THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

Lee Sharp was transacting business in Omaha this morning.

Chas. Miller went to Percival, Ia. on business this morning.

J. P. Falter made a business trip to the metropolis this morning.

John Petty was a business visitor in the metropolis this afternoon.

Wilber Mellick went to Lincoln this morning to visit with relatives.

John Wherbein was a business visit or in the metropolis this morning.

business in Omaha this afternoon. Perry Utterback made a business world.

trip to the metropolis this afternoon. Mrs. C. A. Rawls returned this morning from a visit with relatives in Murray.

Mrs. Wm. Ballance and daughter, Miss Ethel, went to Omaha on No. 19

Mrs. Geo. Dovey was a passenger to the metropolis on the Missouri Pacific afternoon to spend a few days. this morning.

Fritz Fricke went to Omaha this af- this morning on legal business. ternoon to attend a meeting of the Phi Si Alumni.

Dr. T. P. Livingston made a professional trip to Omaha on the afternoon train today.

W. S. Soper, the photographer, went to Tabor this morning to look after day. his studio in that place.

Mrs. W. E. Rosencrans and children, who have teen visiting in Elmwood, ing. returned home this morning.

Park Chrisweisser of near Murray, was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Crisweisser, today.

Mrs. George Thomas and son, Carl, were among the passengers to the metropolis on the morning train today.

Miss Myrtle Drum, a trained nurse who has been looking after Miss Lena today. Hirz, returned this morning to Omaha. a visit with relatives in this city, departed this morning for Holdredge, Frank Benedict, who has been visiting with the family of C. A. Welsch, departed last evening for his home in Afton, la. Mrs. Lem Dunagan and two children of Silver City, Iowa, are visiting in the city with Mrs. Dunagan's brothers, Reno and Tom Moore.

Mrs. Jacob Mason and son, Clarence, went to Memphis, Nebr., yesterday, to spend a few days with the former's joy a visit with relatives. brother who is sick.

Mrs. W. H. Russell, who was in to attend the funeral of her nephew, George Patton, returned this morning to her home in Ashland.

Louis Born shipped a car load of fat cattle from Mynard to the South Omaha market yesterday. Among the number was one cow that weighed 1600 pounds.

The county clerk's office is a busy place today, "Rosey" and Clel being engaged in making out the quarterly pension papers for the old soldiers and their widows.

Wade Porter was here from Union today, and gave the Journal a call. He ordered his paper sent from Nehawka to Union, where he is now engaged in running the dray line.

Mrs. Chas. R. Moore, who has been enjoying a visit with her sisters, Mrs. Moore, near Murray, departed this the guests of Mrs. C. P. Richards. morning for her home in Fruita, Colo.

Mrs. J. W. Dutton and two sons, Glenn and Myron, who have been visiting in the city with her mother, Mrs. S. E. McElwain, departed this Louis Born, living near Cullom. cap- morning. tured a wild goose New Year's day that after being dressed, weighed 13 pounds. This was one of the largest wild geese we ever heard of. Louis in Carrol, Ia. says he enjoyed a good dinner the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woster are the happy possessors of a brand new baby boy. It came as a New Year's gift, being born on Tuesday, January 1 1907, and tips the beam at the 10 pound notch. May the little fellow thrive eral days, went to Omaha on the and prosper.

In the pool tournament that was held last night at the Elks' rooms, Everett Eaton and Robert Mauzy, the two winners of the contest, met to play the final match. After some exciting play, Robort Mauzy won the have been visiting with her parents, honors of the entire tournament.

At the home of V. V. Leonard a number of young ladies were pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon and daughter, Teresa, were among M. Chapman. by Miss Verna. The afternoon proved the passengers to the metropolis this delectable luncheon the participants day. of the affair took leave of their hostess

J. K. P. Carper of Union was in the city today, and while here called on the Journal. Mr. Carper has sold his brothers and other relatives and farm, and we regret to learn that he a few months. While yet undecided Wyo. where he will locate, he thinks of going westward.

by Sheriff Quinton, who found him seventy-seven years. near Cedar Creek, where he was wan-

From Saturday's Daily.

Father Hancik went to Crete this afternoon on business.

Miss Mary Propst was a passenger to Omaha this morning.

John McNurlin went to Cullom this

W. J. White was transacting business in the metropolis this morning.

Miss Verna Cole was a passenger to Omaha on the afternoon train today. Commissioner M. L. Friedrich made a business trip to Omaha on No. 19 to

Lee Sharp was a business passenger to the metropolis on No. 19 this morn-

Mrs. Pat Egan and daughter were visiting in the metropolis this after-of Murray were in town today on busi- possible to enumerate them now.

