

THE CITY.

PLATTSMOUTH AND VICINITY.

From Friday's Daily.

Mary Fisher of Weeping Water was visiting in the county seat today.

Jno. A. Davis of Murray was among the visitors in Plattsburgh today.

Wm. Gobleman from the vicinity of Murray was a business visitor in Plattsburgh today.

C. J. Meisinger of Cedar Creek was here today, and of course, in keeping with the well-established reputation of that family, renewed his subscription to the Journal for another year.

Val Gobelman, of near Murray, was a Plattsburgh visitor today, and called to renew his faith in the Old Reliable another year. He says that he wouldn't do without the Journal at any price.

Mrs. Ingraham Pease, who has been enjoying a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Loucks, departed this afternoon for her home in Estherville Ia. Her father accompanied her as far as Omaha.

J. W. Amick, who has been serving on the jury at the present term of the district court, returned to his home near Weeping Water today the jury having been dismissed. Before departing Mr. Amick called and made himself solid for another year's reading of the Old Reliable.

H. K. Stafford, of Northamptonshire, England, is in the city for a few days visit, the guest of Matthew Gering. Mr. Stafford is a typical Englishman, and has made many friends during the short time in which he has been in our city. After visiting here until Monday he will depart for Goldfield, Nevada, where will spend a few days, going from there to California and thence homeward.

From Saturday's Daily.

Solid gold and filled watches at Crabb's jewelry store.

Mrs. A. L. Baker of Murray was visiting in the county seat today.

Geo. Everett of Union, was transacting business in Plattsburgh today.

B. B. Dannisher from the vicinity of Murray was in town today on business.

W. H. Heil, of the Pleasant View Stock Farm, was in the city today on business.

Miss Bessie DellesDernier of Elmwood was in Plattsburgh today to take the teachers examination given by Superintendent Gamble.

Will Atchison, from near Elmwood, was in the city today to attend the teacher's examination which Supt. J. W. Gamble was conducting today.

Mrs. D. R. Churchill is expected to arrive this evening from Burwell, Neb., to be with her mother, Mrs. A. M. Holmes of Murray, who is very sick.

Mrs. George Ballance returned this morning from Havelock, where she has been enjoying a visit with her son Ed and daughter, Mrs. Mollie Wagner.

Peter Meisinger, of near Cedar Creek, was in the city today for the first time in several weeks, and while here called and renewed for the Old Reliable another year.

Fred J. Meisinger and father were in from near Cedar Creek today, and while here they called at the Journal headquarters to renew the subscription of the former for another year.

J. M. Craig, who has been in the city on business a few days, went to Omaha this morning, where he will visit until Monday. When he will return to his home near Burwell, Neb.

J. W. Johnson went to Council Bluffs, Iowa, this morning to attend the funeral of his old friend, Joseph Cox, who immigrated west with Mr. Johnson fifty years ago. The one settled in Mills county, Ia., while the other settled in Cass county, Neb.

Harry Kruger and family, who have been residing on a farm west of this city, have decided to move to Plattsburgh—the corner house of the Clark row, on South Sixth street, being purchased by him yesterday for a consideration of $700. Mr. Kruger expects to enter the employment of the Burlington in their shops in this city.

Mrs. James Allison, of near Murray, was in the city today attending to some business matters, and paid the Journal a brief visit. While here Mrs. Allison renewed for the Journal. She also renewed the subscription of her daughters, Mrs. Hassenyager and Mrs. Clineberg, at Tecumseh, and Miss Eva, who is a teacher in the High School at Guthrie, Oklahoma.

From Monday's Daily.

D. A. Young of Murray was visiting in the city yesterday.

A. A. Holmes, of Union, was a visitor in the county seat Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gamble were visiting with relatives in Omaha Sunday.

D. A. Young and wife, of near Murray, were Sunday visitors in Plattsburgh.

Mrs. Robert Brissy went to Union yesterday, where she will visit with relatives for a few days.

County Assessor J. M. Teegarden of Weeping Water is in the county seat preparing for the annual assessment.

