

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

Perry Mars made a business trip to Omaha on No. 7 today.

Mrs. Henry Brown was visiting in the metropolis this afternoon.

Miss Garnett Lee of Greenwood was visiting in the county seat today.

Mrs. Geo. A. Kaffenberger was visiting in the metropolis this morning.

Geo. Rhoden of Murray was looking after business in the county seat today.

Tom Fulton, the blacksmith of Nehawka, was transacting business in the county seat today.

Philip Brisbin, from the vicinity of Murray, was transacting business in the metropolis today.

Ex-county Commissioner W. B. Banning, of Union, was in the city today looking after some business matters.

John Harver, wife and child, arrived today from Omaha, S. D., for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Harvey.

Mrs. Pat McCallen, who has been enjoying a short visit with friends in this city, returned to her home in Omaha this morning. Mrs. Spader accompanied her home for a short visit.

Mrs. Troop departed this afternoon for Denver, Col., where she will visit for a month with her niece, Mrs. Lulu Joy, and on the trip home she expects to visit with a sister at McCook.

Mr. and Mrs. Bay Core, who were united in marriage yesterday held an informal reception and dance last evening in Sayles' hall at Cedar Creek. A large crowd was in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cummins were very delightfully surprised last evening, by receiving a postal card written by their son Dean, who is in the St. Joseph hospital in Omaha. The little fellow writes that he is getting along nicely and that he expects to be home in three or four weeks.

Miss Belle Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Taylor residing several miles south of town, was taken quite sick yesterday afternoon while doing some shopping in the county seat. A few moments after leaving Dovey's store, she was suddenly stricken unconscious and fell to the walk. She was carried into the store and a physician summoned, who after several hours work restored the patient so that she could be taken home last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer McKay and family are enjoying a visit from their daughter, Mrs. W. E. Maxon, who has come direct to this city from the Panama canal region. Mrs. Maxon's home is in Pensacola, Fla., but for the past several months she has been employed in the schools in Lobo, Panama, near which place her husband has charge of the water system. Her visit to this city will be a source of much enjoyment to her folks and friends in this city, who are interested in the "Big Ditch" that the government has undertaken to construct across the Isthmus.

From Saturday's Daily.

J. W. Parker went to Omaha on the morning train today.

Joe Woster was visiting in the metropolis this afternoon.

Tom and Will Smith were Omaha passengers on No. 19 today.

J. D. Wampler and family were visiting in Omaha this morning.

Mrs. Joseph Phebus and son, Drury, were visiting in the metropolis this afternoon.

Henry Guthman came in last evening from Lincoln, to spend the holidays with home folks.

Antone Koubek and sons, Joe and Antone, Jr., were among the Omaha passengers this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Pirie of Alliance, Neb., are in the city to spend the holidays with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shopp.

Miss Helen Travis, who has been attending the state university, returned home last evening to spend the holidays with her parents.

William A. Robertson, who has been attending the state university, came in from Lincoln last evening to visit with home folks during the holidays.

Grover Ruffner returned home Thursday evening from Omaha, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. Although rather pale and weak, Grover is recovering nicely.

J. L. Smith and wife of Nehawka, accompanied by George Edison and wife of Fort Collins, Colo., who have been visiting in this county, took the fast mail today to Greenwood, where they will visit with relatives.

Fred Weldman, who was operated on at the St. Elizabeth's hospital in Lincoln about a week ago, returned home this morning. Fred is looking as healthy as ever, and his friends are delighted to see him at home again.

Mrs. Harry Barthold went to Greenwood this morning.

Mrs. Ed. Kates was a passenger to Omaha this morning.

Miss Gertrude Hartman went to Greenwood this morning.

Mrs. Wash Smith was a passenger to the metropolis this morning.

Mrs. C. S. Forbes was visiting in the metropolis this morning.

Mrs. J. A. Murray was visiting in the metropolis this morning.

Mrs. L. H. Petersen and daughters were visiting in Omaha today.

Mrs. Geo. Poisal was a passenger to the metropolis this morning.

Mrs. J. Heiner was a passenger to Pacific Junction this morning.

Miss Estelle Baird was a passenger to Omaha on the fast mail today.

Mrs. Geo. Craig was an Omaha passenger on the morning train today.