J. D. Bramblett of Union was lookterday.

Mrs. May Will and daughter of city today.

hawka was a business visitor in Plattsmouth today. L. H. Stroud, of Pacific Junction, passed through this city today enroute to his farm in Kansas. Gid Archer departed this afternoon for Elkhorn, Neb., where he will en-John Horn of Beaver City, Neb., came in this morning for a visit with relatives in this vicinity. Ex-Senator S. L. Thomas went to Omaha on No. 19 today. Malvern, Iowa, this morning to spend several days with friends. Oliver Harvey, who has been enjoying a visit with his parents, returned to Havelock this afternoon. Father W. F. Bradley returned this morning from Manley, where he visited with Father Hennessey.

the metropolis this afternoon. Mrs. J. H. Salsbury has been numbered among the sick during the past week, suffering with la grippe. E. A. Lorenz, who has been spending a few days with friends at Tobias, Neb., returned home last night. Mrs. Frank Marcy and son, Kenneth, Mira McDonald and Mrs. Frank of Ashland are visiting in the city,

> W. F. Chalfant, of near Rock Blufis, was in town today, and while here renewed for the Journal another year. Julius Pitz, who has been enjoying afternoon for their home in Lincoln. Manitowoc, Wis., returned home this city today, to attend the funeral of C. E. Hamilton, who has been visit-> departed this afternoon for his home The W. C. T. U. will meet Monday afternoon in the basement of the M. E. church. An interesting program > will be given. merning train today.

> visiting with friends in this city returned this afternoon to Lincoln.

Mrs. J. E. Worley and baby who to do so. this afternoon to her home in Lincoln were among those from over the attack of pneumonia, but at last accounty, she being employed near of the three men who slugged a far-visiting with his wife's parents Mr. S. M. Chapman.

and Mrs. B. M. Brooks, returned this morning to his home near Pacific braska legislature, is a cousin of the state university. Buffington's of this city.-Glenwood (Iowa) Opinion.

will spend some tlme in visiting.

Ed. McMaken and wife, who have been visiting with the former's father, contemplates leaving Cass county in morning for their home in Sheridan,

Jas. Rebal departed this morning for Iowa City, Ia., in response to a Ramond Sifert, a feeble minded pa- message stating that his mother, who tient of the Glenwood institution, was has been sick for the past month, taken back to Glenwood this morning passed away last evening at the age of

J. L. Rhoden of near Table Rock, dering about the premises of John Neb., whose wife died a week ago, is Davis. The young fellow eluded the in the city today and called on the Byron Clark was looking after legal authorities of the institution a few Journal. Mr. Rhoden will spend a days ago, and started out to see the few days visiting in Cass county with his brothers and their families.

> Mr. and Mrs. Salisbury, of Conrad, Montana, arrived in the city last evening for a brief visit with his brother, Rev. J. H. Salisbury, and family. He is of Missouri production, and of course a most pleasant gentleman.

L. C. Hayden of Omaha, representing the John Gund Brewing company, was in the city today, looking after Matthew Gering went to Omaha business in general, and arranging to remodel and enlarge their ice and coldstorage house near the Burlington railroad tracks.

The Journal pleased to see Uncle Peter Madsen upon our streets today. after several days of sickness during the past week. While the old gentlehe han been confined to his home for Oklahoma. several days.

Another effort will be made to establish a newspaper at Pacific Junction. The Junction has been a newspaper graveyard for years, and there has been so many efforts to establish a T. W. Fleming and W. E. Jenkins print shop there that it would be im-

Our friend, George Cook, of near Alvo, came in this morning for a brief ing after business in the county seat visit with his sister, Mrs. W. D. Wheeler and family and Charles E. Geo. Lloyd, of near Murray, was a Cook and family. He gave the Journal George Hall, who has been enjoying business visitor in Plattsmouth yes- a pleasant call, and while here renewed for the Journal.

> N. P. Hansen, of Kearney, came in Eight Mile Grove were visiting in the last night to pay his friend, Mayor Gering, a brief visit. Mr. Hansen is J. S. Rough from the vicinity of Ne- a druggist, and he and Mayor Gering have been closely associated in the state meetings of the pharmacutical association. While here he was a noon. caller at Journal headquarters and we found him to be a very pleasant gentleman.

From Monday's Daily.

Dave West of Nehawka was in town today on business.

