HOLES BURNT IN YOUR POCKETS

Grow larger. Don't let your money burn holes in your pockets. Intrust your money to the safe keeping of a bank. This is the only safe way to save it. The one sure way to have money is to save it. A bank account is not for the rich only—it is suited to every one, especially to the man who saves his money. Bank account grow surprisingly fast. To make a start is the important part; after that it is easy. Do not live to save, but save to live. If you are not a depositor, we want you to become one at the Hugh Robt. is visiting home folks this week.

D. C. Rhoder was in Plattsmouth, Wednesday.

Dr. Jake Brendel made a professional trip to Lincoln Tuesday.

Thomas Nix and Henry Sans are new applicants for the rural mail route out of Murray.

Dr. Hayes Gaustner, the dentist, of Omaha, made his regular trip to Murray Wednesday.

John Churchill of Washington, has been in Murray a few days visiting his brother, M. G.

John Vallery, mayor of Eight Mile Grove, was transacting legal business in Murray Friday.

Mrs. W. C. Brown is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Hopkins, of Villisca, Ia., this week.

O. A. Davis, of the firm of Pitman & Davis, was transacting business at the county seat Saturday.

Albert Churchill, of Unadilla, was in Murray Tuesday visiting his brother, M. G. Churchill, and family.

We noticed D. M. Lyod in Murray Wednesday and he says he is feeling better than he has for years.

Mrs. D. L. Amick has been quite sick for the past few days, suffering with tonsillitis and rheumatism.

Our excellent friend, D. A. Young, orders a copy of the Journal sent to his son, D. C. Young, in Bovine, S. D.

W. C. Brown went to Lincoln Tuesday to attend the Lumbermen's convention, which is in session there this week.

Henry C. Smith, of Falls City, was in Murray Wednesday visiting his friend, Chas. S. Stone, and transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes returned Sunday from a week's visit with relatives and friends in Omaha. They report an enjoyable time.

Mrs. James Allison, who has been quite sick for the past few weeks, is rapidly gaining strength, and will soon be restored to her former health.

Mrs. Marie Berger, who is visiting relatives in Southern California, writes the folks at home that she is having a very pleasant time, and is well pleased with that country.

Dr. B. F. Brendel took Mrs. Lute Renard to Omaha Tuesday, where she was placed in the hospital to undergo an operation for a kidney complaint that has been troubling her for some time.

John Cook, the Cass county inventor, has just completed a very neat and handy device for oiling harness. It is a dandy and will do the work; if you do not think so, bring in your harness and give it a trial.

Mrs. W. C. Brown entertained a number of lady friends of Murray and vicinity Wednesday and Thursday of this week in honor of her mother, Mrs. Hopkins, of Villisca, Iowa, who is here visiting her daughter. It is not necessary for us to report a good time for that was an assured fact.

Did you know that John Durnan, the boss horse shoer, was kicked a few days ago while working in the blacksmith shop of James Loughridge. Nevertheless, it is a fact, and for several days he limped around with the injury received. But a short time ago when he experienced a slight runaway he lost his lameness in the hot chase after the runaway animal. The next day he returned to work and has not lost a day since.

Col. Seybolt was in Plattsmouth, Wednesday.

Miles Standish was in Plattsmouth, Wednesday.

C. S. Stone was in Plattsmouth Saturday evening.

D. L. Amick still has a very sore hand that he injured on the car door a few days ago.

Mrs. Oliver, who was called to Peru a few days ago owing to the illness of her daughter, returned home Wednesday evening, reporting the young lady greatly improved.

Col. Bert Reed, who has been here for the past few days visiting his uncle, Deacon Walker, and family, returned with his family to their home in Larnard, Kan., Sunday.

J. L. Young sold one of his fine teams of horses this week to an Omaha firm for the neat sum of $385. The team were daisies, and the price certainly demonstrates that horse flesh is still climbing skyward.

Dr. J. F. Brendel went to Lincoln with Mrs. J. T. Porter Monday, where she was placed in the Shoemaker hospital for treatment. Mrs. Porter has been quite sick for some time, and by hospital treatment the relatives hope to restore her to her former health.

Our jovial friend, H. L. Oldham, is on the lookout for the man, or men, who entered his cave a few days ago and carried away about twenty cans of fine peaches preserves and other fruits. This is certainly a mighty mean trick, and the guilty party should be punished.

Henry Long has sold two more of his cows this week, one to a man in Plattsmouth and the other in Nehawka. Henry says the advertisement in the Journal did the business, and today he is a firm believer in liberal use of the newspaper columns, if he has anything for sale.

The wedding of Miss Mabel Dearing and Mr. Thomas Green occurred in Omaha Tuesday of this week. Both young people are residents of Grand Island, and are quite well known in Murray, as the bride is a sister of Mrs. L. B. Underwood, and visited in our little city upon several occasions during the past two years. Mr. Green has visited in Murray and is quite well and favorably known here. The young folks will make their home in Grand Island, where Mr. Green has a cigar factory. Mrs. Underwood attended the ceremony. The Journal extends congratulations.

Successful Meetings Closed.

