Miss Vesta Eaton, teacher at Oxford school, was taken suddenly sick at the home of Mr. August Engelkemeler, six miles west of town, Saturday evening. Last reports was that she was able to continue her school work Monday.

The little 6 year-old boy of Frank Roberts died at his home, east of Murray, Wednesday morning of membranous croup. The little fellow took sick Tuesday and died Wednesday morning.

Wm. H. Shrader and wife will depart this week for their new home in Stonesville, S. D. Their household goods and farming implements and stock were loaded at Murray. They have many friends in this part of the world who have none but the best wishes for their future happiness and success in their new home.

Mr. James Manners is becoming an expert electrician, having installed a power generator in the Independent telephone central Tuesday night. It works beautifully and saves time and labor. This machine disposes with turning the crank to signal. You connect parties, pull a lever and the machine does the calling.

Everybody subscribing to the lecture course this winter should call at the Murray State Bank and pay up. The committee wishes to get this off their hands this month. Watch the paper for the numbers as they will appear. This will be one of the finest lines of entertainment Murray has ever had. Remember only $1.50 for a season ticket.

If you want to study human nature in one of its rare forms, just hang around a hardware store these cold days when some man comes in with soot on his face, blood in his eye, and cuss words sticking out all over him like bristles and says that he is putting up a stove. He calls for a dam—per stove pipe and goes out mad at all the world. You may know that he is looking through colored glasses.

ELABORATE HOME WEDDING

The Marriage of Mr. William Wehrbein and Miss Nellie Creamer.

The Journal is somewhat late in giving an extended account of one of the most pleasant home weddings that ever occurred in Cass county, and owes an apology to the bride and groom for omitting the announcement to this late date.

Mr. and Mrs. Wehrbein are two of the most popular young people in Cass county, the marriage of which occurred on Wednesday evening, September 26, 1906, in the presence of a large number of invited friends. Rev. J. E. Houlgate, of this city, was the officiating minister. The room in which the ceremony occurred was very tastefully decorated for the event. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. James Manners as bridegroom and Miss Marie Berger as bridesmaid.

After the ceremony and congratulations the guests were invited to partake of a bounteous wedding feast, and it was rather a novel sight to witness the bride and groom and attendants seated at a table in the center of the room and the guests seated all around them partaking of the most delicious supper, which all present declared one of the finest ever sat down to.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Creamer, and is a lovely little lady. She has a wide circle of acquaintances with whom she is a general favorite. The groom is a prominent young farmer, and was reared in Cass county, and by his general qualities has not only succeeded in capturing one of the most beautiful and accomplished young ladies for a wife, but he has retained a friend in everyone who knows him.

The Journal joins all their friends in extending congratulations, and trusts that their pathway through life may be a straight way to prosperity and happiness. The following were the guests present on this happy occasion:

Mr. and Mrs. Minford, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Brendel, Dr. Brendel, Mrs. Parr, Dr. Green and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dull, Mrs. Dags, Mrs. Chas. Creamer, Mr. and Mrs. Wait Daus, Mrs. L. Creamer, Mr. and Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Davis, Misses Gussie Robb, Leona Sans, Ida Boedecker, Viola Young, Ora and Winnie Hutchison, Daisy Campbell, Dolly Wehrbein, Jessie Drost, Etta Nickols, Marie Burger, Rose Batten, Jesse Duffy, Jesse Gilmore, Lottie Stokes, Elsie Stokes, Carrie Allison, Rebecca Haines, Olga Minford, Messrs. Jas. Manners, Will Wehrbein, Dr. Jake Brendel, Lee Nichols, John Wehrbein, Guy Stokes, Glen Wiles, Ernest Carroll, Glen Boedecker, Chas. and John Sans, Warren Wiley, Frank Reed, Will and Gurney Hutchison, Roy Thompson, Roy Stokes and Harry Creamer.

Walt Vallery was a business visitor in Omaha, Wednesday evening.

Frank Vallery and wife were attending the funeral of A. J. Graves in Plattsmouth, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ed. Midkiff, living east of town, has been quite sick the past week, but at this time is getting along nicely.