Lee Sharp made a business trip to

A. T. Fried went to Red Oak, Ia., on business this morning.

A. Bach made a business trip to the metropolis this afternoon.

C. E. Metzgar of Cedar Creek spent Sunday with friends in this city. M. McFall of Eagle was looking after business in Plattsmouth today. Henry Hirz and Theo. Starkjohn C. D. Clapp of Elmwood was transwere among the business visitors in acting business in the county seat to-

T. F. Keckler from the vicinity of Manley was a business visitor in the city today.

Wm. Delles Dernier of Elmwood was braska. transacting legal business in Plattsmouth today.

parted this morning for York, Neb., residents of Greenwood. where they will visit friends.

Miss Mary Metzgar has returned to school, after two weeks of vacation county seat to spend a few days with today. spent with her folks in Cedar Creek. W. B. Banning and L. R. Upton of several weeks visit with relatives in Union were among the visitors in the Samuel Chapman. H. A. Guthman, who has been spending with his cousin, W. C. Hamilton, ing the holidays with home folks, returned to Lincoln yesterday to resume work in the university.

> and John C. Watson of Nebraska City | Joe Svoboda. were in town today to attend the funeral of Judge Chapman.

A. B. Smith, of Denver, who has | Chas. Brandt of Nehawka was in where he will work at the carpenter been in the city on business for sev- town today to attend a hearing on the trade on the new line which the Burlpetition for adminstration in the ington is building. estate of Fritz Brandt, deceased.

Mrs. Joe Klein and son, Millard, and Miss May Arrison, of Elmwood, who 'Congressman Pollard, wife and baby Mrs. Sam. Waugh, who have been desires the news from this section of arrived in Washington on Saturday Cass county, orders the Journal sent and have gone to housekeeping at the to her address, that she may be able Sherman apartments."

Mrs. Joseph Droge and son, Emil, county to attend the funeral of Samuel counts he was doing as well as could Murray.

and Claire Dovey, who have been spend- of Mt. Pleasant precinct. ing their holiday vacation with home | Hon. H. H. Hanks, who has held the Representative Noyes, representa- folks, returned this morning to Lin- position of cashier of the Farmers'

Frank Cook, son of George Cook of Otis Myers of Mount Union, Iowa, who owner and large cattle raiser. Alvo, departed yesterday for Chicago, have been visiting with Mr. Lauer's where he will visit for a month, and uncle, T. H. Steimker, departed this came up yesterday to attend the futhence to Ann Arbor, Mich., where he morning for Lincoln, where they will neral of Judge Chapman. and reenjoy a visit with relatives before re- mained over night, found time to call big reduction will be made on all the turning home.

number of the city council went to with our friend, E. P. Ruffner. This friends in this vicinity, departed this Glenwood last Saturday evening to in- was our first introduction to Mr. Kirkspect the electric light system of that patrick, and we feel fortunate in makthe council accepts the proposition of citizen, and a most clever gentleman, J. A. Bortenlenger.

Mrs. Matt Spader, who has been in brief visit. Sedalia, Mo., with her son, James Shields, returned home yesterday morning. Mrs. Spader, reports that Jim is recovering nicely from the unfortunate accident whereby he lost his right arm, but is not yet entirely out of danger.

Fred Mellinger of Clarinda, Iowa, accompanied by his sister-in-law, Mrs. W. L. Mellinger, arrived in the city last evening, the latter enroute to visit her mother, and the young man came this far with her, returning home this morning. Mr. Mellinger is an em- ing on pneumonia. ploye on the Journal at Clarinda, and gave this office a call while here.

F. M. Mozer of Minco, Oklahoma, gave the Journal a call this morning, and while here renewed the subscription of Henry Hoffman, who makes his home with him. Mr. Mozer is a former Cass county citizen, and has with relatives in this city, returned brother, John, is looking after the been here for several days visiting old this afternoon to Omaha. friends. He departed today for Madison county, Neb., where he lived for seven years, to visit friends a few days parted this morning for his home in there, so we are shipping the goods man has not been in serious condition and from there he will return to Percival, Ia.

From Tuesday's Daily

G. F. S. Burton went to Omaha this Granite streets. morning on business.

Wm. Hurst of Glenwood, Ia., was in town today on business. T. E. Parmele was a business visitor in Omaha this afternoon. Miss Olive Jones was a passenger t Omaha on train No. 7 today.

Wm. Holly was transacting business in the metropolis this morning.

Mrs. Anton Jirousek was a passenger to the metropolis this morning. Fred Lutz was a business passenger to the metropolis on the fast mail to-business in the metropolis this after-The county commissioners were house today.

