

Big Special SALE!

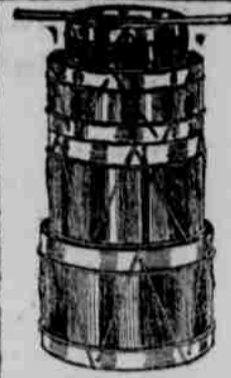

Everything Must Go At Mauzy's Old Stand

DOLLS - TOYS - ALBUMS - CHINA - SLEDS
DOLL CARTS - ENGINES - BOATS

And All Holiday Goods are to be Sold Regardless of Cost
I have Bought the Stock at Half-price and I am Selling it the Same Way.

H. E. WEIDMAN

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.
D. F. Kiser of Mynard was in town last evening on business.

Chas. Hennings was a business visitor in Omaha today.

John Schaffer was transacting business in Omaha today.

Edwin Jeary of Elmwood was in the county seat today on business.

Hugh Robb of Murray was in the county seat to attend the bazaar at Coates' hall last evening.

Miss Margery Walker, who has been visiting in the county seat, the guest of Miss Helen Dovey, returned to Murray this morning.

J. W. Sage went to Pacific Junction this morning to look after some stock that he is feeding near there. Fate Davis, the South Omaha stock buyer, accompanied Mr. Sage.

J. M. Hoover, J. R. Noyes and Chas. Noyes of Louisville, were transacting business in Plattsburgh today.

From Saturday's Daily.
J. H. Meisinger came in from Cedar Creek on business this morning.

A. H. Earhart and wife of Greenwood were visiting in Plattsburgh today.

H. E. Pankonin of Louisville was looking after business in the county seat today.

A. P. Chriswiser from the vicinity of Weeping Water was transacting business in the county seat last evening.

Chas. Long of Murdock is in town for a visit with the family of his uncle Silas Long. Both the uncle and nephew made a pleasant call on the Journal.

The elevator at Mynard under the supervision of W. F. Gillispie has been closed down for several days in order that the gasoline engine may be repaired.

Misses Smith and Johnson of Have-lock, and Pearl Kniss of Murray were visiting Plattsburgh today, the guests of their cousins Misses Katy and Ethel Smith.

Henry Heil and wife and Bert Van Horn from the vicinity of Cedar Creek were visiting in Plattsburgh today. While here Mr. Heil was a welcome caller at the Journal office.

From Monday's Daily.
D. J. Pittman of Murray was looking after business in the county seat today.

H. G. Wellensek, from the vicinity of Avoca, was in the city on business today.

H. C. Long, of Murray, was a county seat visitor today.

D. J. Pitman, of Murray, was here today on business.

Chas. Heebner, of Nebawka, was here on business today.

Mrs. Ora Davis and Mrs. Fleming of Murray were in the city today.

Mrs. McClain of Louisville was visiting in the county seat today.

C. R. Jordan, of Alvo, was transacting business in Plattsburgh today.

H. E. Pankonin, of Louisville, was in the county seat today to attend to some business in the district court.

John Koop and Wm. Osenkop of Louisville were in town today on business connected with district court.

A marriage license was issued today to Ray Core, age 21, and Miss Minnie Gobleman, age 18, both residents of Louisville.

Harry Graves, of the Murray Messenger, accompanied by his friend, Mr. Lewis, was visiting in the county seat last evening.

J. R. Grimes, manager of the Fred Gorder implement establishment in Louisville, was doing a little "court-ing" here today.

Miss Pearl Lowey came in from Murray this morning to take the afternoon train to Chillicothe, Mo., where she will spend several months with relatives.

The first hearing on claims against the estates of Harriet Kiser, deceased, Mary M. Farmer, deceased, and Louise Dorr, deceased, were had in county court today.

The members of the Cass county bar association will hold memorial services in honor of the late A. J. Graves, tomorrow in the district court room.

Henry Fornoff, of Louisville, and W. H. Meisinger, of Cullom, were in the county seat yesterday to spend the day with Frank Svoboda and attend the play at the Parmele in the evening.