A marriage license was issued today to John W. Lewis, aged 20, and Mary J. Barker, aged 21, both of Union.

Christie Metzger, of Cedar Creek, spent Sunday with Plattsburgh friends, returning home this morning.

Herman Thomas and Miss Hazel Cox, of Mynard, attended "Hoity Toity" at the Parmele Saturday evening.

George Oehlerking of Elmwood was in the city today to attend the hearing on the petition for final settlement in the estate of Henry Oehlerking, deceased.

Jacob Kreager, a prominent young farmer of the vicinity of Mynard, was in the city today, and called and renewed his faith in the Old Reliable another year.

L. C. Todd and wife, of near Nehawka, were in the city Saturday, and desiring a paper that is up-to-date in county news, called before leaving for home and enrolled his name for the Old Reliable.

Ernest Wells packed his household effects Saturday to remove to Emerson, Iowa, where he is engaged in the newspaper business. His family will follow in a few days, where they will make their future home.

Senator S. L. Thomas departed Sunday morning for Akron, Colo. He did not forget to leave a dollar for the Old Reliable, which he banks on giving him the home news while in the west.

The following Union people attended "Hoity Toity" at the Parmele: Misses Donabelle Townsley and Vernie Graves; Messrs. Emery Bauer, A. A. Holmes, H. M. Townsley and C. W. McKean.

H. F. Neuman and wife were down from Omaha to spend Sunday with their parents. Desiring to keep posted on home affairs, Mr. Neuman called this morning and ordered the Old Reliable sent to his home in the metropolis.

J. W. Peters, from out near Cedar Creek, who recently moved back to Cass county from Loup county, was looking after some business matters in Plattsburgh today. Mr. Peters is now living on the John McNurlin farm near Cedar Creek. Mr. Peters and father recently traded their Loup county land for the J. V. DeLashmutt farm over in Mills county, Iowa, which can truthfully be said is one of the finest on the Missouri river bottom. While here he enrolled his name for the Journal.

From Tuesday's Daily

Earl Jenkins of Murray was a visitor in Plattsburgh today.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hill were Plattsburgh visitors today.

J. R. Dysart of Union was a business visitor in the county seat today.

Louie Fredrich and wife, of Eight Mile Grove, were in the city today.

B. F. Moore of Nehawka was transacting business in the county seat today.

Ed Slocum and Cecil Amick of Murray were visitors in Plattsburgh today.

Mr. Lee Kniss and Miss Pearl Kniss, of Murray, visited with Miss Ettie Smith Monday.

H. J. Meisinger, from the west of the city, was registered at the Perkins house today.

O. D. Zaar of South Bend was in the county seat today, looking after some business matters.

Henry Engelkemeir, of Murray, was a county seat visitor today and left a big silver dollar for another year's reading to the Old Reliable.

Philip Hill, of Mt. Pleasant precinct, was transacting business in the city today, and while here renewed his faith in the Old Reliable another year.

Commissioners Marshall and Switzer came in from Weeping Water this morning to attend the regular business session of the county board today.

Sheriff Quinton went to Union this morning to serve some papers. From there he will go to Lincoln, where he will attend a masonic banquet this evening.

Burlington crop reports show that the winter wheat prospects in Nebraska are good, and assurances of a full crop are reported from almost every section of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Sage departed this morning on a trip to Oklahoma and Indian Territory. While gone they will visit near Minco, where Mr. Sage recently purchased some land.

Miss Ethel Robinson, until recently a stenographer for the store keeper, and who was succeeded by Miss Helen Chapman, expects to depart on the 10:18 train tonight for Portland, Ore. where she will join her brother, Vivian, who is employed in the railroad offices in that city. Miss Robinson will be accompanied as far as Lincoln by her father, J. F. Robinson.

From Wednesday's daily

Mrs. Geo. Wood came in from Louisville this morning for a short visit with friends.

G. N. LaRue of Union was in the county seat today to look after some legal matters.

Geo. Frater of Louisville was in the city today attending the convention of Cass county retailers.

W. B. Banning of Union was in the city today to take in the convention of the county merchants.

Misses Nora Standish and Florence Reed of Murray were in the city today and called on the Journal.

