Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Bell, of Ravenwood, W. Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

The Better Way

The tissues of the throat are inflamed and irritated; you cough, and there is more irritation—more coughing. You take a cough mixture and it eases the irritation—for a while. You take and it cures the cold. That's what is necessary. It soothes the throat because it reduces the irritation; cures the cold because it drives out the inflammation; builds up the weakened tissues because it nourishes them back to their natural strength. That's how Scott's Emulsion deals with a sore throat, a cough, a cold, or bronchitis.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

E. M. Pollard Measured by Test.

(From the State Journal.)

The following letters explain themselves:
LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 24.—Richard L. Metcalfe, City.—Dear Sir: You will find enclosed a communication that I sent to The Nebraska State Journal which they refused to publish. I therefore send it to you to do as you please with. Respectfully,
J. H. WOODWARD.

Mr. Woodward's letter to the State Journal is as follows:
LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 19, 1906.—Editor State Journal, Lincoln, Neb.—Dear Sir: I have read Mr. Metcalfe's letter in The Journal this morning, and in justice to me I ask you to print my reply. It is true that I AM A REPUBLICAN, but the same test that I apply to Senator Bailey I would apply to the men on my party ticket. It is because I oppose men like Bailey that I am opposed to Mr. Pollard, and I will continue to oppose him and vote against him, unless he "puts it back," as Mr. Metcalfe says. More than that, if Mr. Pollard does not put it back I am going to show my protest against him as emphatic as I can BY VOTING FOR MR. DOYLE. We never can secure clean government in this country until we insist that our own party's candidate shall be as honest as we insist upon our opponents' candidates being. If I were a Texas democrat I would be opposing Bailey because he took money that he had no moral right to take. Being a Nebraska republican I must, if I am as honest as I would like my opponents to be, OPPOSE MR. POLLARD BECAUSE HE TOOK MONEY THAT HE HAD NO MORAL RIGHT TO TAKE.
Yours Respectfully,
J. H. WOODWARD.