Judge S. M. Chapman has been very sick at his home in Plattsburgh for several days, but the latest reports from his bedside are very favorable. He is steadily improving.—Nebraska City News.

Herman Beck and wife, of Eight Mile Grove, departed this morning from this station for Perry, Oklahoma, to visit with relatives and former Cass county friends during the holidays. May they have a pleasant visit is the wish of the Journal.

From Tuesday's Daily
Charley Reihart was in from Cullom today.

John Fight and wife went to Omaha this morning to spend the day.

T. Fleischman of Elmwood was in Plattsburgh today on business.

Fred Gorder was in the county seat from Weeping Water today on business.

Jacob Fleischman today petitioned the district court for his second naturalization papers.

J. H. Tarpenning and Julius Reinke of South Bend were transacting business in the county seat today.

Miss Anna Weidman, who has been visiting with relatives in Have-lock, returned home last evening.

Albert Buchler returned to Omaha yesterday afternoon after a brief visit with Plattsburgh friends.

Uncle Peter Kell was in town today to file his report with the county commissioners as road overseer.

D. K. Barr, of Greenwood, came down this morning to look after some legal matters in the district court.

L. J. Mayfield, of the Courier, was down from Louisville today, and let the light of his countenance beam in upon the Journal force.

Miss Jeanette White, who has been visiting in the city, the guest of Miss Margaret Mauzy, returned to her home in Omaha this afternoon.

Joseph Schlater who has been enjoying a visit with his brother Conrad and other relatives in this city departed this afternoon for his home in Pallsade, Neb.

James Stander was down from Louisville today on business in the district court and gave the Journal a call. No better men live in Cass county than Jim Stander, and we are always glad to see him.

In Justice Archer's court the case of Joseph Sveta vs. J. G. Meisinger was tried Saturday. The action is brought by the plaintiff to recover $150 for eight months' work done on the farm of the defendant. A decision will be handed down tomorrow.

From Wednesday's Daily.
Sheriff C. D. Quinton returned this morning from a business trip to Eagle.

M. L. Freidrich and wife of Eight Mile Grove were visiting in the county seat today.

H. E. Pankonin, who has been in the county seat several days on business connected with the district court returned to his home in Louisville, this afternoon.

Mrs. Frank Carruth and children, Fred, Glenn and Louise, who accompanied the remains of the husband and father to the last resting place in this city, returned this afternoon to their home in Denver.

Our young friend, G. R. Rhoden, one of Cass county's industrious young farmer's, living near Mynard, was a caller at this office today, and while here renewed for the Journal to January, 1908. Galen says he can't keep house without the Old Reliable.

W. A. Cleghorn was in from Louisville on business today.

Henry Donat, who is traveling for a wholesale liquor house, was in town today for a short visit with his family.

Jas. A. Hite, et al., vs. Theo. J. Hite, et al. Report of referee examined and approved, and property ordered sold.

Rev. W. F. Bradley went to Lincoln this morning.

Roy Boyd went to Lincoln this morning on business.

Peter Clark was a passenger to Omaha on the fast mail today.

Joe Wales was a business visitor in the metropolis this afternoon.

Mrs. Wm. Daugherty was visiting in the metropolis this afternoon.

August Gorder was a business visitor in the metropolis this afternoon.

Frank H. Dunbar went to the metropolis on business this morning.

B. C. Hyde and family were visiting in the metropolis this afternoon.

Henry Stull made a business trip to the metropolis on the morning train today.

R. B. Windham was looking after legal business in the metropolis this morning.

Edward Ernest from Elmwood was transacting important business at the court house today.

STARTS OUT IN NEW VENTURE

Geo. Tartsch Establishes Upholstering Rooms in Plattsburgh.

Geo. Tartsch, who for many years has been employed in the clothing business in Plattsburgh, has rented two rooms over the Dovey grocery store and will conduct an up-to-date upholstering and renovating business.