J. W. Smith and daughter, who have been visiting at the home of W. S. Smith and wife have returned to their home at Ong, Neb.

Dr. Newell and wife of Union, were in Murray, Wednesday afternoon. The doctor has made arrangements to come to Murray one day out of each week in the future.

O. V. Virgin has been laid up with a lame back for the past few days as the result of an accident he met with while scooping corn from his wagon. He stepped off the scoop board and fell to the ground, lighting on his back.

Back to Nebraska.
Smith Hines, who is well known in several neighborhoods in Cass county, has again taken up his abode in this county. Two years ago, or thereabouts, Mr. and Mrs. Hines removed to Virginia, the former home of Mr. Hines, but after a residence in the place of his birth, things did not appear as in former days, and he has returned and settled near South Bend, to which postoffice he orders the Journal. Smith says they may talk about the old states as much as they please but as dear as the Dominion seemed to him, he says there is no state on earth like Nebraska for stir and money-making. He and his family return to make their home in the west for all time to come. Mr. Hines is a good farmer and very energetic.

I can sell you lands in South Dakota in the best part of the state as cheap as anybody. See Falter.

Maple Grove
Special Correspondent.
A large crowd from this locality went to Omaha last Wednesday.

Quite a crowd gathered at the home of Chas. Engelkemeler last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Rusterholtz are visiting relatives in Jefferson county this week.

Julius Buck of Wyoming visited relatives in this section last week.

Miss Christina Schafer made a visit to the western part of the state last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bannick from Cole ridge visited at the home of W. H. Puls last week. Mr. Bannick returned home Monday, while his wife will remain a few weeks longer.

A fine dance was given at the home of August Engelkemeler last Saturday night, which was much enjoyed.

Herman Gansemer and wife made a trip to Murray Saturday.

Carpenters began work on W. H. Puls' new house this week. Herman Tlekoetter of Plattsmouth is doing the work.

William Puls shelled corn Monday and delivered it to the Jones Grain Co., at Murray.

A full delegation was sent from this precinct to Plattsmouth to the democratic county convention last Wednesday. The following were the delegates: F. M. Massie, W. H. Puls, C. M. Seybert, Ed. Gansemer, John Murdock, P. A. Hild, Adam Schafer, Jake Hild and Z. W. Shrader. This precinct was fortunate enough to secure the nomination of F. M. Massie for representative. Mr. Massie is well qualified for the position and is a hustler from way back and if elected will do the right thing. Now, dear voters, a vote for Mr. Massie will be highly appreciated.

The Bridge Question.
The third bridge on the road leading east of Elmwood is in need of repairs. Last Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. Hendricks were out driving, Mr. Hendricks was compelled to get out and lead the horse across the bridge. The front wheels of the buggy went into a hole at the bridge, causing Mrs. Hendricks, who is about 55 years of age and badly crippled with rheumatism, to fall forward out of the seat, striking her forehead on the dashboard, and almost falling from the buggy before Mr. Hendricks could come to her assistance. The ligaments of one knee and one wrist were terribly lacerated, and she has been under the doctor's care since the accident and is in quite a bad condition. Other complaints have been made about this bridge and it should be fixed at once.—
Elmwood Leader-Echo.

This is but one instance where the bridges are in a dilapidated condition. Complaints have been registered with the county commissioners all summer in regard to the bad condition of the bridges in this section of the county, but little attention has been paid to the appeals of those who have been deprived in this manner. We have had no one in this section to look after the bridges. Elect George W. Snyder commissioner and all such matters will receive his direct attention. He is a man who will do his duty to the whole people. The board now is two much one-sided.

This is the season of decay and weakened vitality. Nature is being shorn of its beauty and bloom. If you would retain yours, fortify your system with Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. For sale by Gering & Co., druggists.

A Serious Accident.