Mrs. Roy Dodge of Omaha is in the city to spend the holidays with relatives.

A. H. Earhart and son of Greenwood were visiting in the county seat today.

Fred Dawson came in from Lincoln last evening to spend the holidays with home folks.

Ole Roman and nephew Ed. departed this afternoon for Sioux City where they will visit until after the holidays.

S. L. Cotton and family left this morning for Blue Hill, Neb., where they will visit during the holidays with his folks.

Mrs. Harry Northcutt and daughter came in from Omaha this morning to spend Xmas with her mother, Mrs. R. P. Kennedy.

Mrs. J. E. Douglass and two daughters, Misses Vesta and Marie, and Miss Helen Clark, were visiting in the metropolis this morning.

Dr. A. P. Barnes and son, Leander, departed this afternoon for Burr, Neb., where they will spend several days with the former's brother, Dr. C. S. Barnes.

Mrs. H. B. Neitzel and children came in last evening from Murdock to spend the holidays with the parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Guthman.

Andy Campbell and wife departed this afternoon for Thayer, Neb., where they will enjoy a visit during the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. V. E. McFarland.

W. F. Gillispie was in from Mynard today and reports his elevator in order for business, after several days' suspension of business on account of a disabled engine.

Miss Lucille Bates returned from Lincoln last evening, where she has been attending the University Schools of Music. She will probably remain at home for the balance of the year.

A deal was closed yesterday through Col. J. H. Thrasher, whereby, P. C. Petersen becomes the owner of the Wm. Brantner residence property, situated on Lincoln avenue and Granite street.

Tom Moore, of the Journal force, departed this afternoon for Denison, Ia., where he will visit with friends. He will return to Silver City to spend Xmas with his parents.

P. G. Williamson was over from Greenwood today to prepare the equipment of the Work Ladies' Tailor school, which closes January 1, 1907, for shipment to Malvern, Ia., where they will open up a new school.

Mrs. John Schiappacasse, who has been taking treatment for rheumatism at the Mineral Springs Sanitarium, near Burlington Junction, Mo., returned home yesterday afternoon. She has been down there for several weeks and feels greatly improved.

V. E. Perry, a prominent young farmer of near Mynard, accompanied by his wife, was in the city today, and while here called and enrolled his name for the Journal. It is coming to that point that the Old Reliable is one of the essentials in housekeeping.

A quiet social gathering occurred yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. D. C. Morgan entertained the club composed of Mesdames F. A. Murphy, Sue Morressey, Frank Morgan, Jas. Donnelly, and E. W. Cook. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in various social ways, and after partaking of a nice luncheon the ladies took leave of their hostess.

Quite a number of the members of the W. R. C. and the G. A. R. surprised Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Carter last evening by unexpectedly assembling at their home to spend the evening with the Carter's before they leave on a several months' visit to Blair and other places. The evening was very much enjoyed by all, and a delicious luncheon served during the evening assisted materially in promoting the social time that prevailed. After wishing the host and hostess a pleasant time while gone, the gathering bade them good night.

Miss Loretta Scotten went to Omaha this afternoon.

Mrs. J. L. Root was visiting in Omaha this afternoon.

Miss Aurel Bragg, of Elmwood, was in town today.

W. L. Atchison, from Elmwood, was in the city today on business.

Harry Barthold was a business visitor in the metropolis this afternoon.

Jas. Skoumal and son were among the passengers to the metropolis this afternoon.

Mrs. J. H. Becker and Miss Harriet Fight were visiting in Omaha this afternoon.

Misses Alice and Gladys Sullivan were among the passengers to the metropolis this afternoon.

C. H. Gibson and R. W. Ellis, of Weeping Water, were business visitors in Plattsmouth today.

Misses Nellie Cockrell and Eva Canaday of Weeping Water were visiting in the county seat today.

Senator S. L. Thomas came in from Akron, Colo., last night to spend a few days with relatives in this vicinity.

Geo. Grebe and family departed this afternoon for Milford, Neb., where they will spend a few days with Fred Drucker.

J. M. Fitch, from the vicinity of Nehawka, and L. F. Fitch and wife of Rock Bluffs, were visiting in the county seat today.

W. M. Wiley from the vicinity of Murray was in town today on business and found time to make a pleasant call on the Journal.