Weeping Water was in Plattsmouth today on business. Dennis Doud, from the vicinity of Greenwood, was transacting business in the county seat today. Jas. B. Everett is in town today in the interests of the Clarinda Poultry company of Clarinda, Ia. F. R. Ballance was among the business passengers to the metropolis on the afternoon train today. H. M. Craig, manager of the Plattsmouth Glove company, went to Omaha on business this afternoon. The condition of Dr. W. H. Schildknecht remains about the same today as it has been for the past week. Uncle Nick Halmes returned last evening from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Nick Tighe, in Knox county, Ne-

A marriage license was issued today to Lewis R. Wiedeman, age 21, and Miss Mary and Mincola Propst de- Miss Emma G. Marvin, age 18, both

Mrs. J. E. Palmer of Nehawka and Mrs. Dunbar of Avoca are in the their brother, Sheriff C. D. Quinton. Mrs. Margaret McClanahan, who has been in a critical condition at her business. home in Atchison, has improved considerably in the past few days but is still the sick for several days, but not is very sick, and who, Mr. Thierolf very sick. Miss Julia Svoboda, who has been working in Racine, Wisconsin, for the past three years, is in the city for a Judge Paul Jessen, John Taggart visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

> Hans Tams departed last evening for the Big Horn basin in Wyoming, A special from Washington says:

B. I. Clements and John Hall of Andrew J. Pittman of Nehawka is possibly be expected. W. W. Hamilton, H. G. Todd, Col. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Barrett, who more were in town from Murray last on the above date. Owens stated that to be a very sociable one, and after a morning, where they will spend the J. B. Seybolt and Henry Creamer of spent the fall with friends at Cedar evening to attend "Sweet Clover" at he would return without requsition Murray, were in the county seat today | Creek, Neb., returned to their home | the Parmele. Sam Buckingham, who has been to attend the funeral of the late Judge in Havelock last week. - Havelock A deep cut will be made this week patched and brought his prisoner to-tive for Cass county in the new Ne- coln to resume their studies in the bank of Nebraska City for the past house, returned to her home in Misyear, has resigned and will give all of souri Vailey, Ia., this morning. Edward Lauer and wife, and their his time and attention to his own son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. business. Mr. Hanks is a wealthy land senger, passed through this city last

E. A. Kirkpatrick of Nehawka, who where he will visit with relatives. Mayor Henry R. Gering and a large minutes this morning in company store place, in order to get some idea as to ing his acquaintance. He is an old the service this city would receive if resident of Cass county, an excellent Union. and we feel highly honored by his

From Wednesday's daily.

A. A. Holmes of Union was in the Cook, Neb. city today on business.

Sam Barker and wife and Mrs. Will Attorney C. E. Tefft, who has been old's old stand. in the city on legal business, returned to his home at Weeping Water this beryard force dropped a heavy timber afternoon.

from severe colds, many cases border- the relief list a few days.

able to be out again.

Ed. Dalton, deputy sheriff of Mills county, Iowa, was in the city last evening on business.

Will Jessen who has been visiting J. L. Wyatt who has been visiting

A gentleman by the name of Lynch old stand. Coates Dry Goods Co. has become the owner of the Siggens

Mrs. Matson who was in the city to attend the funeral of Judge S. M. Chapman, returned to her home in Mediapolis, Iowa. Miss Lucille Bates received notice today from Lincoln that she had been Glee club of the state university.

Misses Mary and Susan Holdredge session as soon as his family arrives came in this morning from Omaha to here. visit with friends in this city, the guests of Mrs. R. F. Patterson.

Earl Fairfield, a former Platts-Perry Utterback was transacting is in town for a visit with friends.

The stockholders of th Plattsmouth State Bank at their second annual meeting re-elected the same officers holding a business session at the court | that have been at the head of the school of Peru, is arranging to make a County Assessor J. M. Teegarden of S. H. Atwood and John Albert to the number of teachers and instructors board of directors. Glenn Rawls of Murray was in the city today to visit home folks.

Frank Lillie of Murray was a business visitor in the county seat today newed for the Journal. E. J. Richey was a business passen- kill.

ger to Omaha on No. 7 today. Max Cohn of Nebraska City was visiting in Plattsmouth last evening.

Chas. Kraft returned this morning from a business trip to the metropolis. Chris Snell of Weeping Water was a business visitor in Plattsmouth today. Roy Boedeker was in town from the vicinity of Murray on business today. D. O. Dwyer was transacting legal business in the metropolis this morn-were passengers to Omaha on No. 19 000 to 15,000.

John McCarroll of Union was in Plattsmouth yesterday evening on Dan Rice has been numbered with Busch, the millionaire brewer, who dangerous. Miss Anna Tighe of Manley is visiting with friends in this city, the guest of Mrs. M. A. Dickson. Edison and Victor records exchanged by VanHorn & Parker, first door west of Hunger's restaurant.