Mr. Tartsch has had considerable experience in this line of work, having been employed in that department of the B. & M. shops prior to his entering the clothing establishment of F. J. Morgan, and will be fully equipped with all necessary machinery and material for doing first class work in every particular. He will make a specialty of renovating mattresses, and a new machine for this line of work will be placed in operation this week. In addition to repair work in the upholstering line he will make all kinds of cushions—for chairs, windows, or in fact anything in this line that the people might desire.

Mr. Tartsch respectfully solicits the public patronage, and his telephone number is 375. Should you be unable to call at the rooms, ring 375, and he will call at your residence for any and all work. While he has many orders at present, an early placing of your work will be appreciated.

Miss Mae Patterson and Mrs. L. L. Atwood were among the passengers to Omaha this morning.

Mrs. D. Hawksworth and daughter, Mrs. E. A. Cook, were visiting in the metropolis this morning.

The condition of Judge S. M. Chapman remains about the same—the patient resting easy today.

District court adjourned today noon, sine die and Judge Paul Jessen departed for his home in Nebraska City.

Commissioner L. D. Switzer took No. 19 today for Omaha, from which place he will return to his home near Avoca.

Mrs. A. L. Zink departed this morning for Ottumwa, Iowa, where she will spend the holiday, visiting with relatives.

Emil Carison and Antone Hedin from the vicinity of Louisville were transacting important business at the court house today.

J. S. Pitman, from near Union, was looking after some business matters in Plattsburgh yesterday, and while here paid the Journal a short visit.

The proper papers were made out today in the county judge's office to Albert Leytle, age 22, and Miss Jessie Cooper, age 20, both residents of Alvo.

Among the minor matters at Washington, D. C., we note that the pension bill of James H. Thrasher for $30 per month has been favorably reported.

John Osenkop, one of the Journal's staunch friends of near Louisville, was in the city today on business, and of course called at our headquarters. While here Mr. Osenkop renewed his allegiance to the Old Reliable.

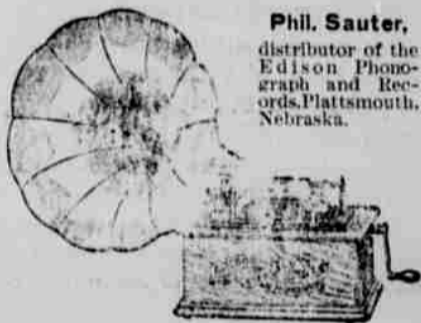

Our neighboring town of Murray was well represented in the county seat today, the following being among the people from that vicinity: Jas. K. Hatchet and wife, Jas. Loughridge and wife, Col. J. C. Seybolt and wife, Mrs. G. H. Gilmore, Mrs. J. A. Walker, Mrs. A. L. Baker, Nicholas Klaurens and J. C. Gruber, sr.

THE PALACE MARKET

Plattsburgh Phone No. 242 LORENZ BROS., Proprietors. Nebraska Phone No. 11.

....Groceries, Provisions and Meats....

- 1st Prize—EDISON Phonograph and 12 Records.....$30 00
- 2nd Prize—Century Camera and Outfit..... 15 00
- 3rd Prize—Imported Japanese Vase... 5 00
- Total amount...$50 00

Contest will open November 1st, 1906, and close May 1st, 1907. Coupons will be given with cash purchases only. Every $2.50 worth of coupons gets one draw number. Begin when the contest begins, perhaps you will be the lucky one. Cost you nothing to try.

Lorenz Bros., Plattsburgh, Nebraska.

Queen Quality Boots

$3.00 $3.50 $4.00

OUR present showing of "Queen Quality" Boots offers the discriminating woman the opportunity of buying footwear of unquestioned quality, in the smartest shapes, in a wide range of styles, for every kind of service, at a moderate price. To see the new "Queen Quality" fashions is to admire them; but to wear them is to grow enthusiastic. This store controls the exclusive agency.

E. G. Dovey & Son