PREPARED IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE OF MURRAY AND VICINITY ESPECIALLY FOR THE JOURNAL READERS.

[If any of the readers of the Journal know of a social event or an item of interest in this vicinity and will mail same to this office it will appear under this heading. We want all items of interest.—Editor Journal.]

A Farmer Saw One of Our Advertisements in a Newspaper.

It happened that shortly afterwards he sold some grain. He opened a checking account with us, depositing the money he received from the sale of his grain. From that day to this, that farmer has always kept an account with us. Whenever he sells any produce from the farm, he deposits the money in bank and pays his obligations by check because it is an advantage to him. He never has to bother his neighbor for change. He can write out a check for any amount. His check book is of no use to any except himself, and his money is safe in the bank.

Complaining Man.

The crops are ruined for 'tis too dry. 'Tis too wet and the weeds are high. Sugar's too dear and corn's too cheap. Your man has quit and you can't sleep. Nothing goes right and nothing can— You've been caught by the grumbling man.

This old imp of monstrous size, With fangs that hang from enigmatical eyes, Breeds blue breath from sulphur flame. For the man who does complain, Then drive back to his malodorous hell The bogey man with his smoky smile!

HON. T. J. DOYLE AT MURRAY

He Spoke to a Large Audience in That Village Saturday Night.

A Journal reporter attended the meeting advertised for T. J. Doyle, democratic candidate for congress, at Murray Saturday night. It was evident for some time before the hall was opened that Mr. Doyle would be welcomed by a good sized audience, as farmers from every direction could be observed entering the town to listen to Mr. Doyle, and they all went home feeling that they were well paid for their trouble.

The meeting was called to order by H. L. Oldham, who introduced Judge H. D. Travis as the first speaker. And the way he poured the hot shot into "Easy Money" Pollard was not slow. He read a private letter which our "eminent" congressman sent out last fall to the prohibitionists of the county, asking them to vote the republican ticket, because the candidates on that ticket were temperate while such candidates as W. D. Wheeler, John D. McBride and himself were drunkards, or words to that effect. Many republicans present who had never seen this letter, doubted its genuineness, and when it was shown to them they remarked that they had intended to vote for Pollard, but this settled the matter with them. One republican said that the man who aspired to such a high and honorable position as a member of congress, and would stoop so low as to write such letters and condemn men whose excellent records are far above that of Pollard, he could not now be induced to vote for him under any circumstances.

Short speeches were made by D. O. Dwyer, candidate for county attorney, and Frank M. Massie, candidate for representative, who defined their positions on the issues before the people of Cass county, and respectively solicited the support of all present.

The Hon. T. J. Doyle was introduced and as he went forward to the platform he was greeted with great enthusiasm. Mr. Doyle spoke for about one hour and a half, and held his audience spellbound during the entire time. Our candidate for congress favorably impressed his audience, and many who had never seen or heard Mr. Doyle, were eager to grasp him by the hand and tell him, that, while they were republicans, they expected to vote for him for congress.

At the close of his speech, Mr. Doyle called attention to the slanderous circular the republican congressional committee were sending to the remotest parts of the district, in the hope of thus saving the hide of "Easy Money" Pollard. The circular is a base lie through and through, and gotten out to counteract "Easy Money's" $1,000 graft from the U. S. treasury. Mr. Doyle pronounces the circular a base fabrication, which demonstrates the desperate methods the republican congressional committee has resorted to in order to get even with the charges preferred against the man who has disgraced the people of the First district. Our candidate for congress invited those who were any ways inclined to believe the charges in the circular, to write to such republicans as Judge Holmes, and they would soon learn that the document was a base lie. Mr. Doyle's explanation of the charges met with the approval of all present, and we do not believe there was even one republican present who did not believe the circular a lie.

Mr. Doyle was remarkably well received in Murray, and it was the common remark that he was so far ahead of Pollard in oratory and gentlemanly bearing, that comparison was out of the question. He made many friends from the republican side of the house and greatly emboldened the democrats. To say the least, the meeting was a grand success in every particular.

Dentists.

A Year of Blood.
The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me to death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at F. G. Fricke & Co's. drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Eczema Now Curable.
A special from New York says: "The thousands suffering from eczema will welcome the news that an external remedy has at last been discovered which not only immediately relieves the distress attending this disease, but permanently restores the skin to its normal condition. This specific, known as poslam, has been unusually successful in many severe cases of long standing. By special arrangement with Dr. Cox, the discoverer of poslam, the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City, will send an experimental treatment free of charge to all sufferers who will write for it."

There are several afflicted with this disease in this city, who no doubt will hail this remedy, if it comes, with delight.

QUITE A SERIOUS ACCIDENT

John Beighmann, a Prominent Farmer, Receives Painful Injuries at Mynard.