The revival meetings that have been carried on at the Christian church for the past few weeks, closed Wednesday evening. These meetings were indeed successful, as many new members were added to the church, and quite a number of old members returned. Wednesday afternoon eighteen were baptised at the church, which was performed by the minister in charge of the meeting in just thirteen minutes. Following is the names of those who were baptised: Mrs. Miles Standish, Ivory, Myrtle and Nora; Mrs. Jeff Brendel, Anna Belle Moore, Emma and Grace Graves, Miss Loretta Walker, Miss Boardman, A. Thomason, Miss Clara Young, Glenn Vallery, Steve Beckner, Alfred Dean and Charles Creamer.

Notice.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle same, at the earliest possible time, as I wish to leave for other quarters as soon as I can.

Fred Schomaker, sr., did their summering butchering this week. John Opp did the work.

Dill Davis entertained Weeping Water visitors Sunday.

The ice harvest has begun in this vicinity, and we hope for more cold weather.

Mrs. Miller had quite an accident. C. Heebner's dog frightened her horse and it threw her out about ten feet, and she was seriously injured. A physician was summoned, and we hope she will get along all right.

George Hansen butchered several hogs for their summer use. He believes in watching out in time.

Spend an Enjoyable Afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church held a very pleasant meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Becker. The afternoon was very much enjoyed sewing and at social conversation. At a welcome hour delicious refreshments were served, which added to the sociability of the meeting. About twenty-five ladies were in attendance.

It is noticeable a cold seldom comes on when the bowels are freely open. Neither can it stay if they are open. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup tastes as pleasant as maple sugar. Free from all opiates. Contains Honey and Tar. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Twenty per cent off on all Furs at Dovey's.

Harve Hardin.

A good time was enjoyed by all and when the time came for departure, all wished that they might enjoy many more such happy events.

Happy Birthday Surprise.

At the palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Cole, near Mynard, Monday evening was the scene of a happy gathering, the occasion being in honor of their son Carl's twenty-first birthday. The event was a complete surprise. Carl had secured some new records for their graphophone and he was very busy listening to them when about thirty of his friends came in upon him, and informed Carl that they had come to help him celebrate his birthday. He received many useful presents. The evening was spent in playing various games and having a general good time. Some excellent good music was furnished by the graphophone which was very much appreciated by all. At about 10:30 o'clock a delicious lap supper, which had been prepared by Mrs. Cole, was served by Mr. and Mrs. Cash Wiles and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cole to which all did ample justice. At a late hour all departed for their home, wishing Carl many more such happy events.

Among those to enjoy this happy occasion were the following: Misses Nellie and Edith Jean, Margaret and Rachel Livingston, Marie Tscherron, Leola Vallery, Pearl Lewis, Harriet Adams, Lizzie Spangler, Bertie and Opal Cole. Messers. Albert Wheeler, Ed. Spangler, Nelson Jean, Max Adams, Ralph Wiles, Roy Cole, Boyd Porter, Carl and Sherman Cole, Willie Propst, Mr. and Mrs. Cash Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cole, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Cole.

It Takes Two Keys

To open your steel safe deposit box in the Murray State Bank vaults: the banks key and yours; neither will unlock without the other; no danger of the wrong person getting into your box by any means. Somewhat better than the old tin box which could be opened with a can-opener. Come in and let us show you how they work, and how much better they are for you to keep your valuable papers in than in a tin box where it can very easily be destroyed by fire. Boxes for rent at $1.00 and $1.50 a year.

HEIL - HENNINGS NUPTIALS

Impressive Ceremony Performed by Rev. Jung Near Louisville, Attended by Large Number of Relatives.

At the home the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hennings, three and one half miles east of Louisville, Wednesday afternoon, January 23, 1907, occurred one of the prettiest weddings of the season, when their youngest daughter, Miss Maggie, was united in marriage to Mr. Edward Heil of Cedar Creek.

Promptly at 1 o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Philip Hennings, a brother of the bride, the bridal party entered the handsomely decorated parlor and took their places under a beautiful arch of mistletoe, brought from Oklahoma by N. F. Hennings, and the impressive words were spoken by Rev. Jung, of Louisville, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives.

The bride was gowned in light blue silk, trimmed in Oriental lace, while the groom appeared in the conventional black.

The bridesmaid, Miss Sophia Volk, of Pierce county, Nebraska, was gowned in cream serge, trimmed in lace.

Henry Heil, jr., a cousin to the groom, acted as best man.

Immediately after the congratulations, the guests adjourned to the dining room, where tables fairly groaned under the weight of one of the most delicious dinners that has ever been partaken of in this part of the country.

The bride is one of the most beautiful and accomplished young ladies in this part of the county, where she was reared to womanhood, and has a large circle of friends who will regret to lose her from their midst, but in so doing wish her much joy and happiness in her wedded life.

The groom, a capable and industrious young man and is one of our most prosperous young farmers, who has grown to manhood in this vicinity, and has a host of friends who wish him well.

A large number of useful and valuable presents were received, also about $50 in cash.

The guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Hennings and son, Elmer, of Caddo county, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schafer and family, of Loup county, Nebraska; Louie Brau, Caddo county, Oklahoma; Misses Maggie and Mary Volk, Renfrow, Okla.; Jacob Volk, Pekin, Ill.; John and Miss Sophia Volk, Pierce county, Nebraska.

The Journal tenders Mr. and Mrs. Heil best wishes for a happy and prosperous wedded life.