John Knabe of Nehawka was transacting business in Plattsmouth today. While in the city he called and renewed for the Journal.

A. A. Hertzler departed this morning for Griswold, Ia., where he will spend a week with his mother.

J. H. Neitzel and family departed this morning for Preston, Neb., where they will spend Xmas with relatives.

Mrs. R. J. Ritchie and baby have gone to Omaha, where they will spend the holidays with her parents.

P. E. Ruffner, who has been working under Hugh Murphy, near Murdock, has returned home to spend the holidays.

Miss Minnie Will, who has been attending the university, came in last evening to spend the holidays with her folks near Mynard.

Wm. McCauley and wife departed this morning for Arapahoe, where they will spend the holidays with Sam Patterson and children.

From Monday's Daily.

Miss Claire Coleman was a passenger to the metropolis this afternoon.

G. H. Pulsand sister, Mata, of Maple Grove were visiting in Plattsmouth today.

J. M. Robinson, wife and daughter, went to Omaha this morning to spend the day.

Miss Florence Cory, who has been visiting in Lincoln, returned home yesterday.

Frank Micin came in from Denver last evening to spend the holidays with home folks.

Chas. Patterson of Arapahoe, came in last evening to visit with home folks during the holidays.

Mrs. J. G. Richey and son, Livingston, came in Saturday evening from Lincoln to spend the holidays.

Chas. Peacock departed this morning for Filley, Neb., where he will visit with his uncle, John Wright.

Geo. W. Lininger, president of the Masonic Home association, was in town from Omaha today on business.

Mrs. Lillian Caldwell came in this morning from Greenwood to spend Xmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kauble, sr.

Henry Kauble came in from Omaha last evening to visit home folks. Henry's many friends failed to recognize him on account of his facial decorations.

W. S. Barnhart and wife, who were in town to spend Sunday with the family of the former's sister, Mrs. J. C. York, departed this morning for home in Peru.

Geo. Oldham and Mrs. Dora Moore departed this morning for Fairfield, Iowa, where they will spend their holidays with the family of their niece, Mrs. Henry Snyder.

Henry Phillips of La Porte, Ind., accompanied by his bride of a few weeks, is visiting in the city, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Cummins. Mr. Phillips is a nephew to Mrs. Cummins.

Judge and Mrs. Samuel Lippincott and daughter Miss Sadie of Ashland, Herman Eylers and wife and Mrs. J. P. Clouse and two daughters Misses Alice and Lena of Memphis, Neb., will take Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miller in this city.

Mrs. C. T. Miller came in last evening from Akron, Colo., where she was visiting her father, Mr. Wesley Cherry. She was enroute to her home near Nehawka, and while here this morning called and ordered the Journal sent to her brother, Frank Cherry, at Akron, and also ordered a copy sent weekly to her address at Nehawka.

Ralph Godwin was visiting in Omaha last evening.

Henry Donat went to the metropolis this morning.

Chas. Reihart was a business visitor in Omaha this morning.

Ex-Senator S. L. Thomas went to Omaha on business this morning.

D. W. Foster of Union was transacting business in the county seat today.

Chas. Petersen is home from Havelock to spend the holidays with his parents.

Miss Myrta Kenner went to Council Bluffs yesterday afternoon to visit with her sister.

Chas. Neligh and wife of Wisner are in the city to spend the holidays with relatives.

R. W. Hyers departed this afternoon for Bassett, Neb., near which place he has a claim.

A. M. Franks departed this morning for Hamburg, Iowa, where he will visit until after Xmas.

Miss Lillian Cole, who has been attending the state university, is home to spend the holidays.

The Wahoo and Plattsmouth High schools are endeavoring to arrange for a joint debate in the new future.

E. H. Booth and wife took No. 19 to Lincoln today, where they will visit with relatives during the holidays.

Roy Pepperberg, who has been attending the state university, is at home to spend the holiday vacation.

Miss Vena Elliott arrived this morning from Havelock to spend Xmas with her friend, Miss Blanch Poisal.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Loucks departed this morning for Lorimer, Ia., where they will spend Christmas with friends.

Eugene Tighe came in from Lincoln last evening to spend Xmas with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schlater.

John Schlater came down from Louisville this morning to spend Christmas with his brother, Conrad, and family.

