of the Grimes Golden variety, a large yellow apple, which is said to be one of the finest keepers and best eating apples ever produced. The Grimes Golden was grown in the orchard of A. P. Chriswiler near Nehawka. It is stated that there was on exhibition several larger and finer specimens. Mrs. McBride says she never saw such fine apples before in Cass county, and that it is astonishing to see the trees in the orchards in the vicinity of Nehawka fairly groaning under their weight of this luscious fruit.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET

One of the Best Tickets Ever Nominated in Cass County.

W. B. BANNING ELECTED CHAIRMAN

Speeches Made by T. J. Doyle, Candidate for Congress, and Lysie I. Abbott, Candidate for Attorney General.

The convention met at the Parmele theatre at 1:30 Wednesday. In the absence of the chairman of the democratic central committee, H. R. Gering, the secretary, M. A. Bates, called the meeting to order. W. B. Banning, of Liberty precinct, was elected chairman and M. A. Bates secretary. The convention was not largely attended, there being three precincts unrepresented. The following are the gentlemen who were nominated:

Senator—Henry R. Gering.
Representatives—H. F. Langhorst, of Elmwood, and F. M. Massie, of Mt. Pleasant precinct.
Commissioner, First District—Geo. W. Snyder, of Plattsmouth precinct.
County Attorney—D. O. Dwyer.

W. B. Banning was elected chairman of the county central committee, which demonstrates to a dead moral certainty that there will be something done ere the ides of November roll round. After the nominations were made, T. J. Doyle, candidate for congress being present, was called upon, and was introduced in a neat little speech by Chairman Banning. Mr. Doyle's remarks were principally confined to state issues. He demonstrated to the satisfaction of his hearers that he was a gentleman of ability, and, if elected to represent the First district, he would fill the bill much better than the position had been filled in the past six years. He is a fine speaker, and was repeatedly applauded during his speech.

Lysie I. Abbott, candidate for attorney general, was also present, and when called upon, came to the front, and after being introduced to the convention, made a most telling speech. We are sorry there were not more republicans present to hear the truths presented by Mr. Abbott. As with Mr. Doyle, his remarks were principally confined to state issues, except that he gave a brief account of the reception of Mr. Bryan in New York. Mr. Abbott is a fluent talker and if elected to the important position of attorney general he will not "beat around the bush," in defending the rights of the people as well as seeing that the corporations get their just dues also. He showed up Norry Brown in fine shape, and demonstrated that he was deceiving the people in his effort to jump into the United States senate, by his attempt to play into the hands of the people and the corporations both at the same time.

Both Mr. Doyle and Mr. Abbott made most favorable impressions upon all who met them. Even republicans complimented Mr. Doyle's appearance and ability, and expressed themselves as being among those who would rejoice if "Easy Money" Pollard is succeeded by a man of such presence and ability.

After the speeches of both gentlemen the convention proceeded to the election of a new county central committee, and the following gentlemen were selected from the various precincts:

Avoca—B. C. Marquardt.
Nehawka—F. C. Shoemaker.
Center—John Tighe.
Elmwood—George Towle.
Stove Creek—G. S. Carnahan.
Mt. Pleasant—C. M. Seybert.
Liberty—W. F. Tracey.

First Rock Bluffs—H. L. Oldham.
Second Rock Bluffs—Frank Grauf.
Louisville—Herman E. Pankonin.
Tipton—Ed. Betts.
South Bend—Oscar Zaar.
Eight Mile Grove—W. H. Seybert.
Plattsmouth Precinct—W. C. Gillespie.

Greenwood—Geo. P. Foreman.
Salt Creek—E. B. Craig.
Weeping Water—First ward, J. I. Corley; second, Herman Kleitsch; third, Chas. Chandler.

Plattsmouth City—First ward, J. P. Falter; second, J. P. Sattler, third, W. K. Fox; fourth, William Slater; fifth, George Klinger.

The Ticket Nominated.

In the nomination of Henry R. Gering for state senator, the democrats have a candidate in whom the party can feel proud. Mayor Gering has been honored on several occasions by election to office, and in each instance, the positions have come to him unsought. He has been twice elected mayor of the city of Plattsmouth, has served several terms as chairman of the democratic county committee, and also as a member of the state and congressional committees, and in each capacity has proved himself "the right man in the right place," as he will, also, if elected to the state senate. He has repeatedly refused to be a candidate, and in the recent congressional convention could have had the nomination for congress by saying he would accept. Mr. Gering is a hustler, and by the unanimity with which the nomination for senator came to him, is enough to know that Mr. Gering is one of the most popular men in Cass county.

L. F. Langhorst and F. M. Massie, the nominees for representatives, are well qualified to fill the positions. The former is a merchant and the latter is a farmer.

Mr. Langhorst has been a successful business man of Elmwood for a number of years, and is a gentleman and scholar in every sense of the term. The nomination came to Mr. Langhorst unanimously, and without any request upon his part. The friends and neighbors who have known him so long, and realizing his excellent qualities and great popularity, were the ones who insisted upon his nomination. Mr. Langhorst has hosts of friends in every section of the county, who will "pull off their coats and roll up their sleeves" and work earnestly for his election. The Journal believes Mr. Langhorst is one of the best men for representative in the legislature in Cass county, and that he will reflect credit not only upon his constituents, but also upon himself as a member of that body.

F. M. Massie has lived in Cass county for years and years, and having always served in one capacity or another in democratic councils, he is well known in all sections of the county. Frank Massie is one of the common people, a good man for the position for which he was nominated, and the voters of Cass county can depend upon having a true friend in the next legislature if he is elected. Mr. Massie lives in Mt. Pleasant precinct, where he has been an active tiller of the soil all his life.

George W. Snyder, one of the best men that God ever put breath in, was nominated for county commissioner. Mr. Snyder is a farmer and lives four miles southwest of Plattsmouth. He was endorsed by the convention because his friends knew that he was the proper man for this responsible position, and would look after the interests of the taxpayers of the district. As the board of commissioners is now composed, every member is a republican, and it seems no more than just and proper that the democrats should be represented when the interests of the people of the entire county need looking after. George Snyder is not a man who can be influenced party feeling to do anything but what he thinks is right in doing business for the people. This is why he should be elected from the First district.

In the nomination of D. O. Dwyer for county attorney, the democrats have a candidate who is well known to the people of Cass county. They know he is an eminent lawyer, and that he is a man who will not wait for "a wave of reform to pass over the county" before deciding what his duty shall be. Mr. Dwyer is a firm believer in law and order, and if he is chosen county attorney the people can rely upon seeing that all laws are enforced and criminals punished according to the deeds committed. While not a fanatic on any matter of reform, he is a man of firmness in business matters, and it can be expected that he will do his duty, as he sees his duty, and not consult with anyone before he acts in matters pertaining to those duties. D. O. Dwyer is a good man for county attorney, and the signs of the times indicate his election.

The convention done its work well in the selection of the above candidates and also in the selection of W. B. Banning for chairman of the county committee. The campaign will begin as soon as the committee and candidates can have a meeting, and decide upon the manner of procedure. This meeting will probably be held some time next week.