W. A. Frans of Union was in town today to attend the convention of retail merchants of Cass county.

Mrs. J. R. Hunter, one of Plattsburgh's most estimable ladies, called today to renew for the Journal.

Wm. Deier and wife of Louisville were visiting in the city today, the guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Salisbury.

Fred Ossenkop, of Louisville, came down yesterday for a few days visit, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schlater.

Mrs. Anna Miller, who has been enjoying a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Oliver, returned this morning to her home near Fort Crook.

J. F. Robinson returned this morning from Lincoln to which place he accompanied his daughter, Ethel, who is enroute to Portland, Oregon.

George J. Meisinger of Mynard, one of Cass county's hustling young farmers, was in the city today, and called and renewed for the Evening Journal.

Theo. Buck, who has resided several miles west of this city for a number of years, has sold out and departed this afternoon for Shoshone, Wyo., where he will locate.

Mrs. Fred Bumgart, living west of the city, and Mrs. Gilmour, residing on Wintersteen Hill, will return home today from Omaha, where they have been in a hospital for treatment for the past few weeks.

Thomas Mapes, an old Plattsburgh mouth boy who is now practicing law in Butler, Montana, came in last evening for a visit with friends, the guest of his mother and sister, Margaret.

Dr. E. D. Cummins made a professional trip to the metropolis on the morning train today. He was accompanied by his nephew, Dean, who is getting along fine on the operations he underwent for appendicitis.

David Miller of Deadwood, South Dakota, came in this morning to look after some business matters and incidentally, greet his friends. Mr. Miller is a former resident of Plattsburgh, being an employe at the shops. He is yet connected with the Burlington at Deadwood.

Mrs. T. E. Parmele was visiting in Omaha this afternoon.

Mont Robb was among the Murray visitors to the county seat today.

J. F. Polk went to Lincoln this morning where he will visit for several days.

Antone Triletty was looking after some business matters in Omaha this afternoon.

J. P. Thacker, wife and two daughters of near Union, were Plattsburgh visitors today.

H. E. Weidman made a business trip to the metropolis on the afternoon train today.

J. W. Kelsie departed this morning for Walthill, Neb., where he expects to spend several months.

Ask Your Own Doctor

If he tells you to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for your severe cough or bronchial trouble, then take it. If he has anything better, then take that. We have great confidence in this medicine. So will you, when you once know it.

The best kind of a testimonial—
"Sold for over sixty years."

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

Keep the bowels open with one of Ayer's Pills at bedtime, just one.

IMPORTANT!

IT IS IMPORTANT that you should know about those Embroidered Corset Covers made in all sizes and of the daintiest patterns. They really are something that every woman should see. They retail at $1.00, $1.15, $1.25, $1.35 and... $1.50

IMPORTANT!

W. W. Jessup and Hy Redding, of Pacific Junction, were in Plattsburgh today looking after some business matters. Tom Mapes of Butte, Mont., who is in the city for a visit with old friends, went to Omaha this morning to spend the day. Mrs. Herman Herold and daughter, Miss Freda, departed this morning for St. Joe, Mo., where they will visit with relatives. Mrs. E. W. Cook and T. P. Livingston went to Omaha this afternoon to attend a meeting of the Missouri Valley Medical Society. Mrs. W. E. Rosencrans was a passenger to Omaha on the morning train today, where she will spend the day visiting with friends. Burlington train No. 4, due here at 9:49 a. m., was over two hours late this morning, on account of the engine breaking down near Greenwood. Claud Everett came up from his farm near Union last evening, and returned this morning with some material for his new home on the farm. John Schwartz, who recently moved from near this city to the Shepardson farm near Mynard, was in the city today on business, and called to renew for another year's reading. Miss Hattie Bartholomew, who has been visiting in this city, returned to her home in Watson, Mo. She was accompanied home by Jas. Privett's three children, who will make their home with her. Miss Annie Wichman of Brainard, Minnesota, arrived in Plattsburgh today for a visit with her uncle and aunt, John Wichman and wife. Miss Wichman lived in Plattsburgh with her parents a few years ago. John Lohnes, our old German friend from Louisville, was down on business today. He says the Plattsburgh bound passengers were compelled to lay at LaPlatte about two hours on account of the Omaha train being behind. In Justice Archer's court settlement in the case of McMaken & Son vs John Schiappacasse, wherein the plaintiff was given a judgment of one cent, was made today, a check for the amount being given the judge by Mr. Schiappacasse. M. Allen of Union county, Iowa, and a brother-in-law of C. A. Welch, arrived in the city yesterday to make arrangements for the removal of his family to this city for a permanent home. Mr. Allen desires to purchase a four or five room cottage, and has the cash to pay for it, if necessary.