Mrs. Matt Dougherty went to Omaha this morning to look after a restaurant that she recently purchased in that city.

Wm. P. Ramsey, who has been taking the law course in the state university, has returned home to spend holiday vacation.

Mrs. C. C. Miles departed this morning for Spring Ranch, where she will spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Coombs.

Mrs. Grace Walker Johnson arrived this morning from St. Augustine, Florida, to be with her mother, Mrs. Perry Walker, who is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Wood and daughter, Miss Helen, of Florence, Colo., are visiting in the city, the guests of the family of J. C. Petersen.

Mrs. John McNurlin departed this morning for Stanton, where she will enjoy a several week's visit with relatives. John accompanied his wife as far as Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kates departed yesterday for McCook where they will spend Xmas with her parents. Mr. Campbell, who came in Saturday accompanied them home.

An immense throng of Christmas shoppers was in town Saturday, and it could easily be seen that the advertisers done the business. People invariably go where they are invited.

Frank Moore and Chas. Herren from the vicinity of Murray were business visitors in the county seat today. Mr. Moore orders the Journal sent to his brother Chas. in Fruita Colo. and informs us that they are enjoying a visit from Charlie's wife.

George H. Stoehr, of near Elmwood, was in the city today, and called and renewed for the Journal another year. Mr. Stoehr is a son-in-law of Ooon Valley, and he and his wife are over to spend Christmas with the "Old Folks at Home."

After working but a short time this morning, Miss Agnes Thrasher, who is employed in Weldman's store, was compelled to return home and go to bed on account of another attack of peritonitis. Her many friends regret to learn of this news, but hope that she will recover in a short time.

We care not how you suffered, nor what failed to cure you. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes the puniest, weakest specimen of man or womanhood strong and healthy. 35 cents. Gering & Co.

King of all Cough Medicines

Mr. E. G. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Conn., who has been in the U. S. Service for about sixteen years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for croup, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied upon every time. We also find it the best remedy for coughs and colds, giving certain results and leaving no bad after effects." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co. and George D'Ment.

Dade's Little Liver Pills thoroughly clean the system, good for lazy livers, makes clear complexions, bright eyes and happy thoughts. Sold by Gering C's & store.

From Wednesday's daily.

Mrs. P. F. Goose and children went to Omaha this afternoon.

Will Smith went to Lincoln this afternoon to spend a few days.

Chas. Valley of St. Joe was in town to spend Xmas with relatives.

T. H. Pollock made a business trip to the metropolis this afternoon.

J. E. Douglass made a business trip to the metropolis on No. 19 today.

Gus Rhode was visiting with relatives in Greenwood Christmas day.

Millard Klein was in town from Lincoln to spend Xmas with friends.

Miss Zelma Natt of Omaha spent Christmas at the home of Harry Kuhney.

Sam McCallan was down from Omaha to visit with friends Christmas night.

Carl Humphrey of South Omaha was in town to take Xmas dinner with his mother.

John Marquette and wife of Lincoln visited with relatives in this vicinity Christmas day.

Superintendent E. L. Rouse went to Lincoln this morning to attend the teacher's institute.

Dr. Chas. R. Kennedy was down from Omaha to spend Xmas with his mother and sisters.

R. B. Windham went to Omaha this morning to attend a meeting of the Herold creditors.

John Dutton, wife and son, Glenn, were in town to spend Xmas with her mother, Mrs. S. E. McElwain.

Chas. Rutherford and wife and Mrs. John Rutherford and Mrs. Baumeister spent Xmas with Mrs. W. E. Dull, near Murray.

Will Pirie and wife, who were in town to spend Xmas with her parents, departed this morning for their home in Alliance.

Miss Helen Brandeis, who has been visiting with the family of Julius Pepperberg, returned this morning to her home in Omaha.

Albert Dutton and wife were down from South Omaha to celebrate Xmas at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Osborn.

Mrs. Florence Rys and little son of Cripple Creek, Colo., are visiting in the city, the guests of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Martin.

O. A. Brown and wife of Kansas City were in town to partake of an Xmas dinner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos Tighe of Lincoln, sons, Eugene and Fred, were in town to spend Xmas with Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schlater and other relatives.