Mynard, Neb., October 26.—[Special to the Journal]—Yesterday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, John Beighmann, while engaged in unloading apples into a car from a wagon, met with an accident which will lay him up for several days and perhaps weeks. He was standing on the shoot at the car door, when the same gave way, throwing Mr. Beighmann to the ground, lighting on, first his hands and then his head. One wrist was broken, and the other badly sprained and his head bruised.

Mr. Beighmann is one of Cass county's industrious and well-to-do German farmers, living southwest of Plattsmouth. Dr. J. S. Livingston was called to attend the unfortunate man, and says that nothing extremely serious is apprehended.

Burglars Visit Murray.
While in Murray Saturday night a Journal reporter learned of the burglarizing of James Root's residence. For two weeks Mr. Root and family were visiting friends at Beaver City, Neb., and returned home Saturday evening to find that their home had been entered by burglars, and all the silverware and a new suit of clothes were taken. There was not a knife, fork or spoon left to use for supper. Evidently the burglarly was committed the night before, as Mr. B. A. Root, a near relative, had been in the house that day to see that everything was all right.

Many of the cellars about town have also been entered recently and canned goods and other articles placed there for winter pilfered. No clew to the parties guilty of these misdemeanors.

Miss Peterson Entertains.
At the home of J. C. Peterson a merry gathering of young ladies occurred last evening in response to invitations to assist Miss Edna in observing Halloween.

The home appeared very awe inspiring, with decorations of various sized Jack o'lanterns, which looked very terrible when the electric lights were turned out later in the evening. A rare social time was enjoyed from the divers amusements that were produced to tell the fortunes of those present, of whom several were destined to be old maids, which fact, caused the unlucky ones to receive the joshing of the others. After each one had ascertained the profession, the number of years they have to wait for their future husband, and whether they would be wealthy or be spinsters, the hostess served refreshments appropriate to the occasion, and which it is needless to say, were disposed of by the jolly crowd.

Those to enjoy the occasion were Misses Margaret Mauzy, Ida Pearlman, Minnie Guthman, Zelma Tuoy, Violet Dodge, Lynn Pierson, Mary Kunsman, Rose Schall, Jessie Duffy, Etha Crabill, Bessie Brady, Helen Chapman, Mable Trussler, Leona Brady, Hanna Black, Hermie Spies, Alice Kerr, Carrie Becker, Florence Cory, Alma Larson, Sophia Peterson, Garnet Corey, and Amy Oliver, of Rock Springs, Wyoming.

Famous Strike Breakers.
The most famous strike breakers in the land are Dr. King's New Life Pills. When liver and bowels go on strike they quickly settle the trouble, and the purifying work goes right on. Best cure for constipation, headache and dizziness. 25c at F. G. Fricke & Co. druggists.

Goes Back to Former Owners.
The deal was made Saturday, whereby the City mill, owned by the Davis Bros. & Co., was sold to Killech & Halmes, former owners. Like a fish out of water, Mr. Halmes concluded it was a good business proposition.—Weeping Water Herald.

Had a Close Call.
"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a mammoth ulcer as large as my hand from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica ointment." Says A. C. Sichel of Milletus, W. Va. "Persistent use of the salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c at F. G. Fricke & Co. druggists.

I can sell you lands in South Dakota in the best part of the state as cheap as anybody. See Falter.

Small Blaze at Weeping Water.
A special from Weeping Water, under date of October 28, says: "This town narrowly escaped a bad fire yesterday afternoon. About 2 o'clock, fire was discovered in the rear end of the 'Sunny Side' meat market, which is located in a nest of old wooden buildings, but the fire had gotten but little start when discovered and a prompt response to the alarm by the volunteer fire company, soon had it out and only a very little damage was done. There was a strong wind blowing from the north, and the fire started in the north end of the building, which is entirely surrounded by old wooden buildings, and had it not been discovered in time would have completely cleared out that corner."

Dr. Geo. W. Todd, Arrested for Refusing to Pay Occupation Tax at Valley, Neb.
Dr. G. W. Todd, of Omaha, it seems, went out to Valley, Neb., on a professional trip and was arrested by the town marshal for refusing to pay an occupation tax of $1 per day, as provided by ordinance, and he now seeks the town for damages. The Omaha Bee, in speaking of the matter, says: "Dr. George W. Todd, a dentist in the Karbach block, not only objects to paying $1 a day for the privilege of pulling the teeth of citizens of Valley, but he wants that village and Oscar Talbott, the town marshal, to pay him $5,000 for alleged false arrest. The village council passed an ordinance requiring visiting dentists to pay $1 a day license fee. Dr. Todd refused to pay it at first and was arrested by Talbott. Then he paid the money under protest, but he asserts the village authorities were wrong in levying the tax. Suit for $5,050 was begun in district court Saturday. The $50 represents the money he paid under protest to avoid being rearrested."