A. F. Boedeker, from the vicinity of Nehawka, was transacting business in the county seat today from Iowa City, Ia., where he was home coming. summoned by the death of his mother.

coln on the morning train today to ac-Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Leonard, returned Elmwood were in town today, and confined to his home with a serious new addition to the teachers of Cass swer to the charge of having been one Messenger. Mrs. Barrett is a daugh- on all our winter wraps. Call and see Creston."

Misses Lillian Cole, Helen Travis ter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNorlin, what we have to offer you. Fanger's Department store.

Mrs. G. E. Fought, the wife of the new agent at the Burlington store

Harry Graves, of the Murray Mesevening, enroute to Glenwood, Ia.,

See Fanger this week if you are looking for a bargain in a winter wrap. A at the Journal headquarters a few popular Wooltex garments in our Moss McCarroll of Union was transaction important business at the court house today. He was accompanied by Edgar Fletcher, also of Morris O'Rourke, wife and daughter, Miss Margaret, who have been visiting with Plattsmouth people, returned this afternoon to their home in Mc-Plattsmouth people will get Dry Goods at prices never made before Barker were visiting in the metropolis when our shipment arrives from Wyoming. Coates Dry Goods Co. Her-

Hugh Riley of the Burlington lumon his foot this morning, bruising that Many of our citizens are suffering member so that he will have to be on Bear in mind that this is the "big W. T. Smith who has been suffering pay day" at Fanger's Department with lagrippe for the past ten days, is store if you are looking for a bargain in the popular Wooltex garments. for ladies, misses and children.

> Frank Svoboda, janitor of the court house, is on the sick list today, suffering with an attack of la grippe. His court house during his absence. Our stock of winter goods at Wywith the family of B. J. Reynolds, de- oming is far beyond the local demand here to close them out at Herold's Their will be the big payday at M. property on the corner of Sixth and Fanger's Department store. A big sacrafice will be made on all cloaks and jackets for ladies, misses and children.

These goods must be sold and we have some genuine bargains to offer you. W. G. Davidson arrived here from Ohio the first of the week, and is visiting his brother-in-law, F. E. Bricka selected as a member of the Girls' and family. He has bought the Nehawka barber shop and will take pos-

Mrs. Jacob Jileck, residing in the west part of the city, is reported to be in a critical condition today, suffermouth boy, who has been located in ing from lung trouble, with which she Scotts Bluff county for several years, has been afflicted for several months. The son, Sylvester, who has been working in Omaha, was summoned home this morning.

Supt. J. W. Crabtree, of the normal bank, and in addition thereto, elected tour of Europe, in company with a leave about July 1st, and return the first of September.-Nebraska City

Sheriff Quinton has been notified by the authorities of St. Louis, Mo., to P. B. Smith, from the vicinity of be on the lookout for Walter Creed, Murray, was transacting business in age 19, wanted for murder committed Plattsmouth today, and while here re- on December 24, Edward Carroll, age 20, and Edward Gleason, age 19, wanted for attempted robbery and assault to

Two licences to marry were issued in the county judge's office today to the following couples: Albert Moss W. A. Fitchorn made a business McCarroll, age 22, and Louise M. trip to Pacific Junction this morning. Strong, age 21, both of Union, and Chas. Snell, age 26, and Dosena N. Anderson, age 19, both of Weeping

The stockholders of the First National Bank of this city held their andual meeting at the office of the bank yesterday afternoon. The same officers who have looked after the business during the past year were reelected to their various positions. The Mrs. W. J. Hartwick and daughter surplus fund was increased form $10,-Philip Thierolf returned yesterday from St. Louis. Mo., where he has been several days on business. While in that city he called upon Adolph says, has changes for the better one day, and then perhaps another for the worst the next day. Drs. E. D. and F. L. Cummins went to Omaha this afternoon to accompany their little nephew Dean, home from the St. Joseph hospital, where he has been confined for about two months. on account of two operations for appendicitis. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cummins and of their James Rebal returned this morning son Dean are pleased to learn of his

A special from Creston, Iowa, says: 'After eluding pursuit since Decem-Miss Verna Leonard went to Linber, Brakeman Ed. Owens of this city The Journal regrets to learn that cept a position in the state legislature. has been arrested at Chadron, Neb., Miss Almeda Freda of Omaha is a and brought back to Creston to anmer named W. S. Smock of Crowell Ernest Carroll and Miss Jessie Gil- and his son on the streets of Creston-