Does This Hit You? The man who lurks behind a bush and will try to tear down or destroy the character of a young tender girl is so low down in the rut of retrogression and ruin that if he ever got into perdition he would have to slide up hill. There is nothing so pure and sweet as a young girl whose name is untarnished by the foul tongue of slander and whose face vividly reflects the moral atmosphere in which she lives; therefore the black mouth who will try to blot the character of one like this is a seedwart on the shinbone of society his impurity is enough to jar the commonwealth—his carcass would not make a decent compost heap—he ought to be isolated from all decent, respectable people.

At the Parmele Saturday Night. "An Aristocratic Tramp" is booked for the Parmele theatre Saturday night, October 6. It is the best sensational comedy drama on the road this season. Don't fail to see the exciting automobile race and explosion, something new in the way of stage effects. It also has the most realistic railroad scene ever produced. In equipment, splendor and gorgeous novelty, "An Aristocratic Tramp" outstrips them all. A play with a story of heart interest, played by a cast of excellent artists. "An Aristocratic Tramp." Don't fail to see it. Don't forget the date.

Letak-Roetter Wedding. The ceremony was performed by Fathers Hank and Bradley, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives. The best man was John Maurick of Omaha, while the bridesmaid was Miss Eva Roetter, a sister of the bride. Buckley of Omaha, furnished music which materially assisted in the social time that prevailed.

The young people will be at home to their friends in a short time at their home in Omaha, where the groom has a very good position with Armour & Co. The best wishes of their many friends, together with those of the Journal, are with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Letak, during this happy event.

Said "Bryan" by Mistake. Politics inadvertently crept into the close of a big revival meeting at Blair, last Sunday night. While the Rev. Mr. Conley, pastor of the Blair Baptist church was making an appeal to the congregation for a collection for the evangelist—the Rev. Mr. Lyon of Chicago—a slip of the tongue caused him to say "Bryan" instead of Lyon. The word had barely slipped out when a wave of applause rippled over the crowd, and then developed into a wild tumult of enthusiastic acclaim, despite that it was Sunday night, and the meeting was a religious one.

Roosevelt Hostile to Labor.

The democratic campaign book is out, and in taking up Roosevelt's position on the question it is declared that he is hostile to the labor element. He has expressed in his books, in his official utterances and by his acts. It is stated that he regards representatives of labor unions as members of the "rogues gallery." "sleek, oily fellows," "bulls of Bashan," "lazy, selfish, brutal, violent, murderous," "a mob."

Returning to the subject of the tariff, the book asserts that President Roosevelt at various times in his career has been a free trader, a tariff reformer and a stand-patter, and that he "may lead a movement for tariff revision in 1908." And then it has this to say:

"Mr. Roosevelt has written nothing distinctly and unequivocally stating his position since he withdrew from the Free Trade club, but it has been given out at Oyster Bay this summer that he is fully in accord with the views of Speaker Cannon and Mr. Sherman, which have been summarized in the language of gamblers and beggars 'standpat and pass the hat.'"

Under the caption, "The Motive Behind the 'Big Stick,'" it is charged that President Roosevelt favors big corporations in Porto Rico and the Philippines and that he would make laws advantageous for them: that he wants a big military and naval force, to include subsidized merchant marine and that he has prevented the Monroe doctrine in the interest of the asphalt trust in Venezuela. It is stated that not until he found it necessary to win democratic support for his policy of imperialism did he ever say a word in praise of any democratic statesman or democratic achievement. Quotations follow from some of the president's books referring in alleged complimentary terms to Jefferson, Madison, Benton and others.

Inquest Jury Exonerates Engineer.

A special from Papillion, in speaking of the inquest held over the remains of Miss Lottie Woods, who was killed by the south-bound passenger train last Sunday morning near Paplo, says: "Inquest was held here Monday, the verdict of the coroner's jury being that she met death as the result of her own act. The testimony showed that the whistle was blown and she stepped in front of the engine, giving the engineer no time to stop. Miss Woods was 30 years of age."

This is the season of decay and weakened vitality. Nature is being shown of its beauty and bloom. If you would retain yours, fortify your system with Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. For sale by Gering & Co., druggists.

When a horse is so overworked it lies down and in other ways declares its inability to go further, you would consider it criminal to use force. Overdriven, overworked, when what it needs is something that will digest the food eaten and help the stomach to recuperate. Something like Kodol For Dyspepsia that is sold by F. G. Fricke & Co. and Gering & Co.

"An Aristocratic Tramp" contains a sensational automobile race and explosion and the most sensational of all train effects, together with lively singing and dancing specialties galore.