EXCEPTIONAL EMBROIDERY OFFERINGS!

The unprecedented demand for Embroideries of the better grade would have quickly exhausted our supply, bringing serious disappointment to many of our customers, if we had not been fortunate in securing an unusually large consignment through one of the largest New York importers.

These embroideries are of the choicest product of the leading St. Gall, Switzerland, makers—skilled artists and artisans, whose designs and deft handiwork have made them famous. The designs for this season are even more exclusive and beautiful than ever before, and in accordance with their custom, they have given us the exclusive sale of them in this city.

We are therefore able to offer our customers their choice from the most attractive designs that will appear this season.

Of course those who select early will have the best opportunity to indulge personal taste and fancy—for although our line is large and representative, we are sure that the demand will soon greatly reduce the variety.

Shadow and Elegant Embroideries

just arrived in many different styles and patterns. [the latest craze] We have them in a lot of patterns.

- Corset Cover Patterns,
  - Dressing Sacques Patterns,
  - Shirtwaists Patterns,
  - Collar Patterns.
- These Patterns are Stamped on a Sheer Cotton Material.

E. G. DOVEY & SON.

Watches carefully repaired at Crabb's.

Fresh lettuce, onions, radishes and fruit at Lorenz Bros.

A new line of ladies' back combs just received at Crabb's.

Eyes tested and glasses fitted at Crabb's. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Spring millinery opening at M. Fanger's, Saturday, March 23. Remember the date.

Beautiful line of Wooltex spring coats, and skirts are now on display at Fanger's department store.

Attend the grand opening of millinery goods at M. Fanger's Department store next Saturday, and you will witness the finest display of goods ever brought to Plattsburgh.

In Justice Archer's court a complaint was filed today by the county attorney on behalf of the State against Angel Kalos, charging the defendant, a Greek employed in the section gang of the Missouri Pacific, with carrying concealed weapons. It is reported that an altercation occurred last evening between an American and the Greek, and that the latter drew a pistol, but was prevented from doing any injury by companions.

Call at this office and get a sample copy of the Kansas City Weekly Star. And then if you like it, get it for one year and the Daily Journal for three months for one dollar.

Bee's Laxative Cough Syrup containing Honey and Tar is especially appropriate for children, no opiates or poisons of any character, conforms to the conditions of the National Pure Food and Drug Law, June 30, 1906. For Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. It expels Coughs and Colds by gently moving the bowels. Guaranteed. Sold by Gering & Co's drug store.

How to Remain Young. To continue young in health and strength, do as Mrs. N. F. Rowan, McDonough, Ga. did. She says: "Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured me of chronic liver and stomach trouble, complicated with such an unhealthy condition of the blood that my skin turned red as flannel. I am now practically 20 years younger than before I took Electric Bitters. I can now do all my work with ease and assist in my husband's store." Guaranteed at F. G. Fricke & Co's Drug Store. Price 50c

Make your arrangements to attend the basket ball contest Friday night between the Nebraska City Athletics and the Turners of this city.

ARTISTIC AND BECOMING MILLINERY

Those who visited our Millinery Opening Friday and Saturday were delighted at the large showing of Spring Styles which are on display. While we are showing some of the finest and most exquisite hats, we wish to impress you with the fact that the prices are within the reach of all. If you were not a visitor at the Opening come in before you purchase and see our pretty display. You will enjoy your visit.

FLORENCE ANDERSON