Impoverished Soil

Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

If your blood is impoverished your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food and fat is the element lacking in your system.

There is no fat food that is so easily digested and assimilated as

Are nerve diseases, and unless checked, lead to destruction of both mind and body. The weak, shattered nerves must have something to strengthen and build them back to health. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is a remarkable nerve tonic and stimulant. It strengthens the nerves, relieves the nervous strain, and influences refreshing body-building sleep and rest. Persistent use seldom fails to relieve these afflictions.

"I was taken with epileptic fits; had eleven in less than 12 hours. My father sent for our family physician, but he could do very little for me, and I grew worse every day, and at last they had three doctors with me, and I still got worse. My father heard of Dr. Miles' medicine and bought a bottle of Nerve and a box of Nerve and Liver Pills. I had taken only a few doses until I began to feel better. I took 12 bottles, and it cured me sound and well. It has been worth all the world to me. I recommend it wherever I go. You may use this as a life-long testimonial to the merits of your medicine, for I am enjoying the best of health, and feel that my life and health is due to this wonderful medicine."

"True enough," replied the tyrant through his tears, "and I should be the happiest man alive, but, oh, there is one thing lacking!"

OF INTEREST TO PATENTEES

City Councils Cannot Let Contracts by Bidding When One Firm's Product is Specified.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 8.—In an opinion handed down by the supreme court in the case of Siegel vs. the city of Chicago, it is held that city councils or boards of local improvements cannot legally specify patent pavements if the contract is to be let to the lowest bidder. The city council of Chicago passed an ordinance to pave Woodlawn avenue from Sixtieth to Sixty-seventh street, and specified that the wearing-surface should be the Warren bitullite, a patent controlled by one firm. The judgment for the assessment was confirmed in the lower court, and the property owners appealed to the supreme court.

It was maintained that when the council specified the patent pavement it was impossible to have competitive bidding. The supreme court sustains the position of the property owners and says that unless the council by a two-thirds vote authorizes the proper officer or board to enter into a contract for a patent to be used in a public improvement it is necessary that there be free and open competition and that, therefore, the specification of any patent which restricts bidding is illegal.

GYPSIES STOLE HIS DAUGHTER

Change Made by a Chicago Man Who Acted as His Own Sheriff.

Salem, Mass., Nov. 8.—John Adam, who said his home was in Chicago, applied in the district court for a warrant for the arrest of several members of a band of Gypsies in winter quarters at South Salem on the charge of having abducted his daughter Rosie, 13 years old, a year ago. Adam told the police that he was a Russian, and that while he was living in Chicago about a year ago his daughter suddenly disappeared. Being convinced that she had been carried off by Gypsies Adam decided to search for her by joining the Gypsies.

He and his wife, therefore, became attached to a tribe which landed in Somerville recently, and a week ago he found his child with another band at South Salem. When he tried to take her away he alleges that the Gypsies threatened to kill both him and his daughter. The police being informed of the case took the child away from the camp pending an investigation.

President Roosevelt's Ranch.

The Northern Pacific road has taken official notice of the fact that President Roosevelt was a citizen of North Dakota once rounded on a bucking bronco over the partitioned knobs and through the little valleys of the unspeakable bad lands. The railroad company, for the information of passengers, including the romantic tourist of the far east, has erected a sign board near the track at Madson which bears the following legend:
"Little Missouri river. Theodore Roosevelt once rounded in this valley."
