PRESBYTERIAN RESOLUTION

Asking Daily Papers to Exclude Reports of Sunday Ball Games.

John T. Baird of this city, stated clerk of the Nebraska synod, Presbyterian, has sent to the daily papers of Omaha and Lincoln copies of the following resolution adopted at the session of the synod at Lincoln in October:

"Inasmuch as the daily papers of Lincoln and Omaha publish reports of the Sunday ball games often on the first pages of their Monday issues, and

"Inasmuch as this game on Sunday is a violation of the state law and has been so decreed by the supreme court, and

"Inasmuch as such reports provoke Sunday games in other communities, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we request the daily papers of these cities to omit such prominent and detailed reports from their Monday issues."

A War Upon Tuberculosis.

The state of Kansas is endeavoring to collect statistics on all tubercular cases within its borders, and has inaugurated a vigorous campaign against tuberculosis, says the St. Joe News.

Dr. S. J. Crumrine, secretary of the state board of health, has prepared some pamphlets on this subject, calling attention to the nature of the disease and giving advice as to how to prevent infection. As the chief conditions necessary for successful treatment, he gives early recognition of the disease, fresh air in the greatest abundance day and night, plenty of the most nutritious food, absolute rest in bed until the fever has ceased, and carefully regulated exercise. Much attention is given to disinfecting and the pamphlet contains a number of formulas for disinfectants. These pamphlets are to be distributed in the schools of Kansas and through the medical fraternity. Circulars are to be sent to every physician in the state asking them to report each case of tuberculosis. The whole is part of a campaign to stamp out the "white-plague." The result will be watched with interest by the government medical authorities, and other states may gain valuable information for use in the great effort which must be made to check the disease.

SUCCESS IS NOW ASSURED

Many Orders Received for Plattsburgh Gloves For Which Merchants Find Ready Sale.

The Plattsburgh Glove company have demonstrated to the people of this vicinity that they can establish a profitable factory in Plattsburgh. The manager of the plant informs us that orders for gloves are accumulating very fast, merchants of Sheridan, Wyo., Council Bluffs and Omaha sending orders for the Plattsburgh glove, which they declare gives the best satisfaction for the money and for which they readily find purchasers.

Some of the people of this vicinity found fault with the gloves on account of the seam ripping open, but this defect was in the thread and not in the workmanship. Another thread was secured to fasten the gloves together, and this has overcome that fault. At present H. M. Craig, the manager of the company, has a force of five at work, but the factory is equipped with enough machinery to run fifteen cutters, of whom they have only three who are experienced in this particular part of making the gloves.

The factory has been turning out working gloves thus far, but as soon as the apprentices become skillful workmen, the dress glove will be made. A new driving glove recently turned out by Mr. Craig is of rough material, but shows the workmanship that is done in factory. The orders of which they have fifteen, are being delayed at present on account of not having material, which is expected in a few days.

Will Sell on Thursday.

Hon. William Delles Dernier, administrator, with will annexed, of the estate of the late Marquis L. White, was in the city yesterday receiving bids for the residence property situated in block 11, on the corner of Sixth and Oak streets, opposite the Catholic school, in this city. A number of bids were received, the property being very desirable for residence purposes, but Mr. Delles Dernier will not close the sale until Thursday.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitis' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weakness, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co. drug store. Price 50c.

Death of Mrs. John Burke.

After a lingering illness of several months' standing, Mrs. John Acord Burke passed away Friday evening at the home of her brother, James Acord, in this city. A husband and two children are left to mourn her demise. Mrs. Burke was taken to a hospital in Omaha several weeks ago for treatment, but being unable to secure relief from her affliction she returned home several days ago and has been gradually sinking since that time, until death resulted yesterday.

WON OFFICE AND BRIDE

Is the Fortune of the New County Attorney in Oteo, D. W. Livingston.

A special from Nebraska City, says: "A pretty romance culminated last evening in the marriage of Hon. D. W. Livingston and Miss Emma Schaffers at the home of the bride's mother, by Rev. J. A. Koser, pastor of the Lutheran church. The young people have been keeping company for some time, the groom being one of the leading young attorneys of the Oteo county bar and city attorney for two years, and since he has been a resident of this city he made the race several times for office, but each time failed in getting the required number of votes to secure him the office. The young lady finally agreed that if he could be elected to office she would become his wife. He was given the nomination for county attorney on the democratic ticket in August and since that time has devoted all of his spare time from his practice to campaigning and Tuesday he was chosen county attorney by a handsome majority and last evening the happy couple were united in marriage and left for the east on their wedding trip. The young lady is very popular, being a leader in society and the groom a very popular gentleman. The wedding was a quiet affair, none but the immediate members of the families being present."

Now is the Time to Subscribe. A man who was too economical to subscribe for his home paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by his neighbor.

In his haste the boy ran over a $4.00 stand of bees, and in ten minutes looked like a warty summer squash.

His cries reached his father, who ran to his assistance, and falling to notice a barbed wire fence, ran into it, breaking it down and cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy, besides ruining a $5 pair of pants.

The family cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the corn field and killed herself eating green corn.

Hearing the racket, the wife ran out, upset a four gallon churn of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning the whole flock.

In her hurry she dropped a $25 set of false teeth.

The baby, left alone, crawled through the spilled cream and into the parlor, ruining a $20 carpet.

During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up eleven sitting hens, and the calves got out and chewed the hems of four fine skirts.

The Telephone as a Watchman.

Many an isolated community finds the telephone the chief safeguard of its property. Just as in cities the telephone system used by the police department keeps the patrolmen in constant touch with the station house, in the country where there is no regular patrol, the neighbors along a telephone line can watch each other's interests. In many places for example, the instruments are used to catch horse thieves. Whenever a robbery is reported the sheriff telephones the farmers on every road of the surrounding territory. After the description of the stolen animal has been given to the whole country it is very difficult for the thief to escape, for he must get away over some traveled thoroughfare and one of the farmers who has had telephone notification of his appearance is certain to apprehend him.

If there is an accident, or sudden illness comes, a word from a doctor may save a life which could not wait unaided for him to take a long drive. If fire threatens, the whole countryside is summoned in a few moments; tramps and thieves notoriously avoid places to which the telephone wires lead.

The Elk's Special.

The Elk's special train from Omaha arrived here this afternoon about half past two, and sidetracked for about one-half hour, and gave the Omaha boys an opportunity to visit a number of places of interest. There was about 150 aboard when they arrived, and was joined here by about 75 or 80 more. They are enroute for Nebraska City, where a lodge is to be instituted tonight. The Omaha Elks are a fine body of men, and we'll bet a coon-skin they will have their share of the fun in the initiatory exercises tonight.

WAS NOT FROM MEMPHIS

The Man Who Shot Conductor "Stubby" Walters Was There Only Two Days.

The Omaha Bee in speaking of the death of Carl Kramer, the man who shot Conductor Walters, says: "The body of Carl Kramer, who died at 10 p. m. Wednesday at the Omaha General hospital from injuries received by shooting himself in the mouth on Burlington train No. 4, Wednesday morning, near Gretna, was taken in charge by Undertaker Burket. Inquiries made at Memphis, Neb., where Kramer boarded a train for Omaha, have elicited the information that Kramer was not a resident of that place, had only been there two days and had no relatives in the vicinity."

Mayor Peters of Gretna arrived in Omaha, Thursday morning, and took the body to Gretna, where the shooting occurred but it has not been decided if an inquest will be held."

The brakeman who was with "Shorty" Walters at the time of the shooting passed through this city on No. 4, and again on No. 7 today. While in Lincoln last evening he saw the victim of the shooting affray and found him resting comparatively well considering the fact that he had been shot twice through the back and once through the right shoulder. The wounds are not as serious as was at first supposed, and Conductor Walters will doubtless recover with good treatment and care.

THE PRIDE OF PLATTSMOUTH

Miss Ethel Dovey Receives a Hearty Welcome in Her Home City.

IS GREETED BY A PACKED HOUSE

Sweet Little Fairy in "His Highness the Bey," Gratifies the Expectations of Her Legion of Friends.

The people of this city again had the pleasure of witnessing the excellent little entertainer, Miss Ethel Dovey, when she appeared last evening at the Parmele in the musical play, "His Highness, the Bey." That she still possesses the ability to please her home folks beyond their greatest expectations was fully demonstrated by the hearty reception that was manifested in continuous rounds of applause, from the first moment, when she appeared upon the stage, up to the final drop of the curtain.

In the role of Doris, daughter of Sir Arthur Burlingame, the military governor of Egypt, Miss Dovey far exceeded the other members of the company, and it was about this little lady, who justly deserves the sobriquet "The Pride of Plattsmouth," that the interest of the nine hundred people present was centered.

When she appeared for the first time in the musical number, "Waltz Me Around Again, Willie," she captured the hearts of the entire audience, who did not realize that the sweet little fairy before them was Miss Dovey, until she broke forth in a song that could not be equalled by any others. At the conclusion of this number encores were repeatedly called for by the enraptured audience. Miss Dovey was also highly applauded when she sang, "Can You Keep a Secret?" with sweet intonations, and in a winsome manner.

Although the play lasted until a late hour the audience was loath to see Miss Dovey appear in the final act, for her graceful movements and welcome little figure, had been watched with the greatest enjoyment throughout the evening. The management of this troupe are to be congratulated in securing such a favorite and superior little actress.

PRESENTED WITH A STATUE

Euterpean Glee Club Receives Handsome Gift From Jno. Crabill.

Playing a Golden Harp, Which Occupies a Conspicuous Place at the Methodist Church.

The young ladies of the Euterpean Glee club are indebted to John Crabill for a handsome gift in the form of a bronze figure of Euterpe, the goddess of music, from whom this popular club of our city derives its name. This beautiful statute, which stands eighteen inches high, and represents Euterpe playing a golden harpe, occupies a prominent place upon the organ at the Methodist Episcopal church.

The presentation of this appropriate memento recalls to mind that the Euterpean Glee club is the oldest organization of this kind now in existence. The club was organized over five years ago, and during this time has been the source of much enjoyment, and many good inspirations on account of its presence at the evening services at the Methodist church where it is one of the attractive features. The young ladies, of which the club numbers a great many, meet every Wednesday afternoon to practice, and also spend many social hours. The Glee club is a complete organization within itself, and at present has a neat sum in the treasury, and purposes several expenditures in the near future. For the permanent organization and advancement, much credit is due to Mrs. E. H. Wescott, who has devoted much time and attention to perfecting the Euterpean Glee club.

KILLED IN OMAHA SATURDAY

Willie Cobry, Born in Plattsburgh, Falls Against Curb and is Killed.

The following account of the killing of Willie Cobry appeared in the Sunday World-Herald:

"Willie Cobry, the elder son of Mrs. J. P. Cobry, 611 South Seventeenth street was killed by a slip and fall against a curbstone, Saturday morning, in front of his home.

"The lad was crossing the street when the police patrol wagon came dashing along in response to a fire alarm. Fearing that he would be run over, Willie ran to the side of the street. He slipped and fell and his head struck the curb. His right temple came in violent contact with the stone and he lay unconscious and soon expired.

"Willie Cobry was aged 11 and was a bright and lovable lad. He is survived by his widowed mother and a younger brother aged 9. He was a member of St. Peter's school and will be buried from St. Peter's church Monday morning at 9 o'clock."

Mrs. Cobry is a sister of Martin Houk, and removed from Plattsburgh to Omaha about eight years ago. The friends of Mrs. Cobry deeply sympathize with her in this hour of her bereavement in the loss of her darling boy.

Drozda-Sabotka Wedding.

At the Bohemian Catholic church two happy hearts were united as one, when Mr. Joseph Drozda, jr., and Miss Mary Sabotka, were joined in marriage by Father Hanck, at 10 o'clock this morning. The ceremony was witnessed by intimate friends and relatives, and afterwards they repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sabotka, where appropriate festivities were indulged in by the friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The young couple will be at home to their friends in this city in a short time.

A Surprise Party.

The members of the St. Paul's choir very pleasantly surprised the newly married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Wesch, jr., in their new home last evening. The time was spent in various games and the guessing of conundrums. The delicious lunch, which the uninvited guests had provided for, was enjoyed by all. At a late hour the jolly crowd dispersed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Wesch, who have been very faithful members of the choir, a very happy journey through life. We also hope that they will remain faithful members of the choir.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Wesch, jr.; Misses Minnie Heinrich, Julia Teipel, Mathilda Soennichen, Marie Longhorst, Kate and Lena Heinrich, Mathilda Ploeger, Pearl Mumm, Mrs. August Feln, Mr. J. Wurga and Mr. and Mrs. F. Longhorst.