Mrs. T. W. Vallery, living three miles northwest of Murray, received a wound in the right wrist which came very near proving fatal. She with her daughter, Mrs. Wade Porter, were carrying some fruit jars out of the cellar, when one broke, the glass cutting two ugly wounds near a large artery, severing a small artery which caused profuse hemorrhage. Over the phone Mrs. Porter received instructions from the physician how to stop the bleeding, which proved successful and other than the pain Mrs. Vallery is comfortable.

F. M. Young, Sr., Injured.

Our old friend, F. M. Young, Sr., met with quite a serious accident last Tuesday, in which he was very fortunate that it did not result in the loss of his life. The old gentleman was engaged in gathering apples at his home, east of town, and was standing in the spring seat of his wagon, picking the fruit from the lower boughs, when the team started to move out from under him and he was thrown to the back end of the wagon and when another lunge was made by the team he was thrown to the ground with such force as to bruise him up considerably, but no bones were broken. At this time he is getting along nicely and nothing serious will result.

Nehawka

(Special Correspondent.)

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wunderlich spent a week at Hastings and Superior, where the latter went as a delegate for the D. of H. to the state convention which was held at Hastings, Oct. 2nd. Mr. and Mrs. Wunderlich returned on the midnight train Saturday, having had a delightful time.

L. G. Todd, Jr., who was suffering from appendicitis was able to sit up some, Sunday. We hope for L. G.'s speedy recovery.

Mr. Greenrod and Louis Carsten, Jr., spent Saturday and Sunday with W. H. Schumaker and family.

Vernie Shanklin, one of Mr. Pollard's champion apple pickers, has been under the doctor's care for some time.

The five dollar riding bridle was won by Edith Schomaker at the Nehawka fair. Bertha Schumaker winning second prize.

Bert Perkhiser made a swift trip on the route Wednesday, taking the afternoon train for Omaha to see the Ak-Sar-Ben.

Quite a number attended preaching held at Sturm's school house, Sunday. Mrs. Myrtle Reaman of Lincoln is visiting at Mrs. Wunderlich's this week.

Herman Stoll transacted business at Omaha, Saturday, returning the same day.

Charley Hansen made some fine sorghum which he sold for fifty cents per gallon.

The annual district meeting of the Rebekah lodge was held at Avoca, Friday. Those present from Nehawka were, Leona Pollard, Ruth Murdock, Mrs. A. F. Sturm, Stella Banning, Isahora Hall, Mrs. Humphrey, Miss Moon, Mrs. Henry Schomaker, and all reported having a delightful time.

John Rough has about thirty hogs that are sick, but he is unable to tell what the disease is called.

Mrs. Chulmer Switzer is visiting at Burt Tucker's this week.

CUPID CUTS MORE CAPERS

Mr. Henry Jochim of Cass County, United in Marriage to Miss Lillie Stratman, of Sarpy County.

A pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stratman of Sarpy county, Wednesday, October 3, at 2 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Lillie, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Henry Jochim of Cass county.

The bride is one of the most highly respected young ladies of that county, and was beautifully dressed in white satin and carried large bouquets of bride's roses and orange blossoms, while the groom wore the conventional black, and is one of the most highly respected young men and of good character. He is the son of Mr. Stephen Jochim, one of our best and well to do farmers.

Those who acted as bridesmaid and best man were Miss Anna Jochim and Mr. George Vogler and Miss Ella Stratman and Mr. Ed. Jochim. The wedding march was played by Miss Lowell.

After the ceremony and congratulations, the guests were invited to partake of a most sumptuous repast. The table was most tastefully decorated with flowers and ferns and from the way the table was loaded down with the many good things to eat, none of the guests went away hungry. The Papillon band, which had previously been arranged for by the groom, was present and furnished some of the very choicest music.

Mr. and Mrs. Jochim departed for Colorado with the best wishes of all for a long and happy career through life.

A Trip to South Dakota.

John Albert, one of the prominent German farmers of Cass county, returned last evening from a trip to South Dakota, where he purchased a half section of land in the same county in which Uncle Peter Kell recently invested in several hundred acres. Mr. Albert, like most of the Cass county farmers who have visited that section, agree that it is the coming country, and have wisely made their investments while the land is selling at a reasonable price. Mr. Albert enjoyed the trip very much.