He Wants $5,000 Damages.
The Hon. T. J. Doyle was introduced and as he went forward to the platform he was greeted with great enthusiasm. Mr. Doyle spoke for about one hour and a half, and held his audience spellbound during the entire time. The Pain Family

You know them; they are numerous, and make their presence felt everywhere. The names of the family are Headache, Toothache, Earache, Backache, Stomach ache, Neuralgia, etc. They are sentinels that warn you of any derangement of your system. When the brain nerves become exhausted or irritated, Headache makes you miserable; if the stomach nerves are weak, indigestion results, and you double up with pain, and if the more prominent nerves are affected, Neuralgia simply makes life unendurable. The way to stop pain is to soothe and strengthen the nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do this. The whole Pain family yield to their influence. Harmless if taken as directed.

"I find Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills an excellent remedy for overcoming headache, neuralgia and distressing pains of all sorts. I have used them for the past seven years in this capacity with the best of results."
MRS. JOE MERRILL, Peru, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails, he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.

EX - COUNTY CLERK DEAD

John W. Jennings, Veteran of Civil War and Pioneer Settler of Cass County.

PASSED AWAY YESTERDAY IN ATCHISON

Remains Will Arrive in This City Friday

Morning—Funeral at 2:30 P. M. of That Day.

Through a letter received by friends in this city the sad intelligence of the death of a former Cass countian, John W. Jennings at 8:45, a. m., yesterday at his home in Atchison, Kan., was conveyed to the Journal today. The deceased, John W. Jennings, was a veteran of the civil war, and a prominent pioneer settler of this county, where, many old friends and acquaintances, who will regret to learn of his demise, reside. Mr. Jennings served this county as clerk for two terms, 1882-4, when the county offices were located in the old dilapidated building that they called a court house at that time. He also held the position of commander of McConillie post G. A. R. of this city, and the last sad rites will be conducted under the auspices of this post, Canon H. B. Burgess officiating.

The remains will arrive in this city over the Missouri Pacific tomorrow morning, and will be conveyed to undertaking rooms in this city from which place the funeral will take place at 2:30 p. m. Friday.

The following short biography of this pioneer of Nebraska, we take from the "History of Nebraska":

"John W. Jennings, county clerk, Plattsmouth, was born in New Jersey, 1839. When quite young, he removed with his parents to Schuykill county, Pennsylvania. In 1856 he came to Nebraska; located at Omaha; was engaged in real estate business for some two years. Removing to Bellevue, Neb., in 1857 he engaged in the lumber business, continuing in it till 1861, when he enlisted in the Second Iowa Cavalry, serving till October, 1865; when he was mustered out, he held the rank of adjutant of the regiment, having been promoted through the various grades in regular order. Mr. Jennings was then engaged in mercantile business in Factoryville, Cass county, Neb., till 1869; from then till 1872 he was employed as miller in a flour mill, afterwards in various capacities till he came to Plattsmouth, in 1875; was appointed deputy county clerk, and occupied the position up to January 5, 1882, when he resigned to enter upon his duties as county clerk, having been elected to that office November 8, 1881."

The Greatest Misfortune:
Captain Hall, during a conversation with Scott, remarked, that people are making too much fuss about the loss of fortune. "Do you call it a small misfortune to be ruined in money matters?" "It is not so painful as the loss of friends." "I grant that." "As the loss of character." "True again." "As the loss of health?" "There you have me." We certainly should pay more attention to the preserving of our health than to the massing of money. Do not say, when you are not feeling well, that it amounts to nothing and will soon disappear. It may, but what if it does develop into a serious sickness? If at the slightest symptom of indigestion you immediately use Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, it will positively disappear and you will enjoy the comfort of full health. It will make the digestive organs active, will build new blood and rejuvenate the whole body. In all maladies of the stomach and the intestines, in weakness, anemia and nervousness it is the best remedy. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 799 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

To Tell the Reason Why.
Sheriff Quinton was in town Saturday and left some documents with the county commissioners, notifying them to appear before the supreme court on November 7, for a hearing as to why they refused to repair the Platte river bridge. If the supreme court decides that Cass and Sarpy counties shall get busy, the bridge may be put in passable shape. We understand the commissioners of Sarpy county have been served with notices the same as in Cass. It is not stated how the bridge shall be repaired, but the papers state that the estimate is about $7,000 for the repairs. The figures of the bridge contractors were close to $15,000, so the board will have to do better figuring if they get in the $7,000 limit.—Weeping Water Herald.