Mrs. Eva Reese and Chester Bayler and wife, and Mr. McMahon and family were in town yesterday to take Christmas dinner with Col. H. C. McMaken.

George Lloyd, who was in town to spend Xmas with his parents, returned to Lincoln this morning, where he is employed in a large wholesale house.

Mr. and Mrs. Duke Bulger came down from Omaha to spend Christmas with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Leonard.

Jay E. Worley, wife and baby, of Lincoln, spent Christmas with the parents of the latter, Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Leonard, and other friends.

County Superintendent and Mrs. J. W. Gamble and children were in Omaha to spend Xmas with Miss Vesta Eaton, who is in the Clarkson hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Snider, of Nebraska City, spent Christmas with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Sullivan, and other friends in Plattsmouth.

Johnny Fitzpatrick came down from South Omaha Monday evening to spend Christmas with home folks. Johnny always receives the glad hand in Plattsmouth.

H. H. Tartsch and wife came in from McCook yesterday to spend a few days with the old folks at home. The Journal regrets to learn that Henry has been suffering for some time from rheumatism.

C. M. Seybert and family and Otto Sprieck and wife accompanied Mrs. John McNurlin to Stanton Monday, where they will spend a week or ten days. Otto and his wife will visit with his parents, while the others will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sprieck, the latter the foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McNurlin.

Dave Hawksworth, Jr., who is with the Detroit Car Works in Detroit, Mich., Frank Hawksworth, who is an engineer for the Burlington in Lincoln and Fred Hawksworth who is a salesman for the Standard Oil company in Omaha, were in town to observe the Xmas festivities with their parents.

The home of Mrs. Kate Oliver was the scene of a merry gathering Christmas, when her daughters and their sons assembled to partake of the bounteous dinner that had been prepared by the mother. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hallam and son of Omaha; Chas. Eads and family of Omaha, and D. C. Morgan and family of this city.

O. P. Munroe spent Christmas day in Omaha.

Oliver Edmunds was a visitor in the state capital yesterday.

Judge H. D. Travis departed last evening for Broken Bow, Neb.

J. P. Falter departed last evening on a business trip to Blair, Neb.

Ralph Towle, of Kansas City, was in town to spend Xmas with friends.

A. P. Churchill came in from Central City, Neb., last evening on business.

Mrs. Alice Collins and three children spent Xmas with relatives near Mynard.

Luke Valley of Hutchinson, Kan., was in the city to spend Xmas with relatives.

Thos. Jeffries, of Lincoln, was shaking hands with his Plattsmouth friends Christmas.

Frank Herold came down from Lincoln Monday night to visit a few days with friends.

Casper Thygeson came in from Nebraska City last evening for a visit with friends.

Robt. Windham came in from Arapahoe Monday night to spend Christmas with home folks.

John Valley and wife of Denver, Colo., were in the city to spend Christmas with relatives.

Miss Alma Larson returned to Omaha this morning after spending Xmas with her folks.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. White and son, Valley, of Omaha, spent Christmas with Plattsmouth relatives.

Will Truelson and wife of Omaha spent Xmas with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Murray near Mynard.

S. L. Will, who has been visiting with his parents, near Mynard, returned this afternoon to Akron, Colo.

Mrs. Henry Herold and son, Robert, went to Wyoming, Illinois, Christmas day to spend a few days with Mr. Herold.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Everett came up from Union to spend Christmas day with Plattsmouth friends, returning home today.

Grant Owens, who went to Clarinda Saturday to spend Christmas with his mother, returned home last evening, and Mrs. Owens went to St. Joseph, Mo., where she will remain a few days to consult a specialist in regard to the nervous condition of their little daughter, Zella, who has thusly been troubled for some time. Mr. Owen's mother, who visited here about two years ago, suffered a stroke of paralysis some time since, and has since been almost helpless.

D. O. Dwyer was looking after legal business in Omaha today.

Miss Etta Kinhead was a passenger to Omaha on No. 19 today.

Sheriff C. D. Quinton went to Omaha on business this afternoon.

E. J. Richey was a business visitor to the metropolis this afternoon.

Miss Alice Downing is visiting in the city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Salsbury.

W. B. Mays, who has been visiting the family of John Jess, returned this afternoon to Columbus, Neb.

Miss Emma Tresham went