Back to Nebraska.

Smith Hines, who is well known in several neighborhoods in Cass county, has again taken up his abode in this county. Two years ago, or thereabouts, Mr. and Mrs. Hines removed to Virginia, the former home of Mr. Hines, but after a residence in the place of his birth, things did not appear as in former days, and he has returned and settled near South Bend, to which postoffice he orders the Journal. ## CASS COUNTY SCHOOL NOTES

Items Worthy of Perusal by Parent, Teacher, Pupil and Board of Directors.

Principal J. A. Dimmick has mailed a most excellent circular letter to the teachers of his Reading Circle section in which he urges them to do well the work as outlined. We are confident the record of Section 11 will be an excellent one.

We made an excellent find last summer in the person of Miss Catherine Boyle, who has charge of district 35, or the Laughlin school. She is doing exceptionally good work. Miss Boyle taught last year in the western part of the state.

Frank Crabtree, district 60, writes us that his school board is thoroughly alive to the best interests of the school and that he is not handicapped on account of lack of supplies as everything needful is furnished cheerfully and promptly.

The Plattsmouth division of the Reading Circle held its first meeting of the year last Saturday. The recitation method proved very successful as all the teachers present had the work prepared and received much benefit from the discussions.

Miss Daisy Fowler, intermediate teacher at Union, gave up her forty pupils "to take charge of one." She will be succeeded by Miss Jennie Craig, who takes charge of the school next Monday.

Practically all of the local managers are calling attention to the sectional meetings of the Reading Circle through their local papers. If the Reading Circle work is not a success this year it certainly will not be their fault.

The next regular examination for teachers' certificates will be held Friday and Saturday, October 19 and 20.

The regular examination program will be adhered to, as that will accommodate the greatest number of teachers. The office will be open from 7:30 a. m. until 5:30 p. m. on those two days.

The most noticeable feature in the matter of better school conditions this fall is the improvements that have been made in the school houses.

Below is given a few of the many improvements found in our rounds this fall: District 9, Fairview, woodwork painted and walls and ceiling calcined; district 14, Buck school, painted inside and out, walls and ceiling painted; Avoca town school, newly papered throughout; district 25, Eight Mile Grove, school house thoroughly renovated, new outbuildings; district 27, Cottonwood school, re-plastered; district 35, Laughlin school, papered, woodwork painted and new desk provided for teacher; district 74, King school, papered and woodwork painted; district 75, Union school, new outbuildings; district 81, Maple Grove, room papered. Next month other districts will be mentioned. Better surroundings seems to be the watchword of directors this year. It pays to have a pleasant school room. Let the good work go on.

Louise Mickle, district 50, has a young lady nineteen years of age in attendance and a married lady twenty-six. Neither of these pupils had a chance to secure an education in our schools when younger, and it certainly speaks well for both pupils and teacher to see them in school and in the grade best suited to their needs. The idea that people ever get too old to learn is a mistaken one.

Miss Pearl Johnson, district 72, and students attended the Nehawka fair. They marched to the grounds to the music of a drum, played by one of the students, and preceded by a large school banner. They had a good, old-fashioned picnic dinner along with them that was thoroughly enjoyed by the students, many of the patrons and the county superintendent.

The attention of the public is called to the general teachers' meeting to be held at Weeping Water Saturday, November 24. An excellent program has been prepared and will be published later. Some subjects of general interest will be discussed by our teachers and, in addition to this, Superintendent McBrien will give an address in the afternoon. We want many patrons and school officers to be present. Plan to come, and if you do not enjoy the day we will not ask you to attend another.

The school exhibit at the Nehawka fair was one of the drawing cards on the grounds. It was viewed by a large crowd of visitors, and was admired by all who viewed it. The work was excellent and was nicely arranged for display by Misses Pollard, Murdock and Moon. Only a few of the schools were represented, and yet the exhibit was as large as could well be accommodated as each school that sent work sent quite an exhibit.

J. W. GAMBLE,
County Superintendent.